In Loving Memory

March 19, 1930 - January 4, 1995

Do they celebrate birthdays in Heaven? I really hope they do, because today is your 65th birthday. HAPPY BIRTHDAY DADDY! HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU. We'll cook something on the grill just like we always have, but it won't be the same without you. We'd have a really big party if you could be with us. Your friends and your loved ones would be there to show their love in their own special way. Mama would be there holding you close by her side. She'd tell of the life and the love you-two shared for 45 years; and with a tear in her eye and her heart, how her life has changed since you were called to Heaven's beautiful gardens. We would all be there with lots of hugs and kisses and pats on the back. Johnny and Tony and I and our husband and wives would talk about our children, whose lives you touched in such a positive and loving way. All the kids would talk about how much they miss their GRANDDADDY and their Uncle John. Your brothers and sisters would talk about how much they so dearly miss their brother and his sweet smile. And then I would snuggle up under your arm, just like I have since I was a child; we'd talk, we'd laugh, and maybe eat some of Mama's roasted peanuts or share a big red apple. Then we'd hold on real tight and we'd just cry for a while.

So DADDY, I hope there are birthdays in Heaven 'cause you always enjoy them so much. Happy birthday Daddy and thanks for giving me so many precious memories. You were such a wise, caring, loving and gentle man. You will live in our hearts forever. I am so proud to be your daughter.

"DADDY, I LOVE YOU A BUSHEL AND A PECK AND A HUG AROUND THE NECK."

LOVE, "Your Judy Gwen"

(P.S. The wheat you and little Sandy sowed, by hand, is growing green and beautiful, just like you knew it would. We know that the Lord is happy to have you helping him with His beautiful gardens in HEAVEN. We'll all meet again one day in those beautiful gardens. Until then, give all our loved ones a big hug for us.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY DADDY. WE LOVE YOU.)

In Loving Memory

March 19, 1930 - January 4, 1995

One year ago today, God looked around his gardens, and found an empty place. He then looked down upon this earth and he saw your caring but tired face. A golden heart stopped beating, a precious smile was seen one last time, and hard working hands were relaxed as God put his arms around you and lifted you up to rest. With tears in our eyes and sadness in our hearts we watched you slowly fade away. God's gardens must be beautiful because he always takes the best.

He knew you were suffering, and he knew you were in pain. He knew you would never get well on this earth again. He saw the road was getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb; so he closed your loving but weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be Thine". Yes, God broke our hearts when he called you home to his beautiful gardens. But you didn't go alone; for part of us went with you on that day.

Your sweet smile, your unconditional love for everyone, and your caring for family and friends will live in all our hearts forever.

We love you and miss you more and more each day.

With all our love,
Your loving wife Adele
and family

In 1771, Ryal Medlin, Henry Tyler Medlin, William (Owen) Medlin (Sr.), and Shadrach Medlin were listed as taxpayers in Bell's District in Bute County.

On February 13, 1771 in Bute County Court, a deed from William Owen Medlin (Sr.) to James Alford was proved to and witnessed by Jacob Hartsfield. In that same court, Henry Medlin was ordered to help James Perry keep the road from Cedar Creek to St. Johns Chapel.

In 1771, William Owen Medlin (Jr.) was listed as a taxpayer in Surry County, North Carolina and again there in 1775 and 1777.

Jethro Sumner organized the Bute County Committee of Safety of which Osborne Jeffreys was a member. On April 4, 1776, the Provincial Congress met in Halifax, North Carolina and the Halifax Resolves were drawn up, eventually leading to the Declaration of Independence.

Richardson, Curtis marry in Zebulon

Angela Renee Curtis of Zebulon and Clifton Paul Richardson of Zebulon were united in marriage Sunday, Oct. 2, at Corinth Baptist Church in Zebulon. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. C.W. Driver.

The bride is the daughter of Mary Frances Curtis and Churchill Curtis, both of Zebulon. Parents of the bridegroom are Paulette Richardson Baker and James Kearney Baker, both of Zebulon.

The bride's grandparents are the late Esker and Blonnie Corbett of Zebulon and the late P.G. and Lucy Curtis of Zebulon. The bridegroom's grandparents are Wesley and Ruby Baker, and Paul Richardson and the late Maebelle Richardson.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza and chantilly lace. The gown featured a sweetheart neckline, and long organza sleeves that had a slight puff at each shoulder and were enhanced with motifs of beaded chantilly lace. The fitted basque bodice was decorated with chantilly and venise lace with pearls and iridescent sequins. From the waist flowed a full organza skirt and attached semicathedral-length train. A panel of tiered ruffles outlined in beaded chantilly lace adorned the front skirt and was repeated on the train.

The bride chose a white illusion veil attached to a white tiara of alencon and schiffli embroidered lace with pearls and iridescents. Small pearl arches looped across the top and the double-layered, pencil-edged veil fell to fingertip length with scattered pearl clusters. She carried a cascading bouquet of white silk lilies, miniature carnations with sprigs of pearls, and greenery.

She was attended by Bonnie Hicks Glover of Middlesex, cousin of the bride, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Judy Ann Corbett and Tammy Rose Corbett, both of Zebulon.

The matron of honor wore a formal, satin, fuschia-colored gown. The dress featured an open scoop neckline with short puffed sleeves, accented with bows. The satin bodice was fitted, with bows on the back and a peplum at the waist. The straight satin skirt fell to floor length with a back split. The bridesmaids were attired in dresses identical to the matron of honor's.

Abby Doris Glover of Middlesex was the flower girl.

The bridegroom wore a French gray tuxedo with tails, matching trousers and a white wing-tip shirt, with matching gray bow tie and cummerbund.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Ushers were James Wilson Carroll Jr. and Kenneth Lee Driver, both of Zebulon.

The altar was flanked by two 20-taper candelabra, with greenery and deep pink gladiolus. In the center was a 15-taper arched candelabrum with greenery and deep pink gladiolus.

Wedding music was presented by soloists Wanda Renfrow Garner and Dennis Cleveland Pritt, and organist Linda Green Perry.

Eugene Alfred Glover Jr. of Middlesex served as program attendant; Ann Curtis Creech of Zebulon, aunt of the bride, attended the guest register; Mary Creech directed the wedding; and Amanda Gail Gore and Abby Doris Glover were rice maids.

The bride is a graduate of Smithfield-Selma Senior High School. She is a data entry operator at the N.C. Department of Motor Vehicles in Raleigh. Her husband is a graduate of Johnston County Schools and is employed by Standard Insulation Co. in Raleigh.

After a wedding trip to the North Carolina mountains, the couple will make their home in Zebulon.

Reception

A wedding reception, given by the bride's mother, was held immediately following the ceremony at the Zebulon Rotary-Woman's Club building.

The table was decorated with white satin and lace tablecloths with white bows accenting the table edges. The wedding cake was decorated in white and pink with three tiers in the center and descending staircases leading to two additional cake layers on each side, with a lighted crystal fountain under the center layers. A bridal couple figurine under a lace altar adorned the top.

Guests were served refreshments consisting of punch, open-face sandwiches, vegetable and dip tray, ham biscuits, cheese straws, mints, watermelon fruit arrangement, powdered fig bars, pickles, and nuts.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's aunt, Rhonda Baker Gore of Wilmington, and held in the fellowship hall of Corinth Baptist Church. The meal consisted of fried chicken, barbecue, slaw, boiled potatoes, Brunswick stew, corn sticks and tea.

The bride-elect presented her attendants with a pearl necklace and matching earrings to be worn in the wedding. The bridegroom-elect presented engraved crystal mugs to his attendants. Other gifts were also presented at this time.
