Also on Otter Creek, in Ky. That's in Theodosia's family Bible, her writing. All I have figured it's close to the Tennessee border.

Looking back at records, William Harvey Gooding was born in Palmerville, Ky near Mt. Pisgah I believe Otter Creek may be Order creek instead. I'm not well organized on my paper work yet. But again the family tells this story:

When the family was traveling by wagon train, they reached Otter Creek in Ky, and camped over night. The ladies were getting the fire ready & men folks were out hunting. They put the baby (Henry Alvin) in a basket under the wagon, in the shade. The men came in & meal was cooked, they ate. The mucker went to get baby & it was gone. The men folks started looking around and found lion or cougar tracks & where baby was dragged. They located the big cat on a ledge above creek, & it was playing with the baby. There was a chance that if they shot it might hit the baby, but took a chance, cause the cat would kill it anyway. So the father took aim across wagon wheel & shot. He killed the cat & got back a scratched & bruised boy but otherwise unharmed. The baby wasn't but a few days old. My Grand mother Theodosia, told this to us many times. Said her daddy's nick name was (Otter)
