password protected sites where I have tons of Upchurch information posted. In case you had trouble getting the password it is "2013upchurch#". Do have a look at some of the videos and let me have your comments and questions.

You are new to my email address list but I may have you in my files as I have several by the name of Shelby Upchurch. Perhaps you could give me some clues.

It will be very helpful if we can establish which of the 22 Upchurch Clans is yours as it will be easier for us to communicate and for you to locate information of special interest to you. Could you give me the names a couple of individuals who link you to earlier Upchurch generations. I will then search my records and give you a report.

I am curious as to why you have an interest in the North Carolina Upchurches and what you need to know. I am rather well informed on that group.

You asked about the Upchurch Bulletin. All of the copies are posted on my website and are searchable which should give you what you need unless you want hard copies.

I will continue to maintain my website. However, all of my work will now be done under the banner of a new organization Upchurch and Allied Families Association, Inc. ---www.alliedfamilies.com. It would be very encouraging to me if you would join as a 2014 member for which the cost is $20. Let me know if you need more information.

When we figure out how you fit into the Upchurch family tree we should be able to then how we can help each other. I really appreciate your interest in our shared Upchurch heritage.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Hi Shelby---

I am intrigued by your response. Shortly I will be preparing the 2014 Upchurch Bulletin and your message tempts me to include something about Upchurch Pottery. I went to the site you mentioned and learned a little about it.

But could you tell me a little more about how you fit into the picture. Do you own a pottery store and if so what is its name? On the site I saw a long list of what appears to be about 70 what I assume are individual items of Upchurch pottery from England. Are all of these items you have for sale.

I am aware of the story about Upchurch pottery for Upchurch in Kent England as told in the book Upchurch Family by Belle West. She refers to Upchurch pottery made in two eras. I have been to Upchurch in Kent England in 1964.

Do I assume that you are the Shelby Huster Upchurch born in 1944 in Jamestown, TN. I have been there and given an Upchurch talk. My good friend Carol, daughter of William Robert Upchurch helped me. We are working on a narrative to enroll the George Upchurch Family to which you belong under the procedures of Allied Families.

I do not know a lot about pottery but have visited the potteries in Seagrove, N. C. and have a really lovely small vase from there that I treasure.

I look forward to hearing from you and to whatever input you are willing to make.

Hi Shelby---

I want to acknowledge and thank you for the $20 you sent in by PayPal for your 2014 membership in UAFA. This will entitle you to E-Newsletters to keep you updated on progress in our organization and to a copy of the Upchurch Bulletin for 2014 now in preparation. As a part of getting ready to enroll the George Upchurch Family to which you belong we are detailing several cemeteries. Right now I am working on the Upchurch cemetery at Pall Mall, Ky which is the basis of a huge amount of Upchurch history.

I'll look forward to any questions you have about your Upchurch heritage and for any other inputs you care to make.

Hello Phil Upchurch,

I was glad to hear from you, I apologize for my delayed response. I enjoy viewing the videos you have on You Tube and am grateful that you have chosen to research the Upchurch genealogy. I purchased the book "The Upchurch Story" in 1978 when Olive Morgan contacted my family; she was collecting information for that publication. I have my family roots in Jamestown, Tennessee, but have lived in Muncie, Indiana for many years. I have read several publications about the Upchurch name and subsequently discovered the history of the town of Upchurch, in Kent, England. This initiated my interest in the making of the Upchurch pottery. I have used the internet and searched UK.com and discovered "Upchurch Pottery" and the "town of Upchurch" which provided internet sites where I have purchased a variety of pieces of pottery. A recent family reunion held in York Mill Park, Jamestown, Tennessee, I brought several pieces of pottery to introduce the family to some of this history and offered the sale of some pieces as a contribution to support the Upchurch Chapel and cemetery.

My son, Shelby Robert Upchurch and daughter, Elizabeth Ann (Upchurch) Stamper, along with her daughter Caitlin Elizabeth Stamper took a trip to the town of Upchurch this past summer and enjoyed visiting with some local residents that opened the Upchurch Chapel and helped them tour the ruins of the pottery factory. Sadly, they could not locate any residents that had the last name of Upchurch!

I have not read the book by Belle West on the Upchurch family and look forward to the opportunity. I have attached some pictures of some pieces I have collected, however this is just for my personal enjoyment and do not deal in pottery.

Sincerely,

Shelby H. Upchurch

Son of Shelly Eurster Upchurch (also recorded at times as Sheb E. or Shelby R. Upchurch and Mandy Jewel (Buck) (Upchurch) Phillips.

Hi Shelby---

Thanks for your input of November 1 which I have now fully processed. Somehow it seems that the emails for you and Rhodene are being used so I will send this response to both.

I have assigned Caitlin XID-61617 and that entry will appear in the UB to be issued next fall. The photos of the Upchurch pottery you sent are beautiful. The history of this pottery helps us tell part of our Upchurch heritage in England in an unusual way. Thanks for adding to the narrative.

We have finished Vol 35 of the UB and it has been sent to our webmaster to place it online at www.upchurchstory.com. You should soon be able to view it and o print a copy if you desire. I included a brief item about the pottery.

We have also made a great deal of progress on our Allied Families program. See www.alliedfamilies.com for the latest and especially on your family enrolled under George Upchurch.

In the issues of the UB over the years I have included references to your GF William Robert U. I met two of his daughters --your aunts. Thelma came to see me in Tuscon, AZ years ago. Frona Carol U was a very close cooperater until her untimely death. She guided my tour of Fentress County, TN. That reminds me to mention that I have posted the Biofile of Sgt Alvin York on www.allied families.com. Have a look.

It is nice to have you as a cooperater and will look forward to our future exchanges.

Hi Shelby---

Vol 35 of the UB (2014) to which you are entitled has recently been posted on www.upchurchstory.com. There you can read /download it. I you need me to send it to you as and attachment to an email or need a hard copy let me know. There are three password protected places on the site. you normally get the password by entering your email address when prompted to do so. It should be furnished and I am automatically notified of the visit. Keep the password so that yo do not have to request it each time. In case it does not come to you it is 2013upchurch#.

A password is also needed for www.alliedfamilies.com and is likewise obtained by entering your email address. However, in case it does not come it is 2014allied#.

I have found searching the sites to be a little tricky but by playing with the system you can do a pretty good job. Let me know if you have questions.

Hi Shelby---

As a 2014 member of Upchurch And Allied Families Association, Inc you are entitled to a copy of the 2014 UB which is provided herewith as an attachment. I will welcome any comments you have. As you will note each issue is a labor of love for family history.

Some people have trouble getting the passwords for our two websites so I will now give them to you. For www.upchurchstory.com it is 2013upchurch#. There you will find all of the UB issues posted in a search-able format and the 35 videos of which we are very proud. Searching takes a little practice and skill. For www.alliedfamilies.com it is 2014allied#. There be sure to have a look at the families enrolled so far and the Resources posted, especially the Biofile section.

I will welcome your ongoing support of our family history effort. Do let me know of your special interests, comments and questions.

All Best Wishes~

Hi Shelby--

Your participation as a member of Allied Families in 2014 allowed us to make great progress in it's first full year of operation. Our website www.alliedfamilies.com (password 2014allied#) demonstrates several key features we plan to expand in 2015. I hope you will continue your support this year. A membership renewal form is attached--or use PayPal.

Note that you can direct your financial support in various ways. If you have time and talents to offer, that would be a valuable contribution as well. Just drop me an email. Suggestions will be welcomed

We seem to be kindred spirits when it comes to our pride in family. Allied Families is a bold move and the prospects continue to look bright. I hope the magic of Allied Families will allow us to find many more descendants for the George Upchurch family to which you belong and that 2015 will be the year of great accomplishment. Building the long-term support fund for this enrolled family is a priority for 2015.

Best---Always.

Hi Shelby--

Thanks very much for your renewal for your membership in Allied Families for 2015 via PayPal. I am encouraged by your continued interest. I hope you will take full advantage of our two websites. Let me know if you have trouble with the passwords. We continue to make progress on posting details on the George Upchurch family to which you belong. Note how the George U. Family has been enrolled. We have the beginnings of a family tree for him and need to fill this in. We need a Family Tree Master.

If you have time/money/advice/expertise you would like to offer to push the enrollment of the George U. Family along this would be most helpful. Anyone who contributes as much as $50 towards the enrollment will be listed as a Cosponsor of the Family.

We have had another family to visit Upchurch in England recently. My email exchanges with them made me think of the visits your family has made there and of your interest in Upchurch pottery.

Best Wishes~

I do have a Facebook account and a couple of times a day they prompt me to have a look. I usually do and spend just a few minutes having a look. But I don't do much with Facebook partially or mainly because I have so much Upchurch data I need to process. Someday I hope to learn more about Facebook, Pintrest, and other social media.

Anyway, I entered your name and did see a rather large number of photos you have posted including the one on Upchurch Pottery. You have a lot of interesting postings about family. I invited you to be a friend or vice verse whatever that means.

Always good to hear from you.

Pottery Studio

Although Upchurch Pottery had several owners during its life, the most important name associated with it is that of Edward Baker. The pottery was founded in 1909 in Upchurch, between Rainham and Sittingbourne in Kent, by the Wakely brothers. They were local businessmen with various irons in the fire, who wanted to add the manufacture of bricks, tiles and drainpipes to their other interests.

One of the the brothers was a friend of Reginald Wells and this might have been the reason why, in 1913, they hired Edward Baker, who had worked with Wells in Chelsea, to start producing art pottery.

Baker quickly established the pottery, and within two years was exhibiting at major trade fairs. He experimented with glazes on shapes he designed himself, and Upchurch pottery soon became widely known and appreciated. Queen Mary was a patron.

Edward Spencer, who is mainly known for his design work with Martin Brothers, collaborated with Baker in formulating recipes for glazes.

In 1936 the pottery was bought by Oscar and Grace Davies, who retained the services of Baker as manager. Two years later they re-sold the pottery to Alice Buxton Winnecott, and still Edward Baker stayed in charge. Miss Winnecott introduced the Claverdon range of tableware and decorative items. The Davieses opened the Roedinga Pottery at Rainham. Edward's son, Edward Baker Junior managed it for them, and eventually became the owner.

Edward Baker bought Upchurch Pottery from Mrs Winnecott in 1953, and his eldest son, William helped him run it until his death in 1955. William carried on there until 1963, when the pottery was closed, and Edward Junior kept Roedinga Pottery operating until he retired in 1975.

Hi Ina---

I write to clarify some confusion that has arisen about Shelby's membership in Allied Families. He was a member in good standing in 2015. Then recently I got a payment from you via PayPal (on March 16, 2016) for a 2016 membership. I did not immediately connect you and this payment with Shelby. Then an email from you came about this matter but unfortunately it disappeared from my computer before I could study it(maybe I hit delete by mistake?). In any case I now grasp that the $20 sent on March 16 was to pay for the 2016 Allied Families membership for Shelby. While I now have that straight I will ask whether you are also interested in family history and would like to be an Allied Families member. Just want to keep my records straight.

We are now getting ready to send out an update via an E-Newsletter about progress in Allied Families and it should be in you in box within a couple of weeks.

I am sorry about the confusion on my part and will try not to let it happen again.

ALLIED FAMILIES Programs and plans 2013-2017.docx

Hi Shelby----

Now is a good time for an update on Allied Families. I hope you will renew your membership for 2017 using the attached form or PayPal.

Also attached is a summary of what we have accomplished and our hopes for 2017.

For more details on our route to digital see the Upchurch Bulletin for 2016 recently posted on www.upchurchstory.com--password 2013upchurch#. Also, note progress on your enrolled family at www.alliedfamilies.com password 2014allied#.

I will be in North Carolina March 29-April 2, 2017 working in the Allied Families Cary Facility starting some new projects. Would love to see you there. Let me know if you need details.

Our progress has been substantial but we need participation whether as a casual follower or as a dedicated worker and donor. I hope you will give us encouragement by renewing today and being as generous as your circumstances allow.

Sending all Best Wishes~

Phil Upchurch

Hi Shelby and Ina---

Thanks for your $20 check for your 2017 membership in Allied Families for 2017. Your continued support is greatly appreciated. I hope you will follow the progress we are making on our website in enrolling the George Upchurch Family to which you belong. We are constantly adding to the details to support this enrolled family. I notice your interest in pottery under the name of Upchurch in England continues.

Do let me know if you have time/skills you would like to volunteer to move the process along faster.

Sending all Best Wishes~

Phil Upchurch

Hi Shelby

Back on July 31, 2017 you visited our Upchurch Story website and filled out the response form. You indicated a willingness to help with our website. I am tardy in responding to your generous offer because it arrived just as I was planning two out-of-state trips. Naturally, I was behind in my duties when I returned. Attached is a report on my trip to our Cary Facility in NC.

It so happen that we are just now entering on a big project to enter into the computer my manually kept Master Outlines for all of the Upchurch clans including the one for the George Upchurch family to which you belong. If you would like to take on a section of the family to enter into the computer, we would be thrilled to send you the instructions and a scanned copy of my original work.

Thank you for your continued interest and support of our work on our shared Upchurch heritage.
