Thanks for your notes re Margaret Yates. I'm pretty sure you are right to fit her to William Yates and wife Mary (probably Tapp). But she is slightly vague there. After Jill and I visited the mill site in 1999, Rebecca Cope of the Wake County Parks Department sent me some pages about her Yates ancestors. Margaret is indeed listed as the 12th child of this couple. However, it is curious that in the will of William Yates (1806/1808) he names every child as a "son" or "daughter"—except Margaret, to whom he leaves "one featherbed and furniture and one cow and one calf." Then he gives something to a "grand son" by name.

The 1850 census for Wake Co. puts the widow Margaret Upchurch next door to Abel U, and gives her age as 70, making her birth date about 1780. But in her obituary of 1857, in The Biblical Recorder, it is said she died "in the 74th year of her age," thus a birth date of about 1783. If her birth date was 1783, Mary Tapp Yates would have been 51 years old. Even at 1780, she would have been 48.

Therefore, I cannot help but wonder if our Margaret, the mom of 9 sons(!), may have possibly been the child of an unmarried daughter of William and Mary Yates, who reared her as their own daughter. Since I do not wish to put this pure speculation into printed copy, but neither want to assign her to inaccurate parents, I am rather gliding over it in my own "story." Others have written her into this line (via DAR applications), and I figure the DAR proof is legitimate either way: William Yates (1727-1808) was either her father or her grandfather.

Since he was a Revolutionary War Patriot, I would actually like to write him into my history, but—because I'm not sure about the exact lineage—I just decided to leave it to someone else to sort out. It is entirely possible that The Biblical Recorder printed a typo, AND that leaving out "daughter" as a description to the Margaret Yates (spelled Yeats then) in William's will was also a scribe's accidental omission. But maybe eventually some third "something" will be found to settle the issue.

Phares (Rebecca spells him "Pharis") should be a distant cousin anyway! And all that Upchurch graffiti on the mill walls suggests that the children had the run of the place!

Peggy

NOTE: (William of Wake speculated by some that wife was Mary Tapp daughter of William Tapp. This is not true. The identity of Mary Yates has never been established)

I have not personally verified the following:

"William Yates was a Revolutionary soldier, a Private in the Revolutionary War. He served from 9 May 1781 to 1 August 1781 according to information documented in the Revolutionary Army Accounts, Volume II, Page 47, Folio 4. His service was in the North Carolina Continental Line. His service number was number 60. He was assigned to the 6th Regiment commanded by Col. Gideon Lamb. His company commander's last name was McRees this document can be found in the North Carolina State Archives. Also the record of his will that was probated during the February Term, of the Superior Court of Wake County, 1808 identifies William as a Revolutionary War soldier. This document is in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Wake County, NC, in Record Book No. 7, page 313. Also the book Roster of Soldiers from North Carolina in the American Revolution, published by the Gen. Publishing Co. of Baltimore in 1984 verifies this information on pages 85, 91, 193, 194, 225, 232, 357, and 709"

NOTE: It is unknown what relationship Margaret Yeats had to William Yeats Sr. She is a beneficiary under his will, but unlike the 12 children of William Yeats her connection is NOT specifically stated. This leads me to conclude that Margaret was a relative, but possibly not his child or grandchild. The DAC lists the children of Burtis and Margaret Yates Upchurch as Abel, Bartlett, William Clinton, Brinkley, John, Alfred, Jubal and Jackson. I don't believe that list is complete.

Listed in the 1840 Wake Co NC census page 7 in White Oak township with what appears to be 4 sons and 1 daughter in the home. Margaret and Burtis are between 50 & 60 at this time. Listed as age 70 born in NC in the 1850 Wake Co NC census on page 209b 'next door' to son Gilbert Upchurch and wife Margaret Byrd Upchurch. Margaret has Jackson (24) and Jubil (22) Upchurch in her home. Also next door are Abel (42) and Nancy (32) Upchurch with daughter Adeline (6), another possible son.

Her Obituary:

Biblical Recorder: 29 Oct 1857

In Wake County, N. C., on Sunday, 18th of October, 1857, Mrs. MARGARET UPCHURCH, consort of the late Burris Upchurch, in the 74th year of her age. The deceased had been a member of the Baptist church for 35 years, and was connected at the time of her death with New Salem church in this, Wake county. She leaves five children, besides numerous relatives and friends to mourn their loss; but the poignancy of their grief is somewhat relieved by the consoling reflection, that it was better for her to depart and be with Christ, and that their loss is her eternal gain. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; yea, from henceforth saith the Spirit, they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

NOTE: As of 20 JAN 2009 I was able to locate Census Records for the Ashwell McGee and Henry Jones Families in Western Wake Co, NC in 1850 but they were not listed next door to Margaret (Yates) U. In the 1840 Census Henry Jones was found but Ashwell McGee was found in Swift Creek TWP. Since Ashwell was worth $5045 in property in 1850 it is possible he owned a tract next to Burtis U. but did not live on it.

WILLIAM YEATES (YATES)

William Yeates (The name was changed to Yates in later generations) was born 1727 and according to several DAR membership applications his birth took place in Virginia, although I have found no substantiating evidence of this. He died testate in Wake County in 1808. He married, perhaps in N.C., 1748 Mary — who was born 1732 in N.C. She may have been Mary Tapp as William Tapp of Culpeper Co., Va. names daughter Mary Yates (wife of William) in his will.

William served in the Revolutionary War as a private in McRee's Company from N.C.

On 5 June 1784 William Yeates purchased 490 acres in Wake County for 100 pounds

(proclamation money) from Absalom Harwood. This land was on the "Indian Branch waters of New Hope." This same date he purchased in Chatham County 600 acres for 100 pounds from Absalom Harwood. This must have been the same tract, extending through both counties.

In 1792 a deed in Chatham County regarding land sold by "William Yeats Sener of Wake County" to "William Yeats Juner of Chatham County" shows that William, Jr. paid 50 pounds for 280 acres. Lewis Wimberly, William's son-in-law, was listed as a witness on this deed. William signed with his mark. This same year William bought land from John Harwood who was perhaps another son-in-law.

On 17 Mar 1807 William sold 300 acres of land to Alsey Yeats "in the county of Wake and Chatham ... on the Indian Branch of New Hope" for 100 pounds current money. This land was bounded on part by land belonging to William Yeats, Jr. and also by land belonging to Matthew Yeats.

I regret that I have been unable to learn anything of a personal nature about William Yates. He most certainly was a planter. He and Mary had thirteen children:

1. Matthew, b. 1760 or 1773, d. 1830 or 1837, m. 7 Nov. 1793 Elizabeth Wimberly (d. 1806), m. 2 Wake Co., N.C. 1807 Elizabeth Baucom (b. 1783, d. 1830/39). 2. William, b. Wake Co. 1762, d. Montgomery Co., Ga. 1850 (or 1827) intestate, m. N.C. 7 Nov. 1793 Mary Wimberly (b. N.C. 1764/5, d. Ga. 1856), daughter of Lewis and Martha (Barbee) Wimberly. 3. Sally. 4. Margaret, m. Bertus Upchurch.

Patsey (probably Martha, but apparently referred to as "Henneritte" in her father's will), m. William Babb and moved to Oglethorpe County, Ga. 6. John. 7. Elizabeth, m. — Gregory. 8. Mildred, m. — Harwood. 9. Crecy or Crissey, m. — Strickland. 10. Jethro, m. Nancy Harwood. 11. Alsy, m. Cynthia Malone. 12. Mary, m. — Beasley. 13. Susannah.
