MOSES UPCHURCH - (1) HARRIETT GRIMES
(2) AMERICA JANE PIERCY

Moses, son of Silas and Nancy Mason (Upchurch) Upchurch, was born the 28th of October, 1838, probably in Wayne County, Kentucky.

Moses upchurch

Moses was married to Harriet Grimes the 5th of September, 1858 in Wayne County, Kentucky.

Harriet, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Marsh) Grimes, was born the 6th of June 1840. Joseph was a native of Ireland, but his wife was born in Wayne County and that is where they were married on April 12, 1839.

Moses and Harriet were the parents of ten children --

Harriet died the 20th of June 1889 at Wayne County, Kentucky and was buried in the Upchurch Cemetery.

After being a widower for five or six years and trying to raise the children on his own, Moses took a second wife, America Jane Piercy.

America Jane, daughter of Sherrod W. and Caroline (Prewitt) Piercy, was born the 11th of January 1863, making her about twenty-five years younger than her husband.

Moses and America Jane were the parents of six children --

America Jane died the 9th of January 1944 and was buried next to Moses and his first wife, Harriett.

OLD SPRINGHOUSE at SLICKFORD, KY

(Moses is standing at far left of picture, holding a drinking cup -- he always swore that the spring water was the coldest he had ever drank.)

Moses died the 1st of March 1919 in Wayne County, Kentucky and was buried in the Upchurch Cemetery.

After Moses death, America Jane was married to a man by the name of "Meeks" according to the book by Olive A. Morgan, "The Upchurch Story", but I have not found anything to prove this and she was buried as America "Upchurch".

② COMMENTARY BY RPU 16 MAR 1999 - The above abstract has resided in the Michael Endeavour Profile system for several years with no understanding of the relationship among the five individuals listed. Here is a logical fit:

I & now becomes clear that the two granddaughters in the Thomas U household in 1880 [① above] were grand-daughters not of Thomas U but of his wife Mary - (Marsh) Grimes by her 1st husband Joseph Grimes. The only rough spot in this analysis is whether or not there was a slot in the Moses U b 1838 household for Amanda born 1866.

④ From 42 pg 75, 76 - Moses U is son of Courtney U & gr of Moses U, Head of clan.

Moses UPCHURCH(498), the son of Courtney UPCHURCH and Cynthia RICHARDSON, was born about 1822 in Chatham County, North Carolina.³⁹⁹ On 28 November 1850 he married Emily WILSON in Perry County, Alabama.⁴⁰⁰ Emily was born about 1834 in North Carolina or Alabama. The couple settled in either Dallas or Perry County, Alabama. By August 1856 Moses had moved his family to Mississippi.⁴⁰¹ The first record of Moses UPCHURCH in Mississippi was on 2 September 1859 in Oktibbeha County when he signed a quit claim to buy land from Thomas CARROLL. Moses paid $140 down and owed $140 due on 1 January 1860 and $240 due on 1 January 1861.⁴⁰² Apparently Moses was unable to meet his notes because J.B. CHAMPION paid him $430 for the land in an annexed quit claim deed on 31 March 1860.⁴⁰³ Moses was caught up in the Civil War shortly after this when he enlisted as a private into Company E, 3 Battalion Mississippi Infantry (State Troops) at Starkville. He was captured at Vicksburg, Mississippi on 4 July 1863 and on 10 July he signed a parole oath declaring that he would not bear arms against the United States or serve in any capacity for the Confederate Army.⁴⁰⁴

On 20 August 1870 Moses and his family were still living in Oktibbeha County. It is interesting to note that the one year old child of Moses and Emily, Walter Lane UPCHURCH(506), was not living with his parents at this time and was found in the household of Jacob JUNARY instead.⁴⁰⁵ The reason for this is unknown. Perhaps Emily was ill or someone else was having to nurse the child. By 2 May 1871 Moses was working land on the VALENTINE Plantation when he signed a loan mortgage to James A. VALENTINE. Moses owed $80 for two cows and calves named Lill and Buggs and $146.10 for pork. The money owed for this stock was to earn 8% interest. Moses would also owe Mr. VALENTINE for a running account for supplies used to make a crop on the land.⁴⁰⁶ On 26 April 1872 the B.J. Rivers and Company loaned Moses UPCHURCH(498) and Mark Wesley UPCHURCH(499), the son of Moses, $300. The security used for this loan was the stock and crops produced on the VALENTINE farm.⁴⁰⁷ On November 1872 Moses and Mark Wesley gave $490 and a promissory note to James A. VALENTINE for 320 acres. The note was for $4190 at 8% interest to be paid in five installments of $838 each, due 30 November 1873 through 1877.⁴⁰⁸ By 19 December 1874 Moses and Mark Wesley had trouble paying for the land. John Thomas UPCHURCH(500), another son of Moses, joined Moses and Mark Wesley in an agreement with James A. VALENTINE to pay off the land with promissory notes of cotton bales produced at 10% interest.⁴⁰⁹ The last record found of Moses and Emily after this was the 1880 Oktibbeha County census. No tombstone, obituary, or probate records have been found for either Moses or Emily in Oktibbeha County. Family history has it that they are buried in unmarked graves in the Old Colcolough Cemetery about ten miles south of Starkville on property now owned by the Mississippi State University and the United States Department of Wildlife.⁴¹⁰

Moses UPCHURCH(498) had ten known children: Mark Wesley UPCHURCH(499); John Thomas UPCHURCH(500); twins, Robert Albron or

UPCHURCH(505); Walter Lane UPCHURCH(506); Martha UPCHURCH(507); and Ara Minta UPCHURCH(508). Family history has it that one or two additional daughters were born to Moses and Emily. Little is known about three of these children. Monroe Franklin UPCHURCH(503) was born about 1859 in Oktibbeha County.⁴¹¹ No other record has been found for him except for his appearance on the 1870 and 1880 census records of Oktibbeha County. He supposedly left home and was never heard from again.⁴¹² Peter J. UPCHURCH(505) was born about 1867 in Oktibbeha County.⁴¹³ His name was found as Peter J., Peter, and J.P., but Peter J. is assumed to be the correct one.⁴¹⁴ On 18 November 1891 in Holmes County, he married Lizzie COBB. Peter J. died young and is believed to have left no descendants. Peter J. supposedly had the talent of being able to talk the fire out of a burned person.⁴¹⁵ On 23 January 1901 his wife married Robert P. ALLEN in Holmes County.⁴¹⁶ Martha UPCHURCH(507) was born in Oktibbeha County sometime between 1870 and 1873. She is believed to have died young though one family version thought she had married and gone to Georgia.⁴¹⁷

Miscellaneous Holmes County UPCHURCH's

Holmes County, Mississippi presented a big mystery in the UPCHURCH history. Two of the children of Moses UPCHURCH(498) went to Holmes County to marry, Walter Lane UPCHURCH(506) and Peter J. UPCHURCH(505). William Harrison UPCHURCH(509), son of Mark Wesley UPCHURCH(499) and nephew to the above men, also married here. However, there are additional UPCHURCH members in Holmes County that have not been tied in with any of the other UPCHURCH lines. Family history has it that Moses UPCHURCH(498) had one or two additional daughters that are not accounted for in this history. Perhaps part of all of these Holmes County lines are some of his descendants.

On 24 January 1894 Mrs. L or T.M. UPCHURCH married W.S. MADISON. The bride was eighteen and the groom twenty-one.⁶⁸⁷ On 3 January 1895 Maude UPCHURCH married Henry ALSTON.⁶⁸⁸ Nothing more is known about these girls. Due to the age of the first bride, the Mrs. could be in error. The two brides could be UPCHURCH sisters, sisters who had previously married UPCHURCH men, or totally unrelated.

In 1900 Holmes County, two widowed sisters lived in the same household, Eveline LUCUS and Fannie UPCHURCH. Eveline was born in June 1854 and Fannie in February 1872. Fannie had three children by her UPCHURCH husband: Mable UPCHURCH(964) born in October 1892; Fannie UPCHURCH(965) born in January 1895; and Jimmie UPCHURCH(966) born in June 1896.⁶⁸⁹ Fannie UPCHURCH(965) married Lee BURGE on 27 June 1913 in the same county.⁶⁹⁰ The father of these UPCHURCH children has not been found.

A friend of mine is in a MS Civil War reenactment group and we were talking yesterday and I mentioned that my Moses Upchurch ancestor (my 2 x great-grandfather) was captured and pardoned in the Vicksburg in 1863. And that he lived in Oktibbeha County, MS—the same as my friend. He asked where he was buried and I told him "presumably at Old Colcolough Cemetery" near Dorman Lake south of Starkville". At least that's what anything I've found says- although there is no headstone and no confirmed death date.

I told him how overgrown and abandoned the cemetery was. He volunteered his reenactment group to clean it up AND they will erect a Civil War veteran headstone, complete with Confederate ceremony. I was amazed! I just need to fill out some paperwork and provide a copy of his pardon at Vicksburg—which I have on photocopy.

I was very excited and wanted to share.

We have set the date of Sunday, Nov. 7 at 2:00 pm for the Civil War headstone and honor ceremony for Moses Upchurch, b. 1822, buried in Colcolough Cemetery, Oktibbeha Co. He was the father of Walter Lane Upchurch, my great grandfather. Please feel free to invite any Upchurch kin that you know of and I will do the same. The ceremony will be conducted by the local CW re-enactment group- 1st Mississippi Light Artillery, Co. C (Turner's Battery)

I will also put up the new cemetery sign at that time. I will write up something for the Starkville Daily News—can you let me know what their printing deadlines are and to whom it should be sent.

Could you also please check to see if Starkville Cafe is open on Sunday afternoons- maybe we can all gather there afterwards to meet, greet and share. Thanks. If not there, I will check on a room at the MSU student union. It's a great place since the renovation.

For those that will need directions: Old Colcolough Cemetery is on Highway 25 south of Starkville on the new 4-laned section going toward Louisville. It is at the junction of the highway and Dorman Lake Road—it is unmarked so look closely- there is a trailer park on the south side of the Dorman road and a large power line clearance runs through the middle of the cemetery on the north side of Dorman road. Headstones are visible only after you enter the property.

Genealogists preserve history in way that is increasing in popularity

November 8, 2010

Descendents of Moses Upchurch, born 1822- died 1880, gathered Sunday, in the Old Colcolough Cemetery for an honor ceremony for the newly erected Civil War headstone.

The special service is one of the ways genealogists are recognizing the accomplishments of their family, as well as preserve family and local history.

Descendents and relatives attend the Sunday afternoon service which was conducted by local Civil War re-enactment group, the 1st Mississippi Light Artillery, Company C (Turner's Battery). The Old Colcolough Cemetery is located at the junction of Hwy. 25 South and Dorman Lake Road, about seven miles south of Starkville.

Sunday's service is one of a growing trend among genealogists. Researching family history can take a genealogist in several directions, even to cemeteries to find relevant information.

As more and more information is revealed about a name from the past, families discover crumbling grave markers, if any markers can be found.

As a way of honoring the past and providing a marker for future research, the trend to replace the marker and honor military service is important.

As part of Sunday's service, visitors learned more about the life of Moses Upchurch.

Moses and his wife, Emily Wilson, moved into Oktibbeha County around 1856 from Perry County, Ala.

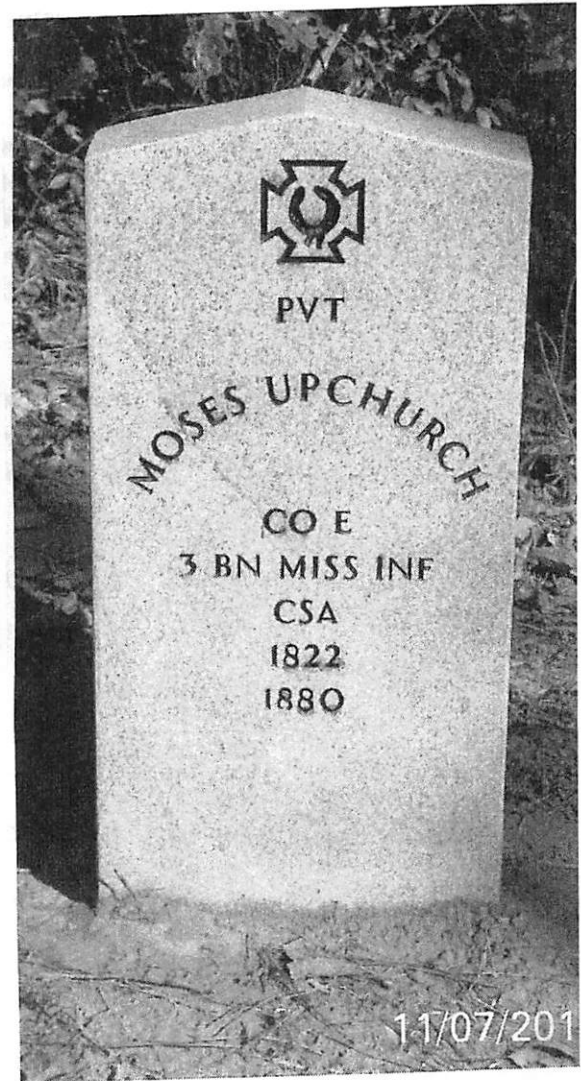

In 1862, Moses joined the Mississippi military and served as private in Co. E, 3rd Battalion MS Infantry, State Troops. On July 4, 1863 he was captured during the siege of Vicksburg and later paroled when he swore allegiance to the United States.

Returning to Oktibbeha County, Moses and Emily lived south of Starkville and in 1871 he was working as an overseer on the Valentine Plantation. The last record of Moses and Emily is the 1880 US Census for Oktibbeha County.

Moses and Emily were the parents of ten known children, several of whom continued to live in the Oktibbeha County area. Many descendants can be found today in surrounding counties. The ten children were Mark Wesley U., John Thomas U., twins- Robert Albron/Alvin and William Calvin U., Monroe Franklin U., Troy McDonald U., Peter J. U., Walter Lane U., Martha U., and Ara Minta U.

Moses was a fourth generation descendent of the immigrant ancestor, Michael Upchurch, who arrived in America in 1650.

He is also the grandson of the first Moses Upchurch, who served for America in the Revolutionary War.

Robert reports that the original Moses Uthome was in what is now a pasture on high ground between creek on N side of road just east of Shuloh Cem. Inspected the Methodist Cem which is just inside Bedrac Cem. There is no church there now but there probably was a hill there originally. The Methodist church is in town.

Mille was the sister of Ephe (Theophilus) Williams. A descendant of "Tempy" said the relatives of his gm lived over in TN near or on the Wolf River and that he had visited them not too long ago. A mother descendant, Anney (Ard) U, was about 12 years old in 1863 and told that Champ Ferguson shot Tempy's brother in the presence of Moses U ↑. He first became a water boy with the Confederate Army. When old enough became a soldier. After the war he walked from Burkesville, KY to Celina, TN. He was captured (probably by two Union soldiers). They tied him up by his thumbs from a tree limb. He almost died, but was rescued by a black man. Shell later found the two men in a tavern. He shot and killed both of them. Local people never reported the incident. Shell went to the Obie River area in Tennessee and had ~~two families~~ ^{another}.

The great-great grandfather of your compiler (Wilburn E Upchurch) was a ~~English~~ ^{English} immigrant, whose name I believe to be Allen, sailed to America about the year 1790. Off the coast his ship ran into a storm and was lost. This Upchurch tied himself to the mast and floated to shore; he was the only survivor. He moved to North Carolina; the county I believe to be Montgomery. He married a woman whose name I believe to be McSwain; they had at least two sons, Jones and Robert. Jones was a traveling school teacher, he wanted to marry Elizabeth Cooper, but her father objected. Mr Cooper told his daughter if she married Jones he did not ever want to see her again. He never did. Jones and Elizabeth eloped; moving first to Henry County, Tenn. then to Cape Girardeau Co. Mo. in 1848. Robert and a woman by the name of Hannah Upchurch, who I think was their mother, came with Jones. Jones had a large family; his descendants are Hurbert and Oscar Upchurch at Marble hill, Mo. I am a descendant of Robert.
