Dear Dr Boswell,

As you will see from the enclosed materials I am heavily interested in the entire extended Uphurch Family. Mrs Elizabeth Prather suggested to me that you might be willing to supply some of the missing details on your part of the more Uphurch/ Courtney Uphurch/ Cynthia Uphurch line. I enclosed a list of questions and would be grateful for anything you have or can get.

I will be happy to share information on your Uphurch heritage. My records on this family are extensive having been accumulated over the last forty years.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely yours
Phil Uphurch

Zebulon native leads Barton cast

Jeffrey Boswell of Zebulon leads the all-student cast in "The Foreigner," this fall's Stage & Script production at Barton College in Wilson.

The play runs nightly at 8 from Thursday through Saturday in Howard Chapel. Admission is free to Barton students and faculty/staff; otherwise the charge is $4 for adults and $2 for students.

The narrative describes "The Foreigner" as being set in a fishing lodge in rural Georgia that is the favorite visiting place of Froggy LeSeuer, a British demolition expert who occasionally runs training sessions at a nearby Army base. Froggy's traveling companion on this particular visit is a pathologically shy young man named Charlie who is overcome with fear at the thought of making conversation with strangers.

To offset this problem, Froggy tells everyone that Charlie is from a foreign country and speaks no English, then leaves his friend behind to listen and learn more than everyone at the lodge intended.

Boswell is featured in the role of Charlie Baker.

The Zebulon Record THUR 14 FEB 1991 Zebulon, NC

Anne B. Lewis of Zebulon and Michael B. Debnam of Zebulon were united in marriage Feb. 2 at Zebulon Baptist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jack Glasgow.

The bride is the daughter of Sarah Farmer of Middlesex and Elbert R. Boswell of Zebulon. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Debnam of Zebulon. Grandparents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Selby Boswell, and Emma Frazier. The bridegroom's grandmother is Lily Carlyle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin and rochelle lace styled with a high neckline, sheaf-effect waist, and long bishop sleeves. The gown was trimmed with pearls and sequins. The skirt was accented with a bow in the back and ended in a chapel-length train. The fingertip-length veil was trimmed with pearls. She carried a cascading bouquet of sweet-heart roses, bridal candlelight roses, baby ivy and pearls.

She was attended by Gayle Creech Helms as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Tammy Brown, Shelby Boswell and Maria Weathers.

The attendants each wore a tea-length dress of valentinered satin with a bow at the back.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Ushers were Michael Jordan, Hal Debnam and Robbie Horton.

The church was decorated with candles and ferns, and the aisle was lined with candles on the pews.

Wedding music was presented by Rodney H. Davis, soloist, and Kimberly Hocutt, pianist.

Marilyn Pope directed the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of Southern Nash Senior High School and attends Johnston Community College. She is a secretary at Bass, Bryant and Deese. Her husband is a graduate of Zebulon High School and attends Wake Community College. He is employed by Carolina Power and Light Co.

The couple will make their home in Zebulon.

A reception followed the wedding ceremony.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents on Friday, Feb. 1.
