Boas Cousin Jill.

As per your request I am sending you herewith the 10 pages of my master outline covering your ancestor James Dallas Pearce and his descendants. Please let me have any corrections or additions.

In Allied Families we are working on emails the family of Nathan Pearce b. 1735 to which you belong. You also belong to the Benjamin Upchurch Family and we are working on emailing that as well.

I hope you will become a volunteer Transcriber for the Pearce & Upchurch families. As an example would you be in a position to convert the attached 7-Page 8-Item Profile for Dallas Pearce to a word document so we could post it on our website. I hope you can. Let me have questions.

Phil Upchurch

 +20b and on 24 - These last 7 pages cover
 what I have on your GGF James Dallas Pearce
 "old Dal" 1844-1922. You appear on 3-20a.

My proposal is that you and I take it as a project to improve the records for the family of your GGF JDP. If you will give me some input from your end as a start I will incorporate it into my records, see what else I can add and give you feed back.

In due course I'll get back at you on the DNA aspect. I need to do a little homework first.

I'll write on your Jones request. I have lots of Jones records for Wake Co, NC but don't know if they will help or if I can find a gem. I had a great one in James P. Jones but he died at an early age a couple of years ago

You can make your check at "Epworth and Allied Families Association" and send it me at the above address.

Looking forward to working with you.

Phil Yelchuck

P.S. - Just so you can see what a BIRTH looks like I enclose the 2-Page 8-Item per year C&F - items in no special order. I constantly add to these Profiles & hope you will have more to make this one more interesting

A Question - How familiar are you with the Zehulon, NC - area??

Phil U.

Hi Jill---

Thanks for thinking of me and offering the photos. I will be happy to have them. I am glad you reconnected with your N.C. cousins. The area of the cemetery is in the vicinity of the countryside where our ancestors lived and where I have spent so much time researching details and publishing same. I am hoping there will come a time when you will want to pursue more of this and that we can pick up on our collaboration.

Best Wishes~
Phil Upchurch

Dear Phil,

First, thank you! Because of your work, I began looking into the families of my cousins, and I discovered that my first cousin Eldora Jones married Dwight Sanderford and they had a son, Scott. Scott now lives in Northern Virginia; Dwight lives in Wendell, N.C. Eldora passed away only last year. How they disappeared from the Jones family remains a mystery, but we have reconnected.

Scott and Dwight were kind enough to go to the cemetery where my grandmother, Rebecca Helen Pearce Jones, is buried, along with her husband (Robert Paul Jones) and his first wife (Lucy Parrott Jones). One son of Robert and Lucy, Littleton, is also buried there. In addition, there are the graves of Russell Parker Jones, the son of Robert Paul and Rebecca Helen--my mother's brother, whom they called "R.P."--and a baby, Bonnie Lynn, the infant daughter of R.P. and his wife Euphemia.

Scott took photos of these graves. Would they be useful to you for the archive? If so, I can forward them along.

Hope your summer is going well. Mine has been extremely--and delightfully--peaceful. However, I have guests coming for the entire month, starting this Thursday, so will be switching gears soon.

Many thanks again for your inspiration. So glad to have found you!

Love,
Jill
