VOLUME 1 2008 ARTICLE 912

912 IRENE PERRY

Irene was born June 13, 1913, in Franklin County to Otis and Annie Dent Perry. She lived most of her life in Franklin County. She was baptized as a very young girl and was a faithful member of Kinches Chapel United Church of Christ in Franklinton.

She was a truly sweet woman who everyone chose to have as a friend and who willing to be a friend to all. She took care of many and never had a bad word to say. She babysat for Earl Blackley when he was a child and called him her child. She later babysat for Earl and Rosa Lee Blackley's children, Betsy and Lisa. We played games like "find the switch". She would pick a switch off a bush in our front yard and make us close our eyes while she hid it. We would then search everywhere to find it while she told us if we were "hot" or "cold". The game was her subtle way of telling us we were not acting good that day. Because she loved us so much she didn't want to spank us so she'd play the game. I always thought Irene was the best cook! One time she kept feeding me biscuits just to see how many I would eat.

When I got married on June 23, 1990, my grandmother, Mildred Suitt Blackley, brought Irene and our neighbor, Bea Upchurch, to my wedding. They were seated with my family as special guests at my wedding.

Once when my husband and I were leaving for a vacation, we had a lady at RDU check our boarding passes. I didn't know her name but I knew her face. I knew she was from Franklinton so I told her I grew up there. She didn't know me but the minute I mentioned Irene's name, she knew exactly who I was. Another time Irene's name came up in the same way was when I was at Rex Hospital waiting for my youngest son, Nathan, to have surgery. A lady from Franklinton was working there in the same day surgery unit and I recognized her face. I also remembered her singing in the choir at Irene's funeral. She didn't recognize me until I said Irene's name. Not only did Irene tell me and Betsy growing up that we were her 'babies', she told others as well. It meant the world to me to have these two ladies tell me that even after Irene had died.

Later in life, our family still stayed in touch with Irene. We and others helped move her to an apartment in Creedmoor. Betsy paid her bills, shopped for groceries, cooked, cleaned, took her to doctor appointments, and took her by Bojangles. Eventually, Irene went to live at Britthaven in Louisburg. We visited Irene and other family members who were also there several times a week.

Betsy got a call from a nurse at Britthaven on Saturday evening, June 9, 2001 on her cell phone. Irene had passed away. She is buried at Kinches Chapel.

Albert, Jacky and their children attended Hopkins Chapel Baptist Church (founded in 1851). This church is located about a mile from their house. Albert's brothers Henderson and Burwell lived between his house and the church. The preacher often visited in the home of Albert and Jacky. See letter Monroe T. Ray (Albert and Jacky's son) wrote to his brother George's daughter, Lucie Ray Hodge, dated November 30, 1937. This letter tells about the building up of Hopkins Chapel Community and the church just before, during and after the Civil War.

On June 3, 1769, Elizabeth Medlin (Medling), Drury Cade, Elijah Strickland, Mary Manord, Lodwick Alford, Lodwick Alford, Jr., and James Alford were listed among the buyers at the estate sale of Robert Cade conducted by Bute County Sheriff Osborne Jeffreys.

On November 22, 1769, William Owen Medlin sold 177 acres of land in Bute County on the south side of Crooked Creek to James Alford, witnessed by Jacob Hartsfield and Shaw Driver. This is the same land adjacent to Sam Wright, Franklin Wright, and W. Wright bought from Julius Johnson who had purchased the land from Julius Alford.

In 1769, Bryan(t) Medlin (Sr.) was included in a tax list in Dobbs County, North Carolina. Dobbs County was formed in 1759 from Johnston County and by 1799 became Wayne, Greene, and Lenoir Counties.

In 1771, Ryal Medlin, Henry Tyler Medlin, William (Owen) Medlin (Sr.), and Shadrach Medlin were listed as taxpayers in Bell's District in Bute County.

On February 13, 1771 in Bute County Court, a deed from William Owen Medlin (Sr.) to James Alford was proved to and witnessed by Jacob Hartsfield. In that same court, Henry Medlin was ordered to help James Perry keep the road from Cedar Creek to St. Johns Chapel.

In 1771, William Owen Medlin (Jr.) was listed as a taxpayer in Surry County, North Carolina and again there in 1775 and 1777.

In 1772, Nicholas Medlin, Sr. (Medlock) of Granville County, North Carolina was listed as a debtor to a British merchant.

On November 30, 1773 in the part of Cumberland County that became Moore County, Alexander Patterson is issued a land grant on the upper side of Lower Little River, opposite Joel Medlin (Medley).

On June 8, 1774, in Wake County Court, William Medlin (Medling) was ordered to work on a new road beginning at Hillsborough Road at Tingnal Jones's cut path across Crabb Tree Creek up the ridge between Middle Branch and Indian Branch to Horns Roling path to the county line near Hearn's.

On July 25, 1774, Joel Medlin (Madlen) was granted 100 acres joining John Patterson on the River in the part of Cumberland County that later became Moore County.

On March 7, 1775, in Wake County Court, Timothy R. Medlin (Medling) was a defendant in a suit won by Richard Simmons.

On September 7, 1775, in Wake County Court, Henry Medlin and Absolom Griffin appeared and were appointed to procession two tracts of land of Dennis Bradley, totaling 425 acres. At that same court, William Wilder appeared to procession the lands of William Wilder, Michael Curtis, and Jacob Delk.

Before the Revolutionary War began, Committees of Safety were organized in the colonies to plan their independence from Great Britain. Jethro Sumner organized the Bute County Committee of Safety of which Osborne Jeffreys was a member. On April 4, 1776, the Provincial Congress met in Halifax, North Carolina and the Halifax Resolves were drawn up, eventually leading to the Declaration of Independence.

For INA PERRY it appears she was born 29 NOV 1891 and died 14(15) DEC 1972 (Raleigh, NC) and last lived in Mendenhall. Records found are placed in profile of Ina Perry.

A good guess is that Nancy Perry b APT 1803 is the mother of John Sidney Perry. John Sidney Perry not found on Census 1870 and beyond. See separate extract for Mary A. (Upchurch) Perry on 1880, 1900, 1910 & 1920 Census. In 1900 & 1920 she is listed as "widowed". John Sidney Perry is not in the home with her in 1880 so he may have died before 1880.

ried and following Martha Helen's marriage to Allen, made her home permanently with the couple.

Allen died at his home on November 18, 1920. As was the local custom, the funeral was held at the house the following day. The minister from Poplar Springs Church officiated at the funeral. He was buried in the family cemetery located a few hundred yards behind the house.

A farmer, Allen and Martha Helen Perry lived in the Sutton community of Franklin County near the small crossroads that would later become known as Pine Ridge. Their comfortable frame house, with front and back porches, was still standing in 2006. They were members of nearby Poplar Springs Baptist Church.

△ Notes for JARVIS WESLEY PERRY, SR.:

Jarvis Wesley Perry, Sr. was the oldest son of Laster Perry and his wife Mattie Baker. He graduated from Bunn High School and then studied Business Administration and penmanship at Kings Business College, Raleigh, North Carolina. He was known to have a beautiful hand writing and signature. His success at being a good businessman showed that he applied his learning and abilities. He left for World War I on September 25, 1917. Jarvis fought with the 30th Division as a Corporal in Co. A 120th Inf. Reg. He was wounded on the Hindenberg Line in Germany and spent seven days in a hospital in France and received the Purple Heart Medal. He was discharged in early spring of 1919. He carried a piece of shrapnel the remainder of his life so near to his heart that doctors would not operate.

In 1922 Jarvis and James A. (Jim) Ray began construction on a store in the Pearces Community. The store was completed in 1923 and stocked with general merchandise. In 1925 "Jim" Ray sold his share of the business to Jarvis. Jarvis owned and operated the store until his death. He was a lover of land. He owned over 2000 acres of land. He helped many people with financial assistance and advice, but as many of his sons and most of his friends would tell you, "Always approach him when his hat was pushed to the back of his head, never when it was pulled down to his eye level." Many people that knew Mr. Jarvis believed that this was his trademark. When his hat was worn pulled down close to his eye level he was not in a good mood. He did extensive farming in Wake and Franklin Counties. He was a Master Mason. He was a lifetime member and gave generously to Pearce Baptist Church.

After his death his five children gave five thousand dollars to Pearce Baptist Church to build a "Memorial Breezeway" in his honor. Nine years later after Frances Perry died another five thousand dollars was given by his children in memory of Frances Perry to set up an educational scholarship fund in her memory.

Jarvis and Frances are buried in the Pearce Baptist Church Cemetery.

Country store, country stories

G.E. "Buck" Hocutt (left) and June Perry "set a spell" and talk it up in the popular Wendell hang-out. Perry bought 10 percent of the place in 1960, then the other 90 percent in 1962.

As June's father took a minute to run next door, the produce man stopped by to see if there was anything the country store's owner needed.

"You bring me some cabbage," the young boy said, as he grabbed a crate and climbed up to reach the cash register for cash. "I'll give you the money."

In those days, in the Pearces community, it was instant order — you got it when you asked for it. The produce man went out to his truck and returned with some cabbage to replenish the store's supply. June handed him the money and waited impatiently for his father's return.

"Mr. Powell came by, and we're out of cabbage so I got some," he told his father with a bit of fear in his voice. June was worried his dad might not approve of the purchase.

"Can you sell 'em, son?" the father asked. June nodded yes and his father gave him a piece of advice that would remain with him for life.

"Buy anything you can sell," he told his son, and that's what June Perry has been doing ever since.

Deciding in 1960 to follow in the footsteps of his father, Jarvis Wesley Perry, June Perry bought 10 percent of the R.B. Whitley Corp. in Wendell — the place

Cookbook highlights Perry family traditions ^⑥

By DENA BOYETTE HEIGHT
Record Staff Writer

After a year of hard work, Wendy Perry finally saw a long-time goal of hers come to its fruition — the publication of a family cookbook.

"It's hot off the press," the Zebulon native said with a sigh of relief. When asked why she wanted to put the time and effort — which led to a few tears and outbursts of curses — into compiling a cookbook, she said it's simply something "I've always wanted to do."

The book, titled "The J.W. Perry Family Cookbook," is dedicated to the memory of her grandmother, Frances Chamblee Perry, J.W. Perry's wife. Perry and his wife operated a store for many years in the Pearces community of Franklin County. Many people in the area still recall the couple, especially "Mrs. Frances."

The couple raised a family of four boys and one girl at Pearces. The family has now grown to include 14 grandchildren (including Wendy Perry) and 12 great-grandchildren. Wendy Perry depended on the the help of her parents, aunts, uncles and cousins to provide their special memories or recollections of Frances Perry.

Wendy Perry said she also begged them to provide her with recipes as well, because without recipes — well, it wouldn't have been much of a cookbook. She even had to embarrass them a little into supplying her with the recipes, displaying names at family reunions of those who had yet to fork over their favorite cooking concoction.

Some of those special Perry family formulas include "Amish Pumpkin Bread," "Broccoli Corn Bread," "Molasses Sop," "Fried Frog Legs," "Shrimp and Grits," "Killer Buzzwiches" and a recipe for banana sandwiches that calls for Lay's potato chips.

Great-grandkids, who are not quite old enough to know about the fine art of cooking, submitted drawings, poems and recipes for mixtures that make any chef a kid at heart — like Oreo milkshakes.

Wendy Perry even submitted a poem herself, included at the beginning of the cookbook. She jokingly mourns for the "good days gone by" when "staples of the kitchen were fatback and lard, before fat grams and cholesterol made our arteries hard and "roughage was the way something felt and not what we put through our colon."

The poem has to be taken with a grain of salt (no pun intended) since she is a home economics education graduate of East Carolina University and serves as the dietary coordinator at Eastern Wake Hospital in Zebulon.

In addition to the recipes, there are many "helpful hints" provided in the book that not only address cooking, but other areas as well — such as laundry spot removal and making your own deodorant.

Some of the cooking hints include: thawing fish in milk to remove the frozen taste and to give fish a "fresh-caught flavor"; adding potato to a stew to remove excess salt; adding mustard to scorched soup to remove the burnt flavor; and tossing garlic cloves over coals when grilling to add flavor.

Wendy Perry also thinks people will enjoy reading her family remembrances of her grandparents, since there are a few names that nonrelations will recognize. She also worked to have the book look polished and professional.

"I think some people thought it would be a mimeographed, stapled together book," she explained. But

Wendy Perry

Wendy Perry hired a publishing company to make it look first-rate.

During the production, Wendy Perry desperately wanted to have the book finished before her family's Dec. 10 reunion. "I can't wait for them to see it," she said with anticipation before the event. And, like expected, the cookbook was a big hit. "Everything got real quiet," as the hubbub of family activity subsided when people began to flip through the pages, she said.

Anyone interested in obtaining a copy of the cookbook may contact Wendy Perry at 365-4668.

Jarvis Wesley Perry died on May 31, 1962. Frances Perry died on May 26, 1971. They are buried in the Pearce Baptist Church Cemetery.

The following comments which describe Frances well were written by Helda Ray Perdue, a neighbor, at Frances' death.

"Miss Frances"

Miss Frances was a wonderful person!

This I know first hand by talking to her personally for hours at a time. She was a gracious, kind and lovable person.

I often pray that I will be more gracious as I grow older, and have for a long time. Also, that I be more graceful, pleasing, kind and compassionate toward everyone. "She was all of this to me."

She often gave me advice over the years I have known her, and I listened with open ears because I knew it would be good for me.

We understood each other more than anyone I know.

I once saw on a road sign; "End of Reconstruction" When you get to the end of reconstruction, you are getting near the end. For life should be a constant reconstruction. I often say, I'm only a Christian--in--making, and I expect this to be true to the end. I expect to be in the process of being made until I awake in His likeness--and beyond! I believe in an eternal growth.

All of this I can say was true of Miss Frances, and I hope I can do as well, because she was truly a Christian and a dear friend of mine.

After returning from service, J.W. entered into business with his father who was in the general merchandise business. He was a Deacon and Sunday School Teacher at Pearce Baptist Church. At his mother's death (his father had passed away 9 years earlier) he inherited the homestead and the store building. He operated the business, until his death. His business was in the small community of Pearces, located about 7 miles north of Zebulon, N.C. Later, he did a large volume of business selling guns and sporting goods with customers coming from all over North Carolina especially the eastern part of the state. His business was closed by his wife and family soon after his death. The store building remained closed until it was sold. The new owner of the property took the much decayed store building and the unoccupied J.W. Perry home place completely down in early 2006.

William Perry & his 6 brothers settled in Nansemond and Surry Counties in VA prior to 1746. In that year or soon afterwards they all moved to NC. William Perry & his brothers (except for Burrell - too young) appear on the rolls of Col William Eaton's Regt in Capt. Salomon Jeffreys Co of the militia in 1754. There is a recorded grant from Earl Granville to William Perry of 20 MAR 1749 for 605 acres plus a certificate dated JUL 1761 for a grant of 686 acres from Earl Granville to William Perry.

 from Monk by phone on 22 SEP 2007 reveal the following:

Amanda gives a small amount of money to her 3 oldest sons: Δ BURREL PERRY, Δ MARTEN PERRY & Δ REDEN PERRY [Reden is F/O Miley Perry, GF/O Alton Owen Perry & GEF of Monk]

She gives 10 Acres of a house to youngest son Δ JOHN PERRY and 40 Acres to son Δ GREEN PERRY for taking care of her for rest of her life. Her daughters are not mentioned & Monk thinks they had died earlier. The girls were older than the boys & names were Δ JANE PERRY, Δ PENNINA PERRY and Δ MILDEN/MITIAN PERRY. The later md Δ CURTIS HODGE and their dau Δ ALICE HODGE is mentioned in the will. Two of the boys married DENTON sisters. The marriage certificates for the boys did not reveal a father but my cert for MILDEN reports her father as Δ WILSON PERRY. The W.W. PERRY, Executor of the will is the S/O Δ ALISON PERRY who was bondsman for mg of WILSON PERRY & Δ AMANDA CARTER
 [Thus become Amanda Perry = nee Amanda Carter]

Some of the 50 acres, its disposition by Amanda's heirs, and its location not yet learned. THOMAS ASKEW mentioned in the will is probably a lawyer per Monk.

The Family of Willis Perry

Willis Perry married Armenia Sanders December 16, 1822. There is a large estate file on record at Raleigh, N. C. in the Dept. of Archives and History of Armenia S. Perry's estate. To them were born: Repsie Perry (Duncan Bunn), Candace Perry (Atlas Denton), Jane Perry (James Rhodes), Adaline Perry (W. M. Dent), Adelia Perry (W. Calvin Strickland), Wesley B. Perry (Elizabeth Horton) -- only son, Leddia Perry never married. Her share of the Willis Perry estate joined Dr. J. P. Floyd. She lived there until she died, and gave Dr. Floyd her land or sold it to him to take care of her. This property is located on the Bunn-Wake Forest Highway near what is now a small village called New Hope. It's been said that Calvin Strickland started the first religious services there under a shelter.

Willis Perry and his wife Armenia Sanders estate was settled in 1869.

FROM: JARVIS WESLEY PERRY SR 2007 BOOK BY:
 NED KLAPP PERRY, JR - PG 4,5,7,8
 CONCERNING THE SEVEN PERRY BROTHERS

OF THE 7
 COPIED FOR:
 JEREMIAH
 PERRY

Catherine Perry Hamilton from Inspiration, Arizona wrote in her book which she finished at age 88, Jeremiah 1 Perry was in the American Revolution and served as a Courier under General Light-Horse Harry Lee and that he was killed by a fall from his horse while carrying messages. He left several children, three sons and two daughters. It is believed that his wife died while the children were small, as it was told that a relative tried to defraud the orphan children out of their property. Burwell 2 Perry, the youngest child, was born February 16, 1767.

The only reference to his sisters is that he told in later life, with much amusement, that they tried to cut his hair but that he escaped when it was about half finished and a few days elapsed before they could complete the task.

He had a brother John who later moved to Georgia but was very careful in dividing up his estate in N.C. among his children of whom one was Willis 1 Perry. Willis 1 Perry could have gone with his father to Georgia but later returned to Franklin County, North Carolina. Several Perry's settled around Columbus, Georgia and Russell County, Alabama.

The Perry's of Franklin County, N.C. are of English Descent. The family came from Nancemond County, Va. (LINEAGE AND TRADITION, by, Roe Herring Hendrick says they came from Wight County or Surey County Va. I, Ned Perry could not confirm which is correct, However, they both confirm the following information, which I believe is very important). There were seven brothers, who settled in Granville County, N.C. in about 1746. They are a reserved, proud race of people. They left Virginia as they were displeased at their father's second marriage. However, the Perry's followed the old English custom of inheritance of the eldest son, and it is tradition an elder son remained in Virginia. The names of these brothers were:

- X. Jeremiah 1 Perry
- XX. John Perry
- XXX. Francis Perry
- XXXX. Joshua Perry
- XXXXX. Nathaniel Perry
- XXXXXXX. William Perry
- XXXXXXX. Burwell 1 Perry

The Perry's were Royalists. They were distinctly military. Six of these brothers names can be found in the muster roll of Col. William Eaton's regiment, under Captain Osburne Jeffereys' command, October 8, 1754. These were: Jeremiah 1 Perry, John Perry, William Perry, Francis Perry, Joshua Perry and Nathaniel Perry. These troops of 1754, who fought to repel the Indian and French invasion, were the first troops of 1754, raised by any Colony for service outside of its own borders.

X. Jeremiah 1 Perry is known to have had a son, also named Jeremiah 2 Perry. Jeremiah 2 Perry sold one of his grants that he inherited from his father to his uncle, Burwell 1 Perry, which is still in possession of the Burwell Perry family. (as of the writing of this book in 2006.)

XX. John Perry was granted, February 14, 1739, 535 acres in Bertie County, and on March 6, 1740, another 600 acres, and another 600 acres in May 7, 1742, in Edgecombe County, N.C.: and, another 600 acres in November 1743, in Bertie County. His will is recorded at Louisburg, N.C. and is dated March 15, 1796.

Jeremiah 1 Perry (this is the older Jeremiah) and six of his brothers settled in Granville County, North Carolina, in 1746.

In 1751 a patent was granted to Jeremiah 1 Perry by John Earl of Granville and in 1752, 382 acres was granted to Jeremiah 1 Perry on the south side of Cedar Creek in Granville County, (later became part of Franklin County). From the North Carolina Archives was received a xerox copy of a survey made by Thomas Person on Oct. 7, 1762 for Jeremiah 1 Perry for 700 acres of land in Granville County at that time (now Franklin County) on the branches of Cedar Creek, mentioning Porches Corner, Wrights line. Jeremiah 1 Perry owned two other tracts of land in the area. (2)

Prior to the year 1584, no white man had been seen in what is now the State of North Carolina. Through all of the borders of North Carolina the different tribes of the aboriginal Indians moved undisturbed, except by their own and often recurring hostilities.

We know that the older Jeremiah 1 Perry died intestate before August 1778, because on August 14, 1778, Jeremiah's oldest son, Willis 1 Perry, Administrator, filed inventory of the estate, (personal property only) Records also show his Administration bond to Governor Caswell Aug. 14, 1778. The inventory is (760-1800, Part II, Page 78) or on page 250 of WB 2, Bute County, filed in Warren Co. Documents indicate that old Jeremiah's eldest son Willis 1 Perry inherited the estate, according to English custom and also Virginia law and custom. The males in the Jeremiah 1 Perry family can pretty well be reconstructed, with Willis 1 Perry as the only one of full age when his father died. We have 1756 firm as Willis 1 Perry's date of birth in his declaration for a American Revolution War pension and the marriage of his brother Jeremiah 2 Perry in 1778 (after the death of the father), with Willis 1 Perry as security for the bond. This indicates that young Jeremiah 2 Perry was about 21 years old at that time. No consent of a guardian was given.

This places Jeremiah 2 Perry's date of birth as 1757. For the purpose if this analysis, we can accept John (Speck) Perry as another son, and we have 1769 firm as the date of his birth from a bible record. Jeremiah 2 Perry was about 9 years old when his father died. It has been said that there was also a son named Burwell 2 Perry, born in 1767, but we have found no records at all to support this, faint indications, yes, but no documentation. If there was a son Burwell 2 Perry, he must have been about 11 years old when his father died. (Catherine Perry's research written above does confirm that there was a Burwell 2 Perry. She gives his birth date.) One could assume that the eldest son, Willis 1 Perry, was not only the "heir" but also the one who had to manage the affairs of the family. One could also think that he would be the person to divide the property among the other siblings. Hattie Perry could find no record in Franklin County to show that Willis 1 Perry conveyed any of the Jeremiah 1 Perry land to a Burwell 2 Perry except to his uncle Burwell 1 Perry, who purchased the Cascine Plantation. However, the elder Jeremiah 1 Perry land held by his son Willis 1 Perry does not seem to have been all the land, so it is possible that part of it was in trust for the younger son or sons, to come to them when they reached maturity. Hattie Perry did not find a record of such a trust, however, and does offer this comment only as a possibility. She believed that the documents she needed could be in some obscure court record in the Archives, but that it was certainly not in the Bute-Warren-Franklin County records.

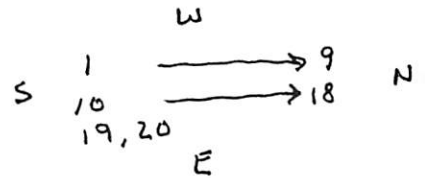

From LINEAGE AND TRADITION by Roe Herring Hendrick:

The seven Perry brothers who came from Isle of Wight County or Surry County, VA (Hattie Perry Stallings research found that the Perry's came from Nancemond County, Va. (I, Ned Perry, was unable to confirm which is correct; however, both of these records confirm the following information) and they settled in Granville County, that part now Franklin County, NC, in 1746, were: Jeremiah, John, Frances, Joshus, Nathaniel, William and Burwell. Six of the above brothers appear on the muster rolls of Colonel William Eaton's Regiment. Captain Osbourne Jeffrey's Company, on October 8, 1754. Burwell 1 Perry's name does not appear, and it is presumed that he was too young for military service. These troops were organized to repel the French and Indian invasion. They were the first troops raised by any colony for service outside its own borders.

Note: Granville County was formed in 1746 from Edgecombe County. Bute County was formed in 1764 from Granville County, and in 1779 was abolished by division into Warren and Franklin Counties. All of Jeremiah's children were probably born in what was then Granville or Bute County, in what is today Franklin County, North Carolina.

"Historical Society. Venter Casvine"

On 19 APR 1986 members of the NC Little River Historical Society visited the Casvine Plantation in Franklin Co, NC. The tour was conducted by Natho Perry Stallings & Ben Perry descendants of one of the 7 brothers who came to Franklin Co, NC from VA in 1746. Jeremiah Perry was the brother who established the 2000 acre plantation of which 1500 acres is still in family hands.

From: History of Edwards-Perry & Allied Families - 1992
Pg 16

There is no proof that Jeremiah Perry and his six brothers came from Nansemond Co., Virginia, but there is no proof that they didn't either, and the statement has been made so long and often that it is generally accepted.

What we do know is they began appearing in Bute, now Franklin Co., NC about 1746, having received land grants from Lord Granville. "Cascine", the family home, was near Louisburg, NC and was built in 1750. Willis, the son of Jeremiah, sold this property to his uncle Burwell Perry before moving to Warren County, Georgia about 1785. "Cascine" is still owned by Perrys, and the 1750 dwelling is still being preserved.
