On the left are some ramshackle farm buildings and a broken down trailer. Behind them, surrounded by a low block wall, covered in brambles and totally neglected and uncared for, is this family cemetery.

Many descendants of the Sauls family live near this cemetery. It looked hopeless until my husband, Gordon Olson, carefully chopped paths through the brambles so that I could record this cemetery. Cattle are grazing on the surrounding lush pasture inherited from this family.

This valuable land is in a rural area that is evolving into subdivisions and commercial properties. The sad condition of the cemetery is a reproach to those who fail to maintain it. There may be more graves than those recorded here since it was impossible to clear all of the cemetery. Most of the stones are broken.

From the intersection of Hwy. 70 and New Rand Rd. (SR 2562), Garner NC. Take New Rand Rd. abt. 3/10 mi. to the intersection of New Rand Rd. and Rand Mill Rd. Turn onto Rand Mill Rd., (only runs to your right) and follow Rand Mill Rd. until a sharp turn where it becomes Haywood St., abt. 2/10 mi. The church is abt. 100 ft. ahead on the left, the cemetery is behind the church.

The cemetery is neatly mowed and cared for but a large percentage of the graves are marked with funeral home markers that have deteriorated fully or partially. There are numerous unmarked graves as well. The church and cemetery are on 1.17 acres. There is room for more burial. Park by the church.

I surveyed this cemetery on May 12, 2004.

Rand Cemetery <sup>#1</sup> Garner, Wake County, North Carolina

1010 Rd and Rand Rd
Garner, NC.

Contributed by Shirley Olson, Dec 11, 2000 [shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 11.

To reach from Raleigh: South on Hwy. 401 to 1010 Rd., turn left and stay on 1010 for several miles, crossing Old Stage Rd., and passing Holland Church. Continue until you see two small country stores on the left, one with "Pollard" on the sign. You are now at 1010 and Rand Rd., and on the right is a small cemetery, at the entrance to a newly created subdivision "Rand Meadows".

The cemetery lay hidden under weeds until the subdivision began to clear the land. It is now clearly visible, surrounded by newly planted shrubbery. All of the monuments are laying flat on the ground, some bases and monuments are intact, some are broken. Recorded by Shirley and Gordon Olson.

Contributed by Shirley Olson, Jan 30, 2002, last edited Dec 14, 2005 [shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 15.

Directions: From Interstate 40: Exit on 401 S. and drive south about 5 miles to Tryon. Bear left on Hwy 70S and continue on 70S about a mile to the traffic light at Timber Road. Turn right on Timber Road continuing for about 5 or 6 miles until you reach the traffic light on Benson Hwy. (Rte. 50) and turn right(south). About 1-2 mile on the right you will pass New Bethel Church and cemetery and shortly after that there will be a second church on the right, Garner Church of God. The cemetery is not visible from the road.

In a grove of trees on a gentle slope above the intersection of Benson Hwy. And Buffalo Rd., obscured from view by cedar trees that enclose it, is this little cemetery with just 15 graves. The tombstones are the thin, fragile ones that tell you they are very old, and the in-ground markers are also weathered, but the cemetery is immaculate and lovingly cared for.

I have transcribe from my reading of the tombstones when I visited the cemetery in January of 2002.

Old Poplar Springs United Church of Christ Cemetery Garner, Wake County, North Carolina

6115 Old Stage Rd.
Garner, N.C.

Lat: 35°41'44"N, Lon: 78°39'10"W

Contributed by Shirley Olson, July 13, 2001
[shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 32.

Directions from Raleigh, N.C.: South on Hwy 401 about 8 miles, angle left on to Old Stage Rd. and continue south about 2 miles to Poplar Springs Church on the left. The old cemetery is along side of the church on Old Stage Rd.; the newer and larger cemetery is hidden behind the church up a paved road that runs about 100 yards to the burial locations.

This is an African American church and cemetery, located in a formerly rural area which is now a suburban neighborhood. The old church was founded in 1871, a few years after the end of the Civil War. From humble beginnings in a brush arbor the church has grown and flourished and is now a magnificent brick edifice. Alongside and joined to the large new church built in 1996 is the beautiful old brick church built in 1931 which replaced the small frame church that preceded it.

This old cemetery is not in good condition. Many graves are unmarked, and some of the stones are teetering over. There are plans to restore the fallen stones and determine, if possible, the names of those in the unmarked graves. At this time we have recorded only the old cemetery and at least 50 per cent of these graves are unmarked. Unfortunately the church has no records of the old cemetery.

Go about 2 miles east on Hwy. 70 to the intersection of Guy Road (SR. 2558) and turn left. Guy Rd. soon intersects with East Garner Rd. (SR. 1004). Directions from Raleigh, N.C.: South on Hwy 401 about 8 miles, angle left on to Old Stage Rd. and continue south about 2 miles to Poplar Springs Church on the left.

The old cemetery is along side of the church on Old Stage Rd., the newer and larger cemetery is hidden behind the church up a paved road that runs about 100 yards to the burial locations.

This is an African American church and cemetery, located in a formerly rural area which is now a suburban neighborhood. This is an old church, founded in 1871, a few years after the end of the Civil War. From humble beginnings in a brush arbor the church has grown and flourished and is now a magnificent brick edifice. Alongside and joined to the large new church built in 1996 is the beautiful old brick church built in 1931 which replaced the small frame church that preceded it.

This is the newer cemetery behind the church and is not really in good condition, Many graves have only funeral home markers which are easily removed or destroyed. There are a number of unmarked graves and many with no birth and death dates.

I have transcribed from a survey of the cemetery using headstone readings, done by myself and Gordon Olson, in July of 2001.

From the intersection of Hwy.70 East and Jones Sausage Rd., in front of the new White Oak Shopping Center, turn (N) onto Jones Sausage Rd. (SR 2547) and go .6 mi. to E. Garner Rd. (SR 1004). (This is a curvy piece of road which crosses the railroad tracks.) Turn right on E. Garner Rd.(SE) and go 1.6 mi. to Auburn Church Rd.(SR 2548). Turn onto Auburn Church Rd. which runs (N) only, and go .8 mi. to the cemetery on your right just after the intersection with Wall Store Rd.

This small family cemetery is enclosed by a wrought iron fence and sits on a little knoll in a sparsely settled rural neighborhood. Some of the headstones have been carefully mended and the cemetery is in good condition. Dr. Braxton Banks' house on E. Garner Rd. is listed in "The Historic Architecture of Wake County".

All the information in parentheses was supplied by descendants of this family.

I transcribed this cemetery from tombstones on 17 Mar 2003.

Holland's United Methodist Church Cemetery

Garner, Wake County, North Carolina

1010 Road
Garner N.C.

Lat: 35° 39' 10"N, Lon: 78° 39' 35"W

From Raleigh, take 401 South about 8 miles to 1010 Rd. and turn left, (east). Stay on 1010 until you cross Old Stage Road, continue east on 1010 a short distance and the large white church will be on your left at the intersection of 1010 and Holland Rd.

The church has been in existence since 1812 and was founded by William Holland, born in Chester, England in 1750, an English school master who is buried in the cemetery.

A little way from the church is the site of the original country school which no longer exists. Like every place in Wake County the church has had enormous growth and has added to the simple clapboard original church. The congregation has quadrupled in recent years.

As we recorded the tombstones a member of the church, Ronnie Burnette, stopped to talk and told us the land where the church and cemetery stand had been part of his family's farm and the property across the road was still held by the Burnettes.

Recorded by Shirley and Gordon Olson from tombstones on Sep 10, 2001.

Located on Old Stage Rd., (SR 1006) approx. 1 mile N. of 1010 Rd., in the Garner area.

Directions from Raleigh: Take Hwy. 401 S. (Fayetteville Rd.) about 12 miles south to the traffic light at the intersection of 1010 Rd. and 401 S. Turn left (east) on to 1010 Rd. and go about 2 miles to the traffic light at the intersection of 1010 Rd. and Old Stage Rd., (SR 1006). A sign designates this as Williams Crossroads. Turn left (north) onto Old Stage Rd., and about 1 mile up the road, on your right, (east side) you will see 2 small cemeteries side by side. No parking available, just pull off onto the shoulder.

This is the companion cemetery to Williams Cemetery. The cemetery was hidden by overgrowth and brambles but is now cleared since there are new subdivisions adjacent. Some stones are broken and laying flat.

Gordon & Shirley Olson transcribed this cemetery in January 2002.

Lat: 35°43'22"N, Lon: 78°35'35"W

Contributed by Shirley Olson, Mar 29, 2003 [shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 21.

From the intersection of Hwy. 70E and Jones Sausage Rd.(SR 2547), across from White Oak Shopping Center, go north on Jones Sausage Rd. about 1.5 mi., to a left onto Wilmington Rd., a gravel road. Go .5 mi. to the cemetery on your right. A grassy road leads to the cemetery which is visible from the road. Please do not confuse this road with Wilmington St., Raleigh, a major throughfare.

This is a private family burial ground which was still in use in 2000. It is neat and accessible. Descendants of the family still live on Wilmington Rd.

FH indicates a Funeral Home marker, no headstone

I have transcribe from my reading of the tombstones when I visited the cemetery in Mar 28, 2003.

Hillcrest Cemetery Cary, Wake County, North Carolina

Lat: 35° 35' 36"N, Lon: 78° 43' 39"W

Contributed by Shirley Olson, Nov 30, 2005, last edited Jun 22, 2006 [Click photo to enlarge \[shirley32olson@yahoo.com\]](#). Total records = 1,169.

Dir: From the intersection of Kildaire Farm Rd. (SR 1300) & Dry Ave., Cary, (where Cary Elementary School is located) and Academy St. begins, take Dry Ave. for .15 mi. to Page St. Turn left onto Page St. for about .10 mi. and it will take you directly into the cemetery.

There are paved roads through the cemetery but no particular area to park. The cemetery is well maintained. Wake Co. land records show 4.9 acres, the property owner as "Cary Cemetary", mailing address "Cemetary St., Cary, NC 27511". The cemetery is in use and there is room for more burials. The current owner of this cemetery is the town of Cary, NC.

I am indebted to Mike Mull, for supplying much of the information that helped me to record this cemetery. I walked the cemetery and verified the information, added and corrected names and dates from tombstones where required.

I completed transcribing from all existing headstones and records Nov 30, 2005.

Directions from Raleigh, NC: From the south side of Raleigh take Beltline exit # 298 ( Hwys. 401, 70, and 50) to Tryon, about 3 miles, and bear left onto Hwy. 70 & 50. Continue south on Hwy. 70 about 7 miles to Auburn, an area of Garner. Turn left on Raynor Rd. ( SR 2555), go about a 1/2 mile to E. Garner Rd, (SR 1004), and turn left. About 1 mile ahead, on the right side of the road is the church and cemetery behind it. Parking is available beside the church.

Auburn Christian Church owns the cemetery behind the church and there is room for more burials.

Bear right onto Hwy. 401 (Fayetteville Rd.) Go about 5 miles to the traffic light at Ten-Ten Road and turn left (east). Stay on 1010 Rd. about 3 miles, and on the left side of the road, next to 10317 Ten-Ten Road, there is an old white abandoned farm house and then some old farm buildings just beyond that. A dirt road runs past the buildings to a walled cemetery. This tidy little cemetery is well cared for and all the headstones are in good condition.
