"Another bit of oral family history: When automobiles were still a rarity my grandfather (JBU) bought one. He announced one day that he was taking it to some place in Wake County known as Jinx (perhaps Jenks) Road where he vowed he would either learn to drive it or wreck it. About five o'clock that afternoon he came walking home, hot, and tired and dusty obviously having chosen the second of the two options."

① From Ltr 23 SEP 1979 to RPU from Emma Towrie U.

My grandfather JBU, died when I was about 7 or 8 years old. He was a farmer and a small building contractor. He and my Uncle John Lee U built my father's office building. I thought my grandfather was beautiful. He was or seemed tall and had a clear, ruddy complexion. He was bald except for a fringe of white hair. When I remember him, he and my grandmother were living in Apex, NC. He loved and was loved by all the neighborhood children. They call him Uncle Bert. Whenever he walked away from home, they would meet his train and he would take them to the Dairy Store for a treat. My grandmother was somewhat jealous of this attention to the town children. She felt it should have been saved for his own grandchildren. As for myself, I was always very certain that I was his favorite. I imagine each of us was. When my grandfather died there was a wreath from "The Neighborhood Children". He owned a watch - a Hamilton with a picture of a train which I passed along to my nephew. JBU, Jr. --- I didn't know any of my grandfather (JBU) brothers or sisters.

② See Ltr 26 DEC 1979 Edwin Grady Sinclair Jr to RPU

In response to question about his grandparents and unknown children 9, 10 & 11 he says "Knew Grandma Creel Upchurch. She had one son who died at birth (other 2 = ?)"

- ① See Notes of RPU 13 MAY 1981 Phone Call to M. Ester Inuy.
 Ester b 1890 is a longtime resident of Cary NC. She recalls the former Bartlett U family - & especially because he ran into the Creel family. She recalls the house where a Mr Bartlett U lived - said it was next to the Baptist Church which is now gone. She thinks the Bartlett U house is still standing although perhaps in poor condition. She could not recall much about the children of Bartlett U which fits with the idea that they left home early.
- ② See RPU Sejour 16-21 JUL 1983 - NC
 John Lee U Jr indicates James Bartlett U. b in Wake Co, NC and d in Apex, NC. In 1902 "Bart" moved from the area where Charles Bernert U now lives to Cary, NC presumably so the children could go to school.

→ [JANIE REBECCA CREEL, WIF OF JBU, I↑]

All of my grandmother's dresses were ankle length and all were made from the same pattern. Each dress was either black print on white background or white print on black background depending upon the season. I noticed that there was one dress which Granny always carried with her but which she never wore. When I asked my mother about this, she smiled and told me this was to be her shroud. I don't know how many years or how many times this dress traveled and I don't recall that there was anything morbid about this ritual. It was more a matter of simply being practical with the desire to spare someone at sometime an extra bit of bother. I only hope that the undertaker did not persuade the family to bury Granny in some fancy funeral garb for it was more fitting that she wear black on white or white on black according to the season.

My grandmother's religious faith was a rather stern one. Yet her reproof if one did something which she thought was wrong was apt to be a mild "tut, tut." Of course, if someone stepped too far out of line she removed them from her prayer list. My maternal grandmother liked to relate a time when Granny had told her, "I used to pray for papa and the children and myself, but now I just pray for the children and myself."

My brother Norman, who lived with my grandmother for a year recalled that whenever the Baptist Church bell rang Granny would send him to find out what was going on because "maybe we should be there."

Apparently my grandfather[↑] was not as great on church attendance as Granny. According to one family story a minister came to call on him, probably at Granny's request, to encourage him to improve this aspect of his life. The minister did not pick the most opportune moment because my grandfather, who earned his living as both a contractor and a farmer, was plowing a stubborn mule under a blazing sun. When the minister, protected from the glare and heat by an umbrella, became a little too persistent, my grandfather invited him to leave or risk having his hat removed by a clump of dirt.

Though not a "pew warmer" grandfather was a kind and gentle man. He was called "Uncle Bart" by the town children who liked to follow him about piper fashion. Granny was somewhat jealous that he paid them attention she felt should have been reserved for his own grandchildren. His defense was that his eyesight had gotten so poor he thought they were his grandchildren. When he died there was one especially lovely wreath decorated with a ribbon with golden letters which read "From the Neighborhood Children."

Grandpa was getting along in years when he purchased his first car. He left home in it one morning vowing that he was going to take it out on Jinx Road and learn to drive it or wreck it. About five o'clock in the afternoon he came walking home as he had indeed wrecked it.

On one of Granny's visits with us, a friend came to dinner who impressed her with his piety. When he left, she said, "Now there goes a good man." I replied that he certainly was and it was too bad that he wasn't better educated.. Probably I was just repeating something that I had heard, but Granny was about as angry with me as I can recall. She reported to my mother that I had said an uneducated man would not be allowed in Heaven. Now, I hadn't said that and I don't believe for a minute that Granny thought I had said it. However, even at nine years old I knew that my punishment would be much greater if I dared to contradict my grandmother. I just let the accusation stand.

Granny had a wonderful imagination. She produced plays which were performed in the school her daughters attended. She was very proud when one of the teachers asked to borrow a copy of one play so that it might be given in another school. Granny had to confess the only copy was in her brain.

"In your last letter you asked if I knew of a picture of my gf James Bartlett U which you might use in the U.G. There was such a picture and I remember exactly where it hung in my grandmother's house in Apex. It was taken when he was a young man and his hair was dark and he had a mustache. As a child I remember thinking that I liked him better with a fringe of white hair. I have not been able to find anyone who knows what happened to the picture but I will continue to try."

Diminutive Biographical Sketches

Rotarian: Ernest Frederick Upchurch.
Club Classification: Civil Law.
Club Fellowship Appellation: Fred.
Distinguishing Attributes: Legal ability, fidelity-to-trust, faithfulness-to-friends, civic-mindedness, public-spiritedness and warm-heartedness.

Introducing now our present president of the Yanceyville Rotary Club, Fred Upchurch, dean of the Bar of Caswell County and for the past third of a century a leader in every cause and movement for the uplift and progress of his adopted county. He was born Aug. 14, 1877, at Cary, Wake County. His early education was obtained at the old Cary High School, then a private institution. He then went to Wake Forest College, and later took his law course at that college under Profs. N. Y. Gulley and S. M. Mordicia, two of the outstanding teachers of law of the past 50 years or more. He took the State examination in August, 1903, and practiced in Wake until he came to Yanceyville in September, 1909.

In jotting down a few notes for me, Fred put down the date of his marriage as Jan. 20, 1904, but, like so many husbands, he overlooked the maiden name of his wife. Afterwards, in conversation, he apologized and told me her name and some of her family history. She was Mary C. Stroppe, of Old Salem, of the Dutch ancestry which founded the Moravian community more than two hundred years ago. Ever since the founding of Salem College (where most of Caswell's daughters were educated in antebellum days), some of her family have been teaching there. Fred confesses the culture and the aristocracy is on her side of the house. In spite of being a grandma several times, she is still about the chic (k) est and debonairest wife hereabouts. In truth, I will say she is about the brightest and quickest in repartee. I have never been able to match tongues with her. She squelches and smashes me, and I have to resort to the written word to hold my own. She is, withal, graciously alluring. I hand to her, also, a large part in the birthing and rearing of three sons and a daughter. Norman, the oldest, since graduating at Wake Forest, has been teaching in Caswell, mostly at Bartlett Yancey High; he was principal of Archibald Murphey school for several years. His students have always praised him, as teacher and playfellow. Frederick, Junior, also graduated at Wake Forest and took law under Gulley. He is now in Atlanta, Ga., an attorney for W. L. B., after years of service in the same capacity for H. O. L. A. He is popular and has a lovely little family. My first wife often declared that Frederick was one of the sweetest boys ever raised in Yanceyville. And, she was a good judge. Behold me! Jimmie, the third son, went to Wake Forest, but had to give up his studies on account of his health. He is now keeping books for Bob White Wilson, in the inter-state trucking business. He, also, has a pleasant disposition, a lovely wife and a beautiful daughter. Emma Lou, Fred's daughter, is a sweet little redhead, with gentle and endearing charms, and she now helps her father run his law office.

Aside from building a lucrative law practice, Fred Upchurch has occupied many positions of honor and trust. He was elected to the State Senate, session of 1915, and he fathered several bills of statewide importance, including "Forfeiture of Vehicle Conveying Illegal Liquor," "Introduction of Bills of Laden to Make Out Prima Facie Case Against Common Carrier" and "Bill to Discount Taxes Paid On Or Before a Certain Date and Penalty for Delay." From 1914 to 1932, he was County Attorney. He has been for several years Prosecuting Attorney in the Recorder Court. In 1908, before coming to Yanceyville, he helped create and organize at Cary the first high school in the State, and later he was highly instrumental in organizing Bartlett Yancey High. He had a big part in establishing our Rotary Club, was largely responsible for our Fair Association, as well as the Coble Creamery plant and The Caswell Knitting Mills, and, in the midst of the Hoover depression, he worked hand and hand and heart and heart with Sam Pason and others in reorganizing the Bank of Yanceyville.

BLANCH — James Coman dropped two O'Keefe beer bottles into place in the home-made wooden bottle holder and gently guided the muzzle of a tiny orphan lamb to the attached nipple.

He repeated the process with a second orphan and soon the two 10-day-old, dingy-white babies were busy with their dinner of warm milk. Their last meal had come out of two Mellow Yellow bottles.

"You use what comes to hand," said Coman, a landscape contractor and part-time sheep farmer who owns Melrose Farm, a beautiful 19th century farmhouse and 178 surrounding acres north of Yanceyville in Caswell County.

The two orphans, separated from the other 92 lambs in the herd, shared a small pen where they huddled under a heat lamp after the milk was gone. Coman would release them when they were stronger and could fend for themselves.

Coman would like to be a full-time sheep farmer. He believes a resurgence in the sheep industry is possible in North Carolina.

To that end he has joined with the owners of two other sheep farms to form the Caswell Sheep and Wool Co. Their aim is to sell quality hand-dyed wool yarns, wool quilt batting, freezer lambs and breeding stock — at a profit.

"As such their operation is unique," said Charles Miller, head of the N.C. Department of Agriculture livestock section. "They are unique in that they probably spun 8,000 pounds of wool this year. We would like to see them grow to the point that they could use a lot of wool."

The Caswell Sheep and Wool Co. came into official being in December 1982 when the three farms incorporated. Since July, the five involved — Coman, Jim and Joanne Upchurch and Bill and Pat Bush — have worked together in a partnership.

"We formed a corporation basically to see what we could do with 2,000 pounds (of wool) we already had on hand from the three farms," Coman said.

They soon found out. The company processed and sold that 2,000 pounds plus another 8,000 pounds purchased from other farmers.

Joanne Upchurch said it costs the company $5 a pound to turn raw wool into yarn. The yarn brings $12 to $14 a pound wholesale. Suggested retail price is $20 to $24 a pound, or $5 to $6 per four-ounce skein, she said.

Regular customers include Belk's in South Square Mall in Durham, Hinshaw's Mill Outlet in Burlington, the Gingerbread House in Prospect Hill and the Scotch Bonnet in Greenville. Upchurch, the main sales representative for the company, is lining up other outlets.

Coman, 35, has the largest herd. "I've had 375 born over three years. I had 170 ewes in October. I sold 45 to get capital to put the wool business together."

One ewe, the mother of the orphans, died, so the number stands at 124. The first 60 to lamb had 91 lambs. The second 60 could increase Coman's lambs to 150 or 160.

Coman said he hoped the three farms would have a combined herd of about 1,000 ewes within three years.

The partners got acquainted when they joined the Caswell Sheep Producers Association. "We found out in the association that we three had common goals — making sheep our livelihood," said Joanne Upchurch, 35, who with her husband owns Oak Meadow, a 210-acre farm in Blanch. The Upchurches have about 35 ewes; they hope to have 500 eventually.

The third farm, Arabesque, is in the Cobb community. The Bushes — Bill, 34, and Pat, 35 — are teachers who came to Caswell County in 1977 from Danville, Va., to escape city life. They have about 16 ewes on their 50 acres.

Coman, originally from Durham, began selling lamb for meat to individuals two years ago. The Upchurches, natives of Caswell County, also were involved parttime in producing sheep for meat. Jim Upchurch, 37, works fulltime for the Caswell County Department of Social Services.

"But we realized the cream on the cake would have to be wool. Not raw wool but finished wool," Joanne Upchurch said.

"All of us knew there was a niche in the market for good wool yarn. I'm speaking from experience because I have been on the consumer end. That gave us something to work with."

Joanne Upchurch said she and Pat Bush both did a lot of needlework and had not been particularly impressed with the yarn they found in stores.

The five complain of the weak market for sheep and sheep products in North Carolina, one of the reasons they joined the producers association and are helping in an effort to revive the N.C. Sheep Association, which met this month after an 18-year hiatus.

Lamb might be selling in the $2.95 to $4 range in the supermarket, but "when we took lambs for sale this spring, we got 30 cents a pound for some," Coman said. "We had to do something."

The state's wool pool, held annually in several locations throughout the state, brought about 48 cents per pound last year, only after state agriculture officials postponed the sale for several months because prices were so weak. Producers need to get $1 per pound for raw wool to be profitable and 75 cents to 80 cents per pound for lamb to be profitable, Miller said.

"We hope we will constitute a competitive market for producers," Coman said.

Joanne Upchurch said the company last year paid producers between 45 cents and 85 cents per pound for raw wool, depending on quality and cleanliness.

Sheep once were a bigger business in North Carolina, according to Miller of the agriculture department, who said there are probably 75 or fewer serious sheep farmers in the state today.

"At the turn of the century, we probably had half a million (sheep)," he said. Now there are "probably 10,000 ewes in the state. It's been growing slightly the last couple of years."

The slight growth in the state herd the last several years reversed a downward trend that began at the turn of the century and accelerated in the 1940s.

According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the nation's sheep flock dropped 8 percent after increasing for three consecutive years.

The USDA said the flock — 11.9 million sheep and lambs as of Jan. 1 — was the smallest since the first annual sheep count in 1867. The U.S. sheep industry peaked in 1942, the USDA said, at 56.2 million head.

The Caswell Sheep and Wool Co. got started with a $25,000 investment from the five, Coman said. They have had to buy very little equipment because each farm had items that could be used or adapted.

In addition to the money, the group also invested an enormous amount of time searching for a processor and for outlets and trade shows for the finished product.

So much time was spent finding a processor that the five will not reveal where they send the raw wool to be scoured and spun into yarn.

"Where we send it is a trade secret," said Upchurch.

The spinner transforms their wool to yarn on an 18th century spinning mechanism, Upchurch said. The finished product is mule-spun yarn, preferred by the five because it is very much like yarn spun by hand. That means it is fluffier.

Raw wool contains lanolin, and the company worked to find a processor who would leave some of it in the wool after washing and scouring it. Lanolin makes the yarn somewhat water repellent, Upchurch said.

Once yarn is returned to the company, the next step is dyeing it. The company sells four types of undyed natural yarns, one white and three shades of gray. Another 25 to 30 colors are offered in varying shades of blue, orange, mauve and pink, among others.

These are the result of tedious, back-breaking hand dyeing, done by the five in an empty tenant house at Melrose Farm. It involves hours bent over buckets and tubs, stirring the yarn around in dye until the desired color is achieved. Then it must be rinsed repeatedly until rinse water is clear.

A color that requires 27 rinses is not one you want to use often, Bush said, adding that the last dyeing session took an entire weekend and lots of beer.

"By the time you've finished dyeing a couple hundred skeins of yarn, you know you've done a day's work," Bush said.

"It involves a great deal of handling," Upchurch said, "but we still choose to do it ourselves because we have greater control over the colors."

Dyeing is done on days off. Other chores, like putting together sales packets or assembling color cards, can be done at night after work, Bush said.

"Basically, we all have a vision of the future — a resurgence of sheep in the state," Coman said.

"Certainly sheep can go only one way and that is up. They hit bottom about 10 years ago and have been bumping along ever since," he added.

James Upchurch

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

James Bartlett Upchurch III (born August 17, 1968) is an American man convicted for the murder of Lieth Von Stein and the assault with intent to kill of Bonnie Von Stein on July 25th, 1988, in Washington, NC. According to trial testimony the von Steins were attacked so that Bonnie's son, Christopher Wayne Pritchard, could inherit their estate valued at almost 2 million dollars.

Upchurch was convicted of first degree murder, assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill or seriously injure, conspiracy to commit murder, and burglary in the first degree. For these crimes, he was sentenced on January 30, 1990, respectively, to death, 20 years, 6 years and life. Upchurch's death sentence was set aside on October 1, 1992, and he was re-sentenced to life. He will not be eligible for parole until 2022.

His co-conspirators, Chris Pritchard and Gerald Neal Henderson, were both convicted of murder in the second degree (aiding and abetting) and assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill or seriously injure. Henderson began parole on December 11, 2000. It was completed on February 27, 2005, and he is a free man. Pritchard was paroled on June 2, 2007.

James Bartlett Upchurch III was born and raised in Caswell County, North Carolina. He is the first son of Joanne Ensley Upchurch (deceased) and James Bartlett Upchurch II. He has one brother, Emory, and two sisters, Carrie and Alexandra.

Two books were written about this case: Joe McGinniss' Cruel Doubt (1991) and Jerry Bledsoe's Blood Games (1992). Both were made into TV movies. The miniseries Cruel Doubt was released in May 1992. The adaptation of Bledsoe's book, Honor Thy Mother, aired in April 1992.

I think I have just located Mary Elizabeth Wilson U. (wife of James Benj.) on the 1870 Harnett Co. census. There is a Mary E. Wilson age 13 living with the family of Sim/Simon Truelove. The age is a little off but the family lives near the family of James. They were married by the 1880 census. I am now trying to find if this was my great-grandmother and what the connection to the family was. Her mother Sarah is not listed with household.

○ From Ltr 23 SEP 1999 Gloria Jean Bayler Ed RPU

I went to visit my mother's sister Lucille U. Stinson this trip and was able to ask her some questions:

She told me Aunt's Lillye and Ava died from pneumonia. They were in a church program at Christmas time and caught colds that got worse and neither one ever really recovered their strength after that. She said she heard they were never strong. Aunt Lucille could not tell me much more about them as they died before she was born.

Her father was working on the back of a haying machine and developed breathing and lung problems and from there doctors said he had TB, he had not been sick before that she remembers.

With what I know of "current family health" I think the past generations suffered with asthma and allergies which made them susceptible to breathing problems or as in the late 1800's and early 1900's lung problems. I was able to obtain his death certificate—copy enclosed.

Aunt Lucille also told me James & Mary U's oldest son Lonnie died as a small child. She could not remember his age or what he died of, but did say she was sure he was buried in the Buies Creek Cemetery with his parents and siblings.

I went back to the Buies Creek Cemetery and made a photo of what I believe to be his gravestone. I feel sure it is not a rock in the ground as this is not a rocky area and the placement in the family plot makes it possible to be a grave. I have written to the county to try to find out where to get the burial records for the cemetery since I think he died before 1913. I also made a photo of the grave of Lenora U's husband L. Vander Denning at the same cemetery

a. Bernard U

b. Willie U

c. Avery U

d. Lenora U

e. Charles Herbert U

f. Willie U

g. Maud U

The entries for which there is no conflict are shown as ☐

It is presumed that Lonnie U died young and is therefore not included in lists B + C. He is therefore shown as ☐

It is my opinion that Ina U on list B and Avery U on list C are one and the same and that this person is actually AVA D. U (F) b 6 SEP 1887 d 13 DEC 1908 and she is shown as ☐. This accounts for 7 children

The 8th must be Willie U (Mae?) - see list C - possibly b & d young - maybe 1890

Ray Raise the questions as to whether insanity ran in the Upchurch Family - Presumably in the Galt & Sechen & especially among descendants of his son Nathaniel Smith U:

Concerning the first child of N. S. and Sarah: so his middle name really was Benjamin? I had him listed as James Berry, as the 1880 census appeared to say Berry. But perhaps that was really Benny, suggesting Benjamin, the name of his uncle, Sarah's brother. I note he was listed as insane on the 1870 census. I have to ask: does mental illness run through this line of the family? Besides James Benjamin, two other brothers seemed have been mentally ill: Nathaniel Swan and Fred Bradford. Both of them apparently died at the State Mental Hospital in Chattahoochee (River Junction), Florida. Additionally, Susan Eleanor, daughter of John Jones and Belle, died in the same mental hospital. (Another relative also spent time there: Rebecca Hankins Upchurch, wife of William G. Upchurch, was there the same time as Susie and died there in 1932, but she is obviously not blood related).

Dear Chairman Rippelmeyer:

The removal of Architectural Barriers that impede individuals with disabilities is required by the American with Disabilities Act (ADA). The Act was signed into law on July 26, 1990. County facilities that require structural modifications in order to remove Architectural Barriers are mandated by law to be completed by January 26, 1995.

Grant funds may be available to assist counties in the funding of ADA required modifications. The firm of Upchurch and Associates is experienced with meeting the requirements of ADA. Should you desire assistance with Grant applications, the development of cost estimates, project plans and specifications for facility modifications or other items associated with ADA, please contact Upchurch and Associates. We will be pleased to outline our services available to you.

Sincerely,

UPCHURCH & ASSOCIATES, P.C.

You will find enclosed 2 copies of the only known photo of my grandfather James Bernard Upchurch and his sister Maude Upchurch Cooper. I don't know the date of the photo, only can guess early 1900's, as you know from your records he died in 1926. He had been sick for a while with what was diagnosed as TB at the time. In later years as my mother developed asthma and emphysema, she never smoked but worked in the tobacco fields as a child, she stated that her symptoms were like she remembered her father's to be. Since know one else in the house developed TB it is possible they had the same thing. Back then if anyone in the neighborhood had an ailment, others were said to have the same thing. The photo seems to have been taken when he was healthy. Have you had any contact with the descendants of Maude. I would like to give them a copy of the photo if they are interested. My contact with that part of the line is nonexistent.

○ From Ltr 31 MAY 1999 Gloria Jean Bayler DRA

James Bernard worked as a store clerk in a drug according to his son, Reid. Since he had been sick and unable to work for a long time they were poor. Mama told me they did not realize how poor they were because no one else had much either. After "Bun" died, my grandmother Ophelia did not have means to take care of the 5 children. James Redoluphs "Dol" and Florence Ann (Johnson) Mitchell, (her parents) went in the wagon to their home and loaded all to go and live with them. They moved from the town of Buies Creek to the country of Buies Creek. Since grandpa Dol was a farmer there was now plenty of food. She told me even though times were hard they never went hungry and always felt loved and wanted by their grandparents. They helped with the farm when they could. Ophelia helped cook for the farm hands.

Mama had a bit of artist in her but no one else seem to share her talent even in the next generation. There are 3 pastel chalk pictures she did when she was about 12-13 years old that survived. Guess the rest were not kept. I have one, my sister has one and a Bayles cousin that my mother was very close to has the 3rd. For a young child they are wonderful, however she was not allowed to pursue "this useless pastime." Many years later my father encouraged her to try again. She took lessons in oil painting. Family members now share her paintings. Several years before her death, she put the name of who was to inherit her work on the back of each picture. Of course my sister and I had 1st choice. Mama's oil paintings are proudly displayed.

On medical history:

Mama was diagnosed with Diabetes in her 50's. About the same time, her oldest sister Lucille and cousin Una Earl (daughter of Charles Herbert) both discovered they also had it. They thought it must have come from the Upchurch side since Una Earl had it too. Do you know of any other family members with diabetes. Would be interesting to know if their theory was correct.

Jean reports that her GF "Ban" (JBUT) died of a lingering TB infection. His wife felt that his family should have helped more when Ban was sick. After Ban died in 1926 his wife Ophelia & the 5 kids went to live with her parents in Guier Creek, NC. Later in 1934 Ophelia remarried and moved to Sampson Co, NC. Because of these circumstances Jean says it has been hard to unravel details about her Upchurch heritage.

JAMES BERNARD U

XIN-14670 @

From Ltr 23 SEP 1999 Gloria Jean Bayler to RPA

I went to visit my mother's sister Lucille U. Stinson this trip and was able to ask her some questions:

She told me Aunt's Lillye and Ava died from pneumonia. They were in a church program at Christmas time and caught colds that got worse and neither one ever really recovered their strength after that. She said she heard they were never strong. Aunt Lucille could not tell me much more about them as they died before she was born.

Her father was working on the back of a haying machine and developed breathing and lung problems and from there doctors said he had TB, he had not been sick before that she remembers.

With what I know of "current family health" I think the past generations suffered with asthma and allergies which made them susceptible to breathing problems or as in the late 1800's and early 1900's lung problems. I was able to obtain his death certificate—copy enclosed.

Aunt Lucille also told me James & Mary U's oldest son Lonnie died as a small child. She could not remember his age or what he died of, but did say she was sure he was buried in the Buies Creek Cemetery with his parents and siblings.

I went back to the Buies Creek Cemetery and made a photo of what I believe to be his gravestone. I feel sure it is not a rock in the ground as this is not a rocky area and the placement in the family plot makes it possible to be a grave. I have written to the county to try to find out where to get the burial records for the cemetery since I think he died before 1913. I also made a photo of the grave of Lenora U's husband L. Vander Denning at the same cemetery

LIST

A. The 1880 census for Harnett Co, NC lists 3 children:

1. Lonnie U b 1875

2. Lenora U b 1878

3. Lillye U b 1879

B. The 1900 census for Harnett Co, NC lists 5 children but shows there had been 8 born, 6 still living.

1. Willie U b 1879

2. Herbert U b 1882

3. Bernard U b 1884

4. Iva U b 1887 [AVA D. U]

5. Maud U b 1893

SAME

C. Input from Evelyn Lutz Stewart 15 DEC 2001 - Pg 3 shows 7 children of James Benjamin U

a. Bernard U

b. Willie U

c. Anny U

d. Lenora U

e. Charles Herbert U

f. Willie U

g. Maud U

The entries for which there is no conflict are shown as ☐

It is presumed that Lonnie U died young and is therefore not included in lists B + C. He is therefore shown as ☐

It is my opinion that Iva U on list B and Anny U on list C are one and the same and that this person is actually AVA D. U (F) b 6 SEP 1887 d 13 DEC 1908 and she is shown as ☐. This accounts for 7 children

The 8th must be Willie U (MNF?) - see list C - possibly b 4d younger 1890 maybe

Jesse had clearly in his mind that his GF Chaburn U, I "CLEABORN" moved from NC to GA. Jesse recalls key items about his family: [NOTE - The writer JTB clearly writes his name as JESSIE in the ltr]

I. Richard U, III - Head of Clan

A. Chaburn U, I - had 4 boys & 2 girls - lived Henry Co, GA

* married sister

1. JAMES U [James Monroe U, I] m d () Elizabeth McGarity [Sarah Elizabeth M^cGarity] - lived & died in Henry Co, GA. - had 5 boys, 4 girls

2. William U [William Chaburn U] m d () Catherine - and moved to TX - Hallasville or Hemphill (Has to be Hallittsville, Tawara Co, TX - RPU) - before the "old Revolutionary War" (Has to be Civil War - RPU)

3. * Jasper U - went to TX with William U (#2) & stayed 6 years - came back to Henry Co, GA in 1860 before war broke out. He d 1911 (Henry Co, GA)

Father of Jessie Tyre U

4. * BRITT Uphunch [James Britton U] m d () Susan Elizabeth Chaffin. They moved to AR 1859. She lived corner of Choctaw Ave & Vine St in Hockett, AR until she died about 1912

[NOTE: The above report by Jesse Tyre U that his Uncle William Chaburn U moved to TX brings conflicting information which needs to be resolved:

- There is a William U age 37 (b abt 1823) (GA) on the 1860 Census of Tawara Co, TX and he has a wife Catherine --.
- However, I previously assumed the TX Uphunch was William Green U 5/8 Chantry U. [William Green U is a 2nd cousin of William Chaburn U]
- Subsequent records of locations & children of WCU + WGU tend to suggest that Jasper U went to TX with WGU not WCU. Jasper U not found on TX records - RPU 26 FEB 04]

My gf, Britton U, m Susan Elizabeth Chaffin in GA. They then came to Columbia Co, AR. There my father was born in 1865. When she was about 4 the family moved to Hockett in Sebastian Co, AR which is just south of Fort Smith, AR. My father and his brother Joe opened a store there in 1882 and ran it until 1914. Their parents are bur in a country cemetery, Pleasant Hill, about 2 miles east of Hockett, AR.

Britton U is bur in Pleasant Hill Cem. which is two miles east of Hackett, AR. His stone reads 3 MAY 1825 - 26 JUL 1897. (Note that a chart prepared by Grace U shows d 26 JAN 1897 - RPU).

His wife Susan E. U (nee Susan Elizabeth Chaffin) is shown bur there also - 22 SEP 1829 - 7 SEP 1914. Also in the Cem. is George E. U, a son of Britton and Mrs J. A. U, the first wife of Britton's son James Arch U. Also Herbert U 1909 - 1977

⑪ See Notes of RPU call 23 DEC 1983 to Grace NMN U

Grace U recalls no stories of her GF Britton U being in the Civil War but she said he could have been. Likewise she recalls no basis for his last name being "Lee". She cannot explain the JUN vs JUL on his death date. She presumes it may have been transcribed wrong from the stone. Grace will send me a photo of Britton U and wife. He never weighed more than 120 lbs. His wife died in Hackett, AR. Britton U moved his family from Southern AR to Sebastian Co, AR when Joseph Franklin U was about four years old. (Hence the move would have been about 1869)
