Engagement announced

Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. Lentz of Concord announce the engagement of their daughter, Raygina Elizabeth Lentz, to Roger Gale Beale, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Beale of Raleigh. The couple will wed on Oct. 19 at the James Dinwiddie Memorial Chapel at Peace College. The bride-elect is pursuing a master of divinity degree at Duke University in the fall. The groom-to-be, employed by Bland Landscaping, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. S. Brack Jones of Apex.

From IA 15 SEP 1993 Tracy Newman U to RPL - Re
me sent to Albemarle, NC Public Library

At the library, I also found a book by Eleanor D. McSwain entitled Some descendants of David McSwain printed by the National Printing company, Macon, Georgia in 1974. Several statements in the book fit very nicely with the family tradition that Jones Green Upchurch's mother was a McSwain. The book shows a Hannah McSwain who was the daughter of the George McSwain in the Montgomery County 1800 and 1810 censuses. This Hannah McSwain is shown in the book as being born 1794.

The Hannah Upchurch in Jones Upchurch's household in the Cape Girardeau, Missouri census for 1850 is listed as 52 years old. This would make her birth year either 1797 or 1798. I don't see this as too great a discrepancy. It has not been unusual for women to loose years in the census. I have one ancestor who aged only six years in the ten years between censuses.

The mother of this Hannah McSwain was named Elizabeth Jones. If a source for Jones Upchurch name is needed, this easily could be used.

Hannah McSwain had a sister, two years younger, named Margaret. Jones' first daughter was named Margaret. Hannah and Margaret were of a family with 16 children.

Louis J. McSwain, a brother four years younger than Hannah McSwain, migrated from Montgomery County, North Carolina to Henry County, Tennessee.

In this book, Some descendants of David McSwain, the author gives as the source for much of her information, a book by S. C. Jones entitled The Hamrick Generations. David<sup>2</sup> McSwain married a Sousanna Hamrick. My local library, who has been very good at obtaining books for me through the inter-library loan procedures, was not able to locate this book. Very likely, if it can be found, it may contain additional relevant information.

Entries A, B, C certainly include William U, II and not his son William U, III. Entries D & E are safely assigned to John U, IV. For Entry F the reference could be to William U, II or William U, III. Question - did William U, II live until age 66 (4 MAY 1801) - if not then entry F applies to William U, III, a most likely outcome - RFD 31 JAN 2002

PENNEY ROAD

Jones Family Cemetery # 2 Wake County, North Carolina

Contributed by Shirley Olson, Dec 16, 2000 [shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 7.

Directions from Cary: Take Walnut St. to the intersection of Tryon Rd. and Holly Springs Rd. Walnut St. ends here and Holly Springs Rd. begins. Stay on Holly Springs Rd. until it intersects with Penney Rd., turn right, and keep a sharp look out! On your right, directly across from the first mail box on your left sits a little fenced cemetery, barely visible until autumn, as it is in a heavily wooded area. There is a tiny place to park, easily missed. A natural wood fence with a gate surrounds the monuments. It is well kept.

There have been members of the Jones families in Wake County since 1749 and their history is entwined with Wake County's. For those with an interest in the Jones families I recommend "Around and About Cary", by Thomas Byrd, illustrated by Jerry Miller, for a brief but impressive introduction to the Jones history, complete with sketches and family tree. This is only one of several Jones burial sites. Surveyed and transcribed by Shirley and Gordon Olson Oct 22, 2000.

Hi Diane---

Good to hear from you. I have reviewed my files on Sarah N. Jones, presumptive wife of Elbert Upchurch and presumably your ancestors. I feel there is a 95% chance that the Sallie J. Upchurch you find in Savannah, Chatham County, GA is in fact your ancestor Sarah. There are several circumstantial aspects that can be cited to support this conclusion a little to contest it.

This is the first time I show her referred to as "Sallie" but the name "Sarah" is often styled as "Sallie" so there is little downside to her being called "Sallie". The use of the middle initial "J" is a very positive aspect of your discovery.

Since Sarah was born about 1837+-2 she would have been about age 53 years in 1890. Of importance this would indicate she had not married and at her age would not likely have married subsequently and thus presumably would have died with her Upchurch name.

I find another branch of the Upchurch family in Savannah decades later but no Upchurches in Chatham Co., GA in the 1880-1920 era. You could gamble that Sarah stayed in the area and died and was buried there. This could provide a basis for much research. I do not find her on my 1900 census for Chatham Co., GA but you might want to go to the census records for the County for 1900 and look name by name to see if she was missed. Somewhere you might find a reference to her death or grave site. Have you tried the "Find a Grave" website?

While we cannot be absolutely sure yet that the Sallie you found is your ancestor I think it is a great discovery to explore.

In closing may I say what a pleasure it is to have a Cooperator like you who digs and digs then gives me the opportunity to chime in. This makes a real partnership.

Best!

Well, I have found something very interesting. I found Sarah Upchurch in the US City Directroy (New Beta) for Ga. Living in Columbus. It has her listed as widow and her husband as ELBERT. She is in the 1906 and 1910 city directory. I know this is my Sarah now. As you remember my grandmother Belle Vinson was living with her in Columbus in 1910. I can not begin to tell you how excited I am to finally found something that proves she was married to Elbert Upchurch. I am going to keep searching to see now if I can find out where she was buried. (Oh Yea it give her address in 1906 as 304 Braod Street in Columbus. diane

Diane reaffirms that her ancestor SUS appears on the 1870 Census of Upson Co, GA in the name of her FATHER Nathan Jones. However, she is styled as Sarah Jones rather than as Mrs Sarah N. (Jones) Upchurch. Her dau Mary is present. See I desc ④ in the profile for 1870 Census Record.

(3) EXCERPT FROM LTR 6 MAR 2013 CLAUDE C. BURGESS TO DIANE CLAY WATTS (SHE SENT TO RPH 11 MAR 2013) - EXCELLENT HELP RE UPCHURCHES OF UPSON CO. GA. (I DELETED CENSUS & MARRIAGE RECORDS OF UPCHURCH CITATIONS - EXTRACTED SEPERATELY - RPH 21 APR 2013)

After receiving your letter of request, I searched a publication of Upson County Newspaper extracts from 1825-1889, and I could not find a mention of the death of Elbert Upchurch. I then checked the Early History of Upson County Georgia and the only mention is stating Mr. Upchurch was a Private in Co. D, 13th Georgia Regiment. The same publication also states that "Sarah" M. Upchurch was a member of Good Hope Primitive Baptist Church in 1875. Unfortunately, these were the only two mentions of Elbert and Sarah in this publication and neither Keaton nor Margret Upchurch were mentioned. I also checked The Cemeteries of Upson County, Georgia and there was no listing for an Upchurch in this book. Furthermore, I then checked our Wills and Estates as well as the Records of Accounts and found no listing for an Upchurch in this resource. Unfortunately, we do not have a genealogy work for the Upchurch family in our holdings as this may have given a better clue to our search. After the above searches, I then went to our Deed and Mortgage indexes and searched from 1825-1879 and found no mention of a purchase of property by an Upchurch individual. However, my last search was in the resource of our Tax digests. In this endeavor I searched our Tax Digests from 1841-1863 and found Elbert Upchurch mentioned twice. In 1859 Elbert was living in the Blackankle section of Upson with very little description otherwise, save for a mark 1 poll tax and $0.25 tax under the column "Tax on profession, dentists, polls free persons of color, etc." In 1860 Elbert was listed as living in the Hootenville district of Upson with a mark of 1 under the poll and listing him having 2 children between the ages of 6 and 18 years old. Unfortunately, I did not find any other mention of the above Upchurch Family in the Tax Digests.

After finding the above names in the marriage index, I then went back to The Cemeteries of Upson County Ga. and searched for the married names and unfortunately, I did not find any of them listed.

Hi Phillip. Right now thats all I know about Mary. I do know that they both worked at a Mill of some kind in Columbus. Thats seem to be the profession of the Vinson Family. I would like to make a correction to your notes Belle was Born 1884 instead of 1883. That seems to have been the profession of the Vinson family. Even Belle worked a Mill in Prattville Al. (my home) and in Columbus Ga. In the 1910 Columbus Ga. City Directory. It has Belle list as working at the Ga. Mnfg. Co. and she is living with Sarah Upchurch. I look forward to your notes about Abner Farnk Upchurch. I am still keeping up my search on the Upchurchs'. If I found out anything more about Mary I will let you know.

Hi Phillip, Your letter came today. Thank you for the information on the Vinson family. I am not sure if any of my Vinson came from Houston Co. Ga. But it will give me something to check out.

→ NEE SARAH N. JONES

I all so found a little bit of new information for Sarah Upchurch. In the 1862 "Salt List" for Upson County Ga. under the heading "Names of Widows of Deceased Soldiers" Sarah is listed there. The state gave her free salt. I don't know how much. I got this information form the Upson Co. Archvies & History. They only gave me the name of the book and the pg. number 73. That was all the information they had. But I am working on finding out how much she was given and how often. All so listed on the same pg was Mrs. Henry Upchurch under the heading "Wives & Widows having a Son or Sons now in Services". Thanks again for the information! Diane

I. <sup>Δ</sup> DAVID HENRY HOLLAND b 1776 OR 1777 (Nansemond Co, VA) d 1 MAR 1874
 (Gus Holly Springs, Wake Co, NC). Lived at Apex, NC near the BRIGHT HOLLAND place which Union Soldiers ransacked in the Civil War. War Col in War 1812
 M d (1ST) ( ) - - - Md (2ND) ( ) 14 MAR 1849 ( ) MABEL BRIDGES
 b 1782 ( ) d 25 AUG 1867 (Wake Co, NC) (at home of DAU LUCINTHA &
 SIL GREEN BECKWITH - FROM THE BIBLICAL RECORDER 4 SEP 1867

Most of the records we have refer to David Henry Holland as "colonel," a rank he apparently held in the War of 1812. The Biblical Recorder, a Baptist paper published in Wake County, carried a resolution in its March 25, 1874, edition, extending sympathy to the family of David Holland (the paper was on file at Wake Forest College in the 1950's) An obituary in The Biblical Recorder dated September 4, 1867, included a notice about the death of Mrs. Mabel Holland. The notice reads: "Died, at the residence of her son-in-law Green Beckwith, Esq., on Sunday night the 25th inst., aged 86 years, Mrs. Mabel Holland, widow of the late Col. David Holland, of Wake County (full text on #39)." There is a discrepancy in these dates for David Holland's death: If Mabel, his wife, died in 1867 and was referred to as the widow of Col. David Holland, he could not have died in 1874. NOTE: CHECK THE BIBLICAL RECORDER -- DO WE HAVE THE WRONG DATE FOR ONE OF THESE ISSUES?

According to Irma Ragan Holland's book, THE HOLLANDS...FROM VIRGINIA TO NORTH CAROLINA...THE JOSEPH HOLLAND LINE...THE JIMMY HOLLAND LINE, David Henry Holland died March 1, 1874, and the death is listed in the Wake County Death Notices, volume 1856 - 1893. This book says Holland lived in Apex, NC, near the Bright Holland Place. Northern soldiers ransacked the place when they came through during the Civil War.

Herbert Benoy cites this source of information: "The Hollands from Virginia to North Carolina" by Irma Ragan Holland, pages 6, 7, 8, and 10. Also, "Death Notices" Vol. 1836-1893, Wake County, North Carolina. Included in Herbert's papers are pictures of Lucintha Holland and her husband Green Beckwith. In correspondence with Mrs. C. F. Oakley of Siler City, NC, October 30, 1955, she says "the site of David Holland's home was around 3 miles from my old home...I've seen it lots of times." She mentions that she helped "Cousin S. W. Williams, a druggist in Raleigh, write a family history." She says Williams has died and she doesn't know who has the history...."You could write to Mrs. S. W. Williams, Hillsboro St., Raleigh, NC, and ask her if she has the history"

David Holland is mentioned twice in Elizabeth Reid Murray's book, Wake: Capital County of North Carolina. In her account of Wake County's involvement in the War of 1812 she says: "Late in 1812, after the war was in progress, the General Assembly divided the Wake County militia regiment into two regiments. So many Wake men had volunteered at a June muster that it was necessary to hold a draft to determine those to be accepted. Officers of the first regiment were Col. Allen Rogers, with John T. C. Wiatt and Daniel L. Barringer as first and second majors. Col. Simpson Shaw commanded the second, with William Daniel and Thomas Ferrill, majors. The 24 Wake companies were made part of a new Seventh Division of state militia, and Dr. Calvin Jones of Raleigh, adjutant general since 1808, was named major general in command of the new Seventh. Robert Williams of Raleigh succeeded Jones as adjutant general." She then lists the captains of the two regiments. Included in one regiment are the names of the following men: Dempsey Blake, James Speight, David Holland, Thomas Ferrill, Reuben Jackson, John Green, Solomon Jones, William Jones, Benjamin Dunn, John Arnold, William M'Cullers, and Asa Bacon.

In her account of banking in Wake County during the 1800s, Mrs. Reid says the county's early banks came into being primarily for the purpose of issuing notes to retire the old post-Revolutionary paper currency of the state. Three of these banks survived the financial panic and depression of 1819, but in the 1820s local investors speculated heavily in bank stocks, and dividends began to decline. "Between 1832 and 1835...two (banks) passed all their dividends, and ...three were forced into liquidation in 1835. One of the reasons for their failure was the demand of the Second Bank of the United States that they meet in specie all their obligations to pay. Several groups of Wake citizens gathered in May and June of 1834 and forwarded to Congress resolutions protesting the bank's actions and opposing its rechartering....In June at Holly Spring, those taking...action were Woodson Clements, Col. David Holland, John B. Owen, John A. Brown, Needham and <sup>Δ</sup> Samuel Norris."

Also listed as the head of a Medlin family in North Carolina in the 1830 Federal census were Ave, Burgess, Gilley, Mary, Temperance, Wealthy, and William Medlin in Franklin County; Allen, Hartwell, Cader, Kinchen, Shadrach, Willie, and Winston Medlin in Wake County; Drury and Johnson Medlin in Johnston County; Green Medlin in Nash County; John and Thomas Medlin in Halifax County; Archibald, Charles, and William Medlin in Moore County; Benjamin Medlin in Randolph County; Harrison Medlin in Guilford County; John Medlin was listed in Anson County; and Martha Medlin in Lenoir County.

In August 1832, Shadrach Medlin testified in Wake County Court on behalf of William Wilder who applied for and received a pension for his service as a Revolutionary War soldier.

In 1833, Bryant Medlin applied for and was granted a pension from the Federal government for his military service. According to his pension application, Bryant Medlin (Medling) (Medleng) (Meddlin) (Medley) was born in Dinwiddie County, Virginia around 1748 and his father moved the family to North Carolina around 1753. Bryant Medlin, Sr. died an invalid in 1833 in Stokes County at approximate age 84. His will left his pension and all his property to his wife, Anna Wilder, who is believed to be from Johnston County.
