Charles Fox King

Birth 4 Oct 1839 in Wilmington, New Castle, Delaware
 Death 25 Mar 1912 in Pottsville, Schuylkill, Pennsylvania

Timeline

- 1839 Birth
 4 Oct Wilmington, New Castle, Delaware

Re his birth year: he's 10 in the 1850 Census, so 1839; his 1878 Passport Application has 1841; the 1900 Census has 1839; and his 1912 Death Certificate has 1839/1840; and Charles is likely the lone "under 5" male in the 1840 Census. So it must be 1839.

- 1840 Residence
 Jun Broadkilm Hundred, Sussex, Delaware

I've assumed that Charles is the lone "under 5" male.

- 1850 Residence
 Jun Minersville, Schuylkill, Pennsylvania

Age: 10

- 1860 Residence
 Jun Conyngham, Columbia, Pennsylvania

Age: 20 Occupation: Coach Maker.

- 1865 Marriage to Cecelia Moody
 abt Maryland

Age: 26 Just a placeholder date.

- 1867 Death of his wife Cecelia
 18 Jan Pennsylvania

Age: 27

- 1870 Residence
 Jun Ashland, Schuylkill, Pennsylvania

Age: 30 Occupation: Contractor. Charles is living with his uncle Charles S. and aunt Sarah King---and with their daughter, his first cousin and his future second wife, Sarah Clementine "Sallie" King.

- 1874 Marriage to Sarah Clementine "Sallie" King
 abt Pottsville, Schuylkill, Pennsylvania

Age: 35 Not certain of the exact year because of disagreement in what was reported in the 1900 & 1910 Censuses. In 1900, it stated married 26 years [i.e. 1874], but that was crossed off and changed to 22 [i.e. 1878]. In 1910, it stated married 36 years [i.e. 1874].

Hi Deb---

Could you let me have the email addresses for John and Julie King. Andrew made the mistake of sending me a reprint from a book about a prominent King ancestor from the 1800's. This is like giving a cat catnip--one wants more. I have found more related stuff online which sets the stage for me to contact John to make sure I can link him to the famous Senator Charles F. King. Further it is an excuse for me to be in touch with John and Julie ---ostensibly to further detailing the King heritage so that my King great grandchild(children) will not grow up lacking knowledge of their heritage on all sides.

Hi Andrew and Sarah---

Thanks for the tip about an important King who may be an ancestor or at least a member of the family of my future great grandchild Master or Miss King. You will no doubt not be surprised to learn that I have set in motion efforts to further detail the records on these Kings. I'll have something to share with you when you come Christmas.

Love ,
Grandfather Upchurch

Grandfather,

Hope all is well! Sarah and I are enjoying a rainy day here in New York. This morning we went to the American Museum of Finance and have now retreated to the apartment where we find ourselves catching-up on email and otherwise being lazy (a refreshing change of pace).

One old email I thought might interest you: shortly after the wedding, one of Sarah's relatives sent an email to the family with some information about Sarah's Great Great Grandfather, the Honorable Charles F. King (I guess he came up in conversation at the wedding). You can see the attached image for a picture of a page from a book where he is mentioned (Pennsylvania and its Public Men). In addition to being a well-known railroad and mining contractor, he was a State Representative and State Senator in the late 1800's. Alas, a Democrat, but we won't hold that against him. Thought you'd be interested in a little family history on the King side.

Our best to Grandmother, looking forward to seeing you both over Christmas.

Love,

A&S

- 1839 Birth
4 Oct
Wilmington, New Castle, Delaware
- Re his birth year: he's 10 in the 1850 Census, so 1839; his 1878 Passport Application has 1841; the 1900 Census has 1839; and his 1912 Death Certificate has 1839/1840; and Charles is likely the lone "under 5" male in the 1840 Census. So it must be 1839.

Not certain of the exact year because of disagreement in what was reported in the 1900 & 1910 Censuses. In 1900, it stated married 26 years [i.e. 1874], but that was crossed off and changed to 22 [i.e. 1878]. In 1910, it stated married 36 years [i.e. 1874].

its service, and to enrich the science and develop the art of gas manufacture and supply. It has been ever a militant corporation. In the determined pursuit of its legitimate interest, it has fought waste and arrogance—it has promoted economy and courtesy—until its name and fame are known and respected wherever gas is made and used—on this continent and beyond the seas—South, East, and West.

Hon. Charles F. King

Contractor

Charles F. King has been a contractor upon a large scale, making tunneling, mining, and railroad construction his specialties since 1867. He began his career in his adopted county of Schuylkill, Pennsylvania, with a contract for the building of the Philadelphia and East Mahanoy Railroad, which brought him into the favorable notice of capitalists and railroad authorities. His next big job was the driving of the famous Juddo tunnel, a mining operation in Luzerne County, four and a half miles long and which is regarded to-day as a great feat of engineering and construction work. Among the more important undertakings of Senator King were the widening and lining of the Pennsylvania Railroad tunnel at Galitzien, ninety miles of construction work on the Baltimore & Ohio between Baltimore and Connellsville, including viaducts and tunnels; also work for the same company in the vicinity of Niles, Ohio; large mine stripping operations for the Cox Brothers in the Hazleton region; the building of the Caymans cut-off for the Erie Railway in New York, and twenty-five miles of construction for the Perkasie Railroad. Senator King has also been the contractor of important railroad bridges, among which may be mentioned the bridge over the Potomac for the B. & O. Railroad, and over the Monongahela River at Fairmount for the Yonohanan Railroad. In 1878 Senator King went to Brazil as a sub-contractor under the Collins Brothers, and did work on the Maderia and Mamore Railroad. He also has engaged in operations in Mexico and constructed a section of twenty-six miles leading out of the city of Mexico, for the Mexican Central Railroad. He is a member of the Clement-King Company, which maintains offices in the Land Title Building, Philadelphia.

Senator King was born in Wilmington, Del., June 4, 1839. His father was a native of that city, and his mother came from the well-known Geddes' family of Berks County, Pennsylvania. He went practically without schooling, since at twelve years he is found employed as an errand boy in a Wilmington store. His parents moved to Schuylkill County in 1849. Besides being a contractor, a statesman, and a self-made man, Senator King served creditably in the Union Army from 1862 until the close of the Civil War. He first enlisted in the 1st Delaware Volunteers and subsequently went into the 137th Pennsylvania Volunteers. During that time he participated in all the campaigns and battles of the Army of the Potomac, Antietam, Fredericksburg, the Wilderness, and Gettysburg, and was fortunate to have been neither wounded or captured, and he was honorably discharged as an ordnance sergeant. After his return from the war he took an active part as a Democrat in the politics of Schuylkill, and so much so that he was elected to the Legislature of 1871. He served for three terms in the House with such distinction that he was advanced to the State Senate in 1866, serving one term, when his expanding contracting business required all his time, and he did not seek re-election.

Senator King continues to display an interest in the political affairs of Schuylkill County. He is a member of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, the Art Club, the Athletic Club, and the Survivors of the Collins' Expedition to Brazil. He is President of the Union Safe Deposit Bank of Pottsville, and aside from his contracting business is engaged in other enterprises.
