A Membership form is attached if needed or you may go to our website and use PayPal. Your support will allow us to continue to enter the details on our website for enrolled families including yours. If your circumstances allow we could use your help as a volunteer on a small project related to your Moses Upchurch ancestral line. Just let us know. I am impressed with how much Upchurch history has unfolded in MS.

> In 2018 we continued to develop our Cary, NC Facility and expanded our Board to 13 Members. We completed placing five file cabinets of Upchurch Biofiles on our website and invite you to view them. Non-Upchurch Biofiles (15 cabinets) now have to be posted—a two-year project. Last year we started a Guide Program operated out of our Cary Facility to show visitors our local iconic family history sites. Our regular program of issuing Newsletters continued.

> In 2019 we will continue to add more Active Trees for Enrolled Families on Ancestry.com <http://ancestry.com/>. Already we have Active Trees for three Enrolled Families. Let us know if you want an update on where we stand on an Active Tree for your ancestral Line. The availability of an Active Tree opens the opportunity to engage our Members more productively.

> President Tom Upchurch, our Manager Jay Buck, and I hope to visit Cary, NC in April. If it works for you come and be with us. Write for details.

Hi Mary Ann-----

Thanks for your $50 donation to Allied Families for your 2019 Membership fee which has arrived via PayPal. I am encouraged by the pace of renewals.

Sorry you will not be with us next month in NC. It should be a very productive trip. We hope to make several videos which you can later see on You-Tube.

Several are working on the Moses Upchurch Tree along with you. We should make a lot of progress this year. Your help is appreciated.

Jay will note your new address for our Omnibus Newsletters.

Best, Always~

Phil Upchurch, founder, Allied Families.

Mary Ann,

You are right, you sent $300 for which thanks. I misread the PayPal communication - Sorry. A portion of your donation has been allocated to the Moses Upchurch Family support fund.

Best Always,
