Notes for MARY ARTHEERA STEWART:

I have the old oak kitchen cabinet that belong to Molly. When I got it from the farm, at the time of the sale, the house had not been lived in for about 15 yrs. Family members had taken most of the other good furniture, but this cabinet had been painted green several time and looked to be in bad shape. When refinished it was found to be a lovely oak. I have use it many years.

The obituary on Worth Wayne Bayles you sent was that of my 1st cousin. His father was my father's youngest brother, James Verdon Bayles. He was called by his middle name, Wayne, and was a character and loved to have a good time. In his teenage years there was a pop singer Fabian that he resembled, so he had quite a following of girlfriends. Sorry to say he did not take care of himself in his adult life and his health suffered.
