1700's & BEFORE

Hello Phil,

There is a lot of info online, about Nicholas Mills and his lineage in New Kent Co., VA (now Hanover County). I've heard that some lines have been traced back to him, via dna testing. And, the family story had been that Naaman Mills's ancestors migrated from Nansemond Co., VA. Nicholas Mills had married Ann Clompton, and they had several children. Also, that perhaps Robert or William were the next line in descent? I've also seen some lines traced into the Quaker Mills family.

What I did find, back in the 1990s, was an Abraham Mills / Miles, who migrated into Orange Co., NC (1780s), and then into Hancock Co., Georgia (1790s - 1800). There is an Abraham Miles house there. But, about a month ago, the courthouse in that county, had burned.

I've also been contacted within the past 10 years, about the Mills family in Prince George's Co., Maryland, that went into TN. Naaman Mills was heading to Kentucky, when he stopped off in Wake Co., NC during the 1810's, so the story goes. That was supposedly written in the Mills Bible, that a member of the Upchurch family had back in the 1970s. Had you ever heard about that?

During the 1990s, I had phone conversations with John Milton Millls, who was also researching the Naaman Mills family. He was the one who told me about you and your Mills connection thru Lucretia Mills and Gilbert Upchurch. He resides in Goldsboro, NC, and came to visit me in Apex, NC when I was up there for a week during September 1993. His cousin, Hardy Mills, had joined the SAR under the Naaman Mills lineage. Their Wiley Joseph Mills (26th NC Infantry) had survived the Battle of Gettysburg. About 10+ years ago, his remains were interred into a cemetery in Raleigh, from Holly Springs, NC ... perhaps Oakwood? They also trace their lineage back to Joel Lane, early pioneer of the Raleigh area.

I spoke to our cousin John Milton Mills, a few months ago, and he doesn't seem to have the memory that he used to have ... he is about 87 now. I think that there are some descendants on his John Allison Mills family, that are currently working on the early Mills family history.

Take care,

Cousin Billy

Hi Pat---

When I sent out the alert to the Moses U Family, which you did not get, I used the awkward method of attachments to the email which does not always work well. Fortunately we have since been able to place the Moses material on the allied Families website which should be easy for you to access. Just go to www.alliedfamilies.com and click on the enrolled families tab. You will see a list of families enrolled . Just click on Moses and it will take you to the full presentation as it now stands. Of course this is just a beginning and we can

MILLS FAMILY

○ Western Wake Herald WED 22 MAY 1951 Apex, NC

The annual Mills family reunion took place last Sunday, even with all of the rain and chilly weather. About 50 relatives from as far as Maryland and Alabama were on hand to enjoy the food and fellowship at the home of Johnny and Edith Mills.

Many cousins have been cooperative and I wish to thank HALLIE (GOODWIN) GOODWIN for her help. I particularly wish to thank ADELIA "DILLIE" (UPCHURCH) KELLY, (MRS. H. O.) of Apex, N.C., R 3, for her constant interest and patience over the years in locating and visiting members of the family with me.

JOSEPHINE FRANCES UPCHURCH

1. JOSEPHINE FRANCES UPCHURCH, first child of ISHAM SIMS and Adelia (Beavers) UPCHURCH, was born on the 18th of September, 1852, in Chatham County, N. C. She married on the 10th of November, 1872, James M. Broadwell (b 10 Feb. 1844, d 17 September, 1917), son of Jarratt and Elizabeth (McReeves) Broadwell of Wake County, N. C. JOSEPHINE and James took an active part in community life around Green Level Baptist Church in Wake County. JOSEPHINE lived many years longer than James and was known for her exemplary life among her family and large circle of friends. Her last years were spent in the home of her son, MAHLON BROADWELL, and she enjoyed good health until her death on the 6th of October, 1954 at the age of 102. Their six children:

You have the first three generations of all the Mills I could lay my hands on from my files I looked hastily through. You should even know some of the third generation's children. Since I told you that Abraham was Naaman's father this means you have the family traced to Northampton county in the early 1700's. I have searched the remaining records of Newsumund County Virginia but found nothing. Perhaps some day

The Olive reunion is to be held starting the Mary Olive and their children married some of Nathan Mills's family, I have some kin there. I hope to attend the Saturday meeting starting at 10 A.M.

I trust this will be of service to you and confirm what you have known all along about Lucretia being the daughter of Naaman Mills born 1757.

Dear Cousin Phil:

How can something that only took about fifteen minutes be put off all these months? Anyway, when the temperature reached 99° today I resolved to attend to this duty.

You have the first three generations of all the Mills I could lay my hands on from my files I looked tastily through. You should even know some of the third generation's children. Since I told you that Abraham was Naaman's father this means you have the family traced to Northampton county in the early 1700's. I have searched the remaining records of Newsum County Virginia but found nothing. Perhaps some day

The Olive reunion is to be held starting the 17th of this month. Since old Barb Sears married Mary Olive and their children married some of Nathan Mills' family, I have some kin there. I hope to attend the Saturday meeting starting at 10 A.M. this month. Will you be there.

I trust this will be of service to you and confirm what you have known all along about Lucretia being the daughter of Naaman Mills born 1757.
