

Become a 2019 Member of Allied Families Today

About us – Allied Families was formed by six organizers in 2013 as a 501(c)3 tax-exempt family history organization. This was an outgrowth over 65 years of family history research by Phil Upchurch and his cooperators dealing with Upchurch and related families. Thus the official name is Upchurch and Allied Families Association, Inc. The Association embraces the Upchurch Bulletin having concluded its 37th year of publication. Allied Families uses the power of the Internet to serve family history in ways that are innovative and unique. Progress is illustrated on our websites www.alliedfamilies.com and www.upchurchstory.com.

UAFA operates under the guidance of a 13 member Board of Directors. The Association maintains an office in Chesterfield, MO and in Cary, NC. Visitors are welcomed. The focus of UAFA is for families who have a heritage tracing back to the 1700's in North Carolina. Families of interest are enrolled as Upchurch, Allied, or Associate Families.
