There is an abstract of a will in An Abstract of North Carolina Wills 1760 to 1800, by Olds, for Nathaniel Perry, in Franklin County, but it gives only the date of 1790, with Ephraim as the heir. Abstracts seldom tell much. The Georgians, by J. H. Austin, mentions Nathaniel Perry's LWT dtd 1790 Franklin Co., NC, names issue: Ephraim, Drury and Sarah.

We know the name of Nathaniel's wife by the following notice of a sale: William Green, Esquire, Sheriff of Franklin Co., to Thomas Arendell, 17 February 1794, at public sale for 21/10 - a tract of 262 acres sold as the lands of Rebekah Perry, deceased, now in the hands of Ephraim Perry and Drury Perry, her heirs, whereon she formerly lived lying on the south side of Crooked Creek and bounded by the lands of Thomas Arendell, Wm. Sanders, Benjamin Robinson, Nathaniel Perry, and Drury Perry. Wit: Thos. Brickell, Jordan Hill.

The Nathaniel Perry mentioned in the above, is said to have been old Nathaniel's grandson, son of Drury Perry.

There is another mention of Rebecca elsewhere, a doctor trying to collect for treating Rebecca before she died, which is why we think 1789 is close to the year of her death.

Mrs. Hodges found evidence there was a daughter Mary, wife of James Sanders, in an estate settlement at the archives. Mary pre-deceased her father.

The American Colonies were organized into militia districts for defense, for no regular army existed to protect settlers. When they were threatened, the colonists formed militia companies (trained Bands) for temporary service. There was no central organization.

In 1754 we find Nathaniel Perry, Private, along with four of his brothers, on the muster roll of a regiment under the command of Col. William Eaton, in Granville County, North Carolina, Capt. Osborn Jeffrey's Company. This was the French and Indian War (1754-63) period.

We find Nathaniel listed as a taxpayer, Granville Co., NC in 1755 along with brothers John, William, Francis, Jeremiah & Joshua. John was the only one listed as having a black poll of one negro.

In 1757, Brunswick County, Virginia, we found where Nathaniel Perry of Granville Co., NC sells land on the south side of Meherrin River and Meherrin Parish, for 45 pds to Wm. Parham of Brunswick Co., VA. Wit: James Parham and Absalom Atkinson.

23 Classes Over Limit

By HENRY WEFING
Herald Staff Writer

The Durham city school board voted 4-1 Monday to ask the state Department of Public Instruction for permission to exceed class-size limits at seven schools.

A total of 23 classes at the seven schools are over the limits set by the state, according to a report presented to the board.

Mrs. Beth Upchurch, one of the board members, voted against asking the state for permission to exceed the limits. She said classes are too large because the state has not provided sufficient funds for teachers.

The city schools have five fewer teachers this year than they had last year because of a decrease in enrollment.

Dr. Cleveland Hammonds, the superintendent of schools, said the state bases its allocations of teachers on the overall number of students in the school system without taking into account variations in numbers at individual schools and individual grade levels.

Mrs. Upchurch and Robert Ghirardelli, another board member, indicated they were particularly concerned by the situation at Club Boulevard School, where one fourth-grade class has 37 students and another fourth-grade class has 36 students.

The state-mandated limit for class size in grades four through six is 30 students. School systems are allowed, according to Hammonds, to have up to 33 students in a class in grades four through six without seeking formal state permission to exceed the limit.

Ghirardelli noted that Governor Hunt and the General Assembly want to reduce the class size limit in those grades to 28 students and that the North Carolina Association of Educators (NCAE) is asking for a limit of 26 students per class.

The schools involved in the board's request to exceed class limits, in addition to Club Boulevard, are R.N. Harris, Holloway Street, Morehead, W.G. Pearson, C.C. Spaulding and George Watts.

In other business, the school board heard a report on plans to teach French in the elementary schools as an enrichment activity.

John H. Pakenham, supervisor of secondary education, said six videotapes are being prepared for use in the elementary schools. The board viewed one of the videotapes, which showed Herbert Dark, a French and Spanish teacher at Hillside High School, teaching a first-grade student the French words for tableware and breakfast foods.

would give a short answer.

The day after the election, Mrs. Upchurch told a reporter that she did not condone the manner in which the board had fired former Superintendent Ben T. Brooks. "A man's dignity was not upheld," she said.

She said her feelings were not unknown to the board. She said she sent a letter spelling out her position to Mrs. Josephine Clement, the board chairman, a short time after the decision was made.

(The board decided in June not to renew Brooks' contract. Some people felt the move was racially motivated and that insufficient reasons were given by the board for the action. All three of the black incumbents re-elected to the board voted against rehiring Brooks, who is white.)

Mrs. Upchurch was the only white woman, and one of only five whites altogether, in the race. She was a political newcomer. Although she received the endorsement from the influential League of Woman Voters, she was not endorsed by the powerful Durham Committee on the Affairs of Black People.

So was she surprised at the victory?

"I guess I was surprised." But, she said, her candidacy and victory are the answer to a question she asked herself when she was ill during her college days. She said the whole school was praying for her for two weeks, and while in bed she asked "What am I supposed to do with my life?"

The answer for now, she believes, is to serve on the Durham city school board.

New School Board Member

'Parenting' Desire Got Her

BY PAUL BROWN
Herald Staff Writer

Into Race

If she'd been more inclined, Beth Perry Upchurch might have been a City Council member instead of the newest member of the Durham City Board of Education.

Or a state Parent Teachers Association officer.

According to Mrs. Upchurch, neighbors and friends tried to persuade her to run for both positions, as well as to agree to be nominated in June for the school board seat left vacant by Harry Rodenhizer.

But in each instance Mrs. Upchurch said, she declined. And only after being persuaded again in August "by some women in the neighborhood" did she file as a candidate in the election.

"I really wasn't going to do it until 10:30 that morning," she said in an interview.

Mrs. Upchurch, 57, of 1913 Glendale Ave., won election to the school board Oct. 9 with 4,108 votes. She came in third in an 11-candidate field to become the only new member of the board. The other winners were Dr. Thomas Bass, Mrs. Josephine Clement, Dr. Robert Ghirardelli and John Lennon, all incumbents, although Ghirardelli was running for his first elected term. Mrs. Upchurch replaces Dr. Theodore Speigner, who did not run for re-election.

She was born in Lexington but at the age of 3 moved to Durham. That year her father, Dr. D.R. Perry, decided to set up a medical practice here.

She attended Durham city schools and graduated from Durham High School. There she met her husband-to-be, William Upchurch, now the quality control manager for Duke Hospital North.

She first enrolled in Meredith College but two years later transferred to Wake Forest University, during the war years. She said she was the first woman to enroll there officially. She graduated as one of its 12 outstanding seniors in 1943.

She is a Durham Realtor and a member of the Durham Board of Realtors. She is a past member of the Wake Forest Board of Trustees.

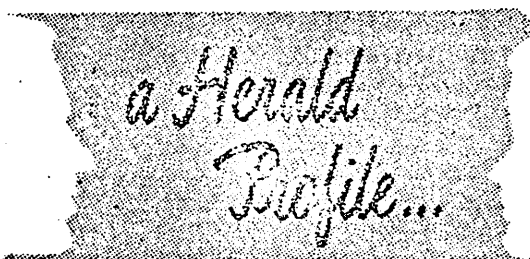

Dennis Nicholson, an unsuccessful candidate for the Durham city school board and a friend of Mrs. Upchurch for about 13 years, said her experience as a Wake Forest trustee should help her as a school board member. When asked if he thought she would make a good school board member, Nicholson said "I think that (experience) alone qualifies her for that position."

She and her husband have three children, all of whom graduated from Durham High. She partly attributes her victory to their attendance in the city schools.

She said she became interested in school organizations when her children began school. Ms. Claudine Zimmerman, president of the citywide PTA, said records show that Mrs. Upchurch has been involved in PTA for a long time.

Mrs. Upchurch has been a member of the citywide PTA Council, president of the Club Boulevard PTA, vice president of the Brogden School PTA and president of the Durham High School Parent-Teacher-Student Association. She also held a number of other posts in school organizations.

When the three children had graduated, she said she remained active in the PTA Council, and one day attended a "parenting" workshop. Parenting is a relatively new educational concept that says parents do not always know how to be good parents. Sometimes they need help.

"Parents are in a very bad position to do it all," Mrs. Upchurch believes.

She said parenting kept her active in school circles. It was also people in those circles who suggested she run for the city school board.

The final persuasion to run: "The very definition of parenting says you have to stay involved in the Durham city school system," Mrs. Upchurch said.

The parenting concept means a lot to Mrs. Upchurch, Ms. Zimmerman said. "That is her heart. She thinks there is nothing like parenting."

Mrs. Upchurch ran a fairly low-key campaign. Its high point was her insistence that parenting was a good concept. When asked to speak on other subjects, Mrs. Upchurch, a soft-spoken woman, most often

School Incumbents Returned

MRS. CLEMENT

LENNON

MRS. UPCHURCH

BASS

By PAUL BROWN
Herald Staff Writer

The four incumbents and Mrs. Beth Perry Upchurch won seats on the Durham City Board of Education Tuesday night, all with a clear majority that precludes a runoff election.

Dr. Thomas Bass, Mrs. Josephine Clement, Dr. Robert Ghirardelli and John Lennon, all incumbents, were elected with Mrs. Upchurch. They all received more than the 3,882 votes needed for a majority.

They won over Mrs. Trelle Jeffers, William Lawrence, James R. Lumley, Mrs. Betty Massenburg, Dennis Nicholson and Martin Pierson. Nicholson came in sixth.

The board's ratio now will be three blacks to two whites. It has been four to one.

The results are as follows: Mrs. Clement, 4,762; Ghirardelli, 4,123; Mrs. Upchurch, 4,108; Bass, 4,029; Lennon, 4,021; Nicholson, 3,944; Pierson, 3,863;

Jeffers, 3,516; Lumley, 3,445; Lawrence, 1,607; and Mrs. Massenburg, 1,401.

Three of the four candidates who received the endorsement of the Durham Committee on the Affairs of Black People, the three black incumbents, won. The fourth person endorsed, Mrs. Jeffers, ran eighth.

GHIRARDELLI

Mrs. Clement, Ghirardelli, Mrs. Jeffers, Lennon and Mrs. Upchurch also won the endorsement of the Durham Voters Alliance. Lawrence received backing from the city school's System-Wide Advisory Board.

Only Mrs. Clement, now the chairman of the school board, and Ghirardelli were at the Durham County Board of Elections' office by the end of the balloting last night. Mrs. Clement, 61, of 206 Pekoe St., said after hearing the results of the election that "I rededicate myself to work for all the children in Durham," and for quality education.

Ghirardelli, 48, of 1404 Anderson St., said "I want to express my thanks to the people who worked and voted for me and I hope the people will pull together and continue to work for the benefit of the city schools and the community as a whole." He also said he was grateful for the support he received "from all segments of the Durham community."

Ghirardelli actually did not receive overwhelming support from predominantly black precincts. Neither did Mrs. Upchurch.

The reverse can be said for the black winners. In mostly white precincts such as Durham High School and Forest Hills, Bass, Mrs. Clement and Lennon received little support.

Also at election headquarters was Superintendent Cleveland Hammonds, who refused to comment on the results.

In an election-related incident, The Herald learned Monday night that Mrs. Upchurch was approached by three other white candidates in an attempt to enlist her in a series of advertisements that asked for a sweep of the present board of edu-

Lumley, Nicholson and Pierson took out a series of advertisements in area newspapers joining themselves in a move to "change (the) school board."

In telephone interviews Monday night, Nicholson and Pierson confirmed that they did approach Mrs. Upchurch to join in the ad campaign but that she refused. Both said they did not know why.

"Part of the reason we aligned ourselves was for financial reasons," said Nicholson.

"I had a group that was willing to advertise my name and anybody that was willing to help, I was glad to accept," Pierson said.

Mrs. Upchurch won endorsements from the liberal Durham Voters Alliance and the Anril newspaper.

Thirty-one percent of the eligible voters cast ballots Tuesday. With all the precincts reporting, 11,302 people voted in the school board race out of a total of 36,231 eligible voters.

Firing Wasn't Fatal In Election

By PAUL BROWN
Herald Staff Writer

A News Analysis

The firing of Superintendent Ben T. Brooks was not a fatal decision for members of the Durham City Board of Education.

The only three incumbents to vote against renewing Brooks' contract were re-elected to the board Tuesday, Mrs. Josephine Clement with the highest number of votes in the 11-candidate field and Dr. Thomas Bass and John Lennon coming in fourth and fifth, respectively.

The fourth incumbent, Dr. Robert Ghirardelli, and newcomer Mrs. Beth P. Upchurch, took the number two and three spots, respectively.

The Brooks issue climaxed in June, when Mrs. Clement, Bass and Lennon voted not to renew Brooks' contract. They hired him in 1975 and renewed his contract in 1977 before they finally voted against renewing it in 1979.

Many citizens were outraged that Brooks was dismissed without specific complaints. The three later submitted complaints, 19 in all, to Brooks before he left for another superintendent's job in eastern North Carolina.

But the voters, at least some of them, also apparently heeded the Durham Committee on the Affairs of Black People's endorsements. The committee backed Mrs. Clement, Bass, Lennon and Mrs. Trellie Jeffers. Only Mrs. Jeffers lost.

The other side of the committee coin is that two of those, Lennon and Bass, ran fourth and fifth. And Lennon is vice chairman of the board now. That's even more significant since all of the other committee-backed candidates Tuesday were winners in the City Hall primary (Margaret Keller for mayor and Paul Bland and Joan Burton for at-large City Council seats.)

Other endorsements also probably had an impact on the race. Ghirardelli won endorsement from the Durham Voters Alliance, a liberal group that also backed Mrs. Keller in the mayor's race and Bland and Mrs. Burton for City Council. Mrs. Keller, Bland and Mrs. Burton are viewed by many as liberals.

Mrs. Upchurch also got the Alliance's endorsement, and backing from the liberal Anvil newspaper. Her refusal to join in an advertising campaign with white candidates James Lumley, Dennis Nicholson and Martin Pierson advertisement campaign may have helped her secure that liberal backing. The ad campaign called for the replacement of the current board.

Some observers were surprised at her victory since she had not run a vigorous race nor had she taken any controversial stands.

What do the election returns mean for city schools?

Most visibly, they mean there will be two whites instead of one on the five-person board. The four blacks on the present board (Dr. Theodore Speigner, the fourth, chose not to run this year) have encountered charges of racism in some of the board's past decisions. That includes the decision to fire Brooks, a white man.

Ghirardelli and Mrs. Upchurch are both white.

Ghirardelli, whom the three incumbents hand-picked in June, is a different kind of operator than the white man he replaced, Harry Rodenhizer. While he has asked sometimes pointed questions at board meetings, Ghirardelli said last Saturday that he is able to compromise on an issue if the compromise doesn't damage city school pupils. That was something Rodenhizer was less inclined to do.

And there is now Mrs. Upchurch, who during the campaign stressed the importance of "parenting." That is a concept from PTA circles, which says that all people who have children do not necessarily know how to be parents. The board until now usually has concerned itself with in-house problems and not with problems that children bring from home.

But the biggest impact on the board may come not from the elections but from the appointment in August of Dr. Cleveland Hammonds to replace Brooks as superintendent. He has received acceptance from most segments of the community, black and white. Some people in city school circles have said that his "An Evening with the Superintendent" program and the way he gripped the reins of city schools will do much to endear him to the public and renew confidence in the system as a whole. And he has, so far, seemed willing to work with each board member.

Perry estate includes cash and land for benefit of library

Relatives mystified by terms of Perry's will to Apex library

Relatives of the late Mrs. Eva Perry say they are at a loss to explain how and why she left over $1 million to the Town of Apex for the purpose of a library.

Conversations last week with relatives of Mrs. Perry say she may have been fond of reading, but that they don't remember there being a lot of books kept at her house, or much ever said about interest in improving Apex's library.

The most anyone knows, says a niece who asked to remain anonymous, is that the late Otha Perry once told Mrs. Perry that if he should die first, perhaps she ought to consider leaving something in the will to be used to improve Apex's library.

Mrs. Perry died at the age of 94 on Christmas Eve and left all but $15,000 in cash, to the Town of Apex. The estate, roughly valued at over $1 million, reportedly contains over 300 acres of land, some 60 of which are in Beaufort County, N.C., as well as in excess of $100,000 in cash.

Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lonnie E. Gertrude Perry, who lives across from Eva and Otha's home place on S. Hughes Street in Apex, says she was a bit surprised to learn that almost everything had been left to the Town of Apex for a library.

"She used to tell me that Otha had said he ought to leave something to the library," said Mrs. L.E. Perry. "I hope that when the land is sold, that the Town of Apex will build the library on her land."

The niece, who lives in Durham, says she is perfectly satisfied with the terms of the will. "She told me before she ever made it (the will) that's the way she wanted to do it," said the niece.

Relatives say there are many people who someday will benefit from the library, if the Town does indeed get its inheritance, and build a new facility.

The will must remain open for about six months. Jack Kerly, vice-president of Central Carolina Bank in Apex, and a member of the Town Board, said last week he hopes no one contests the will.

From the sound of relatives no one probably will challenge the will, since the Perrys had no children of their own. Otha and Eva Perry moved to the S. Hughes street area back in the early 1930's.

They came from Durham County, where they farmed. Upon moving to Apex the Perry's continued farming, much of it through tenants, and Otha Perry spent his time and talents

Mrs. Eva Perry, pictured here when she was 92 years old as a resident at Kinton's Nursing Home in Fuquay-Varina, left almost her entire estate to the Town of Apex.

"They didn't do so awfully much. All Otha wanted to do was buy land," said Mrs. Gertrude Perry, the sister-in-law. He married Otha's brother, Lonnie and they followed Otha and Eva to Apex a couple of years later.

So Mrs. Gertrude Perry says, one of the things Otha Perry did leave behind, and not included in the will was the deed to a cabin and some land in South Creek, near Aurora, N.C.

The niece says she's heard that she's due to receive the cabin in Aurora, but hasn't received confirmation of it.

Otha Perry has two surviving younger sisters, one who lives with her husband now in Davenport, Florida. Mrs. Lucille Allen, Otha's younger sister, said in an interview Friday she was surprised that everything was left to Apex. She said neither of the Perrys, to her knowledge were avid readers.

For the past eight years Mrs.

Eva Perry had lived at Kinton's Rest Home in Fuquay-Varina. Her husband, Otha died on October 26, 1968.

Surviving relatives are a bit mystified by the bequest for a library in Apex, but accept the fact that it was within Mrs. Eva's rights to make her will out according to her wishes.

One story that is told by Kerley about Mrs. Perry's idea about leaving practically everything to the Town, has to do with her story of walking to go fishing in a pond behind the homeplace on S. Hughes Street, and remembering that Otha had once mentioned leaving something behind for a library.

Relatives say that story is reasonable to believe, because Mrs. Eva was the type of person, who fixed ideas in her mind and then became firmly settled on them.

Despite the couple's apparent wealth during their lives, the two lived simply.

One story that has received recent attention from other newspapers, relating to Mrs. Perry's simple lifestyle, concerns the purchase of a television. Both the niece and Mrs. Gertrude Perry take issue with the recent news accounts of the television, saying it was Lonnie Perry, Mrs. Eva's brother-in-law who arranged the purchase of the television through a Greenlevel resident who dealt in televisions.

The two women say Mrs. Perry had her brother-in-law handle the purchase for her, and that the reason she didn't buy a color television to replace her old black and white one was due to difficulty in watching the color images.

The 270 acres in Wake County and the 60 acres in Beaufort County have a tax value of $688,000 said Kerley, who is the executor of the estate. Steve Stewart, town manager of Apex, said last week his estimate is that the tax value of the land is only 60 to 70 percent of its real value.

Kerley wouldn't reveal the exact amount of cash left in the will, but said it was at least $100,000.

Reports are that when the CP&L Harris plant was being developed, the utility company paid the Perry's $1 million for the purchase of land related to the construction of the plant.

The will stipulates that the Town of Apex must sell the land, and then use the proceeds for the purposes of a library. It is up to the Apex Board to decide how the money will be used, either to upgrade the existing library housed in an old depot building on N. Salem Street, or to build a new facility. The will stipulates that the Board, if it sees fit, can use the money to improve the current facility, build a new one, staff the library and furnish it.

Groom & Bride
(per RPU)

Upchurch-Perry

Patricia Marie Perry became the bride of Joseph Larry Upchurch on June 11, 2010. The evening ceremony was held in the garden of the Matthews House in Cary, NC. A dinner reception followed. The groom's parents hosted a rehearsal dinner the night before.

Mrs. Joseph Larry Upchurch

Patricia was escorted by her father, Anthony Bryan Perry, Sr. and was given in marriage with the blessing of he and her mother, Patricia Thompson Perry. The groom is the son of Pastor James Larry Upchurch and Corianna Lovett Upchurch. Pastor Upchurch united them in holy matrimony with a double ring ceremony.

Tonya Perry Henshaw was her sister's matron of honor. Other attendants were Katherine Honner Perry, Mia Diana Perry and Carly Bynam. The bride was radiant in a Romona Keveze natural white silk duponi gown. It featured a deep V-neckline accented with a hand-beaded alençon lace inset and a ruffled band at the waist. The slim fluted skirt highlighted a dramatic ruffled back with covered buttons and a chapel-length train. Her veil, which had a satin edge and cascaded to waist length, was topped with a vintage comb of swarovski crystals and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white hydrangeas, dendrobium and cymbidium orchids, pink peonies, and lily grass with ivory sheer ribbon.

Best man was Mark Anthony Mitchell, Jr. Groomsmen were Jonathan Carleton Perry, Sr., Garrett Thomas Beaton, and Jordan Chandler Beaton. Kenneth James Upchurch served as wedding and event planner. Elegant Ensembles and acoustic guitarist, Shelly Merchant, provided music.

The bride graduated from Meredith College. She is employed by MyNewPlace.com. The groom is self-employed.

After a honeymoon to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, the couple will make their home in Raleigh.

○ Extract of Deed made 25 MAR 1939 in Wake Co, NC conveying two tracts to the holdings of Eugene D. Cross. See his Biofile for full copy of court action - RPA interpretation of circumstances. It appears Eugene loaned money on 11 OCT 1932 to W. C. LYNN and his wife (Vergie Cornelia —) They could not repay the loan and on 3 MAR 1937 the 2 tracts of land pledged as security were sold at the courthouse steps to make Eugene whole. This 1937 action was taken by & in the name of his then Guardian C. M. Cross (Columbus M. Cross, brother of Eugene) and R. C. PERRY. The Guardian bid 4,000 as high bidder & thus the Commissioner L. S. BRASSFIELD issued a deed to make Eugene whole. The two tracts were in Leesville TSP, Wake Co, NC - described as follows:

Tract #1 Adj. R. M. JONES, A. F. KING, FANNIE SORRELL, THEODORE LYNN - 6 3/4 A m/l (Refer to deed 3 NOV 1904 A. F. KING & wife to THEODORE LYNN

Rachel Mae Perry retires after 35 years of service to the state

Rachel Mae Perry of Zebulon has settled into retirement with honors after 43 years of service to the state of North Carolina.

Ms. Perry was recognized by the N.C. Parole Commission with a luncheon attended by over 200 guests upon her retirement in November 1990. She was presented with the "Long-leaf Pine Award" (one of the state's top honors), a retirement certificate, a photo album and a collage.

Her previous honors include receiving the "Over and Beyond the Call" award from the Lizard Lick community in 1986.

Ms. Perry, who has five sisters and five brothers including the late former Zebulon police Chief Windel Perry, graduated from Wakelon High School and Hardbarger Secretarial and Business School. She began her employment with the state in the Department of Motor Vehicles highway safety division in 1944. Ten months later she was named secretary to the commanding officer of the highway patrol.

A member of Hopkins Chapel Baptist Church, Ms. Perry left the secretary position in 1950 and worked part time briefly for Wendell attorney Phillip R. Whitley. In 1953, Ms. Perry became the secretary of the late Judge W.A. Brame of Wendell who served on a three-member parole board. After nine years of working with Brame and a year with N.J. Ransdell, she was appointed secretary to a parole investigator.

In 1983, Ms. Perry requested a transfer to receptionist and held this post until her retirement.

"Of all my positions with the parole commission, I have enjoyed working as a receptionist the most," she said. "This position gave me the chance to see and be with people which made my job more pleasurable because of my love for people."

There is an abstract of a will in An Abstract of North Carolina Wills 1760 to 1800, by Olds, for Nathaniel Perry, in Franklin County, but it gives only the date of 1790, with Ephraim as the heir. Abstracts seldom tell much. The Georgians, by J. H. Austin, mentions Nathaniel Perry's LWT dtd 1790 Franklin Co., NC, names issue: Ephraim, Drury and Sarah.

We know the name of Nathaniel's wife by the following notice of a sale: William Green, Esquire, Sheriff of Franklin Co., to Thomas Arendell, 17 February 1794, at public sale for 21/10 - a tract of 262 acres sold as the lands of Rebekah Perry, deceased, now in the hands of Ephraim Perry and Drury Perry, her heirs, whereon she formerly lived lying on the south side of Crooked Creek and bounded by the lands of Thomas Arendell, Wm. Sanders, Benjamin Robinson, Nathaniel Perry, and Drury Perry. Wit: Thos. Brickell, Jordan Hill.

The Nathaniel Perry mentioned in the above, is said to have been old Nathaniel's grandson, son of Drury Perry.

There is another mention of Rebecca elsewhere, a doctor trying to collect for treating Rebecca before she died, which is why we think 1789 is close to the year of her death.

Mrs. Hodges found evidence there was a daughter Mary, wife of James Sanders, in an estate settlement at the archives. Mary pre-deceased her father.

The American Colonies were organized into militia districts for defense, for no regular army existed to protect settlers. When they were threatened, the colonists formed militia companies (trained Bands) for temporary service. There was no central organization.

In 1754 we find Nathaniel Perry, Private, along with four of his brothers, on the muster roll of a regiment under the command of Col. William Eaton, in Granville County, North Carolina, Capt. Osborn Jeffrey's Company. This was the French and Indian War (1754-63) period.

We find Nathaniel listed as a taxpayer, Granville Co., NC in 1755 along with brothers John, William, Francis, Jeremiah & Joshua. John was the only one listed as having a black poll of one negro.

In 1757, Brunswick County, Virginia, we found where Nathaniel Perry of Granville Co., NC sells land on the south side of Meherrin River and Meherrin Parish, for 45 pds to Wm. Parham of Brunswick Co., VA. Wit: James Parham and Absalom Atkinson.

601 THE RAYMOND ALLEN PERRY FAMILY

Papa, Raymond Allen Perry, son of Allen Canady Perry and Martha Helen Upchurch was born in Franklin County, NC, June 15, 1892. He married Lucy Broady Tant the 24th of December 1911 in Franklin County, NC. He died 16th of February 1977 in Wake County, NC and is buried in Franklin County, NC at the Pine Ridge Baptist Cemetery. Allen Canady

Perry was the son of Clinton Henry Perry and was born in Franklin County, NC 26th of May 1852. He married Martha Helen Upchurch 24th December 1873, he died 17th November 1920 in Franklin County, NC. Martha Helen was born 11th November 1854. She died 16th February 1935 and is buried in Perry Family Cemetery off SR 1737, 1/4 mile south of Pine Ridge, NC. (75 yards west of road.) Clinton Henry Perry was born about 2nd January 1822 in Warren County, NC. He married Mary Jane Andrews born about 18th May 1824. They were married the 30th May 1844. Clinton died about 1880 and Mary Jane died about 1867.

From the union of Raymond Allen (Papa) and Lucy Broady (Mama Lucy) came:

Claude Steven Perry born 19th October 1912 in Franklin County, NC. He married Pansy Ercell Parker 25th November 1937. Claude died 30th March 1973.

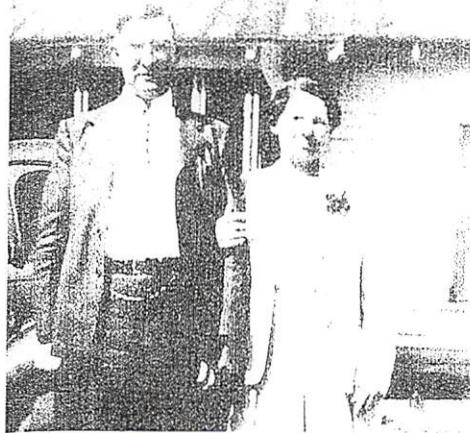

Martha Hazel Perry born 3rd January 1914, died 5th June 1926.

Clyde Jenkins Perry born 21st July 1916, married Sarah Blonnie Strickland. He died 29th November 1972.

Raymond Odell Perry born 17th May 1921 married Ocia Lynn Edwards 18th July 1943.

Betty Sue Powell born 15th January 1933, died 12th April 1937. (Adopted daughter.)

I remember Papa and Mama Lucy for their kind and gentle ways. Papa was known to have a temper on occasion, but I was never witness to it. When I met my husband Harold Allen Perry, I had never been in North Carolina where he grew up and was impressed with the beauty of the rolling landscape, the warm, sunny days there. I would stay with Mama Lucy and Papa when I visited Harold and his family before we were married. Papa would put on his apron and help Mama Lucy clean house on Saturday, getting ready for Sunday. He always opened her car door for her and showed other little courtesies to her in and around their home. I remember he always wore a suit and tie. He would always be up and about each morning when I would come into the living room. I always had to be in their house by 9:30pm when I stayed with them. I was grateful to be with them in their home. It felt secure.

Harold is the son of Clyde Jenkins Perry and Sarah Blonnie Strickland. They were married 10th May 1935 in Franklin County, NC. Their children were:

William Jenkins Perry born 5th July 1936. He married Maggie Mae Atkinson 23rd July 1955. From their union came Ann Doreen born 30th August 1956. David Eugene born 6th May 1958.

Jean Carol born 24th November 1937. She married Dolphus Deve Amos, Sr. in Franklin County, NC. She died 9th November 2009. From their union came: Emma Jean; Teresa Jayne; Deborah Lynn; Dolphus Deve, Jr.

Harold Allen Perry born 24th February 1943. He married Alice McGrady in Franklin County,

Clyde and Blonnie Perry

NC. From this union came Christopher Allen born 31st July, 1969. Christopher married Charlotte Ann Raby.

Frances Kay born 29th May 1945 married Hugh Edward Seay, they had one son, Edward Keith Seay. She married Steve Kelly Martin, Sr. they had Steve Kelly and Patrick. She is currently married to Mickey Workman.

Ronnie Glenn Perry born 6th June 1952 married Deborah Kay Adams and their son is Jason Glenn. He married Cheryl Lynn Robertson and had one daughter, Brandy Lynn Perry. He is currently married to Katherine Gayle Whitt.

Harold's Father Clyde Jenkins was a good man, he loved his family and wanted them close to him when he would be home from working. His mother, too, was industrious and tended to her family's needs. One of the things that impressed me when I visited them; was the love they showed for each other. I was also impressed with how the children seemed to love to be around Harold. Children usually know instinctively whom they can trust. Harold was kind and courteous to his parents and to his siblings. They would laugh and tease each other in a good natured way. They were always a pleasure to be around.

ried and following Martha Helen's marriage to Allen, made her home permanently with the couple.

Allen died at his home on November 18, 1920. As was the local custom, the funeral was held at the house the following day. The minister from Poplar Springs Church officiated at the funeral. He was buried in the family cemetery located a few hundred yards behind the house.

A farmer, Allen and Martha Helen Perry lived in the Sutton community of Franklin County near the small crossroads that would later become known as Pine Ridge. Their comfortable frame house, with front and back porches, was still standing in 2006. They were members of nearby Poplar Springs Baptist Church.

○ From William Johnson Cemetery - Franklin Co, NC

A modern stone for LITTLE BERRY JOHNSON and ROENA U shows they were married 30 DEC 1851 and this stone is flanked by two field stones which would appear to have been the original unengraved stones marking their two individuals resting place. They appear to be the earliest born of those interred but for some reason the cemetery is referred to as the William Johnson Cemetery. Roena U was the D/o Little Berry U and the G/O/o Jubal U, I - Head of Class. Other with monuments NOT early connected to Roena are:

Born November 11, 1855, Martha Helen was the only surviving child of Burkley Upchurch, Jr. and his wife, Mary Mullins. Her father, a local farmer, joined the Confederacy in February 1862 after the fall of Roanoke Island to Federal Forces. Upchurch served in Co. B. 47th North Carolina Infantry. Martha Helen was almost nine years old when her father died on September 8, 1864 at Camp Winder near Richmond, Virginia of "chronic gastritis." Her mother, Mary Mullins Upchurch, never remarried.

ried and following Martha Helen's marriage to Allen, made her home permanently with the couple.

Allen died at his home on November 18, 1920. As was the local custom, the funeral was held at the house the following day. The minister from Poplar Springs Church officiated at the funeral. He was buried in the family cemetery located a few hundred yards behind the house.

A farmer, Allen and Martha Helen Perry lived in the Sutton community of Franklin County near the small crossroads that would later become known as Pine Ridge. Their comfortable frame house, with front and back porches, was still standing in 2006. They were members of nearby Poplar Springs Baptist Church.

The Family of Willis Perry

Willis Perry married Armenia Sanders December 16, 1822. There is a large estate file on record at Raleigh, N. C. in the Dept. of Archives and History of Armenia S. Perry's estate. To them were born: Repsie Perry (Duncan Bunn), Candace Perry (Atlas Denton), Jane Perry (James Rhodes), Adaline Perry (W. M. Dent), Adelia Perry (W. Calvin Strickland), Wesley B. Perry (Elizabeth Horton) -- only son, Leddia Perry never married. Her share of the Willis Perry estate joined Dr. J. P. Floyd. She lived there until she died, and gave Dr. Floyd her land or sold it to him to take care of her. This property is located on the Bunn-Wake Forest Highway near what is now a small village called New Hope. It's been said that Calvin Strickland started the first religious services there under a shelter.

Willis Perry and his wife Armenia Sanders estate was settled in 1869.

Boughman, Gupton wed in Wake Fore.

Hattie Elizabeth Gupton and Mark Vincent Boughman were united in marriage Sunday, June 7, at Wake Forest Baptist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert A. Young of Edenton, the bride's former pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas F. Gupton of Louisburg. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Roney C. Perry of Zebulon, and Charlie V. Boughman Jr. of Knightdale.

Grandparents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Charlie V. Boughman Sr. of Wendell, and Pearl Tessinear of Wendell and the late Walter Tessinear. His stepgrandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perry of Zebulon.

Escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a candlelight ivory satin gown. The sweetheart neckline and bodice were adorned with appliques of schiffli lace, sequins and faux pearls down to the drop waistline. The Renaissance sleeves featured schiffli lace with pearls and ended in a wedding-band point on the hand. The back of the bodice featured schiffli lace down to the waist, at which was a large satin bow. The full gathered skirt was edged in schiffli lace around the semicathedral-length train. The train featured appliques of schiffli lace with a large cutout in the center adorned with sequins and pearls.

For her headpiece, the bride chose a lace cap trimmed with silk flowers. The back of the cap featured a rolled pouf with a double-tiered, fingertip-length veil. She carried a cascading bouquet of ivory roses, freesia, statice, snapdragons, orchids and running ivy. The bride presented her mother and the mother of the bridegroom an ivory rose from her bouquet.

Sharon D. Leonard was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Judy Gupton of Louisburg, sister-in-law of the bride; Kristi Boughman and Karen Boughman of Wendell, both cousins of the bridegroom; Cindy Hopkins of Wilson; and Tara Faulkner of Henderson.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids each wore a tea-length dress of fuchsia ramey cotton. The fitted bodice featured a drop waistline and was adorned with matching embroidery. They each carried a bouquet of pink roses, statice, freesia and snapdragons.

Cassidy Weathersby of Zebulon, cousin of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. Hunter Murphy of Louisburg, nephew of the bride, served as the ring bearer.

The bridegroom wore a black tuxedo with an ivory rose boutonniere. The groomsmen each wore a black tuxedo and a pink rose boutonniere.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Ushers were Tim Atkinson of Wendell and Keith Tessinear of Zeublou, both cousins of the bridegroom; and Terrell Gupton, Curtis Gupton and Wayne Gupton of Louisburg, all brothers of the bride.

The church was decorated with arrangements of blue irisés, larkspur, gladiolas, pink roses and daisies, freesia, snapdragons, fuji mums, Shearon ferns, and Baker's ferns. The two 29-branch candelabra and the unity candle were entwined with Shearon ferns and Baker's ferns. The couple used a prie-dieu which was also accented with ferns and an ivory satin bow. Boston ferns in white wicker stands were at the base of the altar and in the vestibule. The mothers' pews and the family pews were marked with arrangements of ferns and accented with ivory satin bows.

Wedding music was provided by Susan Moss of Wake Forest, organist; Woody Brannon and Robin Brannon of Zebulon, pianists; and Craig Prevatte and Leea Snyder of Knightdale, vocalists.

groom; Cristy Langley, cousin of the bridegroom; and Sabina Hamlet and Lori Hamlet. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Tessinear of Wendell, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom.

The focal point of the reception hall was a V-shaped buffet table with ivory lace tablecloths. An arrangement of blue irises, larkspur, gladiolas, pink roses and daisies, freesia, snapdragons, and fuji mums was featured at the center of the table. Similar arrangements of flowers were used throughout the hall. Ficus trees with miniature white lights, Boston ferns, and fuchsia and ivory balloons were also used.

The circular bride's table was covered with an ivory lace tablecloth. The four-tiered wedding cake with candlelight ivory icing was adorned with scalloped strings of pearls. Fresh flowers were placed on top of the cake and also between the tiers. A fountain surrounded by flowers was featured beneath the bottom layer of the cake which was elevated on columns accented with fuchsia ribbon. After the traditional cutting of the cake, Elna Holmes continued serving.

During the reception, musical selections were played by Larry Stover of Cary.

After the reception, the newlyweds departed in a white horse-drawn carriage.

Rehearsal dinner

Parents of the bridegroom-elect hosted a rehearsal dinner at Wake Forest Community House June 6.

A new dad at age 62

Not many people 62 years old get a chance to adopt someone. I am proud to say I just adopted a girl.

I have been thinking about doing this for quite a few years and just signed the last papers this week.

With Shirley's help, I learned how to mix and warm milk and rock my new daughter to sleep. She is very small and has more sense than I will ever have.

Most children have to accept the parents they are born with, but this girl had the option to say yes or no when it came to accepting me as her dad. Without any hesitation, she said yes to adding Wood to her name.

It gives me great pleasure to present to you a new addition to the Wood family — Robbin Wood Vaughn, weighing in at 120 pounds and having her first Wood birth-

She is Shirley's daughter by her first marriage, and now she is ours. There won't be a baby shower, but a barbecue will take place instead.

A special thanks to her employer, Howard G. Doyle, attorney at law, for helping make this possible.

To know Robbin is to love her, and we all do.

Perry knows how to serve community

By DAVID LEONE
Staff Writer

Longtime Apex resident Ron Perry knows how to serve his community. Perhaps that is why he was named the Apex Chamber of Commerce's first-time ever "Ambassador For Life."

"I do a lot of work for the community, church and chamber," Perry said. "I have time, I'm retired."

A former Navy veteran, Perry spent most of his life working with MetLife before he retired. He also put in six years with General Electric. In 1955, Perry moved to Apex from New Hampshire.

Perry now serves as an ambassador for the Apex and Cary Chamber of Commerce. He also served three years on the Apex Chamber Board of Directors.

In 1992 the Apex Chamber named him Citizen of the Year.

Perry related some of the work he did for the chamber.

At one time he worked with area migrant workers, bringing them food.

Another time, he said he helped a group from a Philippines tribe that was holed up in the old Western Wake Hospital building on Hunter Street.

"I helped them there with food and we got them gifts and clothing," he said.

To Perry, being an ambassador means representing the chamber in marketing and everyday life.

"I brag about the chamber," he said. "I try to help the chamber and I help the people through the chamber."

"We work for the community," he said. "I like people and I like to help people."

In fact, Perry is currently working on a project to help his son, Ronny, who is working with a United Methodist Church (not Apex) group as a videographer and photographer.

According to Perry, his son Ronny recently returned from the Philippines where the UCom group was filming a documentary about a poverty stricken area in the country.

There, Perry said, the average person makes about $180 a year making sandals out of rubber tires or carving statuettes or such work.

Since the church supports the effort to help villagers in that general area, Ronny's crew and another (replacement) crew are responsible for documenting the conditions so people back home know how their donations are helping out.

"The team of five from the Methodist Church saw this young girl who was sitting there who looked terrible," he said.

The girl, Donna Bella, has a facial disfiguration and as a result is an outcast in her village.

"She's being ignored," Perry said. "A lot of people think she's a sinner."

"The problem they are having now is getting her to the U.S.," Perry said.

So Perry decided he would find someone who could find a way to make it happen.

"I got Joe Barnes and he told me who to contact here in Raleigh," Perry said, referring to the Cooper Tools Plant Manager and Chamber

President.

Soon, Perry was in touch with Jerry O'Conner, the Raleigh representative of American Airlines.

According to Perry, O'Conner was very enthusiastic to provide Bella and her mother free airfare from Perry is a Catholic and Joe Barnes, a Mormon.

"We've got all these different denominations that don't hesitate to get involved," he said. "That's what I like about it."

"People should know Americans are good people," Perry said.

Perry wins chamber award

Apex resident Ron Perry was named Ambassador of the Year and was awarded a plaque by the Cary Chamber of Commerce at its banquet Thursday.

Perry, who has lived in Apex for 41 years, says he has been the number one recruiter in Cary for several years.

"An ambassador does work in public relations and marketing as well as recruiting," Perry said. "It's like being a goodwill ambassador."

It is a one time award, he added.

An Olive Street resident, Perry served in the Navy during World War II.

He attended college on the GI Bill and received a degree in accounting. He later worked for Met-Life in Raleigh as a sales representative for 35 years.

In 1992, Perry was named citizen of the year by the Apex Chamber of Commerce for his recruiting efforts in Apex.

He has served on the board of directors of the Apex Chamber, was the chamber's adviser on the North Carolina World Trade Center Association, an adviser on the Wake County Keep America Beautiful commission, recruiter for the World Trade Center, adviser for the Triangle J Council of Governments and head usher at St. Andrews Catholic Church.

"I think everything we do is for the community," Perry said. "The chamber is trying to improve the community and I believe in it."

Perry knows how to serve community

By DAVID LEONE
Staff Writer

Longtime Apex resident Ron Perry knows how to serve his community.

Perhaps that is why he was named the Apex Chamber of Commerce's first-time ever "Ambassador For Life."

"I do a lot of work for the community, church and chamber," Perry said. "I have time, I'm retired."

A former Navy veteran, Perry spent most of his life working with MetLife before he retired. He also put in six years with General Electric. In 1955, Perry moved to Apex from New Hampshire.

Perry now serves as an ambassador for the Apex and Cary Chamber of Commerce. He also served three years on the Apex Chamber Board of Directors.

In 1992 the Apex Chamber named him Citizen of the Year.

Perry related some of the work he did for the chamber.

At one time he worked with area migrant workers, bringing them food.

Another time, he said he helped a group from a Philippines tribe that was holed up in the old Western Wake Hospital building on Hunter Street.

"I helped them there with food and we got them gifts and clothing," he said.

To Perry, being an ambassador means representing the chamber in marketing and everyday life.

"I brag about the chamber," he said. "I try to help the chamber and I help the people through the chamber."

"We work for the community," he said. "I like people and I like to help people."

In fact, Perry is currently working on a project to help his son, Ronny, who is working with a United Methodist Church (not Apex) group as a videographer and photographer.

According to Perry, his son Ronny recently returned from the Philippines where the UCom group was filming a documentary about a poverty stricken area in the country.

There, Perry said, the average person makes about $180 a year making sandals out of rubber tires or carving statuettes or such work.

Since the church supports the effort to help villagers in that general area, Ronny's crew and another (replacement) crew are responsible for documenting the conditions so people back home know how their donations are helping out.

"The team of five from the Methodist Church saw this young girl who was sitting there who looked terrible," he said.

The girl, Donna Bella, has a facial disfiguration and as a result is an outcast in her village.

"She's being ignored," Perry said. "A lot of people think she's a sinner."

"The problem they are having now is getting her to the U.S.," Perry said.

So Perry decided he would find someone who could find a way to make it happen.

"I got Joe Barnes and he told me who to contact here in Raleigh," Perry said, referring to the Cooper Tools Plant Manager and Chamber

President.

Soon, Perry was in touch with Jerry O'Conner, the Raleigh representative of American Airlines.

According to Perry, O'Conner was very enthusiastic to provide Bella and her mother free airfare from Perry is a Catholic and Joe Barnes, a Mormon.

"We've got all these different denominations that don't hesitate to get involved," he said. "That's what I like about it."

"People should know Americans are good people," Perry said.

The bride is the daughter of Eloise B. Huyett of Zebulon and the late Charles Benjamin Huyett. Parents of the bridegroom are Roy Basil and Kay C. Perry of Zebulon.

The bridegroom's grandmothers are Mildred S. Perry and Nellie R. Chamblee, both of Zebulon.

Given in marriage by her mother and uncle, Frederick V. Bobbitt, the bride wore a princess-style gown of white silk shantung with a scalloped, superimposed bodice, accented with embroidered designs and seed pearls.

She was attended by Mary Best Blanton of Warsaw as matron of honor.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Ushers were Nelson Price and Kenneth Scoggins, both of Zebulon.

Wedding music was presented by Jill B. Bunn of Zebulon, organist.

Sandra C. Richardson of Zebulon, aunt of the bridegroom, directed the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of Zebulon High School and the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. She is a medical technologist at Eastern Wake Hospital in Zebulon.

Her husband is a graduate of Zebulon High School and is self-employed.

After a wedding trip to Charleston, S.C., the couple will make their home in Zebulon.

Reception

Immediately after the ceremony, a country western-style buffet dinner and dance reception was held at the Wendell Lions Club Building, attended by approximately 200 guests.

Rehearsal dinner

On Nov. 4, 1994, the parents of the bridegroom-elect hosted a rehearsal dinner at their home for members of the wedding party and special guests.

The menu consisted of a garden salad, filet mignon, baked potato, and a choice of pineapple cake or chocolate pie for dessert. Apple cider was served to toast the bridal couple-elect.

① The Zebulon Record THUR 21 FEB 1991 Zebulon, NC

Perry serves as page

Perry, the son of Don and Brenda Perry, is a junior at East Wake High School.

Governor's pages are chosen on merit, having been recommended by teachers, principals or other leading members of the community. Pages assist the various departments in their communications with other state government offices. They are also given the opportunity to tour state museums, the Governor's Mansion, Legislative Building and state Capitol.

"This is an excellent opportunity for outstanding young people like Ryan to learn about state government," Martin said. "In addition, governor's pages provide invaluable assistance in helping to maintain the smooth and efficient operation of state government."
