Elmer Upchurch, son of Tom Upchurch of Slickford was killed in Pickett County, Tennessee last Thursday morning by his uncle, Virgil Crouch, a deputy sheriff of Pickett County, who was attempting to arrest him on a warrant. Crouch came upon Upchurch some 7 or 8 miles over in Tennessee, and told him he had a warrant for him: it is alleged Upchurch reached for his gun, but Crouch shot him with his shotgun before he could get his gun in action. Elmer had been before the local court a number of times in the past few years, and at present indictments are against him here. Crouch is a brother of James Crouch and has been here many times. Upchurch's remains were brought back to his home at Slickford for burial. Crouch went to Byrdstown and gave himself up.

CROUCH, DUCK

Duck Crouch was believed to be of the Martin Crouch born in 1799 line, a "close" relative of Martin's grandchildren. Of all the Duck Crouch names coming down from the pioneer families, this is the only one descendants told me is their ancestor. He lived on a farm adjoining James Crouch born in 1823 about 1890-1900. After WWI Jim Harvey lived there. His grandchildren and neighbor's children knew him only as Duck Crouch. We do not now know his wife's name, but the children were ↙ ?

Not one census record listed a Duck Crouch, and even now that we have the children's names, not one of the various Fentress County Census lists these children as one family. Joe's daughter, Dorothy Laytham, recalled most of the facts. Dimmer Crouch and his sister Eva, Carmen Greer, and Marion Crouch's granddaughter Maxine Dishman gave many details and names of others who could give additional facts. Mary Rohana York Upchurch and Al Eugene Abbott have assisted in placing their family's order of age and name corrections.

TWO DROWNED

Tom Upchurch and his son Martin were drowned one-half mile below Lock 21 on the Cumberland River Monday afternoon while seining. There were five in the party and Alferd Abbott who escaped says it looked for a minute as if all five would be drowned. The elder Upchurch was only about waist deep when his son became strangled and Abbott grabbed him and started to the bank with him, his father became excited and rushed in causing them all to become rattled and it was with hard work that Abbott was able to save himself and the two other boys.
