REBECCA HELEN PEARCE

From Emails 3 NOV 2013 Jill BRESLAU & RPM

3 NOV

My mother was Frances (Leila Frances) Jones, of Zebulon, NC, daughter of Robert Paul Jones and Rebecca Helen Pearce Jones. She was born in 1912 or 1915 (depending upon whether one accepts the Family Bible or her driver's license as accurate.) She died in 1999. I have only began a foray into family roots and have traced my grandmother's family back a ways, on Ancestry.com,

I've recently retired from the practice of law and this inquiry has somehow arisen. In any event, I am wondering if you can direct me to this part of the family tree and let me know whether your research is consistent with that on Ancestry.com. I'm going to explore further the extraordinary material you've posted but wanted to make direct contact. Warm regards and thanks. Jill

I don't know anything about the Jones family origins (my maternal grandfather's family). I assume they came from Wales or elsewhere in the British Isles, but I haven't even begun that line of inquiry. If you know any Wake County Jones genealogists, I'd be grateful for the contact. As for my father's side, Sidney Oscar Friedman was a Jewish immigrant from Southern Poland; his family came from an area near the villages of Chmielnik and Nowy Korczyn. His family created the first Family Circle in New York (to keep in touch with and support each other), and so there is a good amount of material about that lineage given the caveat that so many Jewish records have been destroyed. He traveled to North Carolina as a salesman and settled in Gastonia. I attribute my mother's decision to marry outside of her circle of staunch Southern Baptists to her father, Robert Paul Jones, who was said to have argued with every preacher who came to the Wakefield Baptist Church. He thought he could interpret scripture as well as they could. I believe my mother took that free thinking a step farther; she told me that the Old Testament made sense to her, so she converted to Judaism. She did not do that until after my father's death when I was three; she said he always told her it was foolhardy to join a minority group.

A modern stone for LITTLE BERRY JOHNSON and ROENA U shows they were married 30 DEC 1851 and this stone is flanked by two field stones which would appear to have been the original unmarked stones marking their two individuals resting place. They appear to be the earliest born of those interred but for some reason the cemetery is referred to as the William Johnson Cemetery. Roena U was the D/O Little Berry U and the G/O John U, I - Head of Class. Other unmarked monuments NOT easily connected to Roena are:

Phil,

I just received your packet of info - THANK YOU! Since you say you've filed my info, I should make one correction - due to my not explaining well, I think. Ned Ruffin Pearce died in 1918 and the children lived with Ada and John R. and Alice in 1920. Then Ada had to go to NY in the early 20s and the children were sent to residential schools in NC. The 3 girls went to Pineland School, which kindly sent me some info. My dad went to several boys' schools from which he made a habit of running away! Finally, in the early 1930s, when he was at a school out near Asheville whose name no one now can recall, he ran away for good (too old to bring back) and went to the Rhodes relations in New York. The girls all eventually wound up there also, except for Aunt Ruby, who settled in Ocean City, MD. I was taken for any number of visits to relatives in Wake when I was a child - and how I now regret not diligently taking notes!! My dad, when he was alive, took one of my sons to Wake while we lived in NC and he was visiting us - Michael can't remember any names or relationships - just recalls getting his cheeks pinched a million times and told he looks just like a Pearce - and he does! I guess we held up our end for the Peaces a bit by having Michael go to UNC-Chapel Hill.

Phil,

I just received your packet of info - THANK YOU! Since you say you've filed my info, I should make one correction - due to my not explaining well, I think. Ned Ruffin Pearce died in 1918 and the children lived with Ada and John R. and Alice in 1920. Then Ada had to go to NY in the early 20s and the children were sent to residential schools in NC. The 3 girls went to Pineland School, which kindly sent me some info. My dad went to several boys' schools from which he made a habit of running away! Finally, in the early 1930s, when he was at a school out near Asheville whose name no one now can recall, he ran away for good (too old to bring back) and went to the Rhodes relations in New York. The girls all eventually wound up there also, except for Aunt Ruby, who settled in Ocean City, MD. I was taken for any number of visits to relatives in Wake when I was a child - and how I now regret not diligently taking notes!! My dad, when he was alive, took one of my sons to Wake while we lived in NC and he was visiting us - Michael can't remember any names or relationships - just recalls getting his cheeks pinched a million times and told he looks just like a Pearce - and he does! I guess we held up our end for the Peaces a bit by having Michael go to UNC-Chapel Hill.

Strickland Funeral Home provides non-emergency ambulance service

By DOUGLAS HAMM
Gold Leaf Farmer staff writer

Having secured the necessary county franchising and passed a state inspection, Strickland Funeral Home of Wendell has begun operating a non-emergency, convalescent care ambulance service.

Rudy Pearce, vice president of Strickland Funeral Home, said the service officially began operating Tuesday when company officials received a permit and sticker from the N.C. Department of Human Resources and Development's office of emergency medical services.

The Wake County Board of Commissioners granted Strickland Funeral Home a franchise to operate the service Monday, Dec. 5. In order to be franchised as an ambulance service, Strickland Funeral Home had to meet the requirements of a county ordinance and pass the state inspection.

Pearce said the service will operate in eastern Wake County, adjacent parts of Johnston County and the Pilot area in Franklin County. He added that the service is the first to be franchised in eastern Wake County.

"We're providing a service that is needed in this area," Pearce said. "We have had a lot of people tell us this was a needed service in this part of the county, and a lot of people have called us requesting this type of service."

"With similar services that come out of Raleigh, there have been some delays (in response) of up to four and five hours to this part of the county."

Pearce said the service will offer rates comparable to similar ambulance franchises in Raleigh and operate out of Strickland Funeral Home's Wendell facility, located at 211 W. Third St.

"We'll be providing a non-emergency, convalescent care service," Pearce said. "We'll transport bedridden patients that can't travel in a car to a hospital or their doctor's office, and anybody that needs to be on a stretcher and has to be transported for whatever reasons.

"We'll also be in touch with the nursing homes in the Wendell and Zebulon area to transport their patients."

Gerald Brown, director of Wake County Emergency Medical Services, said the service should benefit area rescue squads.

"The service should take a load off rescue squads in those convalescent transports that are non-emergency and rather routine situations," Brown said.

"It will help rescue squads in my opinion because the service will free up rescue ambulances to be available for emergency calls."

Steve Vinson, chief of the Zebulon Area Rescue Squad, said the service will fill a need in this area.

"There is a very definite need for convalescent, non-emergency transport in this part of the county," Vinson said. "There have been times when the lack of this kind of transport has put a burden on individuals who needed the service."

"There are some convalescent services scattered about, but there aren't too many in the county that are franchised."

Vinson noted that the majority of the convalescent nature calls occur in the daytime when rescue squads have fewer available personnel.

"All the rescue squads in the county, not just ours, are pretty well tied with the personnel we have available in the daytime," Vinson said. "Those kinds of calls take one of your units out of the area, and you don't have a crew for emergency transports."

"We try to steer away from those kinds of calls, but we will assist individuals that call us in securing a convalescent service."

Wendell Volunteer Rescue Squad Chief Pete Buffaloe was unavailable for comment.

Pearce said Strickland Funeral Home officials converted one of the company vans into an ambulance and supplied the vehicle with about $4,000 worth of required equipment.

"They met all of the requirements and passed our inspection," Brown said.
