SHADRACK UPCHURCH FAMILY (2)

7a Silas Upchurch b 8-18-1806 NC died about 1874 bur Dishman Cem. md 1 Nancy Crouch, sister of Jane Crouch, wife of Joseph. Two sons were born to them. Nancy left her family while the boys were small, took passage with a caravan going west to Missouri. She was not heard from again. One of the boys was reared by his uncle Billy Crouch in Fentress Co. Silas m (2) Nancy Mason Upchurch, called Mason, born 4-20-1816 and died in 1863. Mason reared the first born son of Silas and Nancy with her own family. In their first years of marriage, Silas and Mason lived in a house on the ridge, above the Cumberland, near his father. Mason was able to cope with all the hazards of pioneer living. One day a panther chased the dog around the house. Mason was alone at the time, realized she must do something or the dog would be overtaken. She waited until the dog was coming around the house near the door and opened the door. The dog seeing the open door, dashed inside and Mason quickly slammed the door. In 1865, they sold the land on the LSF. They were either in their new home on Otter Creek, or preparing to move. The deed, written November 28, 1865 read: Silas Upchurch and Nancy M. his wife, of Wayne County, sell to Richard Barrier in consideration of $20 a parcel of land, 50 acres on LSF, bounded..Southeast 100 poles to the Chimney Rock..James Crabtree corner..Miles Keeton tract..including the Dobbs place. Signed Silas Upchurch his mark, Nancy M. Upchurch her mark. Reg. 27 Nov. 1865 and afterward, on 15 June 1866 was fully acknowledged by Nancy M. Upchurch, his wife to be her will and deed. Mason quickly adapted to the new home. Her services were available as midwife when needed. At least one gentleman carried the middle name of Mason in her honor. Both Silas and Mason were called upon to testify at the trial of the Confederate Guerilla, Champ Ferguson. An account of the encounter with the men of Champ Ferguson is recalled vividly by their grandson as it was told to him. Silas and Mason were on the way across the hills to make soap. They were carrying the tubs and other utensils on their heads. With them were a son, Moses; his brother Joe, and a neighbor. A large group, on horseback, overtook them and called them to halt. Orphe Williams and a negro man called Granville was with Silas, they had been going in the same direction and just came along with them. That was when they shot and killed Orphe and stabbed Granville to death. (A full account of their testimony at the trial is in the book Champ Ferguson by Thurman Sensing.)

died between these two dates. The 1870 Census shows Silas

* Her 6 or 7 children may have been sued by James Matthews - RPH

Note - Details in brackets added by RPH from various sources.

RPH Analysis of #7, #8 & #9 as of 6 SEP 2000. Rachel J. U age 30 is in the home of her father Silas U age 64. There is no evidence of a husband for her. She is thought to have had one or more illegitimate children although some propose a James U was the father of one or more of her children I can find no real basis for this. Our total array of information shows she had 6 children born 1865-1883 - all with the last name of Upchurch - and no evidence of a husband. The youngest of these was James Washington U b 8 OCT 1865 (must be #8 above). Among the 6 children of Rachel there is no General W. U. I suggest he was General Washington U, that he is the same as #9 above and that he died young. Note that James Washington U ^{named a son} General Francis U, possibly after his presumed brother General W. U - RPH

△ Silas Upchurch was born in Greenville TN. on Tuesday 11 Dec. 1886 and he Died Saturday 30 March 1976 in Monroe, Michigan. He married Elsie E Malone on 19 Feb. 1912 in Nashville, Mi. Where they remained until sometime after the 1920 census in Berry, County MI. Silas and his family were living there and the census listed him as a labor on the railroad. Then they moved to Wisconsin where my father James W. J. Upchurch was born in 1922. Then they moved to Michigan's Upper Peninsula where my Aunt Agnes was born in Nema, MI. in 1925. From there they moved to Curtis, MI. then onto Newberry, MI. where they stayed till my father James moved them to lower Michigan in the late 40's or early 50's. He wanted them to be closer to the family. When my grandfather passed away him and my grandmother had been married 64 years, 1 Months, 11 days.

Notes for Elsie Ellen Malone:

My grandmother was the talker of the family altho i can remember some of her stories the one that stands out is the one about there trip to Michigan in a covered wagon. They left Greenville, TN.

in early 1900's and traveled to Michigan with her mother and step dad and brother and sister along the way the children would sing it is a long rocky road and she would say that use to really get to her step dad. She told me of the team of horses they had the lead horse was blind in one eye and she told me that they got to some ware in Ohio and the farmer offered them a place to winter it out that they were going to have a rough winter and they would never make it to Michigan. So they stayed there and continued there journey when the weather got better. Settling in Berry County, Michigan. That is where her and Silas Got married at. They remained there till some time after the 1920 census.

then some time after that they moved and my father James was born in Tomahawk, Wisconsin in 1922 and my aunt was born in Nama, Michigan. in 1925. Then they moved to Curtis, Michigan then on to Newberry, MI. where they stayed till my father James moved them to lower Michigan in the late 40's or early 50's. I can still remember my granny cooking on the wood stove and the smell of the wood burning and the smell of the pancakes home maid bread and everything else she cooked and belive me at the time there was nothing better. At the time of my grandmother's death she had been married 64 years, 3 Months, 22 days. My grandmother was born on Tuesday 17 Feb. 1895 and died on Sunday 10 Jun. 1976.

Silas Upchurch, a successful representative of mercantile interests in Nowata county, has for the past sixteen years been actively engaged in the conduct of a general store at Glenoak, on the Bartlesville-Nowata road. He comes to Oklahoma from Illinois, his birth having occurred near Mount Sterling, in Brown county of the latter state, on the 26th of November, 1857. His parents, Sion and Phoebe (Briggs) Upchurch, were both natives of North Carolina and are now deceased. The father devoted his attention to general agricultural pursuits throughout his active business career.

Silas Upchurch obtained his education in Illinois schools and after putting aside his textbooks turned his attention to the work of the fields. It was about 1889, when a young man of thirty-two years, that he made his way to Oklahoma, locating ten miles north-east of Nowata, where he cultivated a farm of three hundred acres for ten years. On the expiration of that period he took up his abode near Independence, Kansas, where he followed agricultural pursuits for two years and then returned to Oklahoma, settling in Washington county. Through the succeeding six years he devoted his attention to the operation of a farm on Hogshooter creek, after which he disposed of the property and removed to his present location at Glenoak, on the Bartlesville-Nowata road, where he has conducted a general merchandise establishment during the past sixteen years, the oil men and farmers of the vicinity according him an extensive trade. He erected and owns the store in which the business is carried on and has a stock valued at about fourteen thousand dollars. The prosperity which has come to him in this connection is well merited, for in the conduct of his interests he displays the utmost integrity and reliability and does everything in his power to please his patrons.

In 1879, in Joplin, Missouri, Mr. Upchurch was joined in wedlock to Miss Mary E. Walker, a native of Indiana, and they are the parents of two sons and one daughter. William Anderson, who is forty-one years of age, married Miss Lucy Mallix, a native of Illinois, and has one child, Gilda Bell. John Richard, thirty-eight years of age, wedded Miss May Anderson, a native of Kansas, and they have a daughter, Mildred. Cynthia Belle is the wife of William Earl Rector and the mother of one child. Mr. Upchurch is well known and highly esteemed throughout the community in which he makes his home, having long ranked with the successful merchants and representative citizens of northeastern Oklahoma.

CROUCH, EDWARD FAMILY

F177

Edward Crouch and his wife, Margaret, were the parents of James B. Crouch (1763) who with his wife Martha (Patsy) Evans (1751) daughter of Thomas Evans, migrated across the Smokey Mountains from Virginia about 1798 into new territory that was to become Kentucky and Tennessee. Their first son William (Billy) Crouch (October 14, 1795-August 15, 1868) would have been about three years old as he was born in Virginia. Jim bought lands in the beautiful valleys and foothills of the Cumberlands and raised a family of three boys and three girls (if others, no records have been found).

Billy grew up and married Elizabeth (1797-1871). Her maiden name is not on census records nor on her grave marker. He acquired much land and many Negro slaves, and built a prosperous plantation. The mainhouse must have been unusually large or spacious for that time. They had no children of their own, but welcomed relatives, nearly always having some of their nephews or nieces visiting there.

When his brother John Wesley and wife Elizabeth died in Missouri leaving nine children, Billy took 10 year old "Wash" to live with them. Brought him up like his own son, teaching and training him carefully. He appointed him to be administrator of his estate and to see that Elizabeth was provided for her lifetime and buried properly beside him in the cemetery he had set aside for the slaves who had died in his service and for others too. Billy and Elizabeth's graves have built up limestone about the size of a casket with a solid slab atop on which their names and dates are chiseled in the Rocky River Cemetery, Pall Mall, Tennessee: Billy Crouch October 14, 1795 - August 8, 1868 and Elizabeth, wife of Billy 1797-1871.

Other bits of stories passed down by word of mouth relating to Billy Crouch. William Marion Johnson as told to Daily Crouch. One Negro boy was assigned to going to the mill (have corn ground into meal and wheat into flour). Mr. Marion looked forward to every chance he had to ride back up to Uncle Billy's with that little Negro boy. William Marion's sister, Julia Ann recalled the social entertainments at Uncle Billy's. She related how before the Civil War she was there at a ball (large formal gathering for dancing). Guests had ridden in from the area round about. Their horses had been hitched outside surrounding the part of the house where they were dancing. The neighings and stamping of horses hooves interrupted the merry-making. On going outside, a large wild stallion had come down out of the forested mountains and was trying to steal the mares and horses. She told that everyone just stood there until Ben (Benjamin) Barton seized a large sapplin' and brandished it defiantly before that wild horse, driving him off before they lost their horses. (I dare say some of those other fellows helped with some gun shots into the air.)

The Bertram Negro family who lived in Fentress County on through WW I and into the early or mid-twenties. The mother claimed descendancy from one of Billy Crouch's slaves. Her son "Kudge" is remembered as a fine talented fiddle player. He served from Fentress County in WW I in France.

"The 8th day of April, 1869 Jane Upchurch her Bill of Complaint in the Chancery Court at Jamestown, Tennessee against Elizabeth Crouch, Martin Crouch, Mark Ginnings, Anna Ginnings, James Kidd, Martha Kidd, Elias H. Crouch, George W. Crouch, Adm. of William Crouch deed, Alfred Jones, Mary Jones, James K. Redman, Margaret Redman, Stokley Crabtree and Elizabeth Crabtree, all residents of this state and Alexander Rich, Elizabeth Rich, Anna Cypress, James Evans, Nancy Evans, David F. Crouch, John R. Morgan, Elvira M. Morgan, Timothy Buck, Sarah Buck non-residents of the state" (claiming he died intestate in 1868, leaving the above — complainants and defendants his only heirs.) They asked for a sale of certain real estate and distributions of proceeds to residents and non-residents. Agreement was worked out that the widow Elizabeth be given 'dower.' The court did settle the complaint by selling the land to the highest bidder after setting the minimum price of eight hundred dollars, three hundred dollars cash in hand. The court describes the property as lying to the right prong and the left prong of Rottens Fork, with a lane leading from the head of Mrs. Crouch's lane to the Monticello Road, said lane to be kept open one rod wide for property owners use. (The purchasers were Stokely Crabtree and H.W. Williams.)

The below information is taken from the Registers Office records in Jamestown, Tennessee.

Martin and John Wesley's ten children, their sister Jane Crouch Upchurch are listed as heirs. The others I am as yet searching for their line of heritage. Could the Nancy Evans have been the "missing" former Mrs. Silas Upchurch? I cannot know why Martha Crouch Campbell is not asking for her share of the real estate sales.

Notes for Silas Upchurch:

I have a copy of the deed for the sale of 72 acres more or less for the sum of $60 on the 19th day of November 1868. Property was located in Caldwell County, North Carolina. All pages had his and her X as signed. Both Silas and Gilla believed to have passed away after the 1880 census, in Greene County TN. They were both in the Green County TN Census of 1870 & 1880. I do believe that most of the Upchurch family in Green County, Tennessee that has lived and died there are in the Cross Anchor Cemetery in the early years it was called Gasis Shed the church and cemetery are in dist. 20. Where the family was living. There is a large section of the cemetery where there is no markers and there are very few records for 1800's and 1900's until after the second world war.
