Hi Jay.

The Jeffreys family have funded the enrollment of the ETHRIDGE family based on their request for their G.M. Dorothy (Ethridge) Jeffreys. My research on Dorothy has yielded limited results. Would you study what I have done and see what else you can find.

If we find so little on Dorothy we may have to go to PLAN B. This would be to enroll the Jeffreys family (her husband) and have Ethridge as a sub-entry under Jeffreys - somehow. To do this we would need data on the heritage of W^m Henderson Ross Jeffreys 1877-1960 going back to his Pennsylvania War ancestor in order to identify a Palmarcy. Please proceed on this as usual.

Notes for William Jeffreys:

The book "The William Jeffreys family of Granville County, North Carolina and Mecklenburg County, Virginia in the 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries" by Harvey E. Jeffreys, Nancy Jeffreys

21

Smith, Charles R. Smith and a similar book by Harvey E. Jeffreys, edited by Brenda Louise Jeffreys, David Elmo Jeffreys, and Laura Dean Jeffreys prove that William Jeffreys of Granville County was a contemporary of Osborne Jeffreys but that William was not a son or grandson of Osborne Jeffreys. Osborne Jeffreys had a number of children and William is a common name in the family but the dates and locations of Osborne Jeffrey's descendants do not match with William Jeffreys, the grandfather of Charles E. Jeffreys.

Conversely, the two books provide reasonable proof that William Jeffreys of Granville County was the son of William FitzJeffreys, born c. 1710 in Essex Co, VA who died in 1771 in Bute Co, NC and going by the name of William Jeffreys. In the FitzJeffrey line, William of Grnaville would be the fifth William in eight generations of FitzJeffreys.

Information in the two above mentioned books and in the book "Descendants of Jeffress/Jeffries of Virginia and Their Fitzjeffries/Fitzgeffrey Ancestors of 17th Century Virginia and 16th Century Bedfordshire, England" by Emily Calloway Stillman offer support for the belief that William Jeffreys of Granville Co, NC was born in Amelia County, VA ca. 1755 and moved with his presumed parents, William FitzJeffreys and Sussanah Coleman(?), to Granville County around 1758 (prior to the existence of Bute or Franklin Counties). The first documented account of his presence in North Carolina is found on a deed recording his purchase from Thomas Owensby in 1780 of 100 acres of land in St. John's Parish of Franklin County (formed in 1779 from Bute County). This land was south of the Tar River on the north side of Buffalo Creek (Franklin County Deeds, DB 5, page 54).

In 1782, William and his wife sold the land to Henry Cooper for 70 pounds. The deed describes William as a "Planter of Granville County and is signed by him and his wife Dorcas (Tharrington) Jeffreys. (Franklin Co Deeds, DB 4, page 40).

William Jeffreys appears on the Granville Co Tax list for 1782 and 1784 in the Fort Creek District. He added to his tract and in 1810 he paid taxes on 325.5 acres. This was the number of acres he bequeathed to his wife Dorcas in his LWT.

Cemetery notes and/or description:
 Cemetery survey conducted 1978-1980
 by Little River Historical Society
 Survey book is at Wake County Public Library
 4020 Cary Drive
 Raleigh,

 State road 1001 & state road 1729
 (Pearce,s road and Johnson Town Road)
 Franklin County Zebulon North Carolina.
 Turn onto Johnson Town Road pass the house on left you will see a open field.
 This field is where the family house and cemetery was. No headstone can be seen because they were plowed over and the family house was moved. Standing on Johnson Town Road facing the field the mound should be on the right side of the field just past the barn. at the wood line you will see the "watering" hole, that is were I was told the headstones were put.

Tony Pearce installed a fence and headstone for Lee Pearce in 2012
