In Reply to: Re: UPCHURCH STORY - TN by Wilma Gibson Hi I'm doing research on my husband, Donnie Bybee, Upchurch line. His grandmother was Mary Elizabeth Upchurch who married Sherrod Bybee in Warren Co. Tn. Mary Elizabeth was the daughter of John W Upchurch and Elizabeth Webb. Mary Elizabeth had a sister, Lu who married Sherrod's brother, J. Wilbur Bybee. I do have this documented. I don't have the following information proven about the following siblings. Sister named Martha who married Woodard McDowell. Two brothers, Tom and Potter. If you find this family in your Upchurch Story book or if you have anything on this family please contact me at my email address, vjbybee@webtv.net

In Reply to: Samuel Lafayette Upchurch (Warren) TN. by Rick Lemons Hi I have reason to believe we are interested in the same Upchurch families. My husband, Donnie Bybee's grandmother was Mary Elizabeth Upchurch who married Sherrod Bybee. Elizabeth's sister, Mary Lu, married Sherrod's brother, Wilburn. It seems there were several Upchurch children, which include Samantha who married a Blackburn, Tom, Potter, Martha who married Thomas McDowell. Also a sister, Etta who married her nephew, Martha's son Woodard McDowell. None of this documented by me except Mary Elizabeth and Sherrod Bybee, Mary Lu and Wilburn Bybee. However I took a genealogy course at the Amarillo Jr. College way back in 1991. I met a Bobby Bayless from Amarillo who said he was decedent of Irene Monroe Upchurch Bayless. He told me Samuel Lafayette Upchurch married Effie Mae Turner and they were his grandparents. I also have in my Upchurch notes about a Lafayette (Fate) who married a Nancy McDowell daughter of Martha and Thomas McDowell. Like I said I don't have proof of any of this except the Bybee families. Looking forward to hearing from you at my email address vjbybee@webtv.net

Hi Jerry---

It was nice to talk to you a few minutes ago. I hope your medical issue is soon resolved.

If you get a chance you might want to have a look at my websites. One is www.upchurchstory.com where the password is "2013upchurch#". The other one is www.alliedfamilies.com password "2014allied#".

Looking forward to our chat next week.

Phil,

I enjoyed talking with you last week. I'm still not over this crazy bug I picked up. Thankfully, my 95 year old father living with me seems to have finally kicked it. I'm a couple days behind him since he gave it to me.

I looked quickly at your links. I didn't see anything asking for a password. Perhaps my "drugs" are still kicking in wrong.

In any case, since you have a huge project underway, I thought I'd share the HTML file from which the eBook was published. There are no pictures in this file [they are all in the eBook], but all the text data from the eBook is here. You can open it in Explorer or whatever you use and the formatting should be there. You can search the file for any name or phrase. I don't put indices in these eBooks because they are searchable by name or phrase quickly.

The Green Hill in this book is the same Green Hill in my book Green Hill of Surry, Stokes, Rockingham, Wake and Randolph County found at www.hillebooks.com.

After completing that first book on Green Hill, I learned that there were several daughters NOT found earlier that had something to do with the King families. I started off looking at Drury King in 1850 trying to find out more about the relationship to this Green Hill family. What I found was a plethora of data on this Drury King line that turned into this book. Again, I was initially tracking Green Hill as one of the Green Hills in the Wake County area that I wanted to eliminate as my 4th great grandfather Green Hill, who I believe is the Green Hill son of Sion Hill with will in 1780 in Wake County. This same Sion Hill/1780 had a grandson Green Hill named in the will and he's the Green Hill who married Matilda Turner, daughter of Rev. War Simon Turner who died in 1783. That entire Turner/Hill book is what I'm currently editing and getting ready to publish. I have been delayed with my father moving in with me on September 1. He had been living independently in High Point until a major health problem in June. My brother and sister and I decided he doesn't really need "nursing" care but he does need help. I'm keeping him for now though his dementia problems may be soon more than I can handle...we'll see.

Let me enjoy Thanksgiving and finish getting over this bug and I'll try to contact you later this weekend.
Thanks,
Jerry

Experienced researchers know that estate files are an important source of genealogical information. They contain documents created during the settlement of a deceased individual's affairs: perhaps an inventory and/or appraisal of the estate, bills of sale showing who purchased what items, provisions allotted to the widow and minor children, court-ordered accounts filed by the executor or administrator, guardianship records, etc. As the author notes, most early North Carolina estate files were transferred to the State Archives in the early 1900s. In the 1940s, files at the Archives were microfilmed in partnership with the Genealogical Society of Utah. Over the past several years, digital images of most of the microfilmed files have been made available on FamilySearch.org, along with the ability to search by name of decedent. These books address some of the limitations of the online search engine. By examining the contents of each file, the author has expanded initials found on the labels (e.g., "B. J." expanded to "Benjamin J.") and corrected errors in names and dates. More significantly, many file labels contain additional information not indexed on FamilySearch, such as "includes estate of Philip Standley." Even if Philip Standley has his own file, its label may not indicate that additional records can be found elsewhere. Most counties also have one or more files labeled "Unnamed," in which county clerks filed damaged, fragmented and unidentified documents. The author has itemized the documents found in each of these files, along with the names found within each document. Each book includes an index to the estate files, as well as a cross index to the additional names found on file labels and within "Unnamed" files. While the presence of the digitized and indexed estate files on FamilySearch has been an important advancement, the index is not perfect. These books can be a useful supplement to the online index, as well as an important resource for those with limited Internet access.

North Carolina – Family Histories

Drury King and Green Hill Family Connections. By Dr. L. Jerry McDowell. Published by the author; 2015. Available as an e-book at www.Amazon.com for $9.95. 565 pages. Introduction; endnotes.

In his newest e-book, the author documents the ancestry and descendants of Drury King of Wake County (ca. 1789–1875). King and his wife, Delilah Shaw, had nine children, all but one of whom remained in Wake County. Joseph J. King (1817-1874), one of their four sons, married Mary Hill, whose father was the subject of a similar e-book published by the author in 2012: Green Hill of Surry, Stokes, Rockingham, Wake and Randolph County. As in his previous e-book, the author uses a wide variety of sources to document the lives of Drury and Delilah King and their descendants. Included are over two hundred photographs and digital images of marriage records, obituaries, Bible records, land plats, newspaper clippings, etc. The author also incorporates a wide variety of transcriptions and abstracts of deeds, wills, estate files, and personal letters. Roanoke River Roots: The Families of Sherrod, Bass, Mabry, Everett, Ballard, Lawrence, Whitehurst, Best, Savage, Salisbury, and Purvis. By Edward R. Walker III and privately published. Softcover, coil binding. 8 1/2" x 11". 145 pages. Full-name index to title families; others indexed by surname. $18.00 plus $4.50 shipping. Order from the author at 532 Fourth Street, Newport, TN 37821.

This book focuses on the Sherrod family from the eastern North Carolina counties of Halifax, Martin, Bertie, and Edgecombe. Separate chapters contain ancestral information about some of the families who intermarried with the Sherrods: Bass, Mabry, Everett, Ballard, Lawrence, Whitehurst, Best, Savage, Salisbury, and Purvis. The lineage begins with James Sherrod (ca. 1740-post 1791) and his wife, Susannah Carnall. The author traces the descendants of one of their children, son Lewis Sherrod (ca. 1762-post 1800) of Martin County. The book contains a nice selection of photographs, as well as transcriptions of obituaries, letters and other documents. Most of the information presented has, by the author's own admission, "been taken from the research of others who have been so willing to share their work." Source citations are limited, especially for later generations. As the author also notes in his foreword, this book should be considered a "guide to further research."

English Ancestry of Colonial Immigrants, Volume 1: The Ancestry of Henry Applewhaite of Stoke Ash, Suffolk, and Virginia. By John A. Brayton. Published for the author by Otter Bay Books, Baltimore, MD; 2015. Softcover. 6" x 9". 70 pages. Introduction, indexes by full name and location. $20.00; includes shipping. Order from the author, 1900 Central Avenue, Memphis, TN 38104.

For the first book in his new series, the author documents the English ancestry of Henry Applewhaite of Virginia, named in the 1674 will of Thomas Applewhaite of Barbados. Henry's paternal line of descent begins with Henry Aplythweyt of Stoke Ash, Suffolk, whose will was proved in 1443. Each of the seven Applewhaite generations are well-sourced and include detailed abstracts or

In Reply to: Samuel Lafayette Upchurch (Warren) TN. by Rick Lemons Hi I have reason to believe we are interested in the same Upchurch families. My husband, Donnie Bybee's grandmother was Mary Elizabeth Upchurch who married Sherrod Bybee. Elizabeth's sister, Mary Lu, married Sherrod's brother, Wilburn. It seems there were several Upchurch children, which include Samantha who married a Blackburn, Tom, Potter, Martha who married Thomas McDowell. Also a sister, Etta who married her nephew, Martha's son Woodard McDowell None of this documented by me except Mary Elizabeth and Sherrod Bybee, Mary Lu and Wilburn Bybee. However I took a genealogy course at the Amarillo Jr. College way back in 1991. I met a Bobby Bayless from Amarillo who said he was decedent of Irene Monroe Upchurch Bayless. He told me Samuel Lafayette Upchurch married Effie Mae Turner and they were his grandparents. I also have in my Upchurch notes about a Lafayette (Fate) who married a Nancy McDowell daughter of Martha and Thomas McDowell. Like I said I don't have proof of any of this except the Bybee families. Looking forward to hearing from you at my email address vjbybee@webtv.net

In Reply to: Samuel Lafayette Upchurch (Warren) TN. by Rick Lemons Hi I have reason to believe we are interested in the same Upchurch families. My husband, Donnie Bybee's grandmother was Mary Elizabeth Upchurch who married Sherrod Bybee. Elizabeth's sister, Mary Lu, married Sherrod's brother, Wilburn. It seems there were several Upchurch children, which include Samantha who married a Blackburn, Tom, Potter, Martha who married Thomas McDowell. Also a sister, Etta who married her nephew, Martha's son Woodard McDowell None of this documented by me except Mary Elizabeth and Sherrod Bybee, Mary Lu and Wilburn Bybee. However I took a genealogy course at the Amarillo Jr. College way back in 1991. I met a Bobby Bayless from Amarillo who said he was decedent of Irene Monroe Upchurch Bayless. He told me Samuel Lafayette Upchurch married Effie Mae Turner and they were his grandparents. I also have in my Upchurch notes about a Lafayette (Fate) who married a Nancy McDowell daughter of Martha and Thomas McDowell. Like I said I don't have proof of any of this except the Bybee families. Looking forward to hearing from you at my email address vjbybee@webtv.net
