Subject: SUCCESS - Hardy Lewter's home tract location identified - warning.... very long :)

Hi John and Susan,

Warning... this is long.... sorry :)

Before I get started, I just want to tell you that I have found proof that Sanford Jenkins did in fact end up with the tract of land that Thomas Lewter had purchased from Thomas Gregory. There are a series of deeds that have something to do with an order issued from Chatham Co Court where this tract was auctioned. I think there may be some very interesting court records to be found for Thomas Lewter. Seems like the land went to Sanford Jenkins and then Joseph Wheeler and even that transaction got tied up in whatever the court issue was all about. This happened in 1808 or so. Remember that Thomas' widow, Mary Lewter is enumerated in the home of Sanford Jenkins' widow in 1860. I still have a strong feeling that there is a family connection there.

Now the BIG NEWS!!

Vows exchanged by couple here

Darlene Annemarie Robbins and Troy William Greenwald, both of Cary, were married Oct. 18 at St. Michael Catholic Church in Cary. Father Charles Mulholland officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Monroe Robbins of Cary. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Greenwald of Cary.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of crystal organza. The Queen Anne sweetheart neckline was outlined in beaded embroidered medallions. The Elizabethan sleeves of rochelle type silk lace went to bridal points on her hands. The fitted bodice with silk floss laced and embroidered medallions flowed down to the deep peplum which was trimmed in lace medallions. Tiers of ruffles made the skirt which flowed into cathedral length heart shaped train. The fingertip veil of silk floss appliques matched the gown. The headpiece was trimmed in floral lace and seed pearls.

Sandra Robbins, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Melinda Fox, Shelley Hurst, Darla Northrup, Robin Greenwald and Sharla Robbins. The flower girl was Maenette Robbins.

The father of the bridegroom was the best man. Ushers were Kenny Fox, Chuck Hurst, Marshall Clawson, Jeff Canady and Brian Solesha.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the Ramada Inn in Apex. A reception dinner was held at the Raleigh Hilton.

After their wedding trip to Orlando, Fla., the couple will live in West Palm Beach, Fla.

* Made entries in the family bible.

Regarding my grandfather, John Daniel Robbins, according to my cousin's information, he was born in Benton Co., TN. He had a notorious brother, Thomas Yancey Robbins, b. 1864 in Benton Co., TN. who was ambushed and killed in 1916 in Henry Co., TN. Interestingly, my father (his nephew) didn't know much about him, as the family had removed themselves from him. I'd heard this story from my mother who knew him and was scared to death of him. He was a mean and ruthless human being, thus the ambush. His son-in-law agreed to go to prison and take the blame, but everyone knew it was someone else's doing. So the story goes.

Bunn High class together again after 40 years

The 1955 class of Bunn High gathered June 17 in the cafeteria to celebrate its 40th reunion.

Fifty-seven people attended, including class members, spouses, friends, and teachers Jean Hinnant, Johnny Alford and Betty Sanders Abernathy.

Betty Rose Upchurch Privette, current school secretary and one of the classmates, gave a tour of the school facilities. The tour was especially meaningful, said class members, since the original building has been scheduled for demolition by October. A meal of barbecue and fried chicken was served. Wayne and Dale Gay Perry provided dessert.

Several class members were given T-shirts decorated with the Bunn High bulldog mascot for the following awards: class member who lives closest to the school; class member who traveled the farthest to attend the reunion; class member with the most children; class member with the most grandchildren; and the male and female class member who changed the least. The T-shirts were donated by Phillip and Jeanie Price McClellan.

Donnie Perry read the class prophecy. Rose Winstead Lloyd read the class history. Wayne Perry led a recognition for deceased members — Jimmy Sykes, Langford Baker, Ted Edwards and Harold Mullen. Candles were lit in their memory. Members expressed memorable experience while attending BHS and talked about the last 40 years.

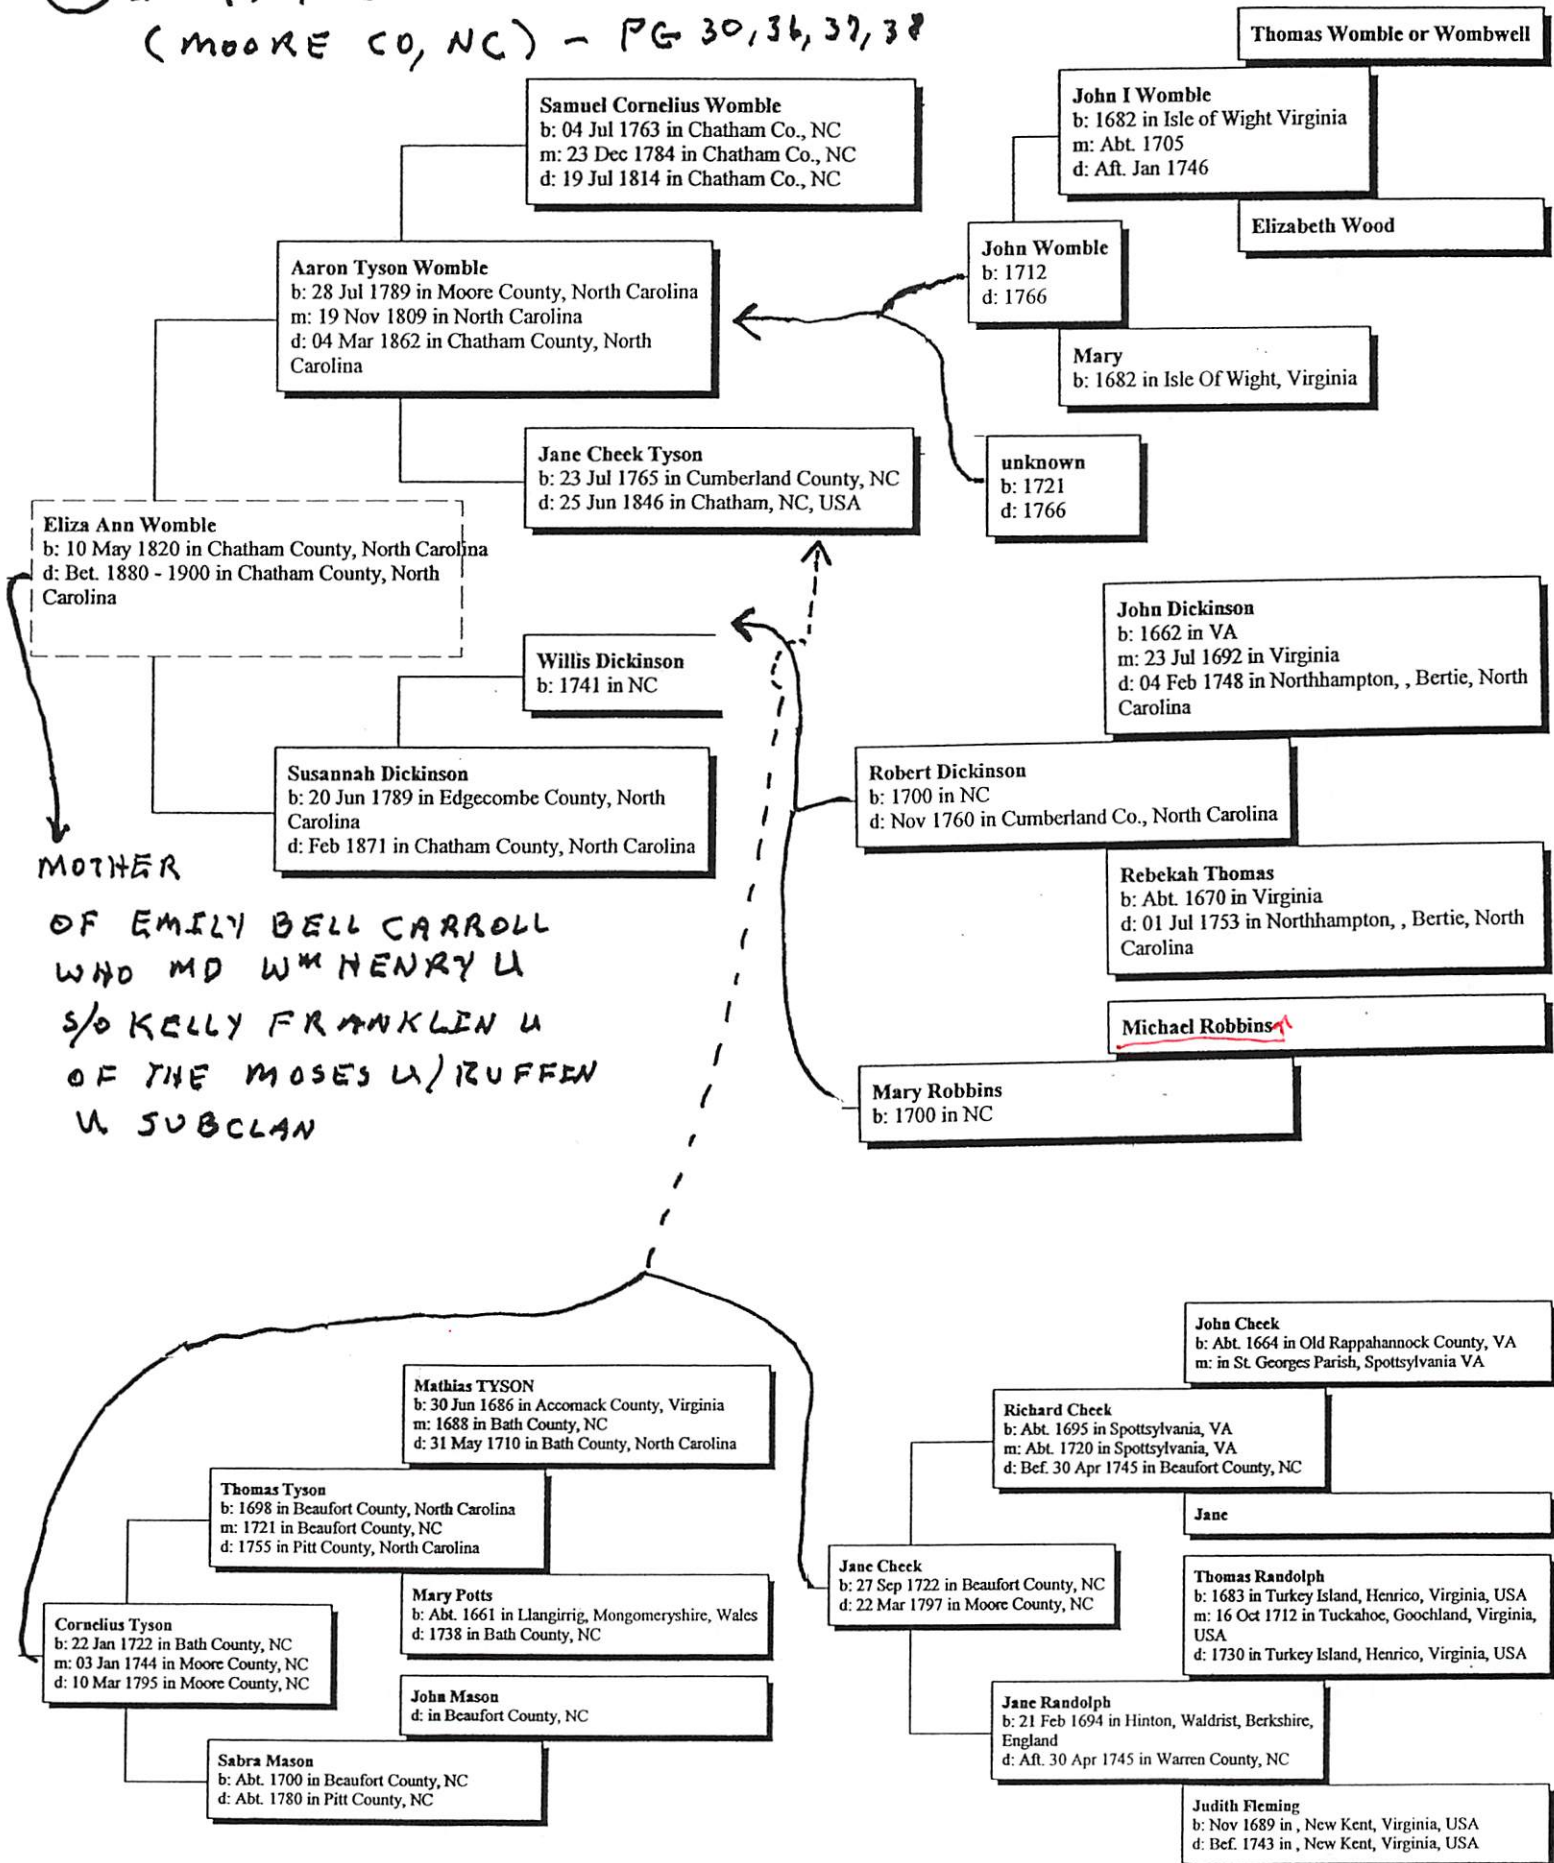

Decorations included posters of superlatives, boys/girls basketball teams, teachers and administrators. Tables were accented with candles and bouquets of magnolias. The focus bouquet was a large basket of red roses, the class flower, with a giant "40" rising above the arrangement. Members listened and danced to '50s music on the jukebox.

The general co-chairmen were Ms. McClellan, Ms. Perry and Willie Brantley Williams; treasurer and location/contact committee: Wayne and Dale Gay Perry; food committee: Gene and Carolyn Baker Mullen, and Billy and Rose Winstead Lloyd; entertainment committee: Donnie and Lynda Perry, and Henry Mullen; decorating committee: the McClellans, and Ronnie and Nancy Tant; invitation/name tag committee: John and Willie Brantley Williams. Thirty-four class members attended from a total graduating class of 54.

* Made entries in the
family bible.

Regarding my grandfather, John Daniel Robbins, according to my cousin's information, he was born in Benton Co., TN. He had a notorious brother, Thomas Yancey Robbins, b. 1864 in Benton Co., TN. who was ambushed and killed in 1916 in Henry Co., TN. Interestingly, my father (his nephew) didn't know much about him, as the family had removed themselves from him. I'd heard this story from my mother who knew him and was scared to death of him. He was a mean and ruthless human being, thus the ambush. His son-in-law agreed to go to prison and take the blame, but everyone knew it was someone else's doing. So the story goes.
