Our hearts are saddened as we learn of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Goodwin on Sunday. There are many fond memories for us of Doctor Oscar and "Miss Elizabeth" as I worked with them when I was newly married and new to Apex. It was a pleasure and a blessing to me to work with them and learn to love Apex and its people through them. They loved their children and we count it a privilege to have known the two of them. "Miss Elizabeth" will be missed.

Dear Mr. Upchurch,

It has been nice making the acquaintance of yourself and your cousin Clyde Upchurch. I appreciate the page of notes for Lunsford and Mary Ann, especially the note about Lunsford using the wagon bed to build her coffin. She was only 40 years of age or so, and left such a large family. What a terrible time that must have been for Lunsford.

I was never able to find Lunsford and Mary Ann in the 1860 censuses for Georgia or Mississippi for additional children (apparently there are 2 more daughters that I don't have), and can see now that I should be looking in Columbia Co., Arkansas. I will also look for that History of Southern Arkansas published in 1890, p. 515, "Columbia Co."

I haven't come across any other Upchurch connection so far in any of my research in the southern states, but will surely contact you if I find any.

Thank you for sharing this information with me.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs Robertson,

Cousin Clyde C. Upchurch of mesa; AZ has sent me a copy of your letter of 9 OCT 1999 to him. Let me explain. From the enclosed details on the Upchurch Publications. As of next month I will have identified and published on 48,000 members of the extended Upchurch family. I have a large number of cooperators. Clyde and I cooperate and I send him batches of Upchurch data and because he is LDS he enters all these records in the LDS system - so his name gets attached in the computer system rather than mine. This is a little confusing but it all works out OK in the end.

I have huge amounts of information on the ancestors of Linceford Upchurch and fair records on Linceford & his descendants. Enclosed is a copy of my 5-Page Master Outline covering

Juneford Upchurch and his children & grandchildren
 The descendants of the grandchildren (if any descendants) if known) are covered in continuation sections as indicated by the numbers on the left hand side of the page. If anyone has an interest in this family, including descendants of the grandchildren, I will be happy to exchange more data.

Juneford U was the son of Calum U, I
 & the grandson of Richard U, III who was a brother of my GGF Nathan U, I.

Enclosed is a copy of my 2-page, 7 item profile on Mary Ann Ballard. I will ask Clyde to send me a copy of what you send him and will let you know if I have questions on that material. I doubt that I will want to press the ancestry of Mary Ann Ballard beyond what I have. However, if there are others have family or other close linkages to members of the extended Upchurch family I would be interested. I am surprised how often individuals researching families who lived in the same area and era can help each other.

I have Biographies on 22 Ballards in addition to Mary Ann Ballard. Most of these are a part of the extended Upchurch Family in one way or another and in various States & eras. I'll be glad to send cop to you or anyone else who would be interested - always in the hope that my extended Upchurch Family records might be improved in the process.

Thank you for your interest and for sharing.

Sincerely yours

☺ Phil Upchurch

Dear Mr. Upchurch,

I came across your name in the L.D.S. Church's Ancestral File Program as a submitter in 1995 to the family of Lunceford and Mary Ann (Ballard) Upchurch.

Mary Ann was the sister of my 2nd great-grandfather James Henry Ballard. I had found her and Lunceford and their family in the 1850 census, but the children were listed only by their initials, so I was pleased to get their full names. Lunceford & Mary Ann were married 30 Jan 1834 Newton Co., Georgia by John Edge, J.P. (Vol. A, p. 239).

If you are interested in Mary Ann's lineage, I have 10 pages of family group sheets and histories (with sources) for her and her parents Philip and Mary (Petit) Ballard and her grandparents Humphrey and Edna/Edney Ballard. I would be happy to share these records with you for the cost of copying and postage.

Robert (Robin) Chamblee

Little River District, Bertie and Wake Counties, North Carolina

Robert was probably born ca. 1738. His first land transaction was in 1759 in Bertie Co, Nc. Robert most likely married Esther Warren, daughter of Benjamin Warren, Sr.. of Bertie County, NC. There is one single reference to Robert and Hester (Esther) Chamblee together in court records. Esther Chamblee is listed as a member of the Poplar Springs Baptist Church in Franklin Co, NC. In 1744, Bertie Co, NC, Benjamin Warren proved his rights and listed his wife, Esther and others: James, Benjamin, Margaret, Mary Patience, William and Esther Warren.

Descendants of Malachi Bunn

1. MALACHI¹ BUNN was born Abt. 1815 in Wake Co., NC¹, and died 08 Apr 1864 in Orange Co., VA². He married MARGARET H. ROBERTSON 17 Sep 1840 in Franklin Co., NC³. She was born May 1822 in NC, and died Bet. 01 - 07 May 1900 in Franklin Co., NC⁴. △

Notes for MALACHI BUNN:

Malachi was a farmer in both Wake and Franklin Co., NC. Although the parents of Malachi are unknown, there is strong evidence that suggest that they might have been Henry M. Bunn and Pennina "Penny" (Pendergrass) Bunn. △△

According to documents on file in the National Archives in Washington, DC, Malachi enrolled for active military service for the Confederate States of America on February 22, 1862, in Dunn (probably Dunn Township, Franklin Co., NC). On April 11, 1862, at the age of 47, he mustered into service at Camp Mangum, near Raleigh, NC, for a period of 3 years. He was assigned to Co. B, 47th Regt., NC Infantry (State Troops), along with numerous other Bunns from Franklin Co., NC.

Malachi was sent to a camp located between Kinston and New Bern, NC. There, according to the Muster Roll for Jul-Aug 1862, he became ill and returned to his home in Franklin County. After recovering from his illness in the early part of 1864, he rejoined his original unit somewhere along the Rapidan, North Anna or South Anna River in Virginia. Archive documents indicate that he died at a hospital in Orange Court House in Virginia. Cause of death or burial site is unknown. Ora Jane Bunn, a granddaughter of Malachi stated that Malachi's body was brought back to North Carolina and buried in the Bunn Cemetery located in Franklin County, approximately one mile south of Pilot on State Route 1746. There is no marker in that cemetery bearing Malachi's name. To date, documentation indicating that he is buried there has not been found. △

Notes for MARGARET H. ROBERTSON:

Margaret Robertson and her husband were living on a farm in Franklin Co., NC, in 1850 and 1860. After his death during the Civil War, she continued to live there until her death in 1900. Margaret's will was drawn up on April 10, 1900 in Franklin County. It was probated and recorded on May 7, 1900. Franklin Co. Orders & Decrees (Bk. 6, Pg. 126, pertaining to the division of Margaret's land, indicates that she died during the month of May, 1900. Therefore, it appears that she died between May 1 and May 7, of that year. What is puzzling, is the fact that she is listed on the 1900 census for Franklin County recorded on June 9, 1900. She is listed in the home of her daughter, Eliza, in the Dunn District (Dwelling 66) at that time. △

At her death, Margaret owned 126 acres of land in the Dunns District of Franklin County. That land was divided on September 21, 1900. A map showing the division can be found on page 126, Book 6, Orders and Decrees, in the Clerk of Court's office in Louisburg, NC.

Hi Phil: I finally, just finished, reading the property sales of William Hall's land to the Moberly's, et al.

One piece of property was located on NEWLIGHT CREEK, and another, on BUCKHORN CREEK, Wake Co.

Does that place us near each other ?

And a huge surprise....WILLIAM HALL WAS AN ATTORNEY!!!! so that should help me find him in Sangamon County, IL the -building a house- he referred to in 'the letter' made me wonder if he was an architect, like his son Jonathan.

And, he represented the buyers of his land &/or had a power of attorney (how odd).

One paper lists another William Hall as deceased, and being the father of Frances/Fanny Hall Mobley b. 1789, which I also found in rootsweb, & Elizabeth C. Hall Mobley b. 1792 both listed variously as daughter of the other William Hall, or of Joel Hall b. 1752 (buried in a Newlight Creek cemetery).
 My William fits in there someplace, probably as son of the other William. Joel is not listed as having a son William.

Per the land description: as was common then, it lists from trees, poles, other persons lines, etc.

Names mentioned in the 'Newlight Creek' descriptions adjacent to his land include:
 _____Estes, [△]Ezra Gill, [△]James Hicks, & [△]Phebe Robertson (one of the buyers)

A name in the Buckhorn Creek description is: _____Davis

K'dale's 'first lady' returns to hometown

By Betty Patterson
Editor

She could, in some respects, be called the first lady of Knightdale.

Gladys Robertson Harrell was the first baby born in Knightdale, her parents told her, after it was established as a real town, more than just a crossroads or railway stop.

The year was 1910. Wiley Robertson Sr. and his wife, the former Rosa Wall, produced their first-born of seven on June 3 in their partially-completed home (which burned in 1940).

And in 1927, when Knightdale High School produced its first graduating class, Gladys Robertson was proudly one of the six seniors the community sent into the world.

Her love of history and heritage is evident in her conversation and in family mementoes preserved in her home. All the coins minted in the year of her birth and of her husband's, 1907, are displayed under glass.

But some of the items she had hoped most to pass on to her children — old photographs of the town and its first businesses, and of her ancestors and childhood — were wiped out when the home place was destroyed. "All of our pictures were burned when the house burned up," she recalled sadly.

Mrs. Harrell is glad to have been back home for the past four years. She and Willie Coleman Harrell Sr. moved to Virginia in 1945 for employment. Two of their three children were living here when she returned — Coleman Jr. (since deceased), who built the house on Second Avenue for her, and Bobby, who finished her house after his brother's death. Her daughter, Gladys H. Friedlin, lives in Chesapeake, Va. (Another daughter, Shirley Ann, died at age 9 months.)

In recent years Mrs. Harrell has been active with the Knightdale Extension Homemakers Club, continuing her longtime love of sewing and crafts; she has also been involved in extension programs at the county, state and national levels. She has taught crafts classes on both professional and volunteer levels.

She is a member of the N.C. Mothers Association. At Knightdale Baptist Church, this 78-year-old woman is a deacon and a member of the "Be Active, Live Longer" (BALL) club as well as the Women's Missionary Union.

First Baby

As a child, Mrs. Harrell recalled, her parents told her she "was the first child born in the vicinity of Knightdale."

Her father was Knightdale's only postal carrier then, as he was when he met his future wife while delivering mail to her home. His family was from the Wendell area, hers from Shotwell.

The Robertsons' home had only two rooms complete when the first child came along. "I was born in the dining room," she said, "and the doctor had to come from Clayton"; the doctor stayed there throughout the delivery, but it isn't clear whether he slept in the dining room or the bedroom.

That home near the railroad tracks later served as a boarding house, which conveniently helped give Knightdale a population boost. Among the boarders Mrs. Harrell remembers, or heard about, were teachers from the local school and several couples getting their start in the community, including Dr. and Mrs. J.R. Hester and Mrs. Hester's mother, a Mrs. Bailey. The Hesters lived there until they finished building their own house.

"She had three big rooms upstairs," Mrs. Harrell said of her mother. Those rooms, for the boarders, were large. Downstairs were the kitchen, the master bedroom and the living room.

Later, when the children grew more numerous and got older, the five girls got rooms upstairs.

When Mrs. Harrell was growing up, there were very few buildings in town. The early ones she remembers were the post office, the church, the sawmill, the residence of the railroad foreman's house, N.G. House's store and the railroad depot.

Many Jobs

"Daddy carried the mail on a horse and buggy," Mrs. Harrell said. She would sometimes make the rounds with him until he was transferred to a Wendell route, around the time of World War I.

Robertson owned a blacksmith shop as one of his many entrepreneurial efforts; the blacksmith, Mr.

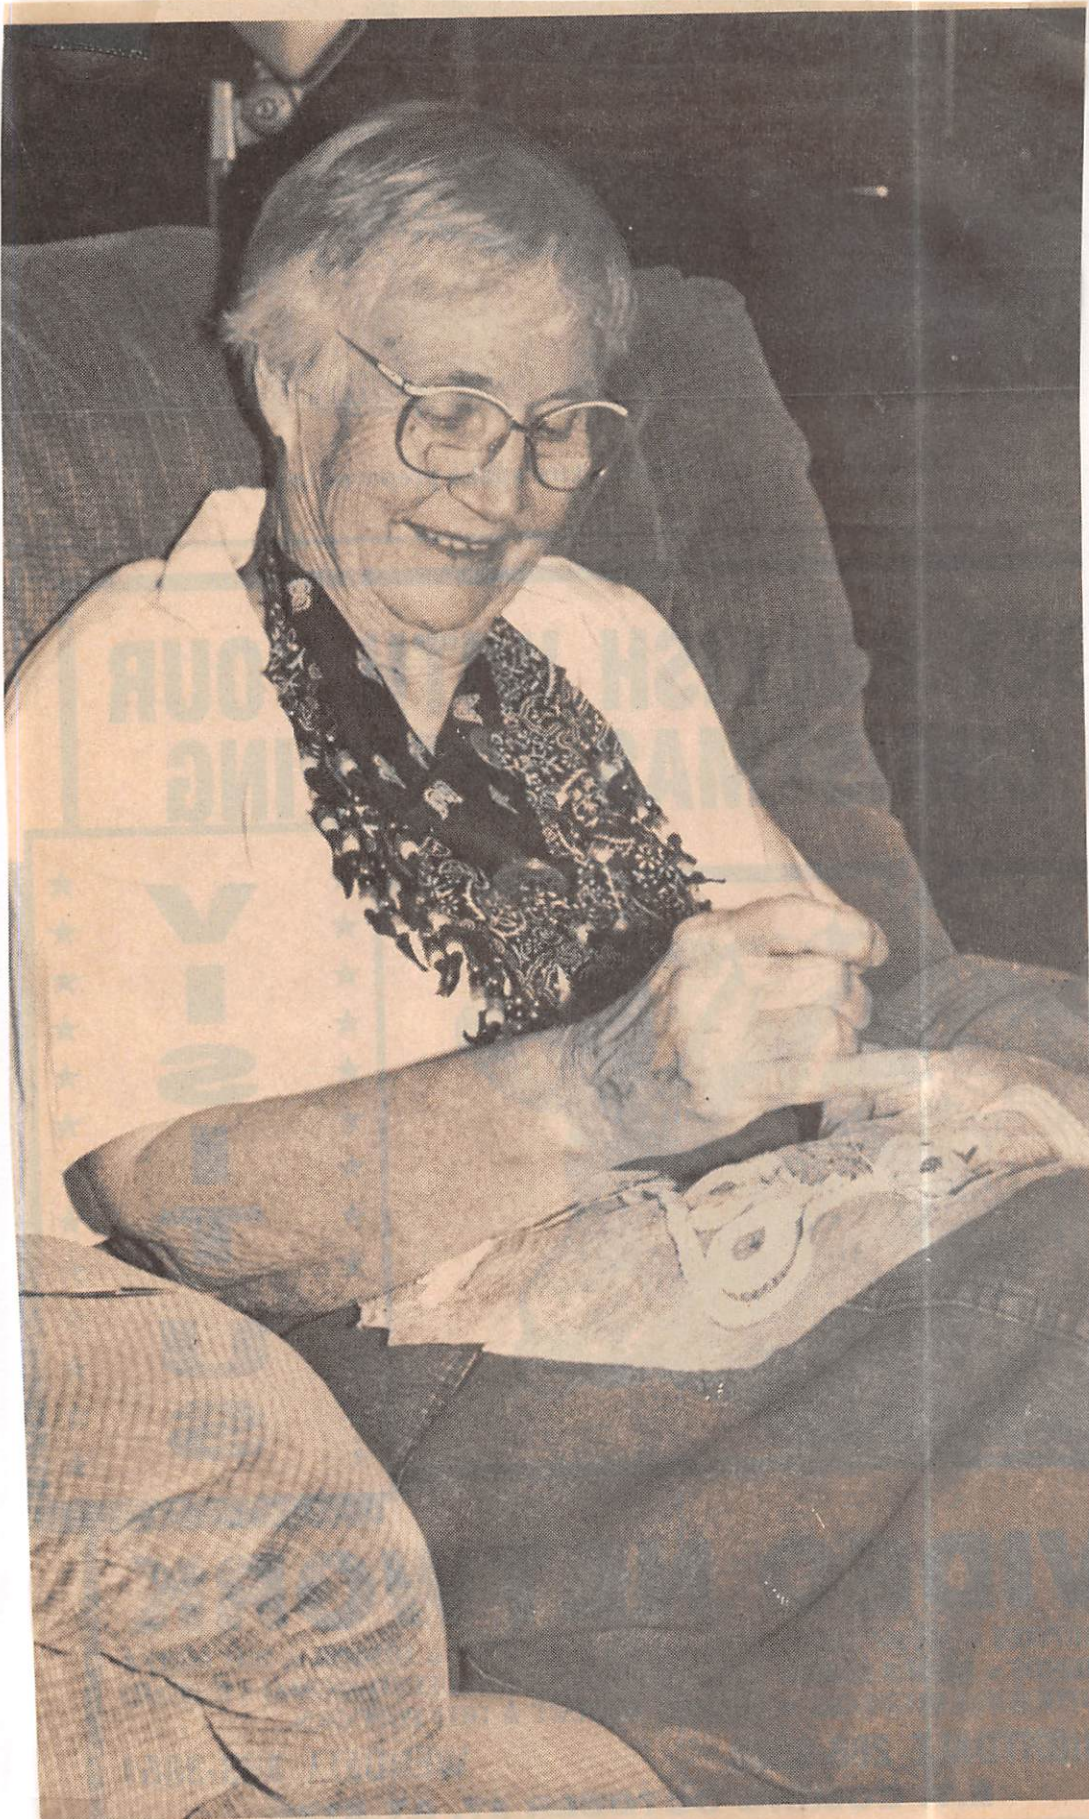

Parrish, was the father of current resident John Bruce Parrish. Mrs. Robertson's brother, Bennett Wall, ran a drugstore that Robertson owned.

Her father also owned a garage and Knightdale's first meat market. Several family members, including young Gladys, helped out at the meat market, which was open only on Saturdays. (Wendell and Raleigh were more progressive, she said — their meat markets were open on a daily basis.)

On the approximately 14 family farms he owned around Knightdale, Robertson raised cattle for sale at his own meat market and at others.

About 11 p.m. on various nights, Robertson would call his daughter. "He'd say, 'Sister, I'm ready to go skin a cow,'" she recalled, and she would hold the light for him to see by. "He'd always skin a cow on Friday night," then cut it into chunks that she and her mother would help carry.

Robertson, known as "Pa" to his family and to the community residents, also had another occasional job to help his family get through the Depression years. "He'd relieve Uncle Bennett at the drugstore," she said.

Gladys Harrell sews lace wings for angel

Mrs. Harrell got experience with many of those jobs, too. "I was the 'boy' of the family" as the eldest, she said, and she learned to enjoy tasks like shaking the salt out of preserved cowhides before they were sold.

Her siblings were Cassie, Blanche, Wiley Jr., Doris, George and Rachel Kelley.

"When Daddy retired (from the postal service, at age 47), he was so lonesome he started a sawmill," Mrs. Harrell said. "I'm like him that way — he couldn't stay away from work, I reckon."

Her early "busy-ness" led to a lifelong love of crafts and other hobbies. "When I got married at 17," she remembered, "I had a hope chest full of sewing and embroidery and things.

"I started sewing when I was 12 or 13 years old," helping her mother make her father's shirts in the days before manufacturers made big-men's sizes. "Mama was an excellent seamstress," even on a pedal-powered machine.

"Mama also taught me how to crochet," she added.

Married Life

Soon after her high school graduation, at the age of 17, Gladys Robertson married Willie Coleman Harrell, who had lived in Knightdale since the age of 7.

Harrell worked for Norfolk Southern Railway at the time and was based in New Bern. But to keep his new bride in her hometown, he quit that job and went to work for his father-in-law.

After several job changes, Harrell resumed employment with the railway and was assigned to a Virginia post in 1945, taking his family with him. Mrs. Harrell worked for the Norfolk Naval Shipyard for 27 years in a top-secret mail dispatch post, retiring in 1973.

When her husband died in 1978, after nearly 51 years of marriage, Mrs. Harrell continued to work, at the college of Albemarle, but eventually decided to return to her hometown.

Most of her 10 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren live in the Knightdale area. "All of my family is here, except my one daughter," she said. "This is home."

Grave robbers disturb eastern

Wake cemetery plot

By DEWEY WHITAKER
Gold Leaf Farmer Editor

Grave robbers struck a rural crypt in eastern Wake County in the last month and the sheriff's department is trying to put together clues in solving the ghoulish case.

Sam Davis, a retired farmer, found the grave March 8 when he was riding horses near the abandoned graveyard off S.R. 1003 about 1½ miles from East Wake High School. He found the top of the mausoleum pushed to the side with bones and pieces of a wooden casket littered about. He did nothing to the site and called the sheriff's department.

The grave contained the remains of William "Grandpap" Robertson, who was born about 1850 and died about 1948. Davis said the graveyard, which has about 20 graves, is a former slave graveyard and the most recent tombstone is from 1968. Most of the people buried there have surnames of either Robertson or Horton, but many of the graves are unmarked.

The Wake sheriff's department called in archaeologists from the N.C. Department of Cultural Resources to help with the excavation of the tomb. Maj. Danny Bellamy of the sheriff's department said one man discovered the same grave open about 15 years ago, but the tomb was resealed.

So far, there are few clues. Water gathered in the tomb and the sheriff's department had to pump out the water before they could tell what was taken. Reporters were present as the archaeologists began emptying the tomb. Mostly leaves and coffin debris came out of the grave, but a few bones were found. A piece of the dead man's chest bone was found lying next to the grave.

Bellamy said the work was probably the work of satanists, but he could not be certain.

"You can't tell what they (satanists) wanted," Bellamy said. "But satanists value the human skull."

Bellamy said there has been no increased satanic activity.

The one-acre graveyard is owned by the families of those buried there.
