Dear Weynette,

Please send me a copy of the list of publications you offer for sale with prices and availability. Due to a "water" event in our home ($75,000) I need to replace a number of my family history books. Enclosed is a flyer on my Upchurch publications.

Thank you.

PERQUIMANS PRECINCT (OLD ALBEMARLE) NORTH CAROLINA COURT MINUTES, 1688-1738

(expanded index includes:

full-names & place names: cross index of: Grantors-Grantees of deeds, brides & grooms (whether marriage so stated or merely implied), Plaintiffs & Defendants in suits, personal items, tools, etc. Transcribed VERBATIM.

PERQUIMANS PRECINCT (OLD ALBEMARLE) NORTH CAROLINA BIRTHS, DEATHS, MARRIAGES, and FLESH MARKS, 1668-1810. Transcribed VERBATIM--full-name index

JOHNSTON COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA DEED ABSTRACTS, 1759-1771

(As Johnston County Deed Books, 1746 (year of formation) thru 1758 were 'burned', a separate index is included of all old deeds mentioned which were dated prior to 1759 (the earliest being 1736). With the full land description given, many of these missing deeds may be completed. Also includes a verbatim copy of a Granville Grant and a McCulloh Grant. Full-name, place name index.)

JOHNSTON COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA LAND ENTRIES, 1778-1805

WAKE COUNTY NORTH CAROLINA LAND ENTRIES, 1778-1846

(These Land Entries might well be termed "Applications for North Carolina State Land Grants." Eventho' a person may have 'entered' the land, they were not necessarily 'Granted' the land, thus these records contain persons whose names do not appear in the lists of North Carolina State Land Grants. Transcribed VERBATIM & usually gives full land descriptions.)

Dear Mr. Haun

I am conducting a serious study of the Uphurch family of North Carolina which has its roots in Wake and surrounding counties. A Raleigh correspondent of mine, Mrs Robert L Shaw (Betty J.) has sent me a sample sheet showing a listing of various court minutes which you have for sale. In order to have a sample of your work and to judge the price of additional purchase I would like to buy at this time - "Wake County, NC County Court Minutes - Book A-1: 1771-1776. 69 pages (1778). My check for $9.00 is enclosed

If you happen to know of anyone who might be interested in the Uphurch family history, I would be happy to correspond with them. Thank you.
Sincerely yours
Robert P. Uphurch
