WALTER G. UPCHURCH - Conducting a manufacturing industry that has become one of the important commercial enterprises of Nashville since its establishment by Walter G. Upchurch, in 1914, the owner and operator has built it up to its present position through his individual efforts and thorough understanding of business methods. Altogether, Mr. Upchurch has been a worker in and student of the mattress manufacturing business since he was sixteen years of age, having begun his career in 1896. There was ambition in his heart and he was the fortunate possessor of a naturally industrious nature. Even in his earliest days in the business field he understood thoroughly that success meant the closest attention to every detail of the work he had in hand and he neglected no opportunity to learn each detail as it passed in review. The result is apparent and the Upchurch Mattress Company, of which he has been the owner and sole manager since 1914, has grown and expanded to its present prominent place in the local industrial world. The plant is located on North First Street, occupies nine thousand square feet of floor space, employs an average of eighteen hands, has a capacity of two hundred mattresses daily and also deals in furniture and rugs. It was in 1914 that he purchased the Economy Mattress Factory, conducted it successfully for four years and then added to it and renamed it as it is at present.

He was born on his father's farm near Nashville, Tennessee, June 2, 1880, a son of Walter G. and Annie Upchurch, and was educated in the country schools and in Nashville, entering business life when he was sixteen years of age, as related. He is a member of the Nashville Chamber of Commerce and of other commercial organizations and is fraternally affiliated with the Woodmen of the World. He attends the Presbyterian Church.

Walter G. Upchurch married Cora Collins, on August 12, 1924.

MR HENRY A COLLINS
ROUTE 2, BOX 106
HOLLY SPRINGS, NC 27540

Dear Mr Collins,

I certainly enjoyed our phone conversation earlier today and appreciate the details you gave me on the family of Foy Jane (Upchurch) Norris. The outline for her is now much improved but a number of details are yet to be added.

I would be pleased in the 6 page master outline for Bennett A. Upchurch which covers from Upchurch Generation 6 (Whitney U) to Generation 9 (your mother generation). Also provided is follow-on section 36A for your mother and her descendants.

I am confused about one thing. You said Foy Jane (Upchurch) Norris had four children [4 boys; Raymond; Vannie; and Mable]. I show also a daughter Figgie Norris [Elizabeth Norris?]. Is this Figgie Norris the same as Vannie or Mable or does Figgie Norris amount to a third daughter (and thus a fifth child) of Foy Jane (Upchurch) Norris?

I have had some questions on some enclosed sheets and hope you will have or can get answers to some of them. Anything you supply will be appreciated.

I really enjoy my visits back to Wake County, NC and wish I could spend more time there. It is a wonderful place. Of course it is expanding now and everytime I come back a new batch of roads have been built.
I am not sure when I will next get back to Wake County but it would be nice to meet you and to see the old sites which you know about in the Holly Springs area and I don't. We always enjoy the W.C.
Pork barbecue when we come. You can't get it anywhere else but North Carolina and we love it.

Hope to hear from you.

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

MR HENRY A. COLLINS

ROUTE 2, BOX 106

HOLLY SPRINGS, NC 27540

Dear Mr Collins,

Recently Alan M. McEwen of Raleigh, NC wrote to me about your helping him to find the grave markers of Bennett A. Upchurch, your great grandfather. I am keenly interested in the entire extended Upchurch family and have identified and published over 24,000 members of this family. I understand your grandmother was Mrs. Freeman Mason (nee Lucy Jane Upchurch), daughter of Bennett A. Upchurch. I have a great deal of information on the ancestry of Lucy Jane Upchurch but very little on her descendants. I am in great hopes that you can help me identify some of the descendants of Lucy Jane Upchurch. In turn I will certainly be pleased to share my knowledge with you.

As a start could you list for me the names of the children of Lucy Jane

(Upchurch) Names? ²⁻ ^① includes one of these children was your parent? Can you give me the full names of your parents and their dates and places of birth? Are they still living?

If you so desire I will be pleased to send you a chart of your line and mine showing how we are related. We both descended from Michael Upchurch, I who came to Virginia from England in 1649.
Our common ancestor is Richard Upchurch, II who came to NC from VA about 1755.
Two of the sons of Richard Upchurch, II moved to the Apex area about 1802. You are descended from one of those sons and I am descended from the other.

I was in Wake Co, NC for a brief part months and enjoyed meeting with my sisters, cousins, etc.

Hope to hear from you soon

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

re MARILLA IRENE
JOHNSON +
CROSSFIELD;
GEORGE BENTON ALFORD
HUBERT WALTER
COLLINS

The students of Holly Springs High School had been warned that the new teacher of Latin and English Literature would require a certain amount of mental effort on the part of every student. This was a disturbing report, but most of us adopted a wait and see attitude. By the end of the third recitation period we knew that we were going to complete every assigned task and that we were going to enjoy her classes.

She dressed neatly and in good taste. Her lectures were carefully prepared, and she was punctual in meeting every appointment and administrative obligation. The question of discipline never arose in her classes; every period was so varied and interesting that no one could afford indifference or inattention. Subject matter progressions were in logical sequence and transitions between related subjects were bridged with skill.

But excellence in the mechanics of teaching did not impress the students so much as her personal interest in each pupil as an individual worthy of being treated with the greatest courtesy and consideration. She concerned herself about the homelife of each student; and much of the daily instruction was slanted toward the cultural needs of the boys and girls in her classes. She carefully appraised the capabilities of each boy or girl and then visualized an important mission which one with such talents should be able to undertake successfully - no student with the faintest spark of ambition could fail to be impressed by such generous estimate of his potentialities. She believed, as did Samuel Johnson, that "Where there is no hope, there can be no endeavor". Students given an enlarged vision of service were inspired to attempt new levels of academic achievement. Before the art of counseling had been fully accepted in the secondary school program of our State, she was a counselor, par excellence.

After graduation from high school, many of her pupils completed a liberal arts course and then studied for a professional degree or did post graduate work. Regardless of the number of brilliant teachers her students may have had in later years, each one I have known has been positive that he never at any level of instruction had a greater teacher or a more inspiring counselor than Mrs. Irene Johnson - Cook.

No one who sat at her feet could ever forget her vision of service for him and her confidence in his ability. Through the years following her retirement, many of those whom she had taught called to pay their respects and receive new inspiration. To hear her re-statement of general principles considered basic to christian living in this modern age, often was found helpful in resolving a current problem in real life.

When this teacher whose life was so completely dedicated to youth passed on to her reward, many of those in whose hearts her memory will be forever enshrined, knew that no epitaph would be more appropriate than the following variant from the funeral oration of Pericles:

"The memorial of a great teacher is graven not on stone, but in the hearts of her pupils."

Col. Hubert W. Collins?
Fort Collins, Colorado

Col. Hubert W. Collins is a retired army officer from U.S.A. Engineers, serving in the European Theatres of war in World Wars I & II.

He lived in the Col. Benton Alford home at Holly Springs, N. C. (He was step-son of Col. Alford) and received his high school education at the local school. Mrs. Irene Johnson Cook was teaching in the school at the time and boarding in the Alford home. During these years, and for two or three generations past, Holly Springs High School was a boarding school and boasted of having the best qualified teachers in the state.

Hubert graduated at the University of North Carolina, then received his Masters in Mathematics from Harvard University, and was called into service immediately, in 1917.

Mrs. Cook always looked upon Hubert's attainments with fond pride and a sense of professional reward.

New Hill.—In Wake's southwestern corner, the antebellum community of New Hill was experiencing new growth as a result of the locating of the new Chatham Railway through its neighborhood. W. H. Matthews, local retail grocer there, and general store proprietor R. M. Brown, were joined by at least three other merchants by 1872. They were J. W. Collins,† Thomas Harton, and John Wilburn. At nearby Lashley's Crossroads a sawmill powered by two fifty-horsepower steam engines was in 1870 keeping twenty-five men employed. Its proprietors were J. McC. Ellington, J. C. Hunter, C. H. Beckwith, and D. B. Holland. The town of New Hill was to become an incorporated town early in the twentieth century, but only for a brief decade.⁴⁶
