"The Johnstones are an ancient family, deriving their name from the barony of Johnstone in Annandale, Scotland. By successive creations from 1430 to 1701, the head of the race attained the dignity of Marquis. Gabriel Johnstone appointed by the King, Governor of North Carolina 1734. His brother, John, was appointed surveyor of the state in 1736. They came from Dunee, Scotland."

We are not descended from Governor Gabriel Johnston; his will names only one child, a daughter Penelope, but he does give land to his two nephews, Samuel (Gov. Samuel Johnston) and Henry (his brother John returned to Great Britain and died there). Some of the land is still in the Johnson family about whom these records are set down.

The Scotch expressions which they held on to, and by-words - such as, "Well, Jeemes River!" indicated Scotch ancestry and some connection with the James River in Virginia.

Father (Kemp B. Johnson) said "Pa Johnson" (his father John Lewis Johnson) used to tell him his uncle (his only uncle was William Johnson, son of Tapley, Sr., and father of cousin Willis Johnson) always called him "Eon" as that was Scotch for John.

It has come down to us that the first Tapley Johnson's parents and grandparents were from Surry County, Virginia.

"After 1729 . . . a second type of immigration was mostly of the highest type of manhood in Virginia. The law of Primogeniture then enforced in Virginia, gave the eldest son the sole hereditary right, and compelled the younger men of the family to cast their lots away from home or become clergymen, or turn to other professions.

For the next fifty or seventy-five years there was a great surge of young men coming from Virginia into North Carolina, obtaining grants and purchasing land on which to establish their homes."

If we follow this migration we find a surge of these families selling land in Virginia: Surry, Sussex, Isle of Wight and Nansemond Counties, and moving into Halifax, Northampton, Edgecombe Counties, Johnston, Granville, and Chatham and Cumberland - following the courses of the Roanoke, Neuse and Cape Fear Rivers.

We learn from the land boundaries that his nearest neighbors and friends were: John Nall, Abraham Carter, Mark Robinson, James Haile, James Atkins, Nathan Prince, Matthew Jones, Jesse Jones, Samuel Northington, Major Thomas Armstrong, John Campbell, and some McLeods, and McKoys, and his several Johnson kin: Barnabas, Sill, William, James, and John, and his wife's family, the Matthews: David and Joseph. (Jesse Jones was the brother of Etheldred Jones).

Zollie was a farmer all his life. He had a country store on what is now Johnson Town Rd. near Pearces. This was a gathering place for the men to talk and play checkers or cards. There was a large mule-drawn cider mill located on the farm with a cider loft built over it. The loft had a big yellow apple painted on the barned structure. This was used to make cider and vinegar. Other families would bring their apples to be ground for cider and vinegar, also.

Zollie never learned to drive and until 1937 when he bought his first truck, his means of travel was by mule and wagon and his work was by mule and plow. The family raised their own food: hogs for meat; cows for meat, milk, and butter; chickens for meat and eggs; and all vegetables were canned. Wheat and corn was carried to a mill to trade for flour and corn meal.

Most of the family still lives in Franklin County. Many live in the Pearces and Bunn Community. Zollie died in 1963. Lillie lived with her son, Pete, until her death in 1985. Both Zollie and Lillie are buried in the Pearce Baptist Church Cemetery.

○ RPA Analysis - 25 MAR 2004

A. CAD U heads a household on 1900 census of New Hope TSP of Cratham Co, NC. on the 1910 Census of White Oak TSP of Wake Co, NC he heads a household. Earlier input has been available on CAD U but his parents have not been identified. Combining earlier & current analysis 2 threads have evolved; [CAD U b abt 1862]

- # 1. He is of the Jubal U, I / Benjamin U Subclan - note that CAD U had a GS listed in Wells Creek Bapt. Ch Cem, Harrell Co, NC - prominent for lineage of the Jubal U, I / Benjamin U Subclan.
- # 2. Threads of evidence lead one to consider the Nathan U, I / Nathan U, II Subclan as follows:

I. Nathan U, I
(Head of Clan)

A. Nathan U, II

1. Nathan U, III b abt 1830

- a. Nathan U, IV b

- b. James U b abt 1866

As of 25 MAR 2004 the "threads" lead me to think it is possible that CAD U b abt 1862 is the same as Nathan U, IV b abt 1863. The "threads" then lead to the "POTENTIAL RELATIONSHIPS" shown above - RPA

Miss Johnson chosen to be contestant in Spring Hope pageant

Bonnie Jean Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Johnson of Zebulon, is a contestant in this month's Miss Spring Hope Scholarship Pageant.

The pageant, sponsored by the Spring Hope Chamber of Commerce, is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 27, at 7:30 p.m. in the Spring Hope Primary School auditorium.

Miss Johnson is being sponsored by J&J Apparel Store of Kenly.

Miss Johnson, a 1984 graduate of Bunn High School, is a student at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She is among eight contestants who have been approved to compete in the pageant.

The other contestants are Robin Michelle Barnette, Amy Teresa Murray, Pamela Ann Retzlaff, Melanie June Vick, Donna Dee Wheless, Rhonda Cerita Williams and Kimberly Ann Winstead.

The winner of the Spring Hope pageant will enter the state pageant. The winner of that pageant will compete for the Miss America crown in Atlantic City, N.J., in September 1987.

Judging of the candidates will be based on the same values as considered at the state and national pageants. Personality, poise, beauty and talent are the major requirements. Each contestant will be judged in a private interview in evening gown, in swimsuit and in the presentation of her talent. Each category has a point value with the talent competition counting as 50 percent of the total.

Pageant director Sylvia Williams said the local pageant provides a valuable contribution to the community and to the young ladies who will enter the competition.

"Most importantly, it will provide the opportunity for the girl who the winner to continue to see scholarship awards at the Miss North Carolina Pageant," M. Williams added. "This will aid her in obtaining an education at the college of her choice."

The contestants were introduced to one another at a get-together July 27 at the Spring Hope First Baptist Church.

Mr. Robert P. Upchurch,
Editor, The Upchurch Bulletin,
Tucson, Arizona.

Dear Mr. Upchurch:

I was so interested to learn that my uncle, Ralph Upchurch, has subscribed to The Upchurch Bulletin. I've been interested for a long time in my family, and have done some research, but not in depth. My mother, Rosa May Upchurch Johnson, who died in 1978, was so proud of her family.

I am enclosing my check for $10.00 for a subscription and will appreciate your sending me the Bulletin for the next year.

Do you bring the lines on down as new people are born? If so, please advise me how to go about getting OUR line of the family included.

Thank you so much.

Dear 4th Cousin Bounilyn, and removed,

I have your letter of June 13, 1980 and am pleased to learn that the January issue of A.B. has arrived. The April issue should be there by now. The two issues were sent using different mailing procedures. Let me know if the April issue does not reach you by 15 JUL 80.

I am very interested in the family reunion you mention. Could you write me about a few of the details - How long has it been going on? Who are the oldest family members who have attended. When and where is it usually held. Could I get a list of those who attend this year along with address? Here are some more flyers. (24) 59.

Looking forward to hearing from you -

Dear Mr Johnson,

I am trying to collect information on the Upchurch family. Your Uncle William Shelton Upchurch, Sr in Asheville, NC has been very helpful and he gave me your address. I would be most grateful if you could supply some of the details on your family as follows:

  - a) what was her full maiden name?
  - b) what ~~was~~ her exact birth and death dates?
  - c) where was she born, where did she die?
  - d) when and where married?
- (2) For your father - J. Clarence Johnson
  - a) what does the J stand for?
  - b) what was his exact birth and death dates
  - c) where was he born, where did he die?
- (3) For yourself.
  - a) what is your full name?
  - b) when and where born?
  - c) when and where married?
  - d) Full maiden name of your wife and her birth date and place?
  - e) Full names of your children and their birth dates and places? Names of spouses and grandchildren if any.

As you will see from the enclosed flyer on the Upchurch Bulletin I have a serious interest in the Upchurch family. I am a "Wake County" Upchurch. My mother still lives near Yates Mill Pond. I'll send more details on your Upchurch line if you are interested. In 1981 I visited your Uncle Pete Upchurch (Garland Worth U) shortly before he died.

I do hope you will send me whatever details you can get or have.

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

Johnson, Beatty exchange wedding vow

Carolyn Elaine Beatty of Raleigh and Dale Alan Johnson of the Wake Crossroads community were united in marriage Feb. 14 at the Raleigh First Presbyterian Church. The ceremony was written for the couple by the Rev. William Anderson of Hephzibah Baptist Church in Wendell and performed by the Rev. William Fryar of Macedonia Baptist Church in Tobaccoville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neill M. Beatty of Sun Prairie, Wis. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Bruce W. Johnson of the Wake Crossroads community.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of organza and chantilly lace, featuring a portrait neckline. The bodice was covered with lace and seed pearls; the sleeves had lace appliques and ended in lace points over the hands. The organza skirt featured a wide ruffle, edged with chantilly lace, and fell into a cathedral-length train. Her veil was fingertip length and edged with chantilly lace with a blusher.

She wore pearl earrings and a graduated pearl necklace. The bride carried an antique family handkerchief. Her bouquet was a silk arrangement of roses, stephanotis and lily of the valley in white, with a touch of blue and mauve pink.

Cathy Beatty of Anaheim, Calif., sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Debbie Ponath of Sun Prairie, Wis., and Leah Rosser and Ellen Rosser, both of Sanford.

The bridesmaids all wore floor-length royal blue gowns. The bodice of each was made of velvet with a sweetheart neckline and sleeves puffed to the elbow. The skirts were made of taffeta with a deep ruffle at the hemline. The high waistlines were accented with a taffeta bow tied in the front. Each bridesmaid wore a graduated pearl necklace, a gift from the bride.

The bridegroom wore white tails with satin lapels, bow tie and cummerbund. He wore a pink silk rose boutonniere.

His best man was Robert Teuber of Crystal Lake, Ill. Groomsmen were his brothers, Daniel Johnson and Dwight Johnson of Wake Crossroads, and Pete Dunlow of Wendell.

An arrangement of pink and white flowers was at the center front of the church. On each side of the communion table was a brass candelabrum with seven candles.

Before the ceremony, Anne Becker of Cudahy, Wis., sang "And I Love You So" and Gene Yeargin of Wendell sang "The Gift of Love." Cathy Beatty, maid of honor, sang the "Wedding Prayer" during the ceremony. The organist was Norman G. Acker Jr.

Presiding at the register was Martha Hamlet, cousin of the bride. Programs were passed out by Kristy Eubanks and Elizabeth Hester, cousins of the bride. Margaret Acker directed the ceremony.

Following the ceremony was a reception at Haywood Hall, an historic home in downtown Raleigh.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin at White-water. She is an extended-day drama and German teacher at Fred Olds Elementary School in Raleigh and a part-time administrative assistant at Aeroglide Corp. in Cary. Her husband is a graduate of N.C. State University and is a human resources technician at McM Corp. in Raleigh.

The couple will make their home in Raleigh. They will go on a honeymoon cruise to Mexico in the spring.
