Dear Cousin Phil:

This is a bit of info on Capt. Burt Upchurch which I want to send you immediately:

A newspaper acct. of the death of Capt Burt Upchurch

"On last Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock occurred the death of that beloved gentleman, at his home in the west end of town.

Capt. [redacted] Upchurch was born July 31, 1838 and was married to Miss Emma T. Hanson on Jan. 15, 1868. From this union were born four sons and three daughters, all of whom are now living with the exception of one son.

The deceased was a gallant soldier during the Civil War, entering the service as a private in May 1864, and as a reward for services was promoted to the rank of Captain,

He was wounded three times. His wife died July 5, 1885, and he moved with his children to Carrollton (Ga) in November 1886 to enter upon the discharge of his duties as clerk of the circuit court, to which office he had been elected by a people who loved him. In this capacity he served the people up to the time of his death and served them well. No word of complaint rests against him; his name will ever be honored and revered, and the hearts of all who knew him will be saddened at the mention of his name. Could we, by the adding of words, assuage the grief or mitigate the heartaches of his bereaved children we would endeavor to do so, but this grief is too deep and too poignant. We can only say that we know from his life that he was a noble christian man and that he is now enjoying sweet rest from the labor and toils of earth life.

On Monday morning at 10:00 o'clock loving (3) hands tenderly lowered his remains beside her he loved so well. He sleeps well, and on beyond the dark stream which marks the confines of life, he lives a redeemed spirit waiting and watching for those who linger behind. God grant that the reunion in the last day will bring to him a meeting with all his loved ones. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. B. Small in the presence of a vast concourse of friends of Bethesda Presbyterian Church, 16 miles southeast of Carrollton".

He is buried at Bethesda Presby Church + when I come upon the picture I'll send a copy -

This is all for now - more later -

"My records show Capt. Burton U b 31 JUL 1838 (Cem. Records) and that he and Emily Teresa md 15 JAN 1858. I realize this makes her "13 yrs old". I also notice that her dau Julia was b 31 JAN 1869 and it stands to reason that in the days of limited birth control she probably had her first child about a year after her marriage. That would give credence to your date of 1869."

"I think 7 children is correct for Burton U↑. My mother corresponded years ago with cousin Jennie Estelle Fullerton. Had there been children born between my father (b 1871) and Uncle William Howard U, II (b 1876), I think I would have known about it."
