RESOLUTION PASSED BY HOUSE ON DEATH OF C. E. UPCHURCH

A copy of a resolution introduced into the house of representatives of the state of Texas by Representative A. N. Justiss, and unanimously adopted, expressing their grief at the death of C. E. Upchurch, and extending their sympathy to members of the family, has been received by J. S. Upchurch, father of the deceased.

C. E. Upchurch, formerly a resident of Corsicana but more recently a citizen of Tyler, died in a Tyler hospital as a result of burns received at Kilgore on April 17, when an explosion wrecked a battery of storage tanks near a producer in which Mr. Upchurch was part owner. He lived about twenty-four hours after the blaze. Other lives were lost in the same fire.

The following letter on the stationery of the house of representatives accompanied the copy of the resolution.

April 24, 1931.

Mr. J. S. Upchurch,
Corsicana, Texas.

Dear Sir:

You will find enclosed copy of resolutions which was adopted by the house of representatives.

The members wish, by this resolution, to express to you their deepest and most heartfelt sympathy in your bereavement.

Yours very truly,

LOUISE SNOW PHINNEY,
Chief Clerk, House of Representatives.

The resolution, which was printed on the back cover page of the house journal of April 22, follows:

WHEREAS, on Saturday, April 18th, 1931, Hon. C. E. Upchurch of Navarro county, Texas, who was a member of this body during the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth legislatures, was called to his eternal reward by a terrible calamity that occurred at the oil well of which he was part owner that caught fire at Kilgore, Texas, on April 17, 1931; and

WHEREAS, for a quarter of a century he had lived in Navarro county and rendered outstanding service as a private citizen; and

WHEREAS: The members of this body are deeply grieved over the passing of this useful citizen and faithful former member of this body sympathize with his friends and the members of his family; now, therefore, be it

WHO'S WHO IN TEXAS AND WHY

There are quite a number of teachers in the membership of the Texas house of representatives, but there are more who have served an apprenticeship at teaching and then have gone into another line. Probably the most numerous of these are the lawyers, and among them is C. E. Upchurch of Corsicana, who is now serving a second term as representative.

Mr. Upchurch is a native Texan, having been born on a farm in Navarro county. He is yet a young man. After attending the public schools of his native county, he graduated from the North Texas Normal college and then attended the University of Texas. Afterwards he taught school for a while until fully ready to take up the law, when he entered into the practice of his profession at Corsicana, which has since been his home.

Elected to represent the fifty-ninth district in the thirty-fourth legislature, Mr. Upchurch served his constituents so well and so satisfactorily that he was elected without opposition as a member of the thirty-fifth legislature. His record during the legislative sessions of this year has been so productive of good results, in the opinion of those he represents, that he is likely to be sent back again to the legislature if he desires to come. He was one of the most attentive of all the members to his duties, voted without hesitation on all questions presented and voted as he thought right. Although taking no prominent part in debates generally, he was never found wanting when it seemed imperative that his voice be raised in advocacy of or opposition to any measure and he always retained the esteem and confidence of his associates.

Mr. Upchurch married Miss Mattie Thomas of Shreveport, La., in 1916. Both of them are leaders in social circles of Corsicana. He is a member of the Woodmen of the World and of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

It is tempting to speculate that there are children of CEU, SR.

However, note that no Uplunch is appended to the listings

Also, CEU, SR had a child born 29 APR 1920. This does not necessarily preclude the death of a child on 13 AUG

I do not know how all of the above are connected, maybe you do. This is all the information that I have on the Upchurch family. I hope it is some help to you.

Let me say that all the older people listed here and their families were among the early settlers of Vernon and Jackson Parish and made a great contribution in building Jackson Parish.
