MORRISVILLE BAPTIST CHURCH
MORRISVILLE, NC 27560

Dear Sir

I am making a serious effort to document all of the Upchurches and their relatives and descendants. Many of these lived in the Morrisville area beginning in the early 1800's. My grandfather Bailey Jefferson Upchurch was born in the area.

I have a clipping from the 12 NOV 1981 Durham Morning Herald newspaper indicating that a Mrs Fannie Upchurch Sears age 83 was buried in your church cemetery and that she was a member of your church. In my records I cannot find Mrs Fannie or any of her relatives listed in the article. Can you tell me the name of the Upchurch man to whom she was married. Also do you have an address of a relative to whom I might write.

I incidentally do you have a written history of the Morrisville Baptist Church and a record of burials? ^{with} appreciation

Sincerely yours
Robert Phillip Upchurch

MORRISVILLE BAPT. CH. - WAKE CO, NC

○ On 6 JAN 1982 RPA wrote to the Morrisville Baptist Church of Wake Co, NC for family history information. The letter was eventually answered on 25 MAR 1982 by Franklin Hunter U, Sr who commented about the history of the church as follows:

We do have a history of the Morrisville Baptist Church which by the way has been changed to the First Baptist Church of Morrisville. It was compiled by Mrs Katie (Maynard) Warlick. It is not detailed but may help you some.

Stone-Maynard Cemetery Morrisville, Wake County, North Carolina

Located at the intersection of High House Rd. (SR. 1615) & Davis Drive (SR. 1613), Morrisville, NC

This small fenced family cemetery is no longer in use. It's location makes it a likely candidate for relocation. It is sitting on a rise overlooking 2 busy roads in one of the fastest developing areas in the county. The surrounding fields still have the marks of years of farming.

I surveyed this cemetery on Oct 04, 2003.

Dir: Take Hwy. 54 West (Chapel Hill Rd.) to the Durham Co. line. Immediately after crossing into Durham Co., take a left turn onto SR 1637 (Church Rd.), which angles back into Wake Co. Take the first right onto SR 1639 (Kit Creek Rd.), go a few hundred feet to a parking area where there is a high mound with railroad tie stairs leading up to the cemetery.

There is massive construction going on all around the cemetery site, huge houses, lots of them. The property owners, KCR Developers, LLC, has treated the cemetery with respect and left it in place. The cemetery is very small and no longer in use. Many thanks to Audrey Evans who found this cemetery.

Most of the interred are buried under small imbedded rocks that serve as markers, with one large tombstone bearing all of the names.

There are 2 separate headstones which repeat 2 of the names appearing on the large tombstone. *

I walked the cemetery and recorded all that was inscribed on Dec 15, 2005.

In Morrisville, from the intersection of Morrisville-Carpenter Rd. (SR 3014) and Church Street (SR 1637), take Church Street (only runs one way, NW) 2.1 miles to the Luther Green Center on the right side of the road, pull in and park. The cemetery fronts on Church St. next to the Luther Green Center and the Shiloh Baptist Church which is just beyond.

This cemetery is the property of the Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church. It is a neat and well marked cemetery but there is a serious drainage problem. Many headstones have sunk to a level where it is impossible to read much of the data on the headstones and some will be completely in the ground unless some effort is made to stabilize the soil or lift the sunken stones.

I have recorded from tombstones and markers on Sep 24, 2004.

Directions: From the intersection of the Cary Parkway and Hwy. 54, Cary, take Hwy. 54 (Chapel Hill Rd.) 3/10 mi. NW (towards Chapel Hill) to a logging road on the left side of the road. (N 35°48'32.5" W 78°48'58") just past the gated entrance at 9705 Chapel Hill Rd. There is a place to pull into and park. From that point it is about 1 1/2 miles on foot through a wooded area to the cemetery. Go 3/10 mi. on the logging road to a bike path (N 35° 48'22.7" W 78°49'14.1) on the right side of the road. The path generally follows a stream. Pick up the next path at (N 35°48'20 W 78°49'16"). Cross a little stream over some rocks and continue on the path. By this time you will be parallel with the railroad tracks. When you get close to the cemetery coordinates, the cemetery will be about 200 feet from the tracks on a little rise to your right, the railroad tracks will be on your left. There are little red flags along the path.

This property is privately owned, but access has not been limited and there are a number of trails that have been used by the public for many years.

This cemetery was made known to me by Bob Morris, who sent me the coordinates of the cemetery which he found while out on his bike. He is not related to this family. It is rather overgrown and several tombstones are broken.

There are probably more graves here that are not marked. This is an abandoned cemetery hidden in a large undeveloped wooded tract. It is in a piece of land surrounded by industrial and commercial development. I would characterize it as endangered, and perhaps putting it on record will help preserve it.

The area is rough and it is easy to trip over roots and rocks, so anyone visiting should dress appropriately, wear long pants and sturdy shoes. There appear to have been soil samples taken and other indications of development plans in the area near the cemetery.

I walked the cemetery and recorded from the existing tombstones on Apr 19, 2004.

Dir. From the intersection of Hwy. 54 (Chapel Hill Rd.) and SR 1002 (Aviation Pkwy.), in Morrisville, go 2/10 mi. west on 54 to Johnny Roberts Rd. Turn right onto Johnny Roberts Rd. and park on the side of the road. The cemetery lies between Aviation Pkwy. and Johnny Roberts Rd., fronting on Hwy. 54 and bounded by Cotten Rd. on the back. The cemetery is not visible from Hwy. 54, one of the busiest roads in Wake County.

This cemetery is still in use and is well kept and neat. It was created by the Clements family and an addition was made to it by the Cotten family. These families own and maintain the property which contains .45 acre.

I walked the cemetery and recorded from headstones on Dec 15, 2005.

Airport Road Community Cemetery (formerly called Sorrell Grove Cemetery, listed as Sorrells Grove in GNIS). Land records show 1.12 acres, Cedar Fork Twp., currently owned by James W. Marcom. Property description is "Property of Sorrell Grove Baptist Church Cemetery."

You can drive through the cemetery. It is neatly mowed and well kept. There are an unusually large number of footstone size markers, mostly without dates, some with full names, some with partial names. I thought at first they were place holders until I viewed a number of these stones with "baby" and the surname, and can only surmise that these are being used instead of headstones as grave markers. At the foot of the graves that are marked with headstones there are the customary footstones, either initialed or with "mother" or "father" inscribed. At one grave there was a funeral home marker and next to it a footstone sized tablet with the name of the interred. Only the funeral home marker held dates. Since burials have occurred as recently as 2002, the cemetery is still in use and there appears to be room for more burials.

I walked and recorded all tombstones in this cemetery on Sep 07, 2003.
