Hi Jim
UB Vol 28 No 2 has been mailed. Quite a few responded to my trial use of emails to get input. I will continue to use this approach on an experimental basis.
My Website "UPCHURCH FAMILY" was born on 8 DEC 07. Please take a look at www.upchurchstory.com and send me a note using the contact form. It will be nice to know that it is working.
Best Wishes for a Merry Christmas!

Hi Jim--
In the last day or so I have another contact who is asking about the availability of the West book. Do you have any copies left for sale? If so, can you give me the particulars I should pass along to those who inquire?
Trust all is well with you.

Phil,
I think I still have a few copies packed away. They may be in the house or I have a storage room here in Houston and one in Shreveport. Not sure where, but most likely in one of the two Houston places. I am in the process of going through some more of my parents' and my aunt's things and cleaning out my house. Down to just my office, my office closet [which is a pretty big walk-in packed full of books, photos, and filing cabinets] and one other smaller closet. Getting though that was my goal this summer. I used to have this grand idea that when I retired, I wanted to open a genealogical bookstore. I bought tons of family and regional stuff from all over and put it in storage. I did retire, but decided I wanted to work full-time doing something else. Opening a bookstore, even on line, is not what I want to do now.

That said, I will just have to let you know later. With school about to start, I have a lot less to time to work. May I suggest you either keep a list or give them my email and I will keep a list. When, and if, I find them, I need copies for 2 new great-nieces and I could be persuaded to sell the balance if the price were right. Not sure what the going price is today, but about 4 years ago, I sold one on ebay for a bit over $60.

Hi Jim--
Thanks for the input on the West Book. I'll send you contact information on those who want to buy and leave it up to you as to when you contact them. I will not give them your contact information unless you so authorize.
The person who inquired was Lana Knor lanaknor_1@mn.com
I know retirement must mean a new type of life for you. I have been in that state for 14 years now and have reinvented myself several times. Like you I thought of supplying out of date local histories but I let that urge pass. I am now focusing on about a half dozen projects which I hope to have at a stopping point by the time I reach 85 on 9FEB2013. After that I don't plan to buy any green bananas!
It is always great to hear from you.

Phil
I have not located the books, but I did run a check on the internet to see if any were for sale and what price they were asking.

There are two listings on amazon.com:
http://www.amazon.com/gp/offer-listing/B0006CARMS/ref=sr\_1\_olp\_4?ie=UTF8&s=books&qid=1217867161&sr=1-4

They may be some duplication, but 4 are listed at www.abebooks.com, 1 at www.alibris.com, and 7 on www.bookfinder.com. It appears all of those are used books, but if Ms. Knor wants a book right now, they are available. If she wants a brand new one, she will just have to wait.

Hi James-

Your participation as a member of Allied Families in 2014 allowed us to make great progress in it's first full year of operation. Our website www.alliedfamilies.com (password 2014allied#) demonstrates several key features we plan to expand in 2015. I hope you will continue your support this year. A membership renewal form is attached--or use PayPal.

Note that you can direct your financial support in various ways. If you have time and talents to offer, that would be a valuable contribution as well. Just drop me an email. Suggestions will be welcomed

We seem to be kindred spirits when it comes to our pride in family. Allied Families is a bold move and the prospects continue to look bright. I hope many will join with us in supporting the enrollment of the families we have under consideration.

Best---Always.

Hi Jim---

In getting all the Allied Family members into one file location I note your file and thought it well to drop you a line. This especially came to mind because a descendant of Abel U., Sr recently found my website online. Follow up showed he is a descendant of Mary Catherine U. of the Abel U.,SR/John U. SubClan. I previously had little on her but my new contact has provided much detail. I hope he will continue to be active and support Allied Families. It would be great if we could enroll the Abel U, Sr family under the Allied Families banner as we have started to do for several other families including some of his brothers. I think our new organization has the potential for accumulating a productive group to support the enrollment of the Abel U., Sr family. I hope you will be an active member of this group. Perhaps you are now retired. I therefore write to ask if you would have any time to devote to this project at this time or, if not, perhaps later. You and I have had a long period of productive interaction and I am hoping we can continue under the new format.

Trust all is well in your world.

Time is at a premium for me. I was able to retire just before I turned 50 because the company was being sold and I had been there 28 years. That only lasted a few months before I began working with our school district—truancy, dropouts, gangs, drugs, etc. The pay is lousy and I get to work about 70 hours a week, but I am having the time of my life and the rewards are enormous.

I still have the interest, but not the time or energy to expend doing genealogy. Maybe when I retire (when and if I get "old"), I will have time to pick it up again.

Hi Jim ---

I know what you mean about being busy. I have been retired 20 years but still put in a full weeks work. It is all on family history because that is what I enjoy. Also, I think what we are doing with Allied Families has a lot of potential for preservation and sharing of family records. The work you are doing is very important and you are to be commended for your dedication on an aspect of society that is critical. It is great that you enjoy it. Keep up the good work. That being said, I hope we can keep you in the loop on family history and especially on the Abel U., Sr component of our work. You have made excellent inputs in the past which are much appreciated.

It is good news to learn you are active and enjoying life.

Dear Jim---

You have been a strong supporter of our family history work on Upchurch and Allied Families. However, I note that you did not renew your membership for 2015 for which the cost is $20. I hope you will renew using the attached form or go to our AF website and use PayPal.

We have continued to make great progress and are maintaining and improving our two websites www.upchurchstory.com and www.alliedfamilies.com. There is much more to do and I hope you will renew your membership and also let me know how else you can help.
