Army Pfc. Kevin C. Stewart deployed to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and participated in Operation Sea Signal, assigned to Joint Task Force 160, Joint Task Bulkeley. The soldier is a member of 1st Battalion, 3rd Air Defense Artillery from Fort Carson, Colo.

The operation is a humanitarian relief mission in which the battalion task force has the responsibility for regulating, monitoring and caring for three Cuban villages or camps with a total of 6,000 migrants. Most of the Cubans came from Panama where they have been involved in disturbances and riots that claimed over 250 U.S. casualties.

The soldiers' duties were to secure the safety of the migrants and U.S. personnel, to react to and quell any disturbances and riots that might occur in the camps, and to oversee and improve the quality of life for the Cubans inside their villages. Schools, chapels, athletics, musical instruments, carpentry tools and materials were provided to the Cubans.

Stewart, an early warning systems operator, is the son of Linda L. Stewart of Richardson Road and Ernest McDonald of Evans Road, both of Apex.

He is a 1994 graduate of Apex High School.

JEFF STEWART

"Harnett Boy in Tank Battalion Knocks 'Em Cold," read the headlines in the Dunn Dispatch early in 1945. A sub-caption read, "Cpl. Jeff Stewart of Buies Creek, with Army in Italy, Makes Away with Germans and Equipment."

Jeff attended elementary school in Buies Creek but graduated from high school at Edwards Military Institute in Salemburg and later completed one semester at Campbell Junior College, now Campbell University. After December 7, 1941, all the Buies Creek boys Jeff's age were drafted — all but Jeff. So when they left to sign up, patriotic Jeff — not to be left behind — went with them and enlisted!

He entered the Tank Corps, took his training at Fort Knox, Kentucky, and in ten months and seven days was shipped overseas to North Africa, where he learned much about desert life and warfare. From there he landed with the troops in Italy. Their tanks were among the first to reach Rome, which Jeff helped to free from Nazi control. Jeff recalls: "We took Rome from the south, the first time Rome was ever taken from the south. We lost three tanks in that fight."

The 752nd Tank Battalion, of which he was a member, was "credited with killing 1,400 Germans, capturing 484 others, knocking out 11 tanks, and disabling 3 others, and destroying 21 pillboxes, 41 vehicles, and 64 guns," the Dunn Dispatch reported.

A member of the Fifth Army under General George S. Patton, Jeff was promoted to corporal and became first a tank gunner and then tank commander. He was recommended for promotion to sergeant but promotions were frozen at that time.

Not everything during wartime was grim, however. One day while on a mountain top, Jeff attempted to change gears but missed one. The precipitous road was five miles almost straight down and he could not brake his tank. Forty-two tons plummeting downhill at eighty miles an hour and nothing to stop its rapid descent! When he reached the bottom of the mountain, the road turned left, but he and his tank straightened out that road! Luckily, the twenty-five tanks in front of him maneuvered out of the way, with the "boys" inside the tanks waving and laughing at Jeff. Eventually the tank came to a halt on level ground.

Then came a day that Jeff does not talk about much. On April 29, 1945, in the Po Valley of Italy, Jeff's gunner, Cpl. George Blessing, was sitting in his assigned position between Jeff's legs as Jeff was positioned with his head showing slightly above the turret of the tank. The 752nd Tank BN, an army publication, records it this way: "The jerries scored two hits on our tanks with Panzerfausts in the day's operations, knocking out the two tanks and wounding Cpl. George W. Blessing, Cpl. Jeff Stewart, Pfc. Ralph A. Merck, and Pfc. Francis T. Whalen of B Company, and Pfc. Joseph Gentile of Dog Company."

Jeff suffered severe shrapnel wounds to his left leg and right jaw, which remains numb to this day. He spent months in army hospitals, on a hospital ship, and in an army hospital at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, before finally being released on February 12, 1946, at Fort Bragg. The piece of steel that mangled Jeff's leg passed through the head of Cpl. Blessing, who died two days later on May 1.

The Dedication in the army book 752nd Tank BN expressed the pride felt by the entire outfit: "We are proud of our outfit. With a record of the highest number of consecutive combat days (315) in the 5th Army, and the status of being the only separate Armored Battalion in the Mediterranean Theatre of Operations to be cited by the Presi-

Jeff (4/30/1923) is the son of Leland Stewart (10/14/1897-1/25/1959) and Rosa UpChurch Stewart (2/6/1901-11/12/1968), and the grandson of Charles R. Stewart (4/30/1873-3/30/1956) and Emily Lenora Kennedy Stewart (3/23/1876-6/14/1956) on his father's side; and the grandson of Jeff D. UpChurch (1861-1933) and Virginia H. UpChurch (1869-1937) on his mother's side.

Jeff's wife, Peggy (5/14/1926), is the daughter of Dayton Hockaday (10/7/1901-9/24/1985) and Verma Johnson Hockaday (10/7/1907-5/26/1984) and the granddaughter of Jacob Addison Johnson (7/25/1853-7/31/1940) and Sena Jane Jernigan Johnson (10/12/1863-1/12/1934) on her mother's side; and the granddaughter of Alexander Hockaday (5/14/1862-1/13/1930) and Edith Etta Barbour Hockaday (12/10/1872-3/11/1949) on her father's side.

Through their years together Peggy has worked side by side with her husband. When Jeff became active in the DAV of Harnett County, Peggy joined the DAVA, Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary. Jeff became Commander of Harnett County Chapter 74 and served as District Commander for one year. Peggy became Commander of Woodrow Wilson Unit # 1 in Raleigh, Senior Vice-Commander of the DAVA Dept. of N. C., and eventually N. C. DAVA Department Commander. She received the State DAVA Chairman of the Year Award in 1980-81. Peggy operated Peggy's Beauty Shop in Buies Creek for about fourteen years, worked as bookkeeper in a local bank, and has since done volunteer work in addition to helping with the farm and rentals. Their daughter, Joyce, is co-owner of Stewart-Green Sign Company in Raleigh.

dent, we feel that we are more than justified in our pride."

For his sacrifice and outstanding service to his country, Jeff received a Distinguished Unit Badge, EAME Service Medal with 4 Bronze Service Stars, Good Conduct Medal, WW II Victory Medal, Purple Heart, and the Silver Star.

Each year on Veteran's Day, Jeff's phone rings and it is a call from a friend, Dr. B. P. Marshbanks, who always says the same thing with a choke in his throat, "I just want to thank you, Jeff."

After the war Jeff returned to Buies Creek, met Peggy Hockaday of Lillington, Route 1, and they married October 14, 1946. Their only daughter, Cenia Joyce, was born December 6, 1947. Peggy and Jeff own several large farms and rental property.

LELAND STEWART & HIS GENERAL STORE

On January 27, 1959, every seat in the Buies Creek Baptist Church was filled and people were standing in the back to attend his funeral. There were so many flowers that they overflowed the church and many were taken directly to the grave site. Since his death, there had been a steady stream of traffic through my grandfather's home of people paying their respects. Telegrams and letters from all over the country arrived from those friends who could not come to the funeral.

I was 11 years old, but I still remember people saying, "You'll never know what Leland Stewart did for us." Without exception, everyone I talked with said, "Leland Stewart was one of the finest men I ever knew."

On October 14, 1897, Leland Lorenzo Stewart was born to Charles Rufus Stewart (4/30/1873-3/30/1956) and Emily Lenora Kennedy (3/23/1876-6/14/56) in his father's house on the Old Wire Road just outside of Buies Creek. Seven years and six days later his only sister, Florrie Mae, joined him.

By the time Leland reached 17, WWI had begun in Europe. He was too young to go to war, but he and two of his best friends, Cleveland Ennis and Hendricks Kivett, went to New York. It was said that Leland worked in one of the first airplane factories in the United States.

He was back at home in 1918 and worked for a while as a mechanic in Cleveland Ennis' garage across the street from Jeff Upchurch's house.

Jeff Upchurch owned a general store, farmed and had a house full of kids — nine of them! Eight of these kids were relegated to the fields, but Rosa helped her father in the store.

It was Rosa who captured Leland's romantic interest and the two were married on July 22, 1922. They lived with Rosa's parents until they bought the house on what is now Judge Taylor Road sometime in the mid to late 1920's. The distinguishing feature of the house was that it was one of the first in the area to have indoor plumbing!

The 1920's must have been an exciting time for the young couple. Leland joined Rosa and her father in operating the store. They divided up chores and scheduled around the different duties each had: Rosa cooked and the men farmed. When both Rosa and Leland had to be out, Mr. Jeff used a kind of shorthand of marks he had devised (he couldn't read or write) to keep up with who had bought what and how much. When Rosa returned, she recorded the transactions while he read from his marks. Even though the local economy was fairly depressed because of the heavy concentration of farming, the store flourished and grew with Leland's flair for business and his easy, laid-back style that appealed to everyone. And the three of them made a formidable business team.

On April 30, 1923, their first son Jeff, arrived. On January 20, 1927, their second son, Charles L. (Mutt) was born. But even with two young sons, Rosa's life still revolved around the store and under Leland's hand, the store evolved into a focal point of the community.

There were several reasons for this. The store was a general store and Rosa and Leland sold everything from thread and cloth to groceries, hardware and fertilizer. They obtained much of the goods in bulk. Products like molasses and vinegar came in kegs and people brought their own containers to take them home. Flour, sugar, and dried beans were put into bins in the counter and dispensed by scoop, sold by weight. Cheese came in hoops and was sliced for each customer.

Leland and Rosa usually slaughtered a couple of cows each week plus a couple of pigs in cold weather under an old oak tree where the Campbell University laundry now stands. This supplied their meat department. They kept several dairy cows with at least two giving milk. Rosa put the milk in glass pint bottles and sold them for five cents each.

They also went to the Farmer's Market in Raleigh to purchase oranges, bananas, etc., in season. Fertilizer would come into Lillington by train, and Leland hauled it to Buies Creek in a truck that held 6 100-lb bags at a time. The store had something for everyone in the community.

Leland was very astute in understanding the farmer's need for credit. He extended credit from spring planting until fall harvesting. Buies Creek Academy became and remained his largest single customer. The Academy (Campbell College as of 1926) bought most of their food from the store.

The store became a gathering place for the community at night. The men gathered around the potbellied stove in the winter, sitting on the nail kegs, swapping stories and gossip, and talking politics. In the summer, they moved outside to the sidewalk and talked. The women grouped together er in the back of the store. Leland furnished a pan of roasted peanuts for the people to dig into while they were there. (They had to buy their cokes!)

These gatherings became informal "town hall" meetings. If a member of the community was needy, the people in the store would contribute whatever they could, and take it that night.

The store stayed open at night until 10 or 11 o'clock when the last person left. After the theater opened in Erwin, a group from the store would pack themselves into several vehicles to catch the 9 pm movie. Leland and Rosa were delighted not only to go to a movie but to get to close the store early, too.

The 1920's was a prosperous time for the couple. But the tide turned in the 1930's and there was family tragedy. About 1930, Rosa prematurely gave birth to their third son who lived only five or six days. According to a family member, Rosa "did everything she could to get the baby to live," (an understated way of saying that Rosa was devastated).

The full effects of the Depression hit the area in the early 1930's, and the people of Buies Creek were financially devastated. They resorted to bartering when they could, and Leland and Rosa extended credit to anyone who needed it. The store barely survived.

Then came another family tragedy when Rosa's father died in 1933. The elementary school closed so that the kids could attend his funeral. Mr. Jeff had provided a warm fire in the pot-bellied stove at the store before school every cold winter morning and had given candy to those who couldn't afford to buy it. The children had grown to love him.

Recovering from the Depression, Leland began to expand his business interests. He and Wilson (Red) Roberson started a service station where Roy Lee's Auto is now located, as well as a hammermill to grind grain. The station housed the bus station for the town. Later in the '30's, Leland and Red moved everything downtown on a two-acre lot Leland purchased when the house on the lot burned.

Leland bought a huge Buick that seated eight people and a trailer and began to haul tobacco (and the farmers) to market. He then expanded the hauling business and hauled almost anything he could, going as far north as Pennsylvania. With the exploding demand for cigarettes, he began farming tobacco, leasing as many as twenty-five acres. As the trucking business began to get too competitive, the old worn-out Buick was used to haul tobacco sleds from the field to the barn. Jeff, the oldest son, was given this job.

Everyone wanted to work for Leland because he paid by the day and didn't dock anybody while they were waiting for the sleds to come. He would also bring candy and drinks from the store for everyone at break time. Rosa brought milk and they could "drink as much as they wanted," and occasionally, she made a churn of ice cream, the best this author has ever tasted! If any of the workers needed extra money, Leland would lend it to them until payday.

The store survived the rationing and hard times of WWII to thrive again after the boys came back. Campbell College's enrollment increased dramatically as the men were now demanding an education. Leland took a very active interest in the athletics program at the college, and the students in the program. He and Rosa became the parents away from home for some of the boys.

Leland's generosity is legend among the people in the community and the students who knew him. He loaned and gave people money, listened to their problems, and gave his advice if it was asked. He was a very thoughtful man, slow and deliberate in his speech, thinking before speaking. He was a man of honor and integrity — undoubtedly the most respected man I have ever known.

Rosa's personality seemed to be diametrically opposed to Leland's, but she was always there to supply milk, eggs and butter if someone was in need. No domestic situation was too bad for her to tackle. Even though she could be short and blunt with people, she would be the first to help in any situation.

In 1958, a few short years after Leland and Rosa retired from the store, Leland developed cancer of the esophagus and he was dead in three months. During those months, people from all walks of life came to see him — from the richest to the poorest, from the most distinguished to the "outlaws."

Those of us who had the privilege of knowing him are better for it and we still miss him.

His parting statement: "I've lived 60 good years."

Re the 1900 Edgemore Census - Taken all other information into consideration it is reasonable to add this block of information to the Profile of SARAH JANE U, my interpretation is that Franklin Pierce Stewart and Sarah md about 1876 when Sarah was about 21. They then had the 6 children listed in the 1900 census with Sarah having died giving birth to Frank in 1893. Subsequently her husband FPS md an older woman Irene U 1844 about 1897±3 when she was too old to bear children. I have been able to trace some of the 7 children listed but not all.

Stewart deployed

Army Pfc. Kevin C. Stewart deployed to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and participated in Operation Sea Signal, assigned to Joint Task Force 160, Joint Task Bulkeley. The soldier is a member of 1st Battalion, 3rd Air Defense Artillery from Fort Carson, Colo.

The operation is a humanitarian relief mission in which the battalion task force has the responsibility for regulating, monitoring and caring for three Cuban villages or camps with a total of 6,000 migrants. Most of the Cubans came from Panama where they have been involved in disturbances and riots that claimed over 250 U.S. casualties.

The soldiers' duties were to secure the safety of the migrants and U.S. personnel, to react to and quell any disturbances and riots that might occur in the camps, and to oversee and improve the quality of life for the Cubans inside their villages. Schools, chapels, athletics, musical instruments, carpentry tools and materials were provided to the Cubans.

Stewart, an early warning systems operator, is the son of Linda L. Stewart of Richardson Road and Ernest McDonald of Evans Road, both of Apex.

He is a 1994 graduate of Apex High School.

Dear Mrs Upchurch

I have your letter of March 11, 1980 indicating that you had not received your first issue of Upchurchs Bulletin. All orders which had been placed by the end of February, 1980 were put in the mail on March 1, 1980.

Your copy and the paper for your two daughters were mailed on March 1, 1980. They were sent 3rd class. Evenso it took 53 cent each to mail them. Third class mail is sometimes slow and can take 2 to 3 weeks for delivery. Hopefully, you have your copy by now. If it has not arrive by the end of March please write me and I will check with the Post office.

Sincerely yours

MARION STEWART BYRD
"MEMORIES OF COUSINS AND FRIENDS"

Thinking back on my childhood and teen years in Harnett County in the Buies Creek area brings memories of many cousins and friends.

One vivid memory is of what I did to my cousin, Mabel Stewart Smith, about 1915 or 1916. Our Uncle Bud Stewart was a barber. So one day I talked Mabel into playing barber shop and I was to be the barber. Mabel was four or five and I was six or seven years old. I tied one of Grandma Stewart's black and white checked aprons around Mabel's neck as I thought a barber would do. Then I cut off a Shirley Temple, sausage curl as short as possible on each side of her head. When Aunt Linda, Mabel's mother, saw the hair cut, she broke into tears, very upset about the appearance of her beautiful little girl. I don't remember what happened to me, but I imagine I shed a few tears after the spanking I probably received for being the barber.

Another memory is of what I did to Euna Earl Upchurch, another cousin. For some reason, I was digging a hole in the yard with a hoe. Euna Earl leaned over to look into the hole and I came down on her head with the sharp hoe, cutting a gash in her head. Seeing blood frightened us, but I don't think she needed a doctor.

There are many memories of cousins growing up on the Wire Road, now Old Stage Road or Highway 27. Carlyle Harmon and I were in a history class together, and the teacher had us learning dates. Carlyle, with his brilliant mind, had no problem but I did. I was so jealous of the way he could remember all the dates the teacher required.

I was the oldest of the cousins in my age group — Mabel, Teeny, and Ashley Stewart were near my age. Their mother, Aunt Linda, made beautiful clothes for them and me. We looked after and loved the younger children — Ashley, Thelma, and Billy. Uncle Haighwood and Aunt Linda were wonderful parents.

Other special cousins were David K. Stewart, Catherine Stewart, and Martha Stewart, children of Kirkland and Blanche Stewart. I thought of these cousins as brothers and sisters. Billy and Martha were born after I moved away. Those are fond memories of my teen age years.

I often visited and enjoyed being with Mattie and Daisy Stewart, Aunt Rena's girls. There are memories of many fun times in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Collier, with the girls, Bernice and Teeny Collier, and their older brothers, Dick, Jim, and David. The brothers treated me like a sister. The oldest Collier daughter, Blanche, was my aunt.

Dr. M. A. Stewart Heavener, Buried Last Saturday

Long Illness Fatal
To Outstanding
Citizen and Leader

Funeral service for Dr. M. A. Stewart, county commissioner for district 2 and one of LeFlore county's most prominent citizens, was held at the First Methodist church in Heavener last Saturday afternoon at 2:30 with Rev. John Webb of Tulsa, a former pastor of the church, officiating. Burial was in Hill cemetery under the direction of the Hall Funeral home.

Dr. Stewart died at his home in Heavener Thursday night following a long illness. When his condition became worse a few months ago he was taken to a hospital in Fort Smith, where he received treatment several weeks.

After showing some improvement he was brought to his home at Heavener for a while before being taken to Mayos at Rochester, Minn. After a few days there he was told that his condition was hopeless and he was brought home a week before his death.

Dr. Stewart was born at Decatur, Tenn., May 10, 1876, and after obtaining his education and degree in medicine, came to Heavener in 1901 and entered practice.

Although he enjoyed a splendid reputation as a physician and had an extensive practice, he retired from that profession in 1918 and devoted the remaining 29 years of his life to other interests.

He served as county commissioner during the 20's, and as a member of the state legislature in the early 30's. Elected county commissioner in 1935, he started his sixth consecutive two-year term in that office July 1 this year.

Not only did the people of his district and all LeFlore county appreciate Dr. Stewart's work as a commissioner but his reputation for efficiency and accomplishment was state-wide, and for several years he was recognized at the state capitol as one of the most able commissioners in the state.

Survivors include the widow, two sons and one daughter, Ivan and Buck and Mrs. Nina Dozier, all of Heavener, and another daughter, Mrs. Gloria Farly of Washington Courthouse, Ohio.

Remembering Doc Stewart

THE HEAVENER LEDGER

By FRAN JOHNSON

In days gone by, the country doctor not only performed surgeries in the home, but made do with the most basic equipment and supplies. Many times chickens or a good ham were accepted as payment. Insurance wasn't necessary; if a person needed help, the doctor was there — day or night.

One of the most well known and well thought of doctors in this area, and remembered fondly today is Dr. M.A. (Matthew Albert) Stewart.

Born in Decatur, Tenn., on May 10, 1876, Stewart graduated from the School of Medicine in Knoxville. He married Leota Spradling of his home town (she was an aunt of Wylla Meeh, Reba Emmert and Linda Brewer), and the couple moved to Arkansas where he began his practice.

In early times, a doctor was often apprenticed to another doctor. Dr. Stewart was apprenticed to a Dr. Bevil in Arkansas. In later years, Dr. Bevil's son was apprenticed to Dr. Stewart.

The Stewarts settled in Winfield, where their first son, Ivan ("Peck"), was born in 1900.

In 1902, the Stewarts moved to Heavener, then Indian Territory. Dr. Stewart's first office was located on Main Street, where Bill's Dollar Store is now. Stewart only had a little black pony when he began his practice, and those congregating around a nearby artesian well would often see Dr. Stewart galloping out of town on his pony on a call.

Dr. M.A. Stewart

The Stewart's daughter, Nena (Dozier) was born after the couple moved to Heavener, then son, Buck. Two other children were born to the couple, but both died as infants.

In 1910, Leota died of pneumonia.

Mama Stewart

In 1911, Stewart married Eunice Virginia Upchurch (sister of George Upchurch). Eunice grew up in the Weeks, Ark., area and had moved to Heavener when she was 18 to live with a sister.

Stewart built a new home for Eunice, located on the West side of town. The R.L. Yandells and Austin Duncans were neighbors. The home is now owned by Mayor Oran Coffman, who subconsciously restored the outside to its original form.

Eunice, a bride at 20, became stepmother to three children ages 10, six and two. It did not matter then, but when Peck was 50 and she was 60, heads turned to hear him call her "mama." This is probably why she was known as "Mama Stewart" to the whole town, says daughter, Gloria Farley.

Stewart practiced in the days when iodine was the only antiseptic available, and ether was dripped from a cone, sometimes by Mrs. Stewart.

Gloria recalls that during a smallpox epidemic, the Carter family was affected and they put a piano box in the corner of their yard, where Dr. Stewart kept a change of clothing, in order to prevent spreading the infection.

Doctors back in those days went to their patients; it was often very difficult for patients to make it into see the doctor.

One time Dr. Stewart received a call in the winter to go to an isolated home in the country. Wearing a heavy overcoat, he attempted to ford a creek while riding a horse. The horse foundered in deep water and unseated the doctor. Drowning, because of the heavy overcoat, Dr. Stewart was saved by the patient's relative, who was waiting for him on the other side of the creek. After his rescue, Stewart went on to tend to his patient.

Eunice, as librarian in a place both public and

During World War I, the country was hit with a terrible flu epidemic, and with many of the doctors overseas, Dr. Stewart was going day and night to try and tend to the many who fell ill. For almost three years, he got no sleep because he tried to be everywhere at once to help. He vowed to retire from medicine when the war ended, Gloria says, and did.

Dr. Stewart often depended on son Peck to unhitch the horses and put them in the barn after he returned — too weary to do so. The private, became unofficial counselor to high school students and many adults. Her listening ear was trustworthy because she never betrayed a confidence. Eunice passed away in 1967.

CLIMBING POTEAU MOUNTAIN on Sunday afternoon with friends was a pastime couples enjoyed even at the turn of the century. This photo, taken in 1910, shows that attire worn for such an outing was quite different from what one might wear today.

HOME (above right) that Dr. Stewart built for his wife, Eunice, in 1911 was subconsciously restored on the outside to its original form (right) by present owner Oran Coffman and is located on West Third. team, Nell and Bill, would often bring him home as he slept in the buggy, says Gloria.

Stewart retired from the medical practice in 1918, but continued to get calls for a doctor for years afterwards.

Gloria recalls that he would tell the people, "I can no longer prescribe, but I will come and sit by your bed." Often, this is all they needed.

Following his retirement from the medical profession, Dr. Stewart went on to pursue other interests.

13 Term Commissioner

Stewart served as county commissioner for 13 terms (26 years) and was recognized at the state capitol as one of the most able commissioners in the state. He had a reputation statewide for efficiency and accomplishment. Stewart also served two terms as State Representative in the 1930's. He also served as Heavener's mayor for a time.

Stewart also successfully pursued other ventures — going into the truck farming business with R.L. Walker and a partnership in a Ford dealership.

In 1928, a dairy owned and operated by Dr. Stewart and John Costner was described in a Ledger article: "Doc goes on the theory that there is nothing too good for him and has installed water, sewer and electric light systems, so that he will be right up-to-date all along the line. His milkhouse is equipped with a separator, a bottling plant and everything needed in the way of serving his customers with 'milk from contented cows.'"

The operation also included a modern dairy barn, an electrically driven feed grider and "Doc" has stated that he intends to install sidewalks so that folks could get around without wading mud.

One child was born to M.A. and Eunice, a daughter, Gloria. Gloria, author, lecturer and researcher, married J. Ray Farley (deceased), former City Manager of Heavener.

Ivan, a railroader, married Ruby Brazil. He passed away in 1970. Nena, married L.D. Dozier, and was a schoolteacher for many years. She died in March of this year. Buck, a postal employee for 37 years, married Thelma Salter (deceased).

Ruby, Buck and Gloria still live in Heavener.

M.A. passed away in 1947, and after Eunice was left a widow, she became City Librarian for 20 years.

How Sweet It Is

by J. Michael Mooney

Mathew was a thirty-four-year-old professional who worked ceaselessly at his trade, sometimes day and night. Having been toughened by the harsh life of the frontier, and the never-ending demands of his job, he accepted life as it was and carried on.

The year was 1910, a time when the United States was rapidly expanding westward and people were establishing new roots in new places.

A beautiful nineteen-year-old lady captured Mathew's eye--and his heart. Eunice brought a new ray of light into his life.

It was a daring move when Mathew ordered a box of the finest chocolates Kansas City had to offer, a gift which Eunice accepted. The courtship was on, even though many friends and relatives objected.

As the romance developed, Mathew began construction of a fine new home for Eunice; a home which he would not permit her to see until that special day when, as his bride, she would become the lady of the house.

KELLY FRANKLIN U S/O RUFFEN U

RPW 20 JAN 2013

Re the 1900 Edgemore Census - Taken all other information into consideration it is reasonable to add this block of information to the Profile of SARAH JANE U, my interpretation is that Franklin Pierce Stewart and Sarah md about 1876 when Sarah was about 21. They then had the 6 children listed in the 1900 census with Sarah having died giving birth to Frank in 1893. Subsequently her husband FPS md an older woman Irene in 1894, about 1897±3 when she was too old to bear children. I have been able to trace some of the 7 children listed but not all.

102nd consecutive Brooks family reunion this weekend

This weekend is the annual coming together of one of the biggest family reunions not only in the state but in the nation as well.

The yearly gathering of the "Brooks and Kindred Family Associations" will kick off with informal activities Friday and Saturday, culminating in Sunday's daylong gathering on the family's ancestral grounds at Gilmore Lodge on Tick Creek near Bonlee.

This large assembly of relatives owes its start to John and Susan Brooks, colonial settlers who came to "ole Bladen" and "ole Orange" counties in the 18th century. That land today, of course, is part of Chatham County.

Organizers say they expect the attendance to again run in the hundreds, with family members coming from at least 10 states.

"Some will be coming for the first time from as far away as Texas and Maryland," says family association president Roger Foushee of Durham. "Others will be coming after not having been here for over 50 years, last coming as children."

The Sunday activities are scheduled to get underway at 10 a.m. and include "dinner on the grounds", memorials, and other planned events.

Local headquarters for the weekend will be at Bill's Motor Inn in Siler City, where Foushee will be found leading receptions and other informal events.

Saturday morning, family members will visit several local cemeteries, including the resting places of Capt. Billy Marsh and Sally Stewart, ancestors of many in the branches of Joab Brooks and Cathering Dimmaux and Isaac Brooks and Ruth Terrell. Trips will also be made to the graves of Joab Brooks, Jr. and Ruth Terrell Brooks, along South Third Street in Siler City, the colonial route along several of the Brooks family lands.

Later in the day Saturday, family members will have the opportunity to view films and videos at Wren Memorial Library in Siler City.

Foushee invites anyone interested in the weekend events or the family to contact him at his home in Durham (919-489-3063) or at Bill's Motor Inn in the afternoon on Friday (Aug. 2)

"Brooks and Kindred families is one of the largest extended families in the South and the nation," Foushee says.

"It's gained distinction for having met for over 100 years and its members have excelled in many walks of life and public service from colonial times to the present."

Jefferson Davis II was born in the Neill's Creek Baptist Church Community of Harnett Co, NC and he and his wife nee Virginia Horton started their family there but in due course moved to Buies Creek, Harnett Co, NC where he was a merchant. Some odd reference in his Profile.

He and Virginia were married in a double wedding. The other couple was WALT JOHNSON & his bride LILLY.

Jeff's 1st store in Buies Creek was near Kinette's back yard along with two other merchants FLOYD TAYLOR and SANDY STEWART. A suspension fire destroyed the three wooden buildings & Jeff was the only one without insurance. He soon opened again on the site of the current Blandhard's Barber Shop with LESLIE COLLIER as partner. Jeff's son BEN & WOODROW had a mean interest in Baseball. Woodrow struck out BABE RUTH 3 times in one game.
