Dear Cousin Tammy,

Thank you for your letter regarding ^{the} Vol 1 for your father and for your $1. check in payment for same. We have sent him the four issues for 1985 (Vol 1) and hope he enjoys them.

I have searched high & low for your cashiers check and letter but can find no evidence in our system for either. It is always possible that it got clipped as the back of something and never got processed.
Usually at is a mystery that will never be solved.

Enclosed are some order blanks in case you have need for them. We would be delighted to have you as a subscriber. We seem to be getting closer & closer to solving the mystery of how your ancestor Joseph Upchurch is linked into the rest of the family.

All the Best

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

(3) 27 MAY 1996 Called TR UP (318) 786-6069

She confirmed my interpretation of information in the letter of her brother 20 MAY 1996 Charles following it DASH - which came from her in the 1st place
- namely that Cornelius and Harry Douglas and had three children and that Annie and Donald Pettifield and had a son Donald Pettifield who in turn had three children, one of whom was also a Donald Pettifield. Tammy said her father joined Charles & would enjoy a chat with me. Her new phone no is (318) 786-3108

④ 30 NOV 1998 - TRU called RPU to report that her father Jewell Chardell, Jr passed away about one month ago at age 78. She was very emotional and indicated a real affection & closeness to her father. She indicated he had a deep appreciation for the Upchurch Bulletin. She would like to see him commemorated in some way in the UB. She will send me some materials. She reported she will send me some materials. She reported her new venture in selling cigarettes & would like her logo/Address published in the UB. She has 2 boys. Her phone no (318) 786-5583. She mentioned a George R. U but I can't figure out how he fits into the picture.

⑤ 19 NOV 2006 TRU called RPU - NOTES:

Tammy indicates that there is a chance she could be eligible for a certain distribution of money if she can prove she has Indian blood (Cherokee). I checked my files and gave her such information as I could about her ancestors as could be reported from my Master Outline.

She has her father's UB issues and may want to subscribe. I promised to send her the next issue. She is retired and lives on Social Security. She has troubles with her bros.

Dear Cousin Tammy,

I was very sorry to learn from your phone call of 30 NOV 1998 that your father, Jewell C. Upchurch, Jr., had passed away. It is clear that you were very close to your father and that you had a great appreciation for his life's activities. There is little any of us can say to make your pain go away. However, I hope you will be granted the peace and wisdom to grow in your appreciation for a wonderful father. I lost my mother at 85 over a decade ago. She and I were very close so I know of your grief.

When you called it took me a little time to get in the picture. At first I tried to think of Upchurch at Quincy, IL (as opposed to DeQuincy, LA) and this got me off the track. However, my mind is all now clear about your father. I have reviewed all my records. He did indeed have a great interest in his Upchurch heritage. I enjoyed helping him to understand how he fitted into the earlier generations. How I wish I could have met him in person. We had a great deal in common in our interest in Upchurch Family History.

I know you would like to see your father's life and death brought up in the Upchurch Bulletin. There are various ways we can do this and if you and I can exchange letters I'll be glad to outline the options. In the meantime I understand you are sending me some information. I know you have some interest in family history and hope that you and I can cooperate on this at whatever pace would be agreeable to you.

P.S. - If a different address is more appropriate, please let me know. Phil U.

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch
