This cemetery is in poor condition. The stumps of large oak trees dot the grounds which are unkempt. There is no fence or landscaping, and there are obviously more graves here than tombstones. Sunken spots indicate unmarked graves. This section of Sunset Lake Rd. is surrounded by trailer parks and very close to heavy industrial development. It is an abandoned cemetery with an uncertain future.

I surveyed this cemetery on 11 Mar 2002.

Directions from downtown Raleigh: Take Hillsborough St. (SR 3007, becomes Hwy. 54) to Jones Franklin Rd. (SR 1319) Go South to the stop sign at Walnut St. (SR1313) Continue across Tryon Rd. (SR 1009) to Holly Springs Rd. (SR 1152), continue South, cross SR 1010, continue South 2-3 miles to the church on the left side of the road.

Until recently this area of Wake Co. was predominantly African American and rural. It is in the process of dramatic change with an upscale country club and expensive homes changing the landscape.

This African American cemetery is the property of the church. Records show a 1900 building date on 2.91 acres. The cemetery is not laid out in any practical manner. There are some graves near the front of the cemetery, another 2 rows of graves a little distance further back from the road and to the left of the front burials, another 2 rows semi shielded from view by some trees further back and then a scattering of graves in the rear.

Many of the graves are marked only by funeral home metal plates, some have lost their letters. There are other graves with no marker of any kind. There is plenty of room for more burials. At the bottom is a list of funeral homes who may be able to offer assistance in researching names of those buried in the unmarked graves.

From the beltline (Hwy. 440, US 1, and Hwy.64 W) head west to the Apex (Hwy. 55) exit on US 1, (Williams St). Turn left at the light, going towards Holly Springs and Fuquay-Varina. Go about 2 1/2 miles to a light and a left turn on to Holly Springs Rd. (SR 1152). About 1 1/2 miles up the road turn right onto Sunset Lake Rd., (SR 1301) and go about 1/2 mile to a cemetery on the right side of the road just past the entrance to Sunset Ridge Subdivision, Kenmont Dr.

From there a track leads to this cemetery which is well back from the road, behind the (Jones, Booker) cemetery which is up front.

Not too long ago this was a rural neighborhood with a few African American homeowners, all long time residents. The land was virtually untouched by change. Sunset Lake was the location of a hunting club, and it was an area of great natural beauty. Relentless growth in Wake Co. caught up with this overlooked part of the county a few years ago and the construction of a country club and other expensive neighborhoods has changed this place forever.

Newly paved roads, sewer lines, schools and shopping centers have sprouted all around the 2 cemeteries that are located on this beautiful meadow. This small cemetery is in the rear of the property and is unrelated to the Jones, Booker, Adams, Stewart Cemetery which is up front near the paved road. Only a dirt track leads to this cemetery from Sunset Lake Rd.

Hwy. 55 runs north and south through Holly Springs. South of the intersection of Hwy. 55 and SR. 1152 (Holly Springs Rd.) it is called Broad Street. About 3 blocks south of the intersection of Hwy. 55 & SR. 1152, there are 3 churches on the east side of the road. Any one of 5 streets south of the churches on the east side of Hwy. 55 will take you to Grigsby Ave. (SR 1395). These 5 streets are Maple Ave., Hickory Ave., Pine Ave., Elm Ave. or Oak Ave., all entering Grigsby Ave. At the stop sign turn right on Grigsby Ave. and follow it around a long curve until the Womble Park recreation area is on your left and Fair Glen Rd. is on your right. Take a left onto a black topped drive going into the park. You should go about 100 ft. About 20 ft. into a woodsy patch which separates a parking lot from the ball fields sits this grave.

One imposing monument with a badly rusted funeral home marker next to it. Sitting in a patch of woods between the parking lot and the ball fields at Womble Park Recreation Center in Holly Springs, NC The surrounding land is owned by the town of Holly Springs. The monument is in good condition. No future burials at this site.

Dir.: From the intersection of Hwy. 55 (Broad St.) and Wilbon Rd.(SR 1110), Fuquay Varina, go 2 miles west on Wilbon Rd.(it only runs one way) to the intersection of Piney Wilbon Rd. (SR1101) and Wilbon Rd. Turn south (left) on Piney Wilbon Rd.and go .5 miles to the intersection of Adcock Rd. and Piney Wilbon, turn west (right) on Adcock and go .1 mile to a clump of trees on the north (right) side of the road.

Park on the shoulder and walk into the clump of trees. Wear long sleeves and long pants, there is a lot of undergrowth and briars. This is the remnant of an old family cemetery.

Here is a small family cemetery in an area on the verge of extensive development.

Recorded from tombstones on Sep 05, 2004.

From the intersection of Old Hwy. 55 (N. Main St.) and Holly Springs Rd., (SR 1152) in Holly Springs, take Holly Springs Rd. east 6/10 mi. to Bass Lake Rd., (SR 1393) and turn onto Bass Lake Rd (southeast) and go 3/10 mi. to Prince Funeral Home on the left.

This is a nice clean cemetery located on the property of Prince Funeral Home. There are a few headstones but mostly funeral home markers. The cemetery, which is about 4 acres, is owned and maintained by Mr. Merlin Prince. There is room for more burials and ample parking. This cemetery does not appear on any maps.

Recorded from existing funeral home markers and tombstones, Jul 16, 2004.

Old Adams Road Cemetery Holly Springs, Wake County, North Carolina

Old Adams Rd, Holly Springs, NC

From Hwy. 401, Fuquay Varina, take 55 south (towards Holly Springs) 3 miles to Old Adams Rd. Turn right on Old Adams, (it only runs in one direction) and go 4/10 mi. to the end of the paved road which stops in front of 5104 Old Adams Rd. (N 35°37'46.7" W 78°48'57.1") You can continue by car on the dirt road but the road is rough with a deep puddle near the start. Go 1/10 mi. up the dirt road, which curves around a bean field, and on the left, sitting 25-30 feet off the road, is the cemetery.

This is an abandoned cemetery no longer in use and in a state of great disrepair. Of the 14 visibly marked graves only six markers are readable. There is one headstone, the rest are funeral home markers and most of these are so damaged by weather they can not be read. If the headstone did not exist the cemetery would be completely obscured by undergrowth and trees.

This cemetery was located from information offered by Mr. Merlin Prince, of Prince FH., and is not noted on any maps.

Recorded from existing funeral home markers and tombstones, Jul 16, 2004.

Dir: From US # 1 Hwy. & Hwy. 55, (Exit 95), Apex, take Hwy. 55 east for 1.5 mi. to a left at the light onto old Hwy. 55 which goes through downtown Holly Springs. Go 1 mile on old Hwy. 55 to a dirt road on the north side of the hwy. Pull in and park, there is ample parking. There is room for more burials.

The cemetery was started by Abraham Justice in the 1950's and is now owned by Claude Thorpe, his nephew. There is about 3 acres remaining of the original 6 acres. The cemetery is not landscaped, there is a lot of erosion and mud, and some sunken spots. A great many of the graves are without tombstones, and the majority of graves are marked with temporary Funeral Home markers. In this transcription some of the Funeral Homes are named, but the entries that have only the birth year and death year, or no dates, are also marked with temporary FH markers.

Transcribed from existing tombstones and funeral home markers by Shirley Olson, with thanks to Dave Ross for his participation, and special thanks to Claude Thorpe for his cooperation and kindness. Jun 14, 2004.

Jones, Turner, Booker, Adams, Stewart Cemetery Wake County, North Carolina

Sunset Lake Rd.
Holly Springs NC

Lat: 35°39'19"N, Lon: 78°47'26"W

Contributed by Shirley Olson, Mar 11, 2002
[shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 43.

From the beltline (Hwy 440, US 1, and Hwy 64W) head west to the Apex (Hwy 55) exit on US 1, (Williams St.). Turn left at the light, going towards Holly Springs and Fuquay-Varina. Go about 2 1/2 miles to a light and a left turn on to Holly Springs Rd. (SR 1152). About 1 1/2 miles up the road turn right onto Sunset Lake Rd., (SR 1301) and go about 1/2 mile to the cemetery on the right side of the road just past the entrance to Sunset Ridge Subdivision, Kenmont Dr.

Not too long ago this was a rural neighborhood with a few African American homeowners, all long time residents. The land was virtually untouched by change. Sunset Lake was the location of a hunting club, and it was an area of great natural beauty.

Relentless growth in Wake Co. caught up with this overlooked part of the county a few years ago and the construction of a country club and other expensive neighborhoods has changed this place forever. Newly paved roads, sewer lines, schools and shopping centers have sprouted all around the cemetery which sits on the frontage of beautiful meadow. Way in the back of this property there is another smaller cemetery.

Holly Springs Town Cemetery Wake County, North Carolina

Earp St and Burt St
Holly Springs NC

Lat: 35° 39' 10"N, Lon: 78° 50' 23"W

Contributed by Shirley Olson, Jun 05, 2002
[shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 456.

Directions: Starting at the intersection of Hwy. 55 and Holly Springs Rd. (SR. 1152), in downtown Holly Springs, turn west at the traffic light onto New Hill Rd., (SR.1152), which is the name for Holly Springs Rd. when it crosses Hwy. 55. Go about 3 blocks to Burt Street, which will be on the left. Turn into Burt Street and the cemetery will be clearly visible a little way ahead at the intersection of Burt St. and Earp St.

This cemetery is very nice and well cared for by the town of Holly Springs. It is the town cemetery, with plenty of room for more burials, on about 8½ acres.

I have transcribed from the tombstone readings on 22 May 2002.

Holly Springs United Church of Christ Cemetery Wake County, North Carolina

Hw#55

Holly Springs NC.

Lat: 35°39'01"N, Lon: 78°50'00"W

Contributed by Shirley Olson, Jun 30, 2001
[shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 46.

On Hwy. #55, about 1/2 mile east of the intersection of Holly Springs Rd. and Hwy. #55, in Holly Springs NC.

Holly Springs is a small town about 15 miles south of Raleigh, N.C., half way between the town of Apex to the west and Fuquay Varina on the east. It has been a sleepy village with mostly African American inhabitants until the recent explosion of growth in Wake County. Now, new sub-divisions, schools, shopping centers and a pricey country club have changed the character of this peaceful community.

The cemetery is neatly mowed, but the graves are not orderly and many are not marked. Some tombstones are dangerously close to the highway which is due to be widened. All the tombstones were counted. Recorded by Shirley and Gordon Olson, Jun 22, 2001.

Holly Springs UCC Cemetery #2 Wake County, North Carolina

Lee Street
Holly Springs NC 27540

Lat: 35°38'51"N, Lon: 78°49'45"W

Contributed by Shirley Olson, May 27, 2002 [shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 130.

Directions: In Holly Springs, from Hwy. 55 (S. Main St.) turn east onto Oak Ave., which is just south of two churches, The Holly Springs United Church of Christ and Holly Springs First Baptist Church. At the stop sign at Grigsby Ave. (SR. 1395) go left a very short distance and turn right onto Lee St. Stay on Lee St. until you see a sign stating the road ahead is now named Wolfbridge Rd. It is the same road, only with a new name. You will be directly in front of 405 Lee St. An unmarked dirt track goes to the right behind the houses and will take you directly to the cemetery. It is drivable and there is plenty of room to park.

The markers are all in-ground tablets in rows. Some graves are unmarked, but for the most part this is a well laid out cemetery in good condition hidden behind a quiet subdivision. An unmarked dirt road curves behind private homes to an open meadow where the cemetery lies.

The cemetery is owned by the Holly Springs UCC, located at 300 Rodgers St., Holly Springs, NC 27540. There is room for more burials.

I transcribed from tombstones on May 19, 2002.

Lat: 35° 39' 10"N, Lon: 78° 50' 20"W

Contributed by Shirley Olson, May 27, 2002 [shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 7.

Directions: From the intersection of Hwy. 55 and Holly Springs Rd. (SR. 1152) in Holly Springs: East on Holly Springs Rd. about 1/2 mile to Bass Lake Rd. (SR. 1393). Turn right onto Bass Lake Rd. and go to the next intersection, Earp St., which runs west from Bass Lake Rd. On your right you will see a simple red brick church on a grassy corner. Along the rear property line, rather hidden, are these graves.

There are a few markers along the rear of the church property, almost on the property line.

The cemetery is owned by the First Free Will Baptist Church. There is room for more burials

I transcribed from tombstones on May 20, 2002.

Douglas AME Church Cemetery Wake County, North Carolina

201 Douglas Street
Holly Springs NC 27540

Lat: 35°39'12"N, Lon: 78°50'31"W

Contributed by Shirley Olson, May 19, 2002
[shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 78.

Starting at the intersection of Hwy. 55 and Holly Springs Rd. (SR. 1152), in downtown Holly Springs, turn west at the traffic light onto New Hill Rd., (SR.1152), which is the name for Holly Springs Rd. when it crosses Hwy. 55. Go about 4 blocks to Douglas Street, which will be on the left. Turn into Douglas Street and the church will be immediately visible a little way ahead on your right. The cemetery is behind the church.

Listed in Wake Co. records as "Douglas Chapel AME Zion Chapel, on 6.04 Acres, and noting the church was built in 1983, the cemetery was in use prior to the church construction. A tidy cemetery in a pleasant neighborhood. There are a number of unmarked graves. The cemetery belongs to the church. There is space for more burials.

Bennet Holland Family Cemetery Wake County, North Carolina

Lat: 35°40'11"N, Lon: 78°51'35"W

Contributed by Shirley Olson, May 16, 2002, last edited Sep 01, 2004 [shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 9.

From the intersection of Main St. (Hwy. 55) and Holly Springs Rd., (SR.1152), in Holly Springs, turn west at the traffic light onto New Hill Rd. (SR. 1152) a continuation of Holly Springs Rd., but with a name change. Drive about 1 1/2 miles to where the road divides, bear right onto Holly Springs-Apex Rd. (SR. 1153) and go about 3/4 of a mile to the cemetery on the right side of the road. There is a little driveway to pull in off the road.

Off the beaten path for most Wake County dwellers, this little private cemetery is located on Old Holly Springs-Apex Rd., (SR. 1153), near a landfill and near the Wake County Shooting Range.

Bennet Holland Family Cemetery is the name noted in a will dated 1888, by the son of Bennet Holland, for this cemetery. At the present time this cemetery is owned and maintained by Drew Holland and family.

Of late much development has occurred in this once sleepy area. A predominantly African American neighborhood is in the midst of dramatic change.

I recorded this cemetery on 13 May 2002.
