1 Lydia Upchurch born about 1782 in VA, died about 1848 in Jefferson Dishman d about 1847. Jeffery Dishman was counted on the census of Wayne Co. KY in 1820. He lists his wife, age 26-45 years; himself as 45 or up; Two persons, ages 45 up were with them, possibly the parents of Jefferson Dishman. He bought land in Wayne: "Jeptha Dishman buys from Abraham Van Winkle 50 acres in Sandy Valley on Otter Creek. Wit: Moses and Archibald Dishman. 3-24-1836 recorded Bk H 2, page 429 on 4-15-1836. This is the same land that Jefferson sold to Moses Dishman on 10-7-1842. The taxes must not have been paid for the land was sold on the courthouse steps. a deed reads: Jefferson Dishman, my late husband, sold 10-7-1842, fifty acres; now I, Lydia Dishman, sell to Moses Dishman. Lydia Dizmonz, her mark. Another deed made by John Upchurch restores the land to Lydia who then was able to deed it to Moses Dishman, for whom Jefferson had intended it: John Upchurch to Lydia Dishman and her three children, minor heirs, Catherine, Jane, and Jefferson T. Dishman, on waters of Otter Creek, being part of the land that was sold by the sheriff at the Courthouse door in favor of Thomas Jones and against Jefferson Dishman and bought by Micajah Phillips-transferred to John Upchurch on 22 of February, 1847. Three months later Lydia had transferred the land to Moses Dishman.

Obituary

Jefferson B. Dishman was born in Wayne county, Kentucky, November 13, 1842, died at his home in Marshall, Oklahoma, March 27, 1926, aged 83 years, 4 months, and 14 days.

His father died when he was a small boy. He then came to Missouri with his mother and stepfather in 1850. He joined the Union army in 1862, serving three years, and one month in Company H, 4th Missouri State Cavalry.

He was united in marriage to Martha J. Ross in 1865. To this union was born 13 children, 10 girls and 3 boys. The mother and three daughters preceded him in death. He was again united in marriage to Rachel E. Gibson in 1887; she having been called in 1919, since which time he has kept his home open for the home coming of his children, of which 9 were present when he passed away, the other two children, Mrs. Lydia Wright of Clarksdale, and Mrs. Arthur Holmes of Darlington, Missouri, arriving later.

He was converted in 1865, and united with the Baptist church the following year. He formerly lived in the vicinity of the New Hope church, holding his membership there, but later moved his church membership to Clarksdale, where he was one of the first Deacons of that church. He remained in Missouri until 1891, when he removed to Oklahoma, where he resided until his death. He leaves to mourn his death, three sons, and seven daughters, besides a host of friends and relatives. The funeral was held at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Charles Henson of Claremore. The remains were laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery north of town. Brother Dishman had always been a faithful member and deacon of the Baptist church at Marshall, and even after he could not hear, his presence in the services were an inspiration to others. He rests from his labors.

Katharine Jane Dishman was born in 1841, in Wayne county, Kentucky, where she was brought up to the years of womanhood. In 1857 she was married to David C. Craig, who, in 1859, removed to Lafayette county, Mo. The year following they came to DeKalb county, where they have ever since resided. Their matrimonial union was blessed with twelve children, two of whom are dead, and ten living; eight are married, and all but two are living in DeKalb and Buchanan counties.

Deceased has long been a devout member of the Baptist church, having joined the New Hope congregation some twenty years ago, and since then has always steadfastly professed her faith in Him who, on July 12th, beckoned her to come and receive her reward in the blessed realms beyond the grave, where sin and sorrow never dwell.

She has been an amiable sister, a true wife, a devoted and loving mother and her kindness of heart and friendliness have merited the respect and friendship of all who knew her. The many friends extend their heartfelt sympathy to her surviving relatives, who are left to mourn the loss of one who had so nobly endeared herself to home and community.

Do not be grieved, kind husband.
True, thy helpmate dear is in the land
Where trials and troubles cannot be,
To join thee one day hand in hand.
Weep not, dear children, mother dear
Has only crossed the stormy sea;
She is not dead, but in sweet rest,
Is waiting now, loved ones, for thee.

Bonnie's Family

The name "Dishman" is the Anglicization of the French name "Duchemin" or "du Chemin" in old French. It is generally accepted that Daniel Duchemin is the Dishman family line. He was in New York in 1687 and later in the Richmond, Virginia area. However, the line between Daniel and the first confirmed Dishman ancestors [Thomas and Kiziah {Kizzie} Dishman in Iredell County, North Carolina {late 1700's}] is presently unsubstantiated.

Kiziah was listed as head of household in the Iredell County 1800 census, and the whereabouts of her husband, Thomas Dishman, was not mentioned. Possibly he was dead at the time. So the Dishman Family Story really begins with Kizzie, who by all accounts was a Cherokee Indian from western North Carolina. Kizzie had three sons by Thomas Dishman, Lewis, James, and Jefferson. Sometime after 1805 she moved to Wilkes County, North Carolina. And was listed as head of household there in the 1810 census. Dreams of a new life eventually led her, her youngest son, Jefferson Dishman and his family, west across The Appalachian Mountains to a new land, where she became the matriarch of the Dishman family in Wayne County, Kentucky.

The Dishmans settled on Otter Creek in the Slickford area, sometime between 1810 and 1820. They were subsistence farmers and raised large families on Otter Creek. Joseph Dishman once owned the land where the Dishman Cemetery is located. That is where Kizzie, Jefferson, and many of their descendants, including Joseph and Elijah are buried.

This is our lineage of the Dishman family, Thomas Dishman, Jefferson Dishman, Joseph Dishman, Elijah K. Dishman, Watt Dishman, and Bonnie Dishman McGinnis.

Fourth Generation in America

Since much research on the Upchurch Family of Virginia and North Carolina has been completed, I am starting with George and Rachel Upchurch. This is a listing of their descendents. George and Rachel moved from Virginia to North Carolina and then on to Wayne County, Kentucky. All of their children moved to Wayne County, Kentucky and several moved from Wayne County, Kentucky to Fentress County, Tennessee.

3. George Upchurch was born about 1757 in Brunswick County, Virginia and died 1830-31 in Wayne County, Kentucky. His wife was Rachel Bethshares who was born about 1759 Brunswick County, Virginia. Rachel was the daughter of Thomas and Ruth Bethshares. George and Rachel were listed in the tax list of Brunswick County, Virginia in 1782 & 1788. They were living near his father Michael and Uncle James Upchurch in 1782 and 1788.

George and Rachel moved to Salisbury district, Iredell County, North Carolina before 1790. They were listed in the 1790 census of Iredell County, North Carolina with 4 sons under 16 and 1 daughter. They were also listed in the census records of 1800 and 1810 living in Iredell County, North Carolina. George sold his land in North Carolina to his sons, Moses, Thomas and Shadrack and moved to Wayne County, Kentucky.

George received his land grant of 100 acres on Little South Fork, Kentucky on 10-12-1814. He was listed in the census records of 1820 Wayne County, Kentucky. Listed in his household were 2 males 18-25, 1 male 26-44, 1 male 45+, 1 female 45+, there were 4 individual engaged in agriculture. George and Rachel are buried at the Little South Fork Cemetery in Cumberland County, Kentucky. Their children:
