Fees for parking, hiking ended on road to Lemmon

By Tony Davis
ARIZONA DAILY STAR

The U.S. Forest Service has stopped collecting hiking and parking fees at its station on the road to Mount Lemmon.

It also has stopped citing people who park and hike in nondeveloped campground areas who formerly had to pay the fees.

The service's actions stem from a 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruling Feb. 9 that the Coronado National Forest's system of collecting fees for Mount Lemmon violates federal law. That sent the case back to a lower federal court for further consideration.

Fees are no longer being charged at parking areas except for those at developed campgrounds or other developed areas. The fee station, near Milepost 5 on the Catalina Highway, is no longer being staffed while the service reviews the fee program.

Signs at parking lots advising people they need to pay $5 daily or $20 annual fees will be taken down soon, Coronado National Forest Supervisor Jim Upchurch said Tuesday.

"We're just evaluating where the fees would be appropriate, determining which sites would be appropriate for fees ... based on our understanding of the law," he said.

Until now, the Forest Service had collected fees from all drivers who parked their vehicles along the 28-mile Catalina Highway.

The lawsuit against the fees was brought by four Tucson-area residents who were hoping not only to overturn the Mount Lemmon fees but to set a national precedent for other national forests.

Upchurch, however, said the Forest Service staff is currently reviewing its fee system only for Mount Lemmon — not for Sabino or Madera canyons where the fees are also charged in the Tucson area. He said he doesn't know if the fee stoppage is temporary or permanent, nor whether the service will appeal the court ruling.

Kitty Benzar, director of the Western Slope No-Fee Coalition, which had backed the lawsuit, said it's great the fees are no longer charged on Mount Lemmon, but added: "They're going to have to make this case a national precedent. There are 155 national forests. If they would like to fight this forest by forest, I think that is a colossal waste of taxpayer funding."

Eldridge gains 205 yards in 42-7 victory over UCLA

By Jay Gonzales
The Arizona Daily Star

The miracle of modern transportation gave the University of Arizona its offensive plan for yesterday's Pacific-10 Conference football game against UCLA.

But the Wildcats used the oldest mode of travel, by way of land, to trample the 22nd-ranked Bruins, 42-7, before an Arizona Stadium crowd of 51,562 and a regional television audience.

Borrowing from the University of Colorado playbook, the Wildcats lined up in the I-formation and unleashed senior running back David Eldridge for a career-high 205 yards and two touchdowns.

Freshman Errol Sapp added 77 yards and a touchdown as the Wildcats gained 480 yards on the ground, the most rushing yards allowed by the Bruins in their history.

But Arizona Coach Dick Tomey said the scheme wasn't much different from what he had put on the field in the Wildcats' first five games. Arizona entered yesterday's game last in the Pac-10 in total offense.

"The biggest change was that we blocked people," Tomey said. "I don't think the formation had as much to do with it as the offensive line."

Wherever the credit rests, it worked against a team the Wildcats hadn't beaten since 1983. They had suffered four straight

Dear Mr Upchurch

I have a letter from Donald Eugene Upchurch of Paragould, AR in which he indicated that he had a talk with you by phone and that you are interested in the Upchurch family.

Enclosed herewith is a flyer on Upchurch Bulletin. I hope you will want to subscribe.

I am anxious to know how you fit into the Upchurch family. If you will complete, insofar as possible, the enclosed Family Chart I will search my files and send you a note on what is found.

Also, if you know of others who could be included in the Upchurch family, I would welcome their names and addresses for which a form is enclosed.

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch
