Beaver's Chapel United Church of Christ celebrates 104th year

"It Takes a Village" was the theme of the 104th anniversary celebration of Beaver's Chapel United Church of Christ.

It was in 1892 that the church was organized under the leadership of the Rev. B.F. Perry and five members: the Rev. C.W. Richardson, Sarlin Yarborough, John Yarborough, Banister Horton and John Horton. A number of the heirs of those original members are still active with the church.

The 104th celebration began Saturday night with a fellowship banquet at the CCO Center in Zebulon. Pastor William McCoy and members and friends of Beaver's Chapel enjoyed an evening of music by the Capitol City Five, then dinner and a speech by Jonathan F. Koffa.

Koffa, who first came to Zebulon as town planner, then was promoted to assistant town manager and currently serves as interim town manager, grew up in Monrovia, Liberia, in West Africa. He attended Shaw University, then earned a master's of public administration from N.C. State University. He is currently a law student at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Koffa delivered an inspiring message on the need for everyone to be active participants in the "village."

Also on the program were three older members of the church: Alma Price, Maddie Morgan and Irene Richardson. The celebration continued with the Sunday morning service. McCoy delivered a strong message relating to diligence.

There was much relevance, as members recollected and reviewed their rich and humble heritage. This included how the church derived its name — the first church having been built near Beaver Dam Creek.

The church persevered many trials and tribulations. During the Depression, it became necessary to sell the church. Miraculously, when it was put on the market to be sold, according to church history, only the man who wanted to sell the church bid on the property. It was then that the Rev. Dowd advised members to buy the church back at the auctioned price. This was done, the Depression ended, and the church debt was paid off.

Among the old-timers who played active roles in laying the foundation for today's church were R.P. "Pete" Richardson, Rush Baker, J.T. Locke, Lona Richardson, Daisy Fowler, Christine C. Locke and Irene Richardson.

Many of the children of yesterday — LaVerne and Elsie Locke; Emma Tuck; Barbara Nell Tuck; Mary Price; Catherine Champion; Ray Fowler; Dorothy High; Hattie Pretty; and Gladys, Marjorie, Dorothy and Clara Reid — became active adults in the community. Several have, however, gone to their final resting place. Their impact on the community will long be felt.

Beaver's Chapel continues to impact the community. In the old days, Jonathan Bunn, who worked for Whitley Furniture, would borrow the furniture delivery truck on Sundays and take the young men to church in the back of the truck. Buster Baker, who worked for Toney's Funeral Home, owned a black Cadillac and would transport the women to church if there was no funeral.

Then there were the two choirs, the "note" choir and the regular choir. Henry Pearce, Hubert Fowler, Pete Richardson, Daisy Adams, Ernest Adams, Clifton Champion, Georgia Mae Adams, Marjorie Reid, Gladys Reid, Jonathan Bunn, Mary Ruth Bunn, Hattie Preddy, Shirley Pretty, Mary Price and Emma Tuck were among the choir members.

Beaver's Chapel United Church of Christ continues to be a pillar in the Zebulon community. Over the years, Deacons Clifton Champion, Donnie Beckwith, Garlene Privette, Harriston Hodges, Edward June Miles and Robert Mangun, as well as ministers including T.J. Moore, J.P. Mangun, Dr. W.M. Lake, L.E. Young, M. Ray, R.L. Haith, W. Barton, D. Jones and McCoy, made lasting contributions to the longevity of the church. Dedicated members, including the late Lena Rogers, have influenced what a church, small in numbers, can do when working toward a common goal.

In regard to the church, Marjorie Reid Young, church historian, stated, "Together we develop a progressive village for our children. He (McCoy) challenges us to continue the tradition of being a resource in the village that raises the child."

LOUIS BOBBITT

Group at St Paul's takes church on the road for its eldest member

By DENA BOYETTE HEIGHT

If Mrs. Maybelle can't make it to church, then we'll have to bring the church to Mrs. Maybelle.

That was the attitude recently of a handful of thoughtful members of St. Paul No. 1 Church of Christ, located on Pulley-Gordon Road, just south of Zebulon.

One churchgoer, Travis Maybelle Bobbitt, who is the oldest living member of the congregation, was celebrating her 101st birthday on Jan. 26. Because of the bad weather, and because Mrs. Bobbitt gets around with the help of a walker, she often finds it difficult to get to church.

But on this special day, this group wanted to bring a service to Mrs. Bobbitt — and they did.

A few from the church missionary department and the choir traveled to Mrs. Bobbitt's, who lives with her daughter, Louise Hall, to give her a surprise birthday gift.

Doris Wright, who was part of the traveling service, said Mrs. Bobbitt told her later she had a feeling she would be receiving a special present that day, and even wished it would be a visit from her church family.

Along with Mrs. Wright, the traveling group consisted of Joyce ing a gospel program on television.

The flock greeted her with lots of hugs and a bunch of "Happy Birthdays." The service was opened with a song, "I Have Hope In Jesus." Mrs. Wright read from the book of Psalms and the book of Revelations. Mrs. Smith led the group in prayer and they polished off another hymn, "Working on Building a Sure Foundation."

working in the fields, or attending school or church. Food was not plentiful "like it is now. We had to make each penny count."

She married Willie High and had three children — two boys and one girl. Her sons now live in South Carolina and New York.

After her husband passed away, she moved to Zebulon. She swore after her first marriage she'd never marry again, but she ended up eating her words when she met Louis Bobbitt while working in tobacco. The two later married.

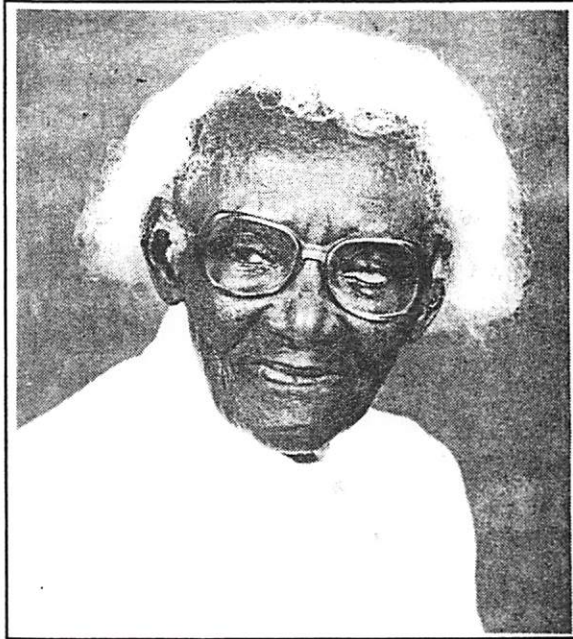

For most of her years in Zebulon, she has attended St. Paul No. 1. Best estimates are she has been a member for 50 years.

Not only does she enjoy her church family, but members also said they feel she gives them something in return.

"She's the jewel of our life in church," said Mrs. Wright, who

After the service, the group presented Mrs. Bobbitt with gifts and a floral arrangement from the church.

The birthday girl then gave the group a brief history of her life. Born in 1894, she told them she was raised in South Carolina on a sharecropper's farm, where she was surrounded by cotton and corn. The days were spent either added they prize Mrs. Bobbitt so much they placed her on their float during Zebulon's Christmas parade two months ago. "She's very spiritual, and it's amazing to see how alert she is. It's great just to look at a person like her."

Her neighbors think enough of her that they wanted to give her a birthday present they knew she would cherish — a worship service that was a tender mixture of "love of the Lord" and good friends.

Cemetary beautification progressing

Plans to beautify the Zebulon Town Cemetery are slowly progressing due to efforts of the Zebulon Cemetary Beautification Committee.

"We have had a lot of good response to the letter we sent out in December," reported former Zebulon Mayor Frank Wall two weeks ago. "We sent out about 320 letters to people who have plots or family in the cemetery. A number of them have written us back and enclosed more names of people they think would be interested in contributing."

Wall, Betsy Green, Edna Bunn Allmon, Janie Hinton and Christine Hopkins make up the committee.

The money being raised for the beautification fund — all through voluntary donations — will go toward the landscaping of the four entrances to the cemetery.

"We don't want anything that is going to be a maintenance problem," Wall explained, "but we do want something that is going to look nice."

Landscaping work will be done by Pearce Nursery in Zebulon.

The highlight of the project is a white marble sign which has been donated by Taylor Wiggins of Wiggins Monument in Rolesville. The sign will be erected on one of the stone columns at the Whitley Street entrance.

The remainder of the land not currently plotted is due to be surveyed soon, Wall said.

"I'm anticipating that we will receive more letters," he said. "We'd like to clean up some of the other areas in the cemetery, pull some trees and put some gravel or something on the connector streets."

The town spent $133,000 last year to pave, curb and gutter three of the cemetery's main streets.
