Carter, Alford unite in marriage

Barbie Lynn Alford of Zebulon and Daniel Cary Carter of Cocoa Beach, Fla., were united in marriage Dec. 17, 1994, at Zebulon Baptist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jack Glasgow.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Barbee Alford Jr. of Zebulon. Parents of the bridegroom are Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Carter of Cocoa Beach, Fla.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Alford, and Virginia Mitchell of Zebulon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of ivory satin and sposabella lace. The fitted bodice was embellished with pearls and sequins. The V-neckline was outlined in pearls. The long, tapered sleeves were enhanced with beaded lace cut-outs, and the basque waist was encircled with beaded lace.

The full, floor-length skirt and chapel-length train were adorned with garlands of beaded lace and beaded lace motifs, and etched in beaded sposabella lace.

The bride's headpiece was a bandeau of lace petals etched with seed pearls and sequins from which flowed a layered, waltz-length veil of illusion with a scalloped edge featuring garlands of seed pearls. The illusion was accented with scattered lace motifs.

Her bouquet was a nosegay of dried ivory roses with Christmas cedar, displayed in a Victorian tussie-mussie holder adorned with ivory organza ribbon edged in gold.

The bride was attended by Jennifer D. Radford of Middlesex, cousin of the bride, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Angela Boykin of Zebulon; Kim Crosby of Slidell, La., sister of the bridegroom; Paula Gregory of Raleigh; Dee Lockamy of Wendell; and Jodi Privette of Zebulon. Honorary bridesmaids were Paula Adams of Winter Park, Fla., Caroline Brayboy of Zebulon, Tracey Rhodes of Middlesex, and Paige White of Wendell.

Each attendant wore a burgundy velvet, princess-style tea-length dress featuring a V-back edged with rhinestones. They each carried a long-stem ivory rose accented with cedar and holly, and tied with ivory organza ribbon edged in gold.

Elizabeth Alford, daughter of the bride, was flower girl, and Aaron Blough served as the ring bearer.

The bridegroom chose Tim Lockamy of Wendell as his best man. Ushers were Ben and Neil Alford of Zebulon, brothers of the bride; Brad Carter of Cocoa Beach, Fla., and Matt Carter of Fort Knox, Ky., brothers of the bridegroom; Kevin Mulligan of Cocoa Beach, Fla.; and Chris Mitchell of Zebulon, cousin of the bride.

The bridegroom wore a black formal tuxedo with an ivory wing-collar shirt, vest and bow tie, and had an ivory rose boutonniere. The ushers wore black formal tuxedos with ivory wing-collar shirts, black vests and bow ties, and also had ivory rose boutonnieres.

Wedding music was by Joanne Mitchell, aunt of the bride, and Mark Barrett, vocalists; and Jill Bunn, organist. Register attendant was Wendy Perry of Middlesex. Nikki Alford, cousin of the bride, was program attendant. The wedding was directed by Jane Mitchell of Zebulon, aunt of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the Zebulon Lions Club Building.

On Dec. 16, 1994, the parents of the bridegroom-elect hosted a rehearsal dinner at P. Spencer's restaurant. The menu consisted of baked ham and chicken, wild rice, vegetables, and tea. The dessert was a strawberry groom's cake.

B.M. ALFORD AND SON, MERCHANTS

The article that follows was written by Edythe Lee Medlin Tippet. It appeared in the Feb. 1, 1973 edition of The Zebulon Record which highlighted the town's history.

"Store Holds Warm Memories Of Childhood Days For Older Citizens"

B.M. Alford and Son was one of Zebulon's very first grocery and dry goods stores. Located on So. Arendell Ave. and operated by B. Moses Alford and Son, Furney, the business probably opened its doors in 1907.

Moses Alford was a native of the Pilot community in Franklin Co. Near his father's homestead, he and his wife, Jane Upchurch Alford, reared their family on a farm of several hundred acres. There in Franklin Co., Moses Alford assumed other responsibilities in addition to his farm chores. Always a man of enterprise, he mended shoes, sawed shingles for sale in the area and ran a small general store.

When Zebulon became a reality in 1907, Moses and Jane Alford decided to join their future with the new town's. They chose to build both their new home and store on Arendell Avenue. The house was built on lots where Farmer's Dept. Store and Malone Drug Co. presently adjoin. The store building was constructed further down the street across from what is now the site of Parrish Market.

B.M. Alford & Son was a thriving business from the very start. Son Furney was in charge of the store, while his father saw to other business concerns such as his farming interest in Franklin County and speculating on the local tobacco market. It is also said that along with a number of other local men Moses Alford helped to construct the original building at Wakelon School.

The Alford Store had two departments, groceries and dry goods. Each department had its own front door, while inside an archway gave access from one to the other. Ladies found it convenient to shop for groceries and then take a look at new clothes or dress goods and sewing notions.

One of the most popular spots in the grocery department was just to the right as one entered the store. A large wooden icebox stood there, filled with iced bottled drinks. Farmers just into town, tobacconists from the warehouse that stood across the way and other gentlemen enjoy gathering around the icebox to discuss the latest news.

Next to the icebox stood an elaborate candy counter with shelves filled to the brim. Many Zebulon people have warm childhood memories of the hospitable store and the delicious confections that were forthcoming from the candy counter.

Not only customers enjoyed the hospitality of the Alford Store. A number of cats lived out their lives in contentment there. The cats were fortunate to be under the kindly care of Furney Alford. Even though the store would not be open, Furney went down early each Sunday morning to feed his cats. No matter how many there were, each was given a name. Always named in pairs, they bore such names as Max and Climax, Peat and Repeat.

B. Moses Alford died April 3, 1915. Furney continued to run the store until his early death in September, 1927.

Milliard H. Alford had been a clerk in his grandfather Moses's store. He decided to purchase and continue the business after his Uncle Furney's death. This he did, changing the name to M.H. Alford Co. Poor health led to Milliard Alford's decision to close the business in 1952.

Today the building that once housed B.M. Alford and Son stands deserted. Adjoining the old J.C. Jeffreys Store at the corner of Arendell and Barbee Avenues, it is a silent reminder of Zebulon's past.

THE B. MOSES ALFORDS, EARLY ZEBULON RESIDENTS

Burkley Moses and Eliza Jane Upchurch Alford were natives of Dunn's Township, Franklin Co., N.C. Their wedding took place Oct. 5, 1871 in Louisburg, the county seat. Moses was the son of Kisar and Martha Upchurch Alford; Jane was the daughter of Ambrose and Harriet Pearce Upchurch.

For many years Moses and Jane lived on their land south of Pilot in Dunn's Township. Moses was a farmer and ran a small general store which stood in the yard of their home. Across the road stood the Alford School for children in the neighborhood. It was a typical one-room school of the day. Moses and Jane's oldest son, James Berry Alford, was at one time a teacher there taking a firm hand with the children who included younger siblings and cousins.

Moses was a dynamic person. He saw the potential for business in the town of Zebulon under construction as the Norfolk and Southern Railroad was completed from Raleigh to Wilson.

Moses purchased property from Zebulon Lane Co., the corporation that developed the town. A spacious two-story structure, with front veranda running the length of the house, was built for the family which consisted of Moses, Jane and those of their nine children still residing at home. The house stood in the 200 block of North Arendell Ave. Further down the street past the new railroad station, Moses and Julius Jeffreys built adjoining store buildings. There Moses and his son Furney opened B.M. Alford and Son, one of the first grocery and dry goods stores in Zebulon. A second article placed in this book provides a history of the business with some additional information on the family. (See B.M. Alford and Son, Merchants story.)

Burkley Moses Alford died April 3, 1915. His funeral was held at Pilot Baptist Church. Even after moving to Zebulon, Moses and Jane retained their membership in Pilot Baptist Church where he was a member of the first Board of Trustees and served as church clerk for many years. An unseasonable snowstorm occurred the day of Moses' funeral. Family and friends found travel difficult as they went by buggy from Zebulon to Pilot Baptist Church and then to the Alford Cemetery. The Zebulon Record commented upon the death of Moses Alford:

"Death of B.M. Alford"

On last Saturday, April 3rd while sitting in the barber shop talking and laughing with a friend, Mr. B.M. Alford one of Zebulon's oldest and best citizens was stricken with apoplexy and died before a doctor could reach him.

Mr. Alford, so we are informed, was about 71 years old.

He leaves a wife, six boys and two girls to mourn their loss. He has been one of the leading citizens of the town being one of the first to locate here, has always had the interest of the town foremost in mind. In Mr. Alford Zebulon loses one of its best friends and supporters.

The burial was in the family burying ground near Pilot last Sunday evening. Not only the news but all that knew Mr. Alford joins in sympathizing with the sorrowing wife and children in the loss of husband, father and friend.

Eliza Jane Upchurch Alford died Nov. 29, 1919. She is buried by Moses' side in the Alford Cemetery established on the farm in Franklin County where they once lived.

FROM 16 MAY 1994 letter of apology in profile of CHRISTIE ALFORD BALDWIN

Mr. Robert Phillip Upchurch,
P.O. Box 35804
Tucson, Arizona 85740

Dear Robert:

First, I want to apologise for the lateness of this letter, in answering yours with reference to Martha Harriett Alford Medlin. First had an Oklahoma cold, then received a large packet of material from my researcher, being her worksheets. So with sorting through that and making copies has kept me occupied. Just sent material to her today. Hopefully can get caught up on other things now.

Claude Medlin must be a little mixed up - I should say material mixed up - when he thought I had information on Martha Harriett Alford Medlin. I have worked 1700s on Gades, Medlins and Alfords, not the later years. So much missing from the 1700s that I was trying to get them straightened out better.

The only thing I have had on Upchurch has been reference to deeds in Franklin Co. as they might have connected with the Alfords, neighbors, and such.

Gilbert Alford, P.O. Box 1856, Florissant, Mo. 63031-1586 might have her listed on his computer.

My Alford line moved from NC to Tennessee reason for not following through more on NC Alfords.

Do appreciate hearing from you and will keep in mind as I work through deeds.

Yours truly,

Christie A. Baldwin
