Hi Kathryn,
Phil's email sent to my email address in error.
But I'm glad that happened.
I'm a Yates/Upchurch descendant.

I hope you or other Yates "cousins" can determine who our Margaret Yates is descended from.
She and Burtis Upchurch were my ggg-grandparents.
The will of her supposed father, William Yates (Sr?), does not list her as daughter but leaves her part of his estate.
I would like to know if our Yates ancestors were descended from Warfield, Tapp and Bourne families.
Too many William Yates/Yeats to figure out who is who.
Best of luck with your collaboration.

Any help, guidance, or information/resources you can lead me to will be greatly appreciated. I never knew my grandmother (she died) and met my grandfather once when I was in second grade. I love learning about my ancestors. It means a lot to me. Also names of others to contact is appreciated. I looked up the Swift Creek area. Saw that there is a Yates Mill Park. Wonder if that is family.

Thanks for you help and your time.

Hi Kathryn---

Thanks for your nice call on January 19, 2018 and for your followup email. Sorry for some delay due to a bad cold and some other medical issues.

Allied Families has an office in Chesterfield, MO where I live and one in Cary, NC where our Upchurch and allied families started in the 1700's. I hope to go to our Chesterfield Office in a day or so to look up some of the names you list.

It is highly likely that you trace to the Wake County NC Yates family. It is our most important Allied Family and we have three Yates experts working out of our Cary office. I will make an effort for you have one of them as a collaborator.

When my Grandfather bought his farm in 1870 in Swift Creek Township it adjoined the Yates Mill Complex. My father and I were born on this farm and knew the Yates family well.

Be back to soon.

Phil Upchurch, Manager, Allied Families
