Dir: From the intersection of Blue Ridge Rd. (SR 1664) and Trinity Rd. (SR 1656) take Trinity Rd. west for 2/10 mi. to "Oakhurst Farms", a Colonial Revival house on the right side of the road. The entry is chained. It is private property and not generally available to the public. The cemetery is located at the right and to the rear of the house, enclosed by a fence.

The house (with the cemetery behind and to the side) is across the road from the State Fair Grounds. The property is owned by the heirs to the Medlin family.

I surveyed this cemetery on Mar 17, 2004.

From the intersection of Blue Ridge Rd. and Duraleigh Rd (SR 1664), in Raleigh, at the traffic light where the roads fork, take Blue Ridge Rd., which now is (SR 1670) and go .25 mi. The church is on the left, parking ample.

This cemetery is located under a huge oak tree in front of Saint Paul Christian Church, at 3331 Blue Ridge Rd., (SR 1670), at the intersection of Edgemont Rd., Raleigh, NC 27612

The land was purchased by the church from the Holderfield family who informed the church officials that there were several graves there but only one is able to be identified.

I was directed to this grave by a family member. This one gravemarker, situated over the only known grave location, was placed there by her son. The other graves at this site, are all unmarked, occupants unknown.

Transcribed by Shirley Olson from a tombstone on Apr 15, 2004.

The cemetery is located on Duraleigh Rd. (SR 1664), at the intersection of Burwell Rollins Circle, the entrance to "Olde Raleigh" Subdivision, about 1/2 mile north of the intersection of Duraleigh Rd. and Edward's Mill Rd. (SR 3009).

The cemetery is invisible from the road, with a fine brick wall shielding it from view. You can park in the small courtyard in front of the guard house and look through the wrought iron gate, but the gate to the cemetery is locked and entrance can only be gained by following a procedure outlined next to the unmanned guard house. The cemetery is quite overgrown and is no longer in use. It contains .09 acre and is privately owned.

I viewed the cemetery and compiled the transcription from the notes of Ann Brosnahan, a direct descendant of the interred, with her permission, on Mar 03, 2006. There appear to be additional graves marked with field stones, which are not accounted for in this transcription.
