[shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 1,999.

The cemetery is located on Hwy #55, diagonally across the road from the intersection of Hwy 55 and James Slaughter Rd (SR 1399) in north Fuquay Varina NC.

This is a commercial cemetery with plenty of room for new burials. It is neat and well cared for, with room to park. There is a loop road through the cemetery. There are in-ground tablets and no headstones.

Wake County records show the Property Owner as "Greenlawn Memorial Gardens Inc." and the property description as "Blanchard Plus Cemetery", consisting of 2 parcels containing a little over 14 acres.

I walked the cemetery and recorded from the grave markers in May of 2006.

WAKE CHAPEL CHRISTIAN CHURCH - FUQUAY, WAKE CO, NC

FROM: CONCERNING OUR ANCESTORS - 1980 BY RUTH

WAKE CHAPEL CHRISTIAN CHURCH
1956

The history of Wake Chapel Church and the history of the Johnson family in Wake County are practically synonymous; as the church was organized in 1856 - and John Lewis Johnson and William W. Johnson came up from the Cape Fear River region and married the two Jones girls that same year, Mary Jane and Rhoda Ann. The following summer Mary Jane Johnson and Rhodiah (spelling in old church minute book) Johnson, on profession of faith joined the church and were baptized "Friday before the 4th Lord's Day in August 1857.

At a later date Betsy Ann Ballentine - the other Jones sister, joined; and their mother, Mary Jones Gardner was also a member until her death in the year 1901. However in the meantime, UTLEY was added in pencil, to her name on the church roll, Mary Gardner Utley.

Her servant, Charles, (who was willed to her by her first husband, Barnabas Jones,) was also a member of the Wake Chapel Church, as was "Mariah", - listed as ex-slave of Mary Gardner, and her death entered on the roll in the year 1867.

"At the church meeting in quarterly conference Saturday before the 4th Lord's Day, May 1861, Cherry, the servant of Isaac Rowland, and Sally, the servant of John Lewis Johnson came forward and presented themselves and were received into membership."

Twenty-two slaves and servants are enrolled on the early church record. Ned, the servant of William Ballentine, Annorcha, the servant of Wm. Ballentine; Sarah, the servant of Jno. L. Johnson. "Uncle Sandy" and "Aunt Quilly" were former slaves of the family, whose names are listed.

(Father, Mama, Aunt Nena, and I went to see them one Sunday afternoon about 1920. They lived in a small home near Buies Creek, which they owned. They were so happy and excited to see us "Uncle Sandy" keeled over from his chair and fell into my arms. He was very feeble with age, but soon recovered enough strength to recall happy memories of earlier days with the families at church on a Sabbath mornin' and of his good old Marster and Missus, who were so kind to him always, and especially when he was sick. "Aunt Quilly" gave me some herbs from her garden to plant in my Friendship garden. They were the old fashion "lavendar and kiss-me-and-I'll-Tell". The leaves of the plant had a spicy odor and tiny yellow blooms.)

William W. Johnson was a devout stalward member for his lifetime, as the records show. In February, 1863, he was elected Treasurer and Assistant Secretary, and was frequently appointed to represent the church at District Conferences or the Eastern North Carolina and Virginia Conference. He was elected deacon in March, 1873, and held that high position in the church until his death in 1896. He was often named to confer with or "wait on" a member who had erred or had been neglectful in his church attendance.

His son, A. N. Johnson, was often appointed as a delegate to Conference. His daughters, Isabella and Virginia were put on committees of various kinds, and appointed to teach and train the youth of the community. His son, Willie Johnson, was appointed deacon in the year 1910, which office he held for many years, when his business made it necessary for him to move to Raleigh, N. C.

On April 23, 1881, a nephew of William Johnson, Kemp B. Johnson, son of John Lewis Johnson, was elected Treasurer in his stead, and filled that office through lean years and fat until his death in November, 1943 ... a period of 62  $\frac{1}{2}$  years. There was never once the Treasurer's report called for at any meeting that he was not prepared to take from his pocket a small leather book and give the church balance, and substances of all collections taken in, and all items paid out. He served his church in almost every capacity. His name appears first on a membership committee in 1879, at age 16. He was elected deacon in 1908, and served until his death. He taught the Men's Bible Class 35 years. His sister Ella Johnson Smith, taught the ladies' Sunday School Class 25 years, and that class now bears her name in tribute to her devotion. She was the first President of the Ladies' Missionary Society, organized in 1912.

Their youngest brother, son of John Lewis Johnson and Mary Jane Johnson, was pastor of the church 29 years. At the age of 82 he is semi-retired, but some of the churches that he served insist on having him preach for them as often as his health and strength will permit. His ministry has been a blessing in the area in which he has lived. In January 1864, Samuel A. Johnson was licensed as a minister from Wake Chapel Church where he was a member.

W. J. Ballentine, son of Betsy Ann Balentine and William Balentine was a deacon for many years, and a very strong financial supporter of all the church enterprises. He was Conference Treasurer for fifty years, a trustee of Elon College, as were Kemp B. Johnson, J. Beale Johnson and John A. Mills. At this time Harold Johnson, the son of K. B. J. took his father's place on that board. W. J. Balentine also devoted much time and effort to his position as a trustee of the Christian Home for Children at Elon College, and liberally supported that organ of his Church. At the present, Marvin Mc Johnson, son of Kemp B. Johnson, serves as trustee of that board, having been elected at the request of his cousin, W. J. Balentine.

Other names that appear frequently on the old records from these families are: J. E. Balentine, Ammorette Balentine Judd, Charles A. Balentine, Almira Johnson, J. Beale Johnson, Ethel Johnson, who was organist a good many years. And now, another granddaughter, and daughter of Rev. J. Lee Johnson, Katie Lee Russom is church organist.

Numerous other grandchildren and great grandchildren are in first line of service there. Harold W. Johnson and Douglas Smith are deacons. B. Baird Johnson is church treasurer. Marvin Johnson teaches the Men's Bible Class, with A. Glendon Johnson to scotch for him. A. Glendon Johnson, grandson of William W. Johnson is a regular appointee to represent the church at all conferences of the area, the Biennial - Convention of the South ... a leader in the men's fellowship activities and Family Church Dinners or Suppers!

Directions: From the "Y" intersection of Hwy. 55 (Broad St.) and Wake Chapel Rd., Fuquay-Varina, go .3 mile south on Wake Chapel Rd. to the church and cemetery on your right. They are visible from the intersection.

A large and well maintained cemetery, the final resting place of many of the early settlers and their descendants. The church, school and cemetery are located on about 8 acres in the heart of Fuquay-Varina. The cemetery is being expanded. Parking is available in front of the cemetery next to the church as well as in the rear of the cemetery, accessible by a paved road.

I surveyed this cemetery in the spring of 2003.

Saint Augusta Cemetery Wake County, North Carolina

Judd Pkwy SE, Fuquay Varina NC

Lat: 35° 34' 22"N, Lon: 78° 47' 35"W
Middle Creek Twp.

Contributed by Shirley Olson, Jun 18, 2004 [shirley32olson@yahoo.com]. Total records = 102.

From the intersection of Hwy. 401 South & Judd Parkway's South East entrance, take Judd Parkway abt. 1.1 mi. to a dirt road on the right side of the road, just past Phillips Dr. and before crossing Angier Rd. There may be a chain across the road and you may have to walk in.

The cemetery contains abt. 1.5 acres and it is hidden from view. A dirt road with a chain at the entrance is visible from the Judd Pkwy. After you follow the road for abt. 1/10 mi. a block structure comes into view containing discards, and next to it there is a place to park. It is a grassy cemetery, pleasant looking but not well cared for. Many unmarked graves, sunken monuments, and sunken graves.

The owner of the cemetery as recorded in the Wake Co. Real Estate records as Saint Augusta Church, which is located on Bridge St., Fuquay Varina. I would like to thank Leon McLeod Jr., great great grandson of Bettie & David Spain and grandson of Mary & Rayvon McLeod for perservering in his assistance in finding this once rural, hidden cemetery, that is still hidden, though no longer very rural.

Transcribed from the existing monuments and readable funeral home markers, by Shirley Olson on Jun 16, 2004.

From Hwy. # 42 East, go south on Walter Myatt Rd. (SR 2756) for 2 miles. Turn right onto Buck Rowland Rd. (SR 2757) and almost immediately turn right onto Nell's Way, a dirt road in a trailer community. About 200 ft. ahead, a cemetery is visible.

I visited the remnants of this family cemetery and recorded what was visible through the courtesy of Mr. Julian Pearce and Ms. Virginia Monday, whose record of the vandalized headstones is posted below. There is no owner of record of the cemetery which was included in a land sale in 1939. There are no plans for any future burials.

I have marked the headstones that I viewed with a star *. The other headstones have been broken beyond repair and the cemetery is overgrown. A block wall that once surrounded the cemetery is damaged.

I transcribed from all existing headstones & records on Jun 12, 2005.

From the intersection of Hwy. 401, (N. Main St.), and Judd Pkwy., (SR 2768), in Fuquay-Varina, go 1.6 mi. south on N. Main St. to the intersection of Hwy. 401 and Hwy. 42 (Academy St.) and turn west (right) on to Hwy. 42. Go .4 mi. to Bridge St., which intersects from the right. The Jones Soccer Field is visible on your right. On the left side of Hwy. 42, across from the Soccer Field, accessed by a dirt road, and set back several hundred feet, is the cemetery.

This is a private family cemetery of the Jones family, on private property and may only be accessed or viewed with the permission of the owner. The cemetery is located on a land grant dating back to 1790, (date supplied by Mr. Warren Jones) deeded to Etheldred Jones, a veteran of the Revolutionary War who served as a Captain in the North Carolina Militia, and has been in continuous ownership by Jones family descendants since. Mr. Warren Jones walked through the cemetery with me and graciously defined the relationships.

Surrounded by ancient oaks and cedars, the cemetery is neatly kept and well cared for. There is room for more family burials.

This cemetery is the property of and maintained by the Hilltop FWB Church of Fuquay Varina NC.

About a dozen graves on the sweeping front lawn of the church. Total land in front is about 2 acres with plenty of room for more burials.

NOTE: Since I surveyed this cemetery, the Hilltop Free Will Baptist Church, in Fuquay Varina, Wake Co., NC, has built a new church and put the old church on the market. The graves that were located in front of the old church were moved by Suggs Funeral Home, Fuquay Varina, NC, in November of 2006 to other

I walked the cemetery and recorded the inscriptions on 17 Jul 2002.

From the south side of Raleigh take beltline exit # 298 (Hwys. 70, 50, 401) (South Saunders St). Stay on 401 S. to Fuquay Varina, about 10 miles. Turn right at the traffic light onto Hwy. 55 West ( towards Holly Springs, Apex and Durham) and go 2-3 miles. Next to a pony ranch, on the left side of the road, is this tidy little cemetery.

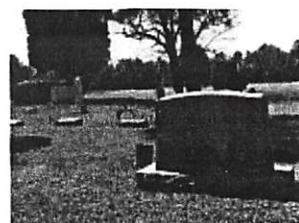

A family cemetery, well cared for, no longer in use.

I surveyed this cemetery on Mar. 8, 2002.
