I. Jacob Strickland b 1805 - History Notes

In 1948, J. D. Finch wrote in his book "Genealogy of Finch Families Who Are Same Clan," "Jakie Strickland and Mourning Finch began life upon the red hills of Tar River in Nash County, North Carolina, about one mile south of what is known as Webb's bridge across Tar River. Their home place today is known as the Guss Sanders place."

In 1994, Roscoe L. Strickland III visited Ruth Whitley Bissette, a great-granddaughter of Jacob Strickland and Betsy Finch. She said that Jacob Strickland built the first dam across the Tar River. She had an old newspaper article in her possession that says Jacob Strickland petitioned to build a mill in 1850, and that mill became Webb's mill in 1875.

1850 census of Nash County, North Carolina
#511

Jacob Strickland	age 45

Francis K.	22
Sallie N.	21
Claiborne	19

Ruth Bissette listed the children of Jacob Strickland and Betsy Finch as follows:

W. G. N. Strickland	m.	Mary Collins
Margaret Strickland	m.	Gus Sanders
Kindrey Strickland		unmarried, killed in war
Mahala Ann Strickland	m.	Madison Strickland
Maharvey Strickland	m.	Margaret Hammond
Sally Strickland		unmarried, died young

Mark Strickland		unmarried, killed in war

Ruth said that William Gideon Norway Quincy Adams Strickland (W. G. N. above) was born 6-12-1833, and moved to Dover, Mississippi, where he died 8-28-1904. He is buried in the Dover Cemetery. Ruth has visited her cousins in Dover and seen the cemetery.

Jacob Strickland and wife, Elizabeth Strickland, were heirs of Claborn Finch, deceased; deed to Hudson Finch Finch, November 13, 1851 (Nash County Deed Book 20, p. 259).

Jacob Strickland's will was dated May 14, 1858, and it was probated in August, 1858, in Nash County, North Carolina. Personal property and land (not to exceed 250 acres) to be sold to pay debts. He left his wife Elizabeth Strickland the balance of his property during her lifetime, and then as follows: Son C. M. J. Strickland, 1/8. The rest to my 7 other children: F. K. W., William, Waymore, Walter R., Sally M., Mary Hadly, and Margaret Strickland; if any should die before coming of age or without issue, then to the survivors. Executor was son F. K. W. Strickland, and witnesses were John B. Rice and J. T. Webb.

Division of the lands of Jacob Strickland, deceased, by commissioners, September 24, 1866. Lot #1 drawn by the heirs of C. M. J. Strickland contained 182 acres; Lot #2 by Margaret Ann, wife of G. B. Sanders, 180 acres; Lot #3 by W. G. N. Strickland, 137 acres; Lot #4 by Mahala Ann, wife of James M. Strickland, 147 acres. The land was on the south bank of Tar river adjoining E. H. Morgan (Nash County Deed Book 22, p. 191).

MARK STRICKLAND, born say 1749 in Edgecombe County, North Carolina. He married MARTHA (-?-) in Edgecombe County after 1768. He died in Nash County, North Carolina, after 6 August 1811.<sup>98</sup> Martha died after her husband signed his will. Mark is first of record as a witness in court on 8 December 1766.<sup>99</sup> He received a gift of 280 acres of land from his father on 25 November 1769.<sup>100</sup> He purchased land in two locations in Nash County. The first was a patent on the north side of Tosnet Swamp adjoining his own land, granted on 12 March 1779.<sup>101</sup> Mark purchased the second on Turkey Creek on 7 October 1782.<sup>102</sup> He was in Nash County for the 1790 federal census.<sup>103</sup> He continued to purchase land on Turkey Creek during the 1790s. He wrote his will in 1811, and he died by 27 November 1811, when it was proved.<sup>104</sup>

△ 2. SAMPSON STRICKLAND b ABT 1724 (AUG PG 234)

Sampson<sup>3</sup> Strickland (Mathew<sup>2</sup>, Mathew<sup>1</sup>) was born say 1724 in Isle of Wight County, Virginia. He married first a woman who remains unidentified about 1748 in Isle of Wight County. She was possibly Elizabeth Taylor, daughter of Thomas Taylor. Sampson married second Christiana (-?-) by 1762 in Johnston County, North Carolina. Sampson probably died in Wake County, North Carolina, before 18 July 1781.<sup>132</sup> Christiana died there after 9 December 1797.<sup>133</sup>

SAMPSON<sup>4</sup> STRICKLAND, born say 1754, probably in Southampton County, Virginia. He married first his cousin BYTHE (-?-) about 1780 in Wake County, North Carolina.<sup>153</sup> She died before 1816, and Sampson married second ELIZABETH (-?-) in Nash County, North Carolina, before 14 September 1816.<sup>154</sup> He died in Franklin County, North Carolina, on 16 May 1839.<sup>155</sup> Sampson is first of record as a soldier in the Revolutionary War in 1780, when he enlisted in Wake County.<sup>156</sup> He sold to brother Obadiah 250 acres on the north side of Mocoston Creek on 28 May 1784.<sup>157</sup> Nash County records reveal little about Sampson. The Wake County tax collector found him from 1792 to 1794.<sup>158</sup> Sampson later moved to Franklin County, where he appears on tax lists from 1804 to 1815.<sup>159</sup> He apparently moved to Nash County by the next year

ii. JACOB STRICKLAND born say 1740 in Isle of Wight County, Virginia. He probably married first MARTHA (-?-) in Edgecombe County, North Carolina, about 1761 and second PRISCILLA (-?-) at an unknown date and location. He probably died in Franklin County, Georgia, after 4 April 1804.<sup>71</sup> Priscilla likely died after 1824 in the same county.<sup>72</sup> Jacob is first of record as a chain carrier when his uncle William Strickland's land on the Tar River was surveyed on 18 April 1761.<sup>73</sup> A Martha Strickland was the other chain carrier on this same survey. She may have been Jacob's wife. Jacob witnessed a land transaction in Edgecombe County on 21 January 1767.<sup>74</sup> Shortly thereafter, he moved to Guilford County, North Carolina, as he purchased 115 acres on the north and south sides of Buffalo Creek near the mouth of south Buffalo on 18 November 1777.<sup>75</sup> He apparently was the only Strickland who lived in Guilford County before 1800. He reported for jury duty there on 20 August 1787.<sup>76</sup> He purchased a one hundred acre tract on Buffalo Creek on 17 November 1788 that was subject to a dispute.<sup>77</sup> Jacob appears in the 1790 federal census in Guilford County.<sup>78</sup> He started selling his land in Guilford County on 18 May 1795,<sup>79</sup> and he shortly thereafter moved to Franklin County, Georgia. He purchased 287½ acres there on Blogs Creek, which he subsequently gave to his son Hardy on 2 November 1801.<sup>80</sup> Jacob wrote his will on 4 April 1804, and he died by 14 September 1804, when it was proved.<sup>81</sup>

iv. ISAAC STRICKLAND, born say 1743, probably in Isle of Wight County, Virginia. He likely died in Franklin County, North Carolina, after 1800. Isaac made only a few appearances in records. In addition to receiving a legacy from his father's will, he witnessed a land purchase by Jacob Strickland on Little River in Johnston County on 16 November 1790.<sup>91</sup> An Isaac Strickland appears in the 1800 federal census in Franklin County.<sup>92</sup> This Isaac is probably too young to be the son of Jacob because he was twenty-six to forty-five years old when that census was taken.

 I. Jacob Strickland b abt 1704 - History Notes

All sources I have seen except one say the wife of Jacob Strickland was Lucretia Pitts. One source, research I received from Doris Smith Strickland in 1994, says Jacob was married to Elizabeth Moore, daughter of Edward Moore. Her information says Edward Moore named his daughter Elizabeth Moore Strickland in his will dated May 25, 1783, and probated in Nash County court in October, 1783. The abstract of the will that I have seen gives her name as Elizabeth Moore, but makes no mention of Strickland.

Jacob Strickland acquired much land in Edgecombe County. He is mentioned several times in land grant records and county deed records.

ARTICLE: "Possible COOPER Siblings of Colonial Edgecombe County, NC" By Timothy W. Rackley. N.C. Genealogical Society Journal Vol 37 No 2 May 2011 - Pgs 131-142 - RPH 11 AUG 2011

This article tracks Matthew Strickland in VA and his descendants into NC plus the arrival of the COOPERS from England -> VA -> NC with eventual land ownership near MOMMEYER in Nash Co, NC. These people were inching their way to the MOCCASIN CREEK AREA - hence of interest to RPH & to SSA as Batchelor relatives of hers were related to COOPERS.

JOHN SANDFORD patented 1517 acres on 23 APR 1688 in Norfolk Co, VA and transported 31 people including MATTHEW COOPER who in 1730 with ARTHUR TAYOR in Isle of Wight Co, VA witnessed the will of MATTHEW STRICKLAND

NC then to Madison Co. GA after 1805, and possibly to Gwinnett Co. GA by 1835; no Madison Co. GA 1810 census exists, and tax records except for 1840 do not survive. Lived on Brushy Creek in Madison County, GA.

From Medlin Family - Entry 1 MAR 1994

Page 7 On July 20, 1763, Timothy Ryal Medlin sold to William Cade 100 acres on the north side of the Little River in Johnston County.

In 1763, William Owen Medlin (Sr.) was included on a list of insolvents in Granville County.

In 1764, William Owen Medlin (Sr.) (Madlen) (Meddelon), planter from Bute County, sold 100 acres of land to John Franklin on north side of Crooked Creek in Bute County adjoining William Maynard and Julius Alford, witnessed by William Maynard, James Bolton, and Julius Alford.

Bute County, which bordered Virginia, was formed from Granville County in 1764 and was named after John Stewart, Earl of Bute, who was the first Lord of Treasury under King George III. Bute County occupied the part of Granville County formerly known as St. John's Parish. The Medlin families slowly migrated from southeastern Bute (later Franklin) County down into the heartland of North Carolina.

On August 15, 1764, William Owen Medlin (Sr.) purchased 100 acres of land in Johnston County on the south side of Moccasin (Mockerson) Creek.

In 1766, William Owen Medlin (Sr.), Joseph Medlin, Timothy Ryal Medlin, and William (Owen) Medlin (Jr.) were listed as taxpayers in Bute County.

On April 25, 1767, John Medlin (Madlens) received a land grant from Governor William Tryon for 100 acres on Rich Land Creek, joining Joseph Dunn, Weirs line, and Henry Atkinson in the section of old Cumberland County that was later partitioned off in 1784 as Moore County.

Page 8 On February 15, 1768, Timothy Ryal (Royal) Medlin, planter from Bute County, sold 100 acres of land to Andrew (Drury) Cade in Johnston County on the north side of the Little River and a fork of Julises Branch, adjacent to land owned by Drewry Cade, witnessed by James Batten and Joshua Mize.

On June 3, 1768, in Bute County, 380 acres were sold to John Young at the sale of the estate of John Medlin (Modglin), deceased, held by Julius Nichols, late sheriff, as recorded in August 1768 court by deputy sheriff William Moore. Joseph Wright was listed among the buyers.

On February 6, 1769, William Owen (Oen) Medlin (Meddelen), planter in Johnston County, sold 100 acres on the south side of Moccasin Creek adjacent to Elisha Strickland in Johnston County to Demsey Sumner, witnessed by James Bolton, Julius Johnson and Drury Cade.

In February 1769 in Johnston County Court, William Owen (Oen) Medlin proved a deed from Sampson Bracwell and Christian Bracwell to Pettipool Massey. Needham Bryan was present and was appointed a justice for Johnston County by commission from the governor.

On March 10, 1769, William Owen Medlin (Sr.) bought 177 acres of land in Bute County on the south side of Crooked Creek from Julius Johnson, witnessed by James Alford, Robert Chamblee, and James Strickland.

On March 20, 1769, John Medlin sold to Joseph Dunn the 100 acres of land granted on Richland Creek in old Cumberland County (later Moore County).

The Wake County tax collector found him from 1792 to 1794.<sup>158</sup> Sampson later moved to Franklin County, where he appears on tax lists from 1804 to 1815.<sup>159</sup> He apparently moved to Nash County by the next year

Zebulon postmaster back home

By DENA BOYETTE HEIGHT
Record Staff Writer

"Completing a circle" is the interesting description Jan Strickland gives to landing his new job.

A little over 25 years ago, then-Zebulon Postmaster Ruby Dawson offered him his first job to work at the post office.

It was tempting, but at the same time, the job was only part time and Strickland — who was making plans for a wife and family — was looking for full-time pay.

Now, in an almost ironic turn of events, Strickland has returned to the Zebulon post office to take on postmaster duties.

"I feel like I am back home," he said. Born and raised in Wendell, Strickland is a graduate of the old Wendell High School, where he played basketball and baseball.

Since his return to Zebulon, he has seen many of his old friendly rivals from the former Wakelon High School. He has even seen some of his old swimming buddies that he used to hang out with at Lake Glad.

He is also returning to an area rich in kinfolk. His mother is the late Ruby Brannan Strickland, a native of Zebulon, and there are still family members in the area. Furthermore, he is glad to be back home so he can be near his father, Cecil, who is in declining health.

But even though he is thrilled about being Zebulon's new postmaster, he said he will miss the friends he left behind in Selma where he worked as the postmaster for the past six years.

In total, he has been with the postal service for 24 years. Before Selma, he worked at five of Raleigh's 10 postal stations, along with serving as the officer in charge (temporary postmaster) in Cary and Morrisville.

While at one of the Raleigh offices, he worked under Bill Whitaker, who recently retired as the Zebulon postmaster.

To become a postmaster, explained Strickland, you need experience, training "and you have to be mobile."

When he first decided to join the postal service, said Strickland, "my wife wasn't crazy about it" because he was taking a slight cut in pay, "but I felt like there would be opportunity and advancement with the post office." His wife, Linda, later joined the postal service team and she has been working at the Wendell office for the past 15 years.

Strickland has two major goals for the Zebulon office — to have the mail in the post office boxes by 9 a.m. and on the street no later than 4 p.m. There are 1,300 delivery drops within the city and 4,300 outside deliveries, he said, adding the Zebulon carriers deliver into five counties.

He views the Zebulon area as growing and he is expecting the post office to grow as well. "I'm looking forward to some changes and to be willing to improve anywhere we have service. I'm here to work for the public."

The return of a familiar face

Jan Strickland (right), who grew up in the area, recently started his job as Zebulon's new postmaster. He is shown discussing postal business with Larry Allen, who served as the officer in charge until Strickland arrived.

Cary gains postmaster without ever losing one

By JAY PRICE
Staff writer

Although Cary hasn't really lost a postmaster, it has gained a new one.

Jan Strickland, the station manager at Brentwood Station in Raleigh, has been appointed officer-in-charge while Cary Postmaster Ben Holland is on temporary special assignment in customer services at the main Raleigh station on New Bern Avenue.

Strickland, 40, is an 18-year veteran of the postal service.

He will return to his duties at Brentwood Station when Holland's assignment is concluded, though he said he did not know how long that will be.

As acting postmaster, Strickland's duties include management and coordination of mail processing and delivery for the Cary area's 26 city and nine rural routes. He is in charge of about 75 employees.

So far, Strickland said, he has enjoyed working in Cary. "The employees and customers I have met have been very understanding," he said.

He stressed that he thinks service and customer satisfaction are very important, and that he would keep those foremost in his work here.

Strickland has a wife, Linda, of 20 years, and they have three children: Kelly, 14; Terri, 17; and Kimberly 19.

The family lives just outside of Wendell.

Lancaster, Strickland wed

Kelly Ruth Strickland of Middlesex and Micheal David Lancaster of Wilson were united in marriage Dec. 12 at Rock Springs Free Will Baptist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Terry Ellis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Strickland of Middlesex. Parents of the bridegroom are Paul and Barbara Lancaster of Wilson.

Given in marriage by her brother, Tracy Strickland, the bride wore a floor-length gown with a chapel-length train of bridal satin with re-embroidered alencon lace. The fitted bodice featured a Sabrina neckline, Juliet long sleeves and a natural waist. Re-embroidered alencon lace outlined the Sabrina neckline and V-back. Alencon lace motifs encrusted with seed pearls lavishly applied the bodice and sleeves.

The satin sheath skirt was adorned with an alencon lace medallion encrusted with seed pearls. The train was embellished with beaded alencon lace medallions and accented with a satin bow. A deep border of scalloped alencon lace adorned the hemline of the train.

The bride chose for her headpiece a satin band covered with flowers and pearls with a chapel-length veil of illusion.

She carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

She was attended by Marsha Boykin as matron of honor and bridesmaids Ann Strickland and Kathy Kennedy.

The attendants each wore a red satin tea-length dress with puffed sleeves featuring an open back and a back bustle bow.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Ushers were Greg Kennedy and Brian Whitley.

Wedding music was presented by Sandy Ellis, vocalist, and Wendy Taylor, pianist.

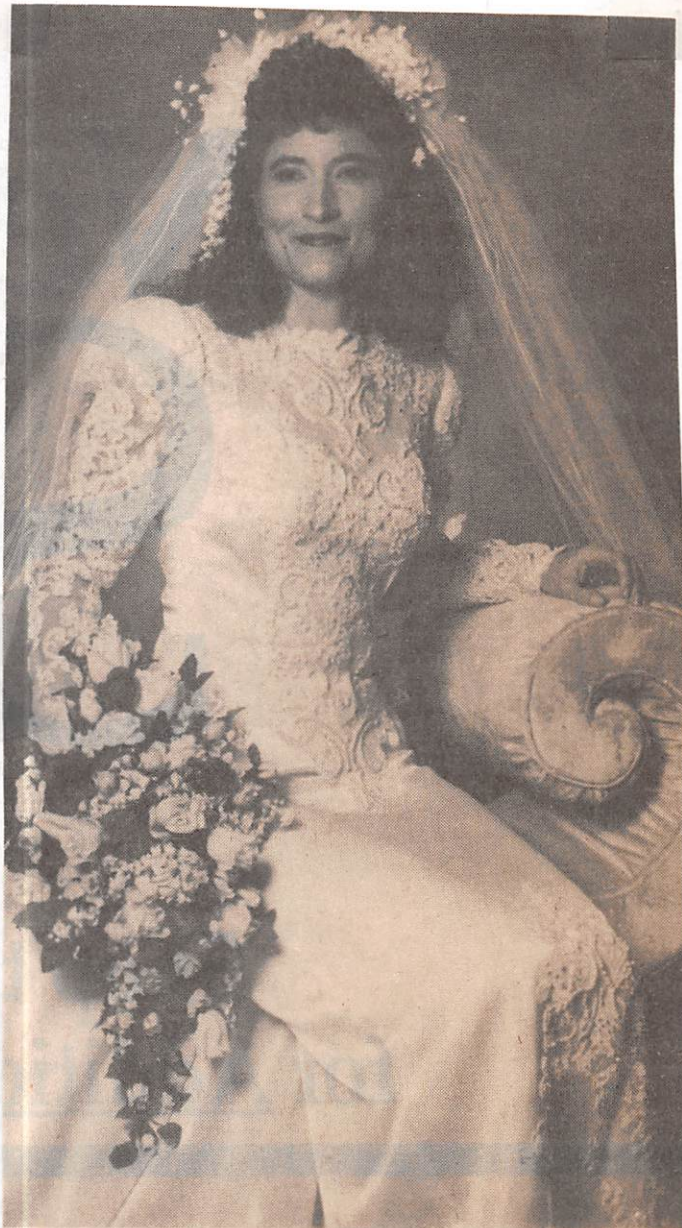

Mary Fuller directed the wedding. Evelyn Davis presided at the guest register. Emily Davis and Anna Edwards handed out programs.

The bride is a graduate of Southern Nash Senior High School. She is a patient-account representative at Wake Medical Center. Her husband is a graduate of Southern Nash Senior High School and is employed by Jackie Waddell Mobile Home Service.

After a wedding cruise to the Bahamas, the couple will make their home in Middlesex.

A reception, hosted by the bride's parents, was held in the church fellowship hall immediately after the wedding ceremony.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bridegroom-elect's parents.

BENJAMIN BUNN

Benjamin Bunn was born between 1755 and 1765, and died in 1819. He was a resident of Wake County as early as 1784, at which time he bought land from Richard Massey. He amassed a great deal of land in Wake County, most of it lying on Moccasin Creek and its branches—and some also on Little River. The tax lists of Wake County in 1809 showed him with 2,646½ acres of land in Wake County, and in 1814 he owned 3,115½ acres in Wake County. He also had some land in Franklin County.

Benjamin Bunn's will, written 15 March 1816, was probated in Wake County Court in 1820. The will names his wife Catrin, sons Cade Bunn, Bud Bunn, James Bunn, Bennett Bunn and Berry Bunn, and daughter Clary Ann Bunn.

The will very carefully names these six children three different times, which seems to indicate that there were more children than those named. One source states that Nancy Bunn (wife of Matthew Strickland) and Sally Bunn (wife of Jesse Strickland) were also daughters of Benjamin Bunn—and there are some indications that this is true. If so, these two daughters had probably already been provided for when they were married, and so were not named in the will. Also, I have found nothing to indicate whether wife Catrin was his only wife, or whether Benjamin was married more than once.

The exact location of the Benjamin Bunn homeplace is not known, but it was very likely in the area to the northeast of Zebulon, in the area where Bunn Lake is now located.

Sources: Deed and will records of Wake County, family memories and tax lists of Wake County.

Man seriously burned after early morning fire

A Zebulon man was burned severely over two-thirds of his body early Friday morning after a fire he had built to keep warm in an abandoned house north of town went out of control.

Jimmie Lee Strickland, 49, whose last known address was in Zebulon, was taken to the Jaycee Burn Center at North Carolina Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill.

Strickland still was listed in critical condition Monday morning. He had received third-degree burns to 80 percent of his body, according to a burn center spokesman.

The house is owned by Billy

Bolton and located on Riley Hill Road about one-half mile west of N.C. 96, according to Capt. S.M. Pickett of the Wake County Sheriff's Department. Pickett said the house had been unoccupied for several years.

Strickland apparently had entered the house at about 3:15 a.m. to escape the cold and built a fire to stay warm, Pickett said.

Zebulon area firefighters were called to extinguish the fire. They were on the scene again later that day when the fire rekindled about 3 p.m., according to a fire report.

Lending a hand is part of job for store owner Jimmy Strickland

By DENA HEIGHT
Special to the Record

In a world of cynicism and distrust, Jimmy Strickland still looks for the good in everyone. He still believes people should be given the benefit of the doubt, and he would "bend over backwards" to help a friend.

That's the way friends and family view Strickland, who can be found most days at his store/tire shop on Old U.S. 64 between Pilot and Zebulon.

The sign outside the store reads "Jimmy Strickland Grocery," but it's been quite some time since a loaf of bread or a tankful of gas could be purchased there. Strickland mainly operates a tire shop now, patching old treads and selling new ones.

What can be found usually is a bunch of folks passing the time away chatting and playing cards. "Sometimes people ask me, 'Jimmy, don't that group of men worry you?' and I tell them, 'No, I enjoy it,'" he said.

Most of those men will agree that Strickland is the kind of guy who deserves a little recognition.

"I've known Jimmy since high school. He's always been an outgoing person, someone who will go the extra mile for you," said buddy Tommy Massey, who owns Wakefield Nursery. Along with tending Massey's landscaping equipment — "and taking good care of it" at that — Strickland has also been a good friend, said Massey.

"He's one of the most honest people I know," Massey said, adding he's sometimes too trusting of others. If people aren't able to pay for Strickland's services, he has faith that he'll get paid lat-

Jesmon "Jab" Tippet, who also spends a little time hanging around Strickland's store, said Strickland is the kind of guy who is "always around if you need something done. He's always been very accommodating. A lot of people like him. He has a good reputation and a good name."

Joe Vinson, who has also known Strickland for many years, agrees that Strickland's reputation around Zebulon is as good as gold. "He's a very fine person."

But the days of finding Strickland around his store may soon be a thing of the past. The times, said his wife, have made small country stores almost obsolete.

A few years ago, legislation was passed that required underground gas storage tanks to meet certain criteria. If the tanks weren't up to muster, store owners had two options — bring them up to snuff or take them out of the ground and stop selling gas.

Strickland didn't have the money for the improvements and new tanks, so he stopped selling gas. And after running a store for over 20 years, Strickland said he felt like he was put out of business almost overnight.

"If I can find me a job, I may close up," he said. But he knows it will be hard working for someone after being his own boss for so many years. "I've had a good time."

And the men who like to pass the time away playing cards and checkers may have to find a new hangout. "It's something I will miss," said Strickland.

The way they feel about him, they might just follow him to his new job.

er, but sometimes that doesn't happen, Massey added.

"He's sometimes too good for his own good," said Strickland's wife, Sandra. "He's always willing to help people."

In addition to extending credit, Strickland also donates his time to care for a few plots at the Zebulon Cemetery.

Her husband's being named "Neighbor of the Month" is appropriate since he celebrated a 50th birthday last Friday, she said. "This will be a nice birthday present."

Marine Sgt. Leonel H. Saballos, whose wife, Sandra, is the daughter of Joe and Margaret Strickland of Zebulon, recently participated in a training exercise on a six-month deployment to Okinawa with 2nd Battalion 6th Marines, home based at Camp Lejeune.

During the exercise, Marines from Saballos' unit were tasked with securing an airfield and destroying a surface-to-air missile site without aerial or forward reconnaissance. The unit relied on its maps and land navigation skills, a press release said.

Saballos' unit is part of the Unit Deployment Program in which units go to Okinawa for six months to train. From Okinawa, they can deploy to mainland Japan, Korea and many other Pacific countries, the release said.

The 1990 graduate of East Wake High School joined the Marine Corps in January 1991.

① Zelulon Record THUR 16 FEB 1995 Zelulon, NC

Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Curtis R. Arrington, a 1980 graduate of Bunn High School, and Navy Petty Officer 1st Class John E. Strickland, son of Johnnie D. and Danielle L. Strickland of Middlesex, have returned from a five-month overseas deployment around South America with the guided missile frigate USS Samuel B. Roberts.

The journey took them completely around South America to participate in the 35th annual UNITAS deployment with nine South American navies.

They spent the majority of their time at sea training in communications, engineering, damage control, ship handling and navigation with the other South American units. Near the southern tip of South America, their unit sailed through the Straits of Magellan and headed north along the Pacific coast before passing through the Panama Canal and into the Caribbean Sea for the return home to Norfolk, Va.

During the deployment, Strickland visited nine countries including Venezuela, Brazil, Uruguay, Argentina, Chile, Peru, Ecuador, Panama and Colombia. Arrington visited all but Uruguay.

Their involvement in the UNITAS exercise demonstrates the ability of U.S. naval forces to serve as the cornerstone of international coalitions, the press release stated.

Strickland joined the Navy in December 1976. Arrington joined in August 1980.

After studying maps I agree with you as to Jeffrey land. William Jeffreys III is buried in rock between 401 and 98 in Franklin Co.

My mother took me to see this rock when I was a small child. She told me the man buried there was William Jeffreys and he was her great grandmother Jane Strickland Perry's first cousin. My mother was 18 when her great grand mother died.

○ In the MAY, AUG, NOV issues of the N.C. Genealogical Society Journal Forrest D. King authored 3 articles covering Mathew Strickland to about 1648 and the 3 succeeding generations. In the 3rd generation there were two ancestors of Eva Sallaine (Sledge) Upchurch - Jacob Strickland to AHT 1715 and Sampson Strickland to AHT 1727. (There have been separately extracted). Some of these Stricklands ended up in Dunn Township, Franklin Co, NC. Mostly these are covered in the AUG & NOV issues. However, the following entry on Pg 141 & 142 in the MAY issue is of special interest - RFD 11 NOV 2008

William Strickland to AHT 1707 was of the 3rd generation and a brother of Sallaine's ancestor Jacob & Sampson. William appears to have had a son Mathew Strickland to AHT 1752 who came to Franklin Co, NC. DETAILS FROM Pg 141 & 142

William Strickland and his unidentified wife may have had at least one child:

He married MARY PERRY, daughter of John Perry,<sup>143</sup> in Bute County, North Carolina, on 5 January 1774.<sup>144</sup> He died in Wake County, North Carolina, on 18 July 1828.<sup>145</sup> Mary died on 25 May 1817 at age sixty-five or sixty-six.<sup>146</sup> Mathew first appeared in records as a resident of Granville County, North Carolina, when he purchased land on Little River Creek in Johnston County on 1 February 1765.<sup>147</sup> Mathew's land apparently fell into Wake County when it was created from Johnston, Cumberland, and Orange in 1771. Mathew brought Hardy Griffin, an orphan, to the Wake County Court on September 1772 to have him bound to him as an apprentice.<sup>148</sup> The Wake County tax assessor charged Mathew for 1,911 acres and three slaves 1782.<sup>149</sup> The 1790 federal census schedule appears to account for all seven children Mathew named in his will.<sup>150</sup> Mathew regularly served on juries during the 1790s. In September 1795, he was delinquent for jury duty,<sup>151</sup> but he was later excused.<sup>152</sup> Mathew failed to show up again six months later, and that was the last time he appeared in jury lists.<sup>153</sup> In February 1810, Mathew and his son John P. were defendants in a suit by John Pace over the use of Buckner Upchurch as a worker. The plaintiff won the suit.<sup>154</sup> Mathew wrote his will in Wake County on 7 May 1826.<sup>155</sup> He died there on 18 July 1828.<sup>156</sup>

- "Descendants of Matthew Strickland (1648-1696) through Four Generations" N.C. Genealogical Society Journal Vol 34 No 2 Pages 111-140 MAY 2008
 From this article the final proposed descendant was Matthew Strickland b Abt 1752 d 18 JUL 1828. That portion of the article pertaining to him is reproduced below (pg 141, 142)
 He was a key progenitor of the Stricklands of Dunn's Fork, Franklin Co, NC who interacted with the Upchurches 1750-1850.
 Also, he is a likely progenitor of SSA (wife of RPA).

△ BUCKNER U. 1810

- 30 i. (possibly) MATHEW<sup>1</sup> STRICKLAND, born say 1752 in Edgecombe County, North Carolina. He married MARY PERRY, daughter of John Perry,<sup>143</sup> in Bute County, North Carolina, on 5 January 1774.<sup>144</sup> He died in Wake County, North Carolina, on 18 July 1828.<sup>145</sup> Mary died on 25 May 1817 at age sixty-five or sixty-six.<sup>146</sup> Mathew first appeared in records as a resident of Granville County, North Carolina, when he purchased land on Little River Creek in Johnston County on 1 February 1765.<sup>147</sup> Mathew's land apparently fell into Wake County when it was created from Johnston, Cumberland, and Orange in 1771. Mathew brought Hardy Griffin, an orphan, to the Wake County Court on September 1772 to have him bound to him as an apprentice.<sup>148</sup> The Wake County tax assessor charged Mathew for 1,911 acres and three slaves 1782.<sup>149</sup> The 1790 federal census schedule appears to account for all seven children Mathew named in his will.<sup>150</sup> Mathew regularly served on juries during the 1790s. In September 1795, he was delinquent for jury duty,<sup>151</sup> but he was later excused.<sup>152</sup> Mathew failed to show up again six months later, and that was the last time he appeared in jury lists.<sup>153</sup> In February 1810, Mathew and his son John P. were defendants in a suit by John Pace over the use of Buckner Upchurch as a worker. The plaintiff won the suit.<sup>154</sup> Mathew wrote his will in Wake County on 7 May 1826.<sup>155</sup> He died there on 18 July 1828.<sup>156</sup>

Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Curtis R. Arrington, a 1980 graduate of Bunn High School, and Navy Petty Officer 1st Class John E. Strickland, son of Johnnie D. and Danielle L. Strickland of Middlesex, have returned from a five-month overseas deployment around South America with the guided missile frigate USS Samuel B. Roberts.

The journey took them completely around South America to participate in the 35th annual UNITAS deployment with nine South American navies.

They spent the majority of their time at sea training in communications, engineering, damage control, ship handling and navigation with the other South American units. Near the southern tip of South America, their unit sailed through the Straits of Magellan and headed north along the Pacific coast before passing through the Panama Canal and into the Caribbean Sea for the return home to Norfolk, Va.

During the deployment, Strickland visited nine countries including Venezuela, Brazil, Uruguay, Argentina, Chile, Peru, Ecuador, Panama and Colombia. Arrington visited all but Uruguay.

Their involvement in the UNITAS exercise demonstrates the ability of U.S. naval forces to serve as the cornerstone of international coalitions, the press release stated.

Strickland joined the Navy in December 1976. Arrington joined in August 1980.

Local guitarist hits inauguration stage

By DENA BOYETTE HEIGHT
Record Staff Writer

Johnny Strickland of Zebulon has played his music for all types of crowds — from small gatherings at local functions to a much larger crowd at the Hard Rock Cafe at the Skydome in Toronto, Canada.

But yesterday's performance, well, that's one gig Strickland and his band will not soon forget. The band, Harmless Error, was invited to play at the Grass Roots Party as a part of President Bill Clinton's inaugural festivities in Washington, D.C.

To say the least, the band "is pretty excited. It's quite an honor," said Strickland this past Monday afternoon before leaving for his trip.

Strickland, who is a shop foreman at J&M Chevrolet in Zebulon, said the band has been together for four years and describes the type of music they play as Southern rock/rhythm and blues.

"We play Allman Brothers, Stevie Ray Vaughan, the Rolling Stones, groups like that," he said, explaining the band began as a "throw-together jam session for a weekend party" and they've been together ever since.

Counting him, the band consists of seven members. Surprisingly, all but Strickland and one other are lawyers. His brother, Don Strickland, and Doug Abrams, are attorneys with the Raleigh law firm of Blanchard, Twiggs, Abrams and Strickland.

Also practicing law during the day and rocking by night are Rick Hunter, Joe Edwards and Jay Trehy. Linda Reilich, who is a teacher, is the lead vocalist.

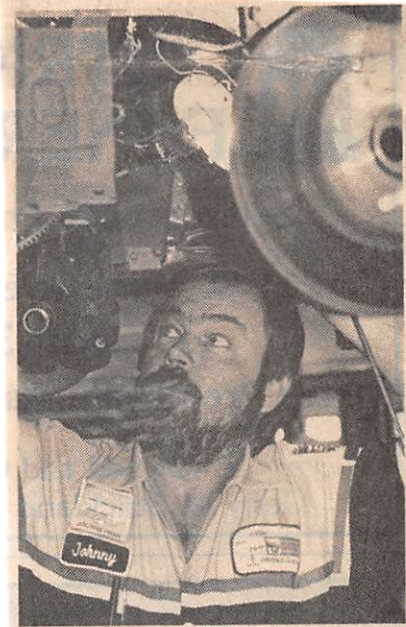

It was through Abrams' "connections" as an attorney that the band began playing at state and national lawyer conferences, said

Johnny Strickland. The band has played three straight years at the North Carolina Academy of Trial Lawyers Conference at Myrtle Beach, S.C. "Doug is also like our manager."

Johnny Strickland, who plays bass guitar for the band and assists with vocals, said "for the most part, the band members are Clinton supporters." In addition, the group is doubly excited about the inaugural performance because the performance, at $30 a head, was completely sold out.

So those hanging out last night at the Grass Roots Party at the Ramada Renaissance Hotel in Washington, D.C., got a chance to hear the sounds of Harmless Error and possibly see a special guest performer on stage.

Johnny Strickland said he wasn't sure if Clinton was going to join the band, "but they told us to have a saxophone there just in case."

iii. ELISHA STRICKLAND, born say 1741 in Isle of Wight County, Virginia. He married a woman who remains unidentified by 1765 in Johnston County, North Carolina. He died in Wake County, North Carolina, after 23 February 1795.<sup>82</sup> Elisha purchased seven hundred acres in Johnston County on both sides of Mocoson Creek at a branch of Little River on 22 July 1761.<sup>83</sup> A Joseph Strickland was a chain carrier when this patent was surveyed.<sup>84</sup> This Joseph was most likely Elisha's uncle. Elisha may have been the "Elijah Strickland" mentioned in the estate records of Robert Cade in Bute County on 3 June 1769.<sup>85</sup> Elisha lived in the part of Johnston County that became a part of Wake County in 1771. The county court appointed him a constable there on 3 September 1772.<sup>86</sup> He did not purchase any more land until the Revolutionary War period, when he bought quite a bit of land, including 640 acres on Turkey Creek in Nash County on the county line on 29 March 1780.<sup>87</sup> By 1785, he started disposing of his property in Wake County on Mocoson Creek by selling 117 acres to Jesse Bunn.<sup>88</sup> He served on a jury to locate a new road from near John Dunn's place to the Tarborough Road on 22 June 1787.<sup>89</sup> He wrote his will on 23 February 1795 in Wake County, and he died by September 1795, when it was proved.<sup>90</sup>

AUG ISSUE PG 306

JOSEPH STRICKLAND, born say 1732 in Bertie County, North Carolina. He died at an unknown date. Joseph is first of record when he and his brother Jacob were chain carriers when a tract of land in Northampton County was surveyed on 30 October 1753.<sup>84</sup> Joseph was a member of Nathaniel Bradford's militia company with his brothers Isaac and Jacob (see Table 2). He may have been the Joseph who purchased land in "Bladen or Anson" County on the west side of Drowning Creek on Bay Pond adjoining Jacob Strickland on 11 March 1775.<sup>85</sup> This Joseph disappears from the Bladen County tax lists shortly thereafter. There are at least two possibilities as to where he went. A Joseph Strickland patented 640 acres on Moccasin Creek in Wake County, North Carolina, on 9 June 1779.<sup>86</sup> A Joseph Strickland, Sr., appears in the reconstructed 1790 Georgia census.<sup>87</sup> The Joseph of the Bladen County area is hard to differentiate from other Josephs of the fifth generation.

AUG ISSUE PG 312

(possibly) FREDERICK STRICKLAND, born circa 1760 in Johnston County, North Carolina.<sup>133</sup> He married MARY (GIBSON?), probably in Johnston County.<sup>134</sup> He died in Lawrence County, Tennessee, on 1 November 1825.<sup>135</sup> Frederick enlisted in the Continental Line in the last year of the Revolutionary War. He served under Captain Winn Dickson in both North Carolina and South Carolina.<sup>136</sup> Frederick owed tax on two hundred acres in 1782 in Wake County, North Carolina.<sup>137</sup> He lived in Wake County when the 1790 federal census was taken.<sup>138</sup> Frederick granted a power of attorney to Godfrey Fowler on 26 May 1792 to collect his final settlement with the United States government for $90 for his service in the Revolutionary War from the Comptroller of North Carolina.<sup>139</sup> Frederick was involved with several suits with Charles Upchurch, and he had to pay the plaintiff, plus court costs, on 5 June 1793.<sup>140</sup> A court record dated 19 December 1797 showed that he still owned land in Wake County.<sup>141</sup> Sometime after that, Frederick relocated to Lawrence County, Tennessee. He filed certified affidavits there in August 1818 for the War Department for his Revolutionary War military pension application.<sup>142</sup> His discharge papers were lost or destroyed. He stated that he was in "indigent circumstances" and that he needed "the assistance and support of his Country." Frederick filed a follow-up petition on 5 January 1824.<sup>143</sup> He was paid $14.70 in 1824, and he died the following year.

ARTICLE: "Possible COOPER Siblings of Colonial Edgecombe County, NC" By Timothy W. Rackley. N. C. Genealogical Society Journal Vol 37 No 2 May 2011 - Pgs 131-142 - RPH 11 AUG 2011

This article tracks Matthew Strickland in VA and his descendants into NC plus the arrival of the COOPERS from England → VA → NC with eventual land ownership near MOMMEYER in Nash Co., NC. These people were inching their way to the MOCCASIN CREEK AREA - hence of interest to RPH & to SSA as Batchelor relatives of hers were related to COOPERS.
