THOMAS RANSOM UPCHURCH
FAMILY

841

The first name of this family I have on record is Osburn Howell Upchurch, b. 3-1852, d. 1905 at the age of 53 years. He married Eliza Caroline Bialock, b. 3-9-1852, d. 1927 at the age of 75 years. They had ten children. They lived at Ugly Creek in Stanly County, better known now as Cedar Grove.

Thomas Ransom Upchurch, one of the ten children (b. 9-5-1888, d. 10-13-1951) married Mattie Liske Nov. 27, 1912, daughter of William and Louise Maynor Liske of Stanly County, N.C. Mattie was born Sept. 23, 1889 and died Feb. 18, 1972.

Thomas R. Upchurch was a tall, well-built man, with red hair and sparkling blue eyes. He was a serious natured, loving person who enjoyed a good joke and clean fun. He had a special love of children and young people.

Mattie Liske Upchurch was a petite woman with sparkling brown eyes and black, curly hair. She had a keen sense of humor, perhaps inherited from her mother, who lived to be 106 years old and was full of fun and jokes all her days. She, too, was a tiny little lady (b. May 22, 1860, d. Mar. 12, 1967).

In the depression days Thomas R. Upchurch was a surveyor for the Northern and Southern railroad at a salary of 20¢ an hour. He was later promoted to depot agent and was transferred from station to station, serving in Midland, Norman and West End before coming to Mt. Gilead, N.C. He was sent to Raleigh and back to Troy, his last station.

The family moved in 1922 to Mt. Gilead, Montgomery County, where they established a permanent home and reared their seven children.

They joined the First Presbyterian Church of Mt. Gilead on March 24, 1923. T.R. Upchurch was ordained an elder of this church July 28, 1940. Mattie served as Circle leader and president of the Auxiliary.

MRS E. K. TEMPLETON
 RT 1 BOX 252
 PITNEY CREEK, NC 28663

Dear Cousin John,

I have been doggedly trying to clear up the 1983 correspondence on which I am delinquent.

In my active stack are messages from you dated 19 FEB 1983, 7 MAR 1983 and one undated one on 28 FEB 1983. On inspection it is clear that I extracted the details from all three items some time ago. These materials are appreciated. Please don't let my slow corresponding mode lead you to think otherwise.

Two are pending except for to do with the material at the end of your 19 FEB 83 letter concerning the land of Greenberg Upchurch in Edwards Township in Durham Co, NC. There are some questions about this. There are 3 items included with notes as follows:

- A. 25 SEP 1900 - deed. Edwards Township - 55 1/2 acres - signed by 13 people - to Greenberg
- U
- B. 21 DEC 1905 - 300 acres Edwards Township 55 1/2 acres to K. M. Chatham on other side of scrap paper

C. 1919: Greenberg U sold land.

Question: what is the relationship of the 55 1/2 acre mentioned in 'A' to the land sold in 1919 as mentioned in 'C'?

Question: Does the phrase 'the acre to R M Children on other side of scrap paper' belong to items "A" and/or "C" rather than to "B"?

Now let me list the 13 names associated with "A" and ask questions:

1. "G. W. U" - Is this really James Washington U?
2. "M. V. U" - Is this Morgan U and if so do we learn that her middle initial is "V"?
3. "C. L. U" - Assume Clarence Lafayette U
4. "L. D. U" - Assume Lou Dema (Church) U
5. "N. E. WYATT" - Assume Nancy U - Is her middle initial "E"?
6. "C. N. S. U" - Assume Charles Richard U, son of Greenberg U.
7. "A. EMELY U" - Assume Emily (Stamper) U - And we (Independence VA) learn her 1st initial is "A"?
8. "J. F. U" - Assume John Franklin U
9. "SARAH OSBORNE" - Assume Sarah Ann U
10. "ALEX OSBORNE" - Husband of 9.
11. "ROSA RICHARDSON" - Assume Rosemond U
12. "W. J. U" - Assume Wiley Richardson - we learn his middle initial is "J"?
13. "W. T. U" - Assume William Thomas U

Please let me know your comments on the above
 sincerely
 yours
 TARBERT PHILLIPS UPHURCH

- Dear Phillip,

- I will attempt to answer your letter of Dec 19th. 1982

- So sorry I've been so slow. Haven't been up to par since

- Christmas and found my self behind with all correspondence, which

- had been tucked into all those hiding places over

- The holidays and are just now coming to light.

- The letter from William B. Wychurch to John Wesley

Δ+Δ The letter from William B. Wychurch to John Wesley

Δ Wychurch that I sent copy of to you. The margin

Δ referred to was ~~the~~ son of John Wesley. It has been

Δ knowing of Morria's uncle margin, always. Perhaps you

- referred to

Δ written on the letter was from either she, or Nancy.

Δ 'Rauscy' called Rosa, Rosemond on census - but my mother

Δ always called her ^{ant} Rausie as did we children. She

Δ was a good scribe & taught her sister Nancy to

Δ write - also her husband - I think if the writing

- in letter looked like the scribbles around the

Δ letter - It meant most likely that Nancy was

- Practicing by using letters & words in letter as a

Δ Copy learning to write. Some of Aunt Rausie's writing

- was beautiful, but could have improved with time

NOTE: use of read your letter, I see your account for current 2000

WILEY RICHARDSON

- and the scribbling, could still have been done by her, as
- △ Sarah, which I'm sure, she also taught to write. ②
(Sarah who. M. Alexander Osborne was her sister - dau. of John Wesley M.)
- Paper was real scarce in those days, hard to come by
- as most everything else was, and even available scrap
- was used. They must have assumed their seeds by
- writing little poems, or what ever they would be called -
- little love type rhymes. From different all letters & paper.
- I've been through & I visualize a counting couple sitting ^{NOT necessarily upchurch's}
- with the elders and perhaps a room full of watching
- brothers & sisters and the lovers trying to express their
- adoration in verse - back & forth. the man I've thought
- couldn't write very well & found it quite difficult to be
- poetic under such stress.

- Some times I've suspected that children back then changed 1850-60s
- their own name or at least part of it to suit their selves
- for they would be some part of name different from one
- Census to another - or parents gave them great strings of
- names & they chose from the lot. I see now I'm guilty
- of some, at birth I was named Denna Elizabeth All
- after two marriages - it's quite a long name - when
- + □ my first husband & I were divorced I kept name Stevens ^{when I got M.}
- as I had a Stevens son. I so I stayed using the A.
- falling Elizabeth & used the B. followed by Imperator.
- at school I was called T.I. by everyone there

□ Some friends like Brown called me Betty - some called me
 - Lizzie (which I disliked). Not long ago I sent a family chart ^③
 - to a genealogical Soc. which listed the entire name. I was
 - sent in a Quaker to bulletin in usual name of Elizabeth
 - plus an A as I was seeking Allen info. but when
 - Quaker was printed they took the name Dena from
 - the Chart and now I get mail addressed to
 - Dena A. Traylor also. I always abbreviate Elizabeth
 - when I sign a check - Eliz B. So in a hundred years
 - what in the world will people think when they see the
 - various names...?
 - I don't know which is correct for great aunt
 Δ Sarah Ann or Sarah E. - I have Sarah Ann
 - on my record sheet - but I'm not sure from
 - where it came now. I'll try to remember to call
 Δ Aunt Sarah's grand daughter next week and see if
 - she can tell us which is correct.
 - I'm enclosing copies - and wondering if
 - its possible they are from great great uncle Greenberg
 - who had a son Charlie - & lived in Elkin.

Sincerely
 Elizabeth B. Traylor

- P. S. I thought I'd get a copy of that old deed
- deed - for land Greenberry Upchurch sold in 1919
- a cousin of my husband who was register for years in Wilkes Co. told me she would get it for me & made notes to know what she was looking for on a scrap of paper after more than six months - she sent me some little scrap of paper with following written around notes she had made -

Greenberry Upchurch - Edwards Township

- Dec. 21, 1903 - 300 Acres
- 5.5 1/2 acres to R. M. Chatham on east side

- I can't come by proper things.

RESEARCH IN WASHINGTON

Some Practical Tips for Researching in Washington, D.C. by Joyce Bradley McComb, Lexington, S. C.

I spent the month of May 1982 in Washington and found some things were different from what published materials led me to expect.

THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

There is no parking on Capitol Hill except by permit. Library was open from 8 a.m. until midnight. Best way to get there is by Metro (subway). Get off at Capitol South and walk one block up the hill. Library is on the right directly behind the Capitol Building.

You might be searched as you leave the building, but there is no search and no requirements to get into the building or the genealogy section. This section is now located at the back of the old Library of Congress building, instead of the new building. It is at the back left hand side of the second floor. The new quarters are larger and more efficient, staffed by friendly, helpful librarians. It is quiet, not crowded like the Archives.

Dear Cousin Elizabeth,

I am especially grateful for your letter of December 9, 1982 and for all of the details which have been extracted and entered in all the proper places. The newspaper clippings were great and I hope you will send more as you encounter them.

The letter from William B. U. to John Wesley U. is tremendous, without question it is proof that William B. U. and John Wesley U. were brothers. I assume that the Morgan (MORGAN) referred to in the letter is the son of John Wesley U. Is this your assumption. On the first page of the letter in the upper right hand corner is the word "RAUSEY". This seems to be in same handwriting as the letter. Do you suppose that RAUSEY is the place where the letter was written? Have you ever heard of a place called RAUSEY? Of course it could be that this word was written later and that it is another version of Kousie U. [ROSA MOND U.] who was Wesley Richardson's

Among the added handwriting on the letter above is the name SARAH E. UPCHURCH. Do you take this to be the name of a daughter of John Wesley Upchurch? I show he had a daughter Sarah Ann U but maybe it should be Sarah E. U.

Thanker for the $10.⁰⁰ check for the 1983 issue of U.B.. The first 1983 issue should be mailed the first week in MARCH 1983 as per the regular schedule.

I trust this finds you in good health and that you will have a happy holiday and a prosperous New Year.

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch
