November Session 1832Declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the ACT OF CONGRESS passed June 7, 1832

On the 22nd day of November, AD, 1832, personally appeared in open Court, before Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions Court of North Carolina, for the County of Wake now sitting, NATHAN UPCHURCH, a resident of the County of Wake and State of North Carolina, aged seventy two years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th, 1832.

"That he was born in the County of Bute (which was afterwards divided into the Counties of Wake, Franklin and Warren) is seventy-three years of age. At the time he entered the service he resided in the County of Wake and about the age of twenty years he was drafted for three months, to be served out of the State.- that his Company rendezvoused at the Court House in Wake and was then placed under the command of Lewis Fletcher marched into line and was under the command of Colonel Moore. He marched ^{Wake} from Courthouse through the adjoining County & c crossed the Cape Fear River, onto ferry the name called Sprowls, then through the intervening County to the Yadkin River crossed the same at a ferry the name not recollected & then joined the other forces who were placed under the command of Colonel Moore. We marched from thence also the Pee Dee crossed the same and after marching eight days about the country we united with the other forces under the command of General Gates about twenty miles from Camden. Then I saw several Continental regiments but do not recollect the names of the officers commanding them. From thence we marched within three or four miles of Camden, and then we met the British Forces. Our forces were ordered and marched in the night for the purpose of gaining a certain position for battle next morning. The men marched too far and had a slight skirmish with the English Dragoons and one of our light horsemen was killed. The British fell back and we ^{in line} until the next morning - when the action commenced in the left wing. The attack was made by the British. We were directed not to fire again. There was considerable fighting and shooting in the left wing. I was on the right wing and we were thrown into confusion and every man took care of himself. This tour of service lasted five months or thereabout. I was under order for two months and about twenty days before I crossed into North Carolina where I remained about three months. I cannot recollect the time or date when drafted or the date when I quit the service. I do not now recollect the names of any of the regular officers. I have no documentary evidence. I prove this tour of service by my brother Moses Upchurch.

If Richard U, II moved his family from Brunswick Co, VA to NC in 1757 to the area to be known as DUNN TWP he would have moved to Granville Co - until the TWP becoming ~~Bute in 1764 then~~ Wake in 1771 then Franklin in 1789. When Bute existed 1764-1779 the DUNN TWP was in Wake Co, NC. ANY UPWARD LISTINGS FOR BUTE WOULD BE INTERESTING

It appears the three were drafted/enlisted at age 20. Older brother Richard U, III + Benjamin U were married + excused. Three younger brothers James b 1768, John b 1772 + Abel, Sr b 1774 were too young to serve.

(42) UPCHURCH FAMILY OF ENGLAND, VIRGINIA & NORTH CAROLINA - BELLE LEWTER WEST pgs 78-80 = NATHAN U, I¹

Wake County, North Carolina

It is with regret, I am unable to collect and publish the history of NATHAN UPCHURCH (1760-1835), who was one of the sons of RICHARD UPCHURCH, and who fought in the Revolution, as mentioned by his brother MOSES UPCHURCH. NATHAN was given land in Wake County, N. C. by his father and then acquired additional acreages. Many of his descendants have remained in Wake and the surrounding counties.

According to his own statement in his Application for Pension for his service in the Revolution, NATHAN was born in Bute Co., N. C. in 1760. (Actually the county was Granville as Bute was not taken from Granville-until 1764).

RICHARD UPCHURCH first bought land in Wake Co., N. C. in 1778, and his son, NATHAN, had apparently moved with him as he was drafted from that county for service in the Revolution in 1780. This tour lasted nine months. He married Mackey Johnson during this same year. The exact date is not known.

Toward the end of the war NATHAN was again drafted at the Wake Court House under Captain Alsey High and placed under the command of Colonel Wooten. They were engaged in harassing the Tories. In NATHAN'S own words in his Pension Application: "We were marching toward Wilmington, N. C., undertaking to bring the Tories into an engagement and while preparing for same we heard that Cornwallis had been captured at Yorktown. We were ordered by our captain to fire a salute in appreciation for our victory. The Tories came out from a deserted town with a flag of truce and General Butler allowed them to leave without molestation. We marched 18 miles to receive money to take us home. We received nothing but a discharge." This tour lasted three months.

NATHAN purchased "150 acres of land on the waters of the Mocason Creek in Wake County, from Julius Johnson for £40." This deed was recorded during the March Term of Court in 1787. (WAKE CO., N.C., DEED BK H/84).

During the 1880s and 1890s NATHAN UPCHURCH was active in the affairs of the county, helping to lay off and repair roads, witnessing deeds etc. He appeared on the Tax List of Wake County in 1792 with two polls and 250 acres of land.

On the 17th of September, 1794, his father, RICHARD UPCHURCH, made a Deed of Gift: "For the consideration of divers good causes but more especially for the natural love and tender affection that I bear my son, NATHAN UPCHURCH, I do hereby devise, give, bequeath, convey and confirm to my son, NATHAN UPCHURCH, all my right, title and interest in the land and plantation whereon I live." (WAKE CO., N. C. DEED BK 10/234).

On the 1809 Tax List of Wake County NATHAN listed 400 acres of land. Census records of Wake for 1810 and 1820 have been lost. In 1830 NATHAN listed six persons in his household with two from sixty to eighty years of age.

On the 26th day of February, 1835, NATHAN made his will, naming four sons: BURTIS, GILBERT, HUBBARD and ACRIL living, and his son, NATHAN, deceased. He named three daughters: TABITHA, MACKEY COLE and AQUILLA MITCHELL. He also named grandson: GOLDEN ALMON UPCHURCH, son of his daughter, TABITHA, and granddaughter MARTHA JANE, daughter of TABITHA. He named grandson WINSTON and then named his deceased son NATHAN'S four children: MACKEY

Nathan Upchurch (1760-1835) was one of the sons of Richard Upchurch and fought in the Revolution. His brother's name was Moses Upchurch. Nathan was given land in Wake County, North Carolina. Many of his descendants have remained in Wake and the surrounding counties. Raleigh is in Wake County.

Nathan stated in his application for Pension for his service in the Revolution, that he was born in Bute County, NC. (county was really Granville; Bute was taken from Granville in 1764). His tour lasted nine months in the service. Nathan was again drafted at the command of Colonel Wotten again towards the end of the war. He was engaged in harassing the Tories. In his own words, "We were marching toward Wilmington, NC undertaking to bring the Tories into an engagement and while preparing for same we heard that Cornwallis had been captured at Yorktown. We were ordered by our captian to fire a salute in appreciation of our victory. The Tories came out from a deserted town with a flag of truce and General Butler allowed them to leave without harm. We marched 18 miles to receive money to take us home. We received nothing but a discharge. This tour lasted three month".

Nathan married Mackey Johnson in 1780, date not known. Nathan purchased 150 acres of land on the waters of the Macason Creek in Wake County, from Julius Johnson for 40 pounds. This deed was recorded during the March Term of Court in 1787, (Wake County North Carolina deed BK H/84).

During the 1880's and 1890's Nathan Upchurch was active in the affairs of the county, helping to lay off and repair roads, witnessing deeds, etc He appeared on the Tax List of Wake County in 1792 with two polls and 250 acres of land.

On September 17, 1794, Richard Upchurch gave Nathan "all my right, title and interest in the land and plantation whereon I live". (Wake County North Carolina Deed BK 10/234)

On the 1809 Tax List of Wake County, Nathan listed 400 acres of land (these census records have been lost 1810-1820, I think that it was the fire that destroyed these). In the 1830 census, Nathan listed six persons in his household with two from 60 to 80 years of age.

At the time that Nathan filed his will on February 26, 1835, he had the following children. It is thought that his wife, Mackey, was dead at the time since he did not mention her in the will.

Sons were: Burtis,, Gilbert, Hubbard and Acril. (His older son, Nathan had died)
Daughters were: Tabitha, Mackey Cole and Aquilla Mitchell.

Grandchildren were:

- Golden Almon Upchurch (son of Tabitha)
- Martha Jane (daughter of Tabitha)
- Winston (son of ?)
- Mackey Louise (daughter of deceased Nathan Jr)
- Williams (son of Nathan Jr)
- Alvin (son of Nathan Jr.)
- and Nathan (son of Nathan Jr.)

I have the following information on Burtis (Nathan's oldest son)

Burtis Upchurch (born 1781, died 1840) married Margaret Yates (born 1788 died 1859).
They had the following children:

Gilbert Burtis (my great-grandfather) born March 1820 died Nove 1, 1895). On September 23, 1842 he married Margaret Byrd, born November 4, 1820 and died October
5, 1896. ↓ His son

Williams Burtis Upchurch, born March 22, 1848, died February 9, 1926. His first marriage was to Sally Horton, a widow (no date known). His second marriage was to Narcissa Yates on May 11, 1902.

(43) See Sojourner of RPH 16-21 JUL 1983 - NC

on Sunday 17 JUL 1983 RPH and John Lee U Jr stood at the Green Level Baptist Church in Wake Co, NC and speculated on the location of the Nathan U I family cemetery. Looking south one sees a prospective site in a grove of trees that protrudes into the field. on the 18th Albert Murray Council, Sr said he owned the grove and that his gf and his Uncle told him that there was a family cemetery there and that it should not be plowed. Albert remembers graveyard markers from years past but none are now to be found. He says that the frame house just west of the crossroad on the north side of the road is over 100 years old and that it was built in sections. A few years ago Albert tore down an old butcher associated with the frame house. Albert says there was a brick pillar across the road from the frame house. It seems likely that the Nathan U I home site was where the frame house now stands. It is highly likely that the grove behind this frame house was the Nathan U I family cemetery plot.

(46) From Wake Treasures Vol 3 No 2 (SUMMER 1993)
 Pg 43 - In an article entitled "The Genesis of Wake County"; by Marshall DeJourney Haywood

In 1835 and again in 1841 the United States Government published lists of soldiers of the Revolution who were pensioned for services in that war. At the risk of being tedious, I give the Wake County lists in full. Persons desiring a statement of the war record of any veteran herein named can obtain the same free of charge by addressing a request therefore to the Commissioner of Pensions, at Washington City. Except when other wise designated, persons mentioned were privates in the service of North Carolina. Some of the names are spelled differently on the two lists, and these variations I have indicated below. The list published in 1835 was as follows: Berthett ALLEN, James ADAMS, Philip ADAMS, James AMES, John AMOS, Christopher BABB, James BROWN, Jesse BRYANT (Virginia), William BURTON (or William H. BURTON), Jacob BYRUM, Benjamin CARPENTER, James CHRISTIAN 2nd, William CLIFTON, George COLE, Robert DODD, Reuben EVANS, John GREEN, Jesse HARRIS (or HARRIS), James HUGHES (Virginia), Thomas JINKS (Corporal), Francis JONES, Vincent KING, Joshua LYNCH, David MABRY, Jesse MANUEL, John MARR, Shadrach MEDLIN, Naaman MILLS, James NANCE, senior (Virginia), Jesse OSBORN, Drury PITTIFORD (Virginia), William POLK (Major), Elisha POPE (Virginia), Frederick RIGSBY (or RIGSBEE), Thomas ROSS, John RHODES, Aaron ROBERTS, Robert SNEED (Virginia), Joseph SHAW (Pennsylvania), Isaac SMITH, Samuel STANDEFORD (Virginia), Samuel SCARBOROUGH, senior, (Virginia), Jonathan SMITH, senior (Captain), John SHERRON, John SWENNEY, William TATE, Nathan UPCHURCH, William WILDER, Burrell (or Burwell) WHITEHEAD, John WALKER, John WILLIAMS, and Jesse WALL. In addition to the above, the list of 1841 gives the following names, without indicating rank, or State in which they served: James HARWARD, Thomas HOLLAND, Richard PIPEN, William SLEDD, Rufus WILLIE, and William WOOD. Some of these veterans were dead before lists were published. Joel TERRELL, whose name also appears on the pension roll of 1835, appears to have rendered his military service in the United States Army after the Revolution - possibly in the War of 1812.

(49) Was blindness among the descendants of [†]Nathan U, I related to the cases of insanity in the family (see RPU extract 29 NOV 2011). - RPU 30 NOV 2011

By reference to the 29 NOV 2011 Extract sheet it could be seen that the insanity/blindness cases all involved descendants of [†]Nathan's son [†]Gilbert U.

Gilbert's son [†]Nathaniel Smith U had two sons and one granddaughter declared insane (Susie)

Susie was also a granddaughter of Gilbert's son William George U (Due to intermarriage in the family)

[In the Extract I explain how these cases of insanity could have been the "lock of the draw" and how modern medicine might have made unnecessary the pejorative term "insanity". However, in the case of [†]SUSIE one cannot overlook the two close marriages of fear of her ancestors (two couples). Susie and her full siblings did not show relevant health records]

The blindness involved the other sons of Gilbert - Bartley, [†]Lamberts, and [†]Mariah. The latter two were blind (completely or partially?) (from birth?). My unsubstantiated guess has always been that the blindness of these two could have traced to venereal disease introduced by Gilbert as he had some known weakness of character. These two children had different mothers.

Bartley had a great-granddaughter, [†]Frances Holt Tilly who developed complete blindness as an adult. Her years of explaining her condition led her to believe that her blindness was hereditary and thus connected to that of Lamberts & Mariah.

In conclusion I have developed no conviction that the insanity or blindness cases are genetic in nature or that they are related. Other units more expertise may show genetic causes.

Note: In Julius Alford's Will, he left "the plantation John Rose lives on" to Goodrich Alford his son. The Will was written 13 July 1768 and probated in November 1771²².

"Ordered that William Tant be Overseer of the road in the room of Francis Johnson & Ordered that he keep the same in repair with the Taxables usually working thereon"²³.

"Ordered that Jacob Hartsfield be Overseer of the road in the Room of Francis Johnson & it is further ordered that he keep the Same in repair with the hands usually working thereon"²⁴.

Notes: Jacob Hartfield along with Julius Alford had Crooked Creek grants. (See attached map.)

"Francis Johnston" is listed in the Bute County 1771 Tax List²⁵

1771 WAKE COUNTY was created in part from the Northwestern part of Johnston County SEPTEMBER 1772, Wake County

Julius Johnston's name appears on a "Jurors Road List" to lay off a new road from the Bute County line, crossing Moccasin Creek and continuing on and intersecting a new road at Mark's Creek.

Some (but not in any order) on the list are William Pace (2), Benjamin, Moses, Richard and Charles Upchurch, Edward Hocutt, Pettypool Massey, Edward Earp²⁶.

1777 Nash County created from lands in western Edgecombe County

1778 Wake County Land Warrant 640 20 Oct 1778

1782. Wake County, North Carolina, Court Records Book B1, p. 238, 20.

December 1782 Richard Upchurch conveyed deed to Julius Johnson³⁹.

In 1782 or 1783, Julius Johnston is listed in Captain William Earps District in Wake County⁴⁰. He is the only Johns(t)on in the district. He owned 740 acres of land, 2 horses, 9 head of cattle and no Blacks. It appears that his neighbors were some from the earlier days on Crooked Creek but are probably a later generation.

The list contains Lodwick Alford, Charles Upchurch and Julius Johnston next to one another. Two names away is Richard Upchurch Jr. and he is on the page with Benjamin Upchurch, Charles and William Pace⁴¹.

Nash County, 1786 JULIOUS JOHNSTON of Nash Co, NC, planter to NATHAN UPCHURCH, planter, Aug 21, 1786, for 40 pds specie a tract of 250 acres on the waters of Mocason Creek and on Julious's Branch adjoining JAMES BOLTON, it being part of a survey taken up by said JULIOUS JOHNSTON. Wit: RICHARD UPCHURCH, BENJAMIN

Note: A search of the Nash County Court Minutes, Deeds and Land Entries reveals no Julius Johnston records in Nash County. However, this deed shows that he was in Nash County at the time. One must remember that the "corners" area of Johnston / Wake, Edgecombe / Nash and Granville / Bute / Franklin was not a large area.

Wake County, 1787 "A deed from Julius Johnston to Nathan Upchurch was in open court duly proved by the oath of Richard Upchurch a Witness thereto and ordered to be registered"⁴³.

- An analysis of this issue was previously published in UB Vol 17 No 3 July 1996.
 - The 1894 ^{FRANKLIN CO, NC} will of John Butler identifies his daughter as Agathy (Butler) U. one Agatha U, wife of Nathan U, I is reported to have died in Wake Co, NC in 1833 at age 69 (hence b 1764) Tentatively it is assumed that the Agathy of 1794 and the Agatha of 1833 are the same. If this is so, Nathan U, I b 1759 is the only Upchurch by the name of Nathan available to have married an Agatha Butler by 1794 in Franklin Co, NC.
 - The Butler/Upchurch connection presumed by the m of Agatha Butler & Nathan U, I is reinforced by another Butler/Upchurch connection in that Elizabeth Thane Butler, another daughter of John Butler, is known to have m James U, VII, a nephew of Nathan U, I and a s/o Richard U, III.
 - The wife of Nathan U, I has also been reported to as Mrs Mockey U - possibly nee Mockey Johnson At present it does not seem that Nathan U, I had a union - Agatha & Mockey. The best explanation is that his wife was nee Agatha Mockey Butler or Mockey Agatha Butler. The prospect of Mockey being nee Johnson has always been speculative.
 - Need to resolve the issue as to whether the wife of Nathan U, I died in 1831 or 1833.

Entry 6117 reports that on 19 MAY 1833 Mrs. Agatha Upchurch, wife of Nathan Upchurch, died of cancer in Wake Co., NC in the 69th year of her age (hence she was born about 1764).

This report is a complete puzzle to us and we hope someone will come forward with some answers.

The only known Nathan U. to have been of the right age to have had a wife born in 1764 was Nathan U. I (XID 78) - Head of Upchurch Clan No. 3. He was born about 1759. He did not die until 1835 and at that time was living in Wake Co., NC and based on his WILL we presume his wife had predeceased him. So far all of this fits for Agatha to have been his wife. The problem is that we already have a wife for Nathan U. I (XID 78) and her name has been thought to be nee: Mackey Johnson (XID79). It is thought that Mackey died in 1831. It is therefore possible that Mackey died in 1831 and that in due course Nathan U. I md. Agatha and that shortly thereafter in 1833 she died. At this stage there is nothing but speculation and the outline of the possibility that this sequence could have taken place.

Nathan U. I (XID 78) did have a son Nathan U. II (XID 85) but by all indication this son was too young to have been married to Agatha. In any case, Nathan U. II (XID 85) and his wife (believed to be Martha _____) were having children from 1825 to 1830 at which time Agatha would have been 61-66 years of age and beyond her child bearing years.

There is one other Agathy, wife of an Upchurch male, that appears in our records. In a WILL written about 1794 in Franklin Co., NC, one John Butler names several children, including two daughters who married Upchurch males. One of these is Elizabeth Thaney (Butler) U. (XID 994), born about 1770, who is known to have married James U. VII (XID 67) - Head of the Richard U. III/James U. VII Subclan (XID 63/67). The other daughter was identified in the WILL as Agathy U. (more completely identified as Agathy (Butler) U. Given the date of the WILL (presumably indicating John Butler to be of advanced age) and the known approximate birth date of Elizabeth Thaney Butler (namely about 1770) we can readily speculate that the daughter Agathy mentioned in the WILL could possibly have been born in 1764 and thus could have been one and the same as the Agatha who died in 1833.

Given the known ages and geographical distribution of the Upchurch males in the 1750-1800 era, it is almost a certainty that the Agatha/Agathy female(s) mentioned above would have married to a son or a grandson of Richard U. II (XID 152) who settled in the Moccasin Creek area of Franklin Co., NC in 1755. Yet, a stepwise examination of the records seems to eliminate all of the sons and grandsons because of age or other known marriages.

The prospects which appear dimly to our imagination are as follows:

1. Nathan U. I did not marry a Mackey Johnson but instead married an Agatha(Agathy) Butler who was born about 1764 and died in 1833.
2. The 1833 newspaper article erred in reporting that the late Agathy U. had been married to Nathan U. I and she was actually married to an Upchurch male of a different name.
3. Nathan U. I was married to Mackey Johnson from about 1779 until about 1831 and then to Agatha (Butler ?) from about 1832 until her death in 1833.
4. There was another Nathan U who would have been old enough to have married an Agathy Butler by 1794 and to have outlived her passing in 1833.

Perhaps there are other convoluted prospects but the four given illustrate that help is very much needed to sort out this puzzle.

Although the evidence that Mackey Johnson was the wife of Nathan U. I is frail in nature, we would need some reasonable basis for casting her aside. The DAR records show that Nathan U. I was married to a Mackey _____ but no basis for this is given. The book "Some Colonial and Revolutionary Families of North Carolina", Volume II, compiled by Marilu Burch Smallwood and published in 1969 is more explicit. On page 356 for Nathan U. I it reports: "Revolutionary Soldier Nathan Upchurch born in VA in 1759...died 1835 in Wake County (NC), and married in 1780 Miss Mackey, who died in 1831." It appears that this information came originally from Mrs. J.C.L. Harris, Sr., nee: Florence Caroline U. (1850-1940)(XID 621), a great granddaughter of Nathan U. I. West in her book UPCHURCH FAMILY on page 79 reports "Apparently Mackey (Johnson) Upchurch, wife of Nathan had died before 1835 as she was not mentioned in his Will." West also states that Nathan served in the Revolution in 1780 and "He married Mackey Johnson during this same year." She does not state the source of this information. She does report that Nathan U. I purchased 150 acres of land on the waters of Moccasin Creek in Wake Co., NC from Julius Johnson (Wake Co., NC Deed Book H/84 recorded March Term of Court 1787). From this citation we have long hypothesized that Mackey Johnson was the daughter of Julius Johnson. The prospects that Nathan U. I married a Miss Mackey are enhanced by the fact that this couple named a daughter Mackey U. and a granddaughter was also named Mackey.

For the moment, this matter rests.

BEN U - AF-AM

LOOK HERE!

A FEW days since, a Negro Man called at the house of the subscriber, living four miles south-east of Raleigh, and enquired the way to Smithfield, stating that his name was BEN, that he belonged to Mr. Nathan Upchurch of Chatham, and that his master had hired him to some one in Smithfield. On questioning him closely, it was very evident that he had runaway, which supposition became confirmed by his subsequent conduct. Being asked for his pass, he said he had lost it a short distance back on the road which he came, but would go and find it. I offered to accompany him, but he said he would leave his bundle, and soon return. He deposited his bundle in my yard and started off in search of his pass and I accompanied him on horseback. As soon however as we reached the woods, he darted off and I have not since seen him.

His bundle contained a number of valuable articles of clothing, the chief of which are here noticed, with a hope that they may meet the eyes of the owner, for I am confident they were stolen. They will be delivered to any one having a right to demand them, on their paying for this advertisement. They consist of a blue cloth coat, half worn; two Umbrellas, one silk, the other cotton; a pair of cassinet pantaloons, fashionably made; two pair white cotton, do.; a cambric shirt and two cotton shirts; a nice twill'd white roundabout; a black silk and a white Marseilles vest; a fur hat half worn; a case of razors, &c. &c.

A. Property of Nathan Upchurch I and Neighbors - Green Level Community, Wake County, NC. XID

Researched and written by John Lee Upchurch, Jr., a ggggs of Nathan U. I, Revolutionary War Soldier. 721

The stories of Nathan U. I raising his family in the Green Level area of Wake County proved accurate since the existing Green Level Church is almost centered on the tract described by Nathan in his WILL as "the tract of land where on I now live", Tract 1a of the attached map. (See WILL in UPCHURCH BULLETIN, Vol. 1, Number 1, dated JAN 1980, page 31). 78

When determining the location of the lands where Nathan U. lived during the period from about 1800 until his death in 1835 the WILL was the base instrument, with the deeds of the adjoining properties supporting the WILL description.

The tract of land referenced on the map as 1 is the land claimed by or deeded to Nathan U. with the referenced letter suffix indicating a subdivision by WILL or by deed referenced in the Deed Index or the descriptive text.

No acquisition deeds for Nathan U. were found prior to year 1819. This was probably because in 1832 a fire destroyed 18 irreplaceable Deed Books in a Wake County Courthouse fire. The books destroyed were not consecutive so some of the old deeds are available.

The William Ward property (5) referred to in the WILL and which was located east of Nathan U. has one division which can be traced directly from the 1800 period to the present day owner. (Present day Tax Map 541 Tract 4). The Ward property did not change hands during Nathan's life time so no reference to Nathan U. property was made on the east side.

The John Scott property (4) located north of Nathan U. land was acquired on MAY 5, 1794 and did not mention Nathan U. land. This Scott tract is not plotted on the map because the original purchase does not coincide with later divisions. On NOV 18, 1805 John Scott divided his property and gave it to his two sons with the dividing line being - "the new road that leads from Henry Berly's to where Upchurch now lives". Subsequent deeds made reference to Nathan U.'s line and the WILL referred to Byrd's line and John Scott's line all being the original property of John Scott.

On the west side of the Nathan U. property the line was described in the WILL, "Beginning at the Flat branch on John Scott's line and running south with the meandering of said branch to Fuller's line" was located by a work note on Wake County Tax Map 512 which indicated a short segment of this line as "Flat Branch Line". On OCT 1806 Moses Upchurch purchased land (2) and made reference in his deed to "a red oak in Nathan U.'s line thence south with said land to Jones Corner" (3). This was along the flat branch but was not mentioned by this name in the Moses U. deed. On JAN 20, 1798 John Scott bought a tract of land (not plotted on the map) south of and adjoining the Jones tract (3) and located north of a road and, "Beginning at a pine north of the road". This corner, while the property description partially conflicts with the Moses U. property of 1806, appears to be the beginning point for the portion of Nathan's WILL where he gave Tabitha U.

property, "beginning at the Flat branch in John Scott's line and running south.....". (1c & 1d). This description "Beginning at a Flat branch in John Scott's line", used twice in Nathan U. WILL, are two separate locations along the same branch.

Willie J. Fuller owned the land (8a) adjacent to and south of the Nathan U. property. No acquisition deed was found for the Fuller property which was probably owned by the Fuller family from before the time Nathan U. moved into the community until he died. The location of the property line between Upchurch and Fuller was in dispute and was revealed in deed transactions after Nathan U.'s death when the "Upchurch stubbornness" was not prevailing.

Deeds were found in Nathan U.'s name for the purchase and sale of several tracts of land southeast of the Green Level Church. These tracts were adjoining and the plotting could not be accomplished by the individual deeds because of the poor descriptions and the Fuller line dispute but as a group the plotting was done in accordance with Nathan U.'s claims.

Other tracts purchased or owned by Nathan U.'s children are plotted where the locations have been determined. Burtis U. bought tract 2c, Hubbard U. bought tracts 9a, 9b and 9c as shown on the inset which is located approximately 3 miles directly east of Green Level Church and Gilbert U. sold tract 7a, 3 years before he died. Burtis U. bought another tract which has not been located but believed to be south of Clark's Branch. Edmund Cole, husband of Mackey U., sold a tract of 168 acres on 1-20-1824 which has not been located.

No holdings for Nathan U. I have been found away from the home place. No sales have been found made to anyone other than family members.

B. Commentary on John Lee Upchurch, Jr. Article on Property of Nathan U. I.

Nathan U. I (1759-1835) is the direct ancestor of several thousand members of the extended Upchurch family and is the gggf of your Editor. I have always dared to hope that we could find the exact location of his plantation in western Wake Co., NC. AND NOW, this magnificent feat has been achieved by the dedicated research of our cousin John Lee U. Jr. The location of the property has several significant implications.

So far as is known, Nathan U. I is the only fifth generation Upchurch for which exact property boundries are known. One hopes that more research will be done and that the land owned by other Upchurch ancestors of the 4th, 5th and 6th generations will be located. The fact that we know the neighbors of Nathan U. I means that we can learn more of him through them. Several of the neighbors were inlaws and in some cases descendants.

The fact that Nathan U. I's property embraces two key crossroads, a post office area, a church site, a present day cemetery and a masonic lodge site holds considerable promise for learning more about our ancestors. Most stimulating of all is the possibility that the actual homesite of Nathan and even one or more family burial plots may be found on the original plantation. Perhaps present day owners can be persuaded to allow us to probe for foundations and evidence of burial sites. John Lee U. Jr. speculates that Nathan's home site would have been a hundred yards or so south of the present Green Level Baptist Church. He reasons that Nathan would not have built where the church is now as this would have been exposed to the wind; whereas, a site just south would have been below the brow of the hill, and near the junction of the old road and the new road.

We close this commentary with an expression of deep appreciation to cousin John Lee Upchurch, Jr. of Raleigh, NC who has through his many hours of research bequeathed to generations yet unborn an additional increment of rich heritage.
