Dear Milina,

It has been some time since we have been in contact about Upchurch family history. Recently I have been working with your brother Tom to update and improve the Master outline for the family of Lee Royal U. Tom suggested you might be willing to help. Enclosed is the Master outline for the Lee Royal U Family as it now stands. We have made a huge amount of progress thanks to input of a lot of people. Also provided is a list of what is still missing. I will be grateful for any answers you have or can get. Also enclosed are details on the Upchurch publication

Please let me know if you have any questions on your Yulmuck heritage.

Sincerely yours
Phil Gutschmidt

WILMA LOUISA UPCHURCH

1909 - 2003

*Served as an elementary teacher for 49 years, including
30 years in Millard*

Miss Upchurch came to the Millard School District in 1948. She was one of seven teachers. The district was so small that she taught many grades together in the same classroom.

Wilma was the daughter of Asa Everett and Connie Bess Upchurch. She was born in the lead-mining community of Desloge, Missouri on May 17, 1909. The family moved to Omaha in 1919.

Before coming to Millard, she taught for 19 years in the now defunct East Omaha District. She earned bachelor's and master's degrees from Omaha University and served as president of the local chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, a professional honorary society of women educators. She retired in 1977.

Miss Upchurch was often asked if she had any children. She always replied: "About 2,000!" Her 'children' now range in age from 35 to 65.

In a nomination letter, Rick Russell wrote that he had Miss Upchurch for his first four years of grade school. He remembers her for having respect for all students. "She helped those who needed it and challenged those to whom school work came easily." He also recalls that she taught square-dancing in the winter at recess time.

Wilma Upchurch becomes the first teacher to be memorialized on a school in the Millard School District. The Board of Education chose to honor Wilma Upchurch both as an individual and as a representative of all Millard teachers who give their very best for our students every day!

UPCHURCH

ELEMENTARY

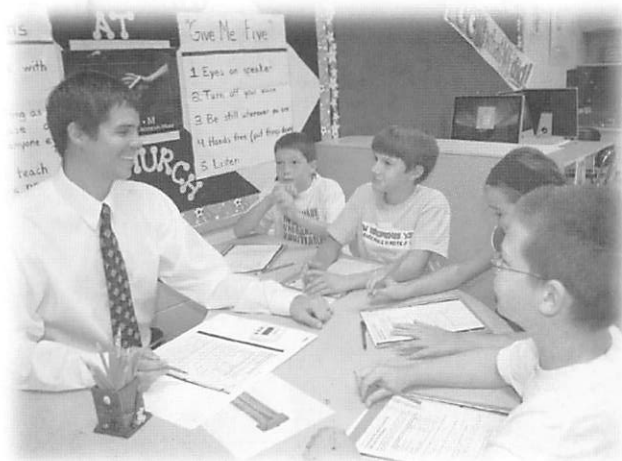

DESIGN OF THE SCHOOL

The single-story design provides grade level areas (K-1, 2-3 and 4-5). These areas are arranged in a stair-step pattern to maximize natural light and are linked with multi-purpose spaces for a relaxed learning environment. The multi-purpose rooms provide flexibility, allowing the school to grow without adding portable classrooms.

The center of the building houses the media center and computer lab. The adjoining commons and gymnasium areas, separated by a partition, provide large spaces for a variety of activities. Areas also are designated for art, special education and music.

The heating and cooling system incorporates a ground source heat pump system. This system uses the earth's natural thermal energy as a resource for low energy costs and high levels of comfort.

ABOUT THE SCHOOL

Upchurch Elementary offers a comprehensive educational program for kindergarten through fifth grade. The school will be known as the Upchurch Leapers. Frogs decorate each classroom. Poliwog Parkway, Rabbit Road, Leaper Lane, Tadpole Trails and Lily Pad Lane are designated as 'street' signs. School colors are purple and green.

"Upchurch Elementary will be known for the great educational opportunities we provide each day. Within each day, we hope to add a leaping moment of wonder to make the learning journey fun for all students and staff." - Principal Susan Anglemyer

Wilma Louisa U visited Hawaii in about 1975 and at Mokuaiakana Church at Kailua-Kona, HI found a gravestone for David Lytle U and beside it one for Emmaline Lytle U. Upon inquiry she received a letter dated 20 OCT 1975 from the minister of the church Henry K. Boshard who suggested she write Ms. Elaine Upchurch or Mr James K. U. Information in this two page document fits into the Upchurch family as follows: (New information = ☐):

I. William U (RPA originally designated him "Hawaiian U")

A. James Kahu U - minister of Mokuaiakana Church

1. William Manono U mtd Emmaline Lytle b 4 JUN 1890

d 22 FEB 1959. She mtd 1st Charles E. King, now deceased, the most famous Hawaiian composer. She lives Mokuaiakana

a. David Lytle U adopted son of Emmaline Lytle U. He died at about age 5 and is bur. AS MDT.

2. James K. U

! Rev Boshard suggested that Wilma visit to this James K. U at 1352 Ala Mahanoe 96819 (She did not visit but noted she found a William U in the phone book for Volcano, HI) (This William = William Manono U - RPA) Rev Boshard also suggested she write to Mr Elaine Upchurch c/o B. P. Bishop Estate 519 Halekauwila, Honolulu, HI 96813 - which she did but got no answer. (I don't know how this Elaine U fits in - possibly a widow of an Upchurch male - RPA)

This summary placed in Profile of each person mentioned and in the HI file.

Dear Wilma Upchurch:

Aloha. David Liftee Upchurch was an adopted son of Emmaline Liftee Upchurch. Emmaline was first married to the most famous Hawaiian composer, Charles E. King, now deceased. Then she married William Upchurch, son of the late Rev. James Upchurch, who pastored several churches in Kona, among them being the historic Mokuaiakaua Church. As to those who are the ancestors of the minister, I could not tell you. However, you may write to either one of the following, or both for that information:

Ms. Elaine Upchurch
c/o B. P. Bishop Estate

Honolulu, Hi. 96813

Mr. James K. Upchurch
1352 Ala Mahamoe 96819

Your asked about our church. It is Congregational, and has been since its founding in April of 1820. It is the oldest Christian church in the State of Hawaii. The first pastor, the Rev. Asa Thurston and his wife, Lucy came with the First Pioneer Company of missionaries from Boston, Massachusetts. They landed in Kona on April 4, 1820. The Rev. Upchurch served Mokuaiakaua and other Kona churches during the 1930s and 40s.

I hope the above has been helpful.

In His Glad Service,

Henry K. Boshard

when I was in Hawaii I found a grave stone at an old church yard with the name David Leftee Upchurch. Next to it was a stone of Emmaline Leftee Upchurch. I don't remember the dates on them but David was nearly 5 I believe. I'm sending a picture of one of the stones and a letter from the minister, who was answering my letter about them.

I wrote to Elaine but got no answer. While I was there I looked in the telephone book and found William Upchurch living in a town called Valcano, Hawaii. Emmaline was descended from some of the Royalty on the island. That was why she was burried in the church yard.

Notes on Life of Wilma L. Upchurch 33208

Wilma Louisa Upchurch was born 17 May 1909 in Desloge, Missouri. When ten years old, her family moved to Omaha, Nebraska. In 1948, she moved to the town of Millard, Nebraska.

At Four and a half years, the school authorities informed her mother that she could not yet start to school, but impressed by her apparent ability, gave her a book to study at home. A better than average student, she graduated from grade school at 13 years, from high school at 17 and two years of college at 19 years. She continued her formal education in evening classes and summer sessions so that she eventually earned her Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees in education.

At the beginning of the depression, when work of all kinds began to be coming scarce, she was successful in obtaining a teaching position in the school district outside of Omaha known as East Omaha. After 19 years in this position, she was accepted for a position in the Millard School District, where she taught for 30 additional years. Unable to remove herself from the teaching experience, she volunteered the next three years to tutor war brides of veterans of the Korean and Vietnam wars in the mastering of the English language.

Wilma joined the Baptist Church in Desloge at the age of eight. For the remainder of her life she was a conscientious member and worker devoting much of her available time to the activities of her church, including numerous years as teacher in Sunday Schools and Vacation Bible Schools, and actively volunteering her services to the many other organizations sponsored by her denomination. For forty years she was librarian for the Church choir. She directed that one of her prize possessions, her grandfather's clock, be given to the church for use in the Pastor's study.

Wilma was a charter member and became president of the Omega chapter, Rho State of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International, an honorary educators' organization. She was known as having attended more of its national conventions than any other member of the chapter.

She was an avid stamp collector and coin collector, well in demand for the programs in which she exhibited and disclosed the intricacies of these commonplace objects. Until well past middle age, she, with a friend, visited most of the nation's outdoor attractions, utilizing camping as the mode of lodging. One of her summer excursions was joining a covered wagon trek across the plains of western Kansas, even receiving mail by pony express en route.

At the age of ninety, not fully with her wholehearted consent, she was moved from her not too immaculately kept home in Millard to an Assisted Living facility and finally to a nursing home. At both places she became one of the staffs' favorite residents.

Before 1945, aid to Public Schools was not an item in the Federal Budget. In that year, Wilma was one of the three selected by the National Education Association to represent the teaching profession at the hearings of the Senate Committee on Education and Labor that was holding hearings on the possibility of providing Federal Aid to education. As part of her testimony, she captured the attention of the Committee and the National Press when she related how Joey, one of her students, explained how easy it was to make the apples that he brought to her so shiny--by "just 'pit on them and then rub 'em on my tummy." Since that testimony, the Federal Government has created the Department of Education and annual Federal Aid to the Nation's schools has risen to 62 billion dollars.

Wilma's reputation as a teacher was silently recognized when the school district became large enough that there would be more than one class for the same grade and when a child of a School Board member would be ready to enter the grade that Wilma was teaching. The School Board member repeatedly arranged that his child would be assigned to Wilma's room.

Formal recognition of Wilma's contribution to the community was made in 1985 when she was inducted into the Millard Hall of Fame.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
Of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
For thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
In the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Wilma Upchurch, 94, taught for 49 years

■ Services are this morning for the retired Millard educator who was known for her enthusiasm.

By BETSIE FREEMAN

WORLD-HERALD STAFF WRITER

Wilma Louisa Upchurch put her heart into everything she did.

She became a teacher at age 19 and persevered for 49 years, earning bachelor's and master's degrees from Omaha University along the way.

She became president of the local chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, an education honorary, and attended more of the group's national conventions than any other chapter member.

She became a Baptist when she was 8 and devoted her time to it for the next 86 years. She was librarian for the Calvary Baptist Church choir for 40 years.

"If she had an interest in anything, it was a deep interest. Even the basketball team at her school — she would cheer right along with the kids. She was very enthusiastic," said her brother, Truex Upchurch of Flossmoor, Ill.

Wilma Upchurch, 94, died Wednesday at the Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha.

A funeral service will be this morning at 11 at Westlawn-Hillcrest Funeral Home, 5701 Center St.

She was born in Desloge, Mo., and moved to Omaha when she was 10 years old. She taught elementary school in the now-defunct East Omaha district for 19 years. She joined the Millard district in 1948, when it had only one school. She retired in 1977.

"Her children adored her," Truex Upchurch said.

She also enjoyed travel and collecting coins and stamps.

Dear Cousin Wilma,

A number of weeks ago the flyer for the 1989 Upchurch Reunion in Dover, OK came to my attention and I now note that you were the official contact for 1987. I feel you know about my keen interests in the entire extended Upchurch family. Details are enclosed. I believe you sent me some details on your family but this is the first time we have corresponded.

In the January issue of the Upchurch Bulletin each year (actually written in FEB & mailed first week in March) I try to summarize all the Upchurch Reunions in the country. So far I am tracking about a dozen and would like to add the one at Bates to the list. Are you the proper contact for the 1990 event? Has the date and place been set?

Is there a list of those who attended the 1989 Reunion? If so I would very much like to have a copy if that is possible. Is there a mailing list for the Reunion?

(13-2)

Your part of the Upchurch Family is descended from Joseph U b 5 DEC 1775 (VA or NC). Your GF Joseph Ambrose U is a GGS of Joseph U b 1775. (I can send you a few more details if you like). We are still looking for the father of Joseph U b 1775 and think we are pretty close to an answer. In the meantime I have been developing a master outline for all the descendants of Joseph U b 1775. It has grown quite large. Many people are helping to perfect the outline. I am particularly proud of the sections dealing with Joseph Ambrose U, your GF. Would you like a copy of that section?

Here is what is missing in your family.

- 1) Was Jeffery Caleb Bankhead born in Kissimmee, FL or Orlando, FL?
- 2) When and where did Steven Scott Davis marry, what is the full maiden name of his wife and when and where was she born?

I would be most grateful for these details and also for any information you might supply on the Upchurch Korman.

Please let me know if you have any questions on your Upchurch Heritage.

Sincerely yours
Phillip Upchurch
(ROBERT PHILLIP UPCHURCH)
