HUGHES - The Hughes family came into Wayne County, KY in the early 1800s from Tennessee and settled in the Slickford area near Edwards Mountain. About 1880 they moved to the Murl Community, where they still live today. Many of them are buried in the Old Charity Baptist Church Cemetery.

First generation: Hardy Hughes (1794-1862) was born in North Carolina. He married Martha Morgan (1795-1856), a member of the Morgan family who also settled in the Slickford area. Before they came to Wayne County, they were living in Tennessee. Family legend has it that Hardy Hughes may be buried in an unmarked grave, in a cemetery near Edwards Mountain, in a place called "Owl Town."

William B. "Yank" Hughes (1860-1923) and wife, Luisa Privett Hughes (1864-1935).

Second generation: Morgan Hughes (1818-1891) was born in Tennessee on the Cumberland Mountain. He settled in the Slickford area of Wayne County, KY, owning land where "Carpenter's Fork joins Otter Creek." He first married Sarah Edwards (1815-1854), whose family also settled at Slickford at Edwards Mountain. They had the following children: John "Jack" Hughes, Cyrena Hughes, Micajah Hughes (died in the Civil War as a Union soldier in Co F, 32nd KY Infantry), Hester Ann Hughes, Abigail "Abby" Hughes, Elizabeth Jane Hughes, Zarilda "Reldy" Hughes and Jabez Hughes. After the death of his first wife, Morgan married Lucinda Upchurch (1831-1898), daughter of John Upchurch and Sarah Bertram, whose family also settled at Slickford. They had the following children: Dudley Hughes, Virgil Frances Hughes, William "Yank" Hughes, Lorenzo Dow "Ransy" Hughes, Levi Hughes, Charity Hughes, Narcissa "Cissy" Hughes and Hinchie Hughes. In the late 1880s Morgan and Lucinda moved to the Murl Community, where the farm they owned is still in the family today. They are buried in the Old Charity Baptist Cemetery.

Will Hughes (1898-1973) and wife, Lady Phipps Hughes (1892-1975).

Third generation: William "Yank" Hughes (1860-1923) was the son of Morgan and Lucinda Hughes. He was born in the Slickford Community and later moved to the Murl Community. He married Luisa Privett (1864-1935), who was the daughter of Miles Privett and Lucindra Upchurch. The Privett family also lived at Slickford. (Miles Privett died in the Civil War as a Union soldier in Co. D, 30th KY Mounted Infantry.) Yank and Luisa had the following children: Hattie Hughes, Margaret Hughes, Mrytle Hughes, Pearly Hughes, Lucy Hughes, John Hughes and William Hughes. Yank and Luisa are buried at the Old Charity Baptist Church Cemetery.

Fourth generation: William "Will" Hughes (1898-1973) was the son of William "Yank" and Luisa Hughes. He was born in the Slickford Community and later moved to the Murl Community. Will married Lady Phipps (1892-1975), the daughter of James "Abner" Phipps and Roxie Twyford. (Roxie's father was William Fredrick Twyford, who was a Confederate soldier in the Civil War, serving in Co. H, 6th KY Infantry, CSA, under General John Hunt Morgan.) Will and Lady had the following children: Esther Hughes (died in infancy), Haskell Hughes, Ervin Hughes and Glen Riley Hughes. Will and Lady are buried at the Old Charity Baptist Church Cemetery.

Fifth generation: Haskell Hughes (1926-1999) was the son of Will and Lady Hughes. He served in the US Army during WW II. He married and owned a farm in the Murl Community. Haskell is buried in the Old Charity Baptist Church Cemetery.

Fifth generation: Ervin Hughes (1929-2005) was the son of Will and Lady Hughes. He served in the US Army during the Korean War. He married and owned a farm in the Murl Community. Ervin is buried in the Davis Chapel Cemetery in Clinton County, KY.

Fifth generation: Glen Riley Hughes (1934-1981) was the son of Will and Lady Hughes. He married and owned a farm in the Murl Community. Glen is buried in the Old Charity Baptist Church Cemetery. Submitted by Danny Hughes.

REC'D
16 MAR 2015

Hello Phil,

The Land Records & a copy of this letter have been placed in the Brief of John U XID-41320 (1798-1844)
Had a line in the John U, III/
Samuel U subsection. The photo record has been made a part of an Albro/
Family Photo Restoration Project

Here are land records you may not have for my 3rd-great grandfather, John Upchurch (1798-1844). These are for 2 different, adjacent land purchases in Raleigh, Saline Co., IL. Note that the "Illinois Public Land Purchase Records" are dated about a year before the "U S General Land Office Records." I suppose that means they were officially recorded that much later with the President's name on the official final documents.

R 74
2015

May 7, 1833 and August 7, 1834 are regarding the same land: Section E2SW of Section 34, Twn 7S, Range 6E, 80 acres.

Feb 21, 1837 and July 28, 1838 are the same land: Section SWSW of Section 34, Twn 7S, Range 6E, 40 acres.

These were next to his father Samuel's property you wrote of in UB vol. 18, no. 2.

John is said to have gone to IL about 1825, but these are the only land records I located. John's family appears on the 1830 census next to Samuel's. I suppose he might have been living in Samuel's home and is listed on a separate line.

Also enclosed is a copy of a sheet you sent me on John's wife Catherine Johnson.
The Xerox came out unrecognizable. I don't suppose you have her picture that actually shows her that can be copied well??

I hope you and Sallaine are doing well.

I haven't found any proof of JOHN JR. and SOLOMON being sons of JOHN. However, I can go along with JOHN JR. being a son of JOHN, mostly due to the similarity of names that show up in his family - especially the name of OVERTON as one of JOHN JR's sons and then also for a son of JAMES JACKSON. However, I can't find out anything yet about SOLOMON's family. The name of SOLOMON appears to fit in well with the Biblical names of JOHN's other sons.

What are your thoughts on this —

Evidence shows John U Church (born 1798) married Catherine Johnson in Aug 1821

Evidence also shows their first-born child Caswell Bluford was born one year before this,

In those days, the woman would have been disgraced if she didn't marry immediately upon finding herself with child.
I see no reference that he could - have been adopted. The surname "Bluford" was rare in Ill., although more common in England,

The exact date of Caty's death is not known. Catherine was alive in Aug. of 1894, as her signature appears in Saline Co. IL Probate Court records receiving her 'widow's dower' from son David Macklin Upchurch's property which he inherited at the death of his father, John Upchurch. JOHN SON OF SAMUEL U.
John was in Gallatin Co. IL with his parents for the 1820 census. He must have returned to Wilson Co. TN to marry "the girl he left behind" U. in 1821 according to the marriage records of Wilson Co. Some of their children were born in TN. John returned to IL with his family by the early part of 1826 as they became members of the Bethel Creek Church by experience in Feb. 1826. They were active members of the church during their lifetimes. Bur at the church cemetery. The couple had ten known children. COPIED FROM P 162 (29) FOR " In the whole of Cumberland Co, NC in 1850 (Harnett Co was a part of Cumberland until 1855) there are only three Uphurches: Benjamin 20, John 15, and Nathan 18, and none is living with his family. Benjamin is listed as a house with five young males, none of whom is an Uphurch; John is living with a McDuffie family, and Nathan is living with a woman named Barclay, age 70. I'm wondering if these three boys are brothers living with guardians. "

MAJOR CHANGE The U B mailed 22 NOV 2010 Vol 31 No1 contains an entry on Pg 33 that Moses Benjamin U b 29 OCT 1830 from being a son of Calvin U & being a son of his brother Stephen U. The same move has been made for the other two males shown on the 1850 census of Cumberland Co, NC (John U XID-14893 and Nathan E. U XID-14894) on 28 NOV 2010 I updated my Master Outline to reflect these corrections. In the process I realized that a Calvin U age 20 on the 1850 census as a Waggoner has sometimes been listed as a s/o Jubal U, I. This, too, seems to be in error but just where this Calvin U belongs is not clear.

When he was old Gilliam U attempted to sell land to his son John Millet U that had come from Caleb Anderson, Sr. the father of his first wife Sarah Anderson. The sale was contested leading to an 1897 Court Case. An early case in 1885 had involved land also passed from Caleb. A. J. ATKINS who sold his claim to the estate of THOMAS U.

After Caleb died a share was sold to W. C. Anderson after being hired out to JOSUAH HALL. WILLIAM U fought with WESLEY BAGLIN & THOMAS U served as security using a loan from ELIZABETH WHEELER.

NOTE: There were 5 lots in the settlement of the estate of Caleb Anderson, Sr. Dan Sarah & Rhoda each drew lots of 50 acm each. It appears their husbands may have traded lots at some point.

Testimony was taken on 6 SEP 1897 by W. H. NAYLE.

Present were J. I. ANDERSON

& THOMAS BRADFORD U

The 7 SEP 1885 Court Case involved testimony of P. MCCARVER stating that he owns the Caleb Anderson Trust where Gilliam U now lives & that he has a deed from the heirs CARTER & ROSS G/S of Caleb.

P. McCarver says he has known

Thomas U since he was a boy & reports Thomas has been in ill health for several years. Before Caleb died Thomas U went to Western TN to be with his brother JOHN U but returned for Caleb's estate settlement.

After Caleb died a share was sold to W. C. Anderson after being hired out to JOSUAH HALL.

WILLIAM U fought with WESLEY BAGLIN & THOMAS U served as security using a loan from ELIZABETH WHEELER.

Kenneth Upchurch SON 1928 2 VA

EMAILS FROM STEPHANIE: 18 & 19 NOV 2009; 4 JUN 2010

I have hit a dead end with my Upchurch family. My mother is Patricia Ann Upchurch and her father is Kenneth Gail Upchurch. His father is Oscar Upchurch. Oscars father is John Frank Upchurch and he was married to Anne Heck. Near as I can tell, John Frank was born in North Carolina, probably Ashe or Avery Co. He lived in Ashe Co. at one point and also in Grayson Co., Va.

The following are the children I have for John F.:

Oscar W. born Virginia or NC Nov. 1884, died Oct. 1933 in Washington Co., Va.
Emma born 11 July 1886 Virginia or NC, died 17 Jan 1958 in Grayson Co., Va. Her married name was Riddle. [ARTHUR] + HOMER FRANKLIN U 1892-1896
E. Letcher born Sept. 1888 Virginia or NC, died July 1961. [ASHE CO., NC OR GRAYSON CO., VA].
I'm pretty sure John F. lived in Grayson Co., Va.; Ashe Co., NC; Washington Co., Va.; and Sullivan Co., TN. John F. died in Sullivan Co., TN in 1937.

Fourth Generation in America

Since much research on the Upchurch Family of Virginia and North Carolina has been completed, I am starting with George and Rachel Upchurch. This is a listing of their descendents. George and Rachel moved from Virginia to North Carolina and then on to Wayne County, Kentucky. All of their children moved to Wayne County, Kentucky and several moved from Wayne County, Kentucky to Fentress County, Tennessee.

3. George Upchurch was born about 1757 in Brunswick County, Virginia and died 1830-31 in Wayne County, Kentucky. His wife was Rachel Bethshares who was born about 1759 Brunswick County, Virginia. Rachel was the daughter of Thomas and Ruth Bethshares. George and Rachel were listed in the tax list of Brunswick County, Virginia in 1782 & 1788. They were living near his father Michael and Uncle James Upchurch in 1782 and 1788.

George and Rachel moved to Salisbury district, Iredell County, North Carolina before 1790. They were listed in the 1790 census of Iredell County, North Carolina with 4 sons under 16 and 1 daughter. They were also listed in the census records of 1800 and 1810 living in Iredell County, North Carolina. George sold his land in North Carolina to his sons, Moses, Thomas and Shadrack and moved to Wayne County, Kentucky.

George received his land grant of 100 acres on Little South Fork, Kentucky on 10-12-1814. He was listed in the census records of 1820 Wayne County, Kentucky. Listed in his household were 2 males 18-25, 1 male 26-44, 1 male 45+, 1 female 45+, there were 4 individual engaged in agriculture. ## HISTORICAL TIDBIT

The French and Indian War — The Seven Years War

Three countries laid claim to the lands of the New World: England, Spain, and France. Both England and France claimed the land west of the Appalachian Mountains — land inhabited by Native Americans.

More immigrants arrived in America, and as colonies grew, the need for more land led to colonists moving westward onto lands claimed by both England and France. The colonists were eager to convert this fertile land into farms, but France and England each denied the other access so the struggle for ownership soon began. Native Americans occupying the lands became involved with some choosing to side with the English; others allied with the French.

England and France each sent their militias. In the early 1750s French soldiers captured several English trading posts. France built forts to defend the territory from English threats. In 1754 George Washington and a small force of Virginia militiamen marched to the Ohio Country to drive the French from the region. When their Fort Necessity was overwhelmed by the French on July 3, 1754, the actual conflict began, though England didn't officially declare war until 1756. Thus began the French and Indian War.

France scored many victories with the assistance of the Native American allies. These natives, concerned that the British were pushing further west and would eventually drive them away from their lands, were formidable fighters. In 1757 the tide began to turn though in favor of the English. Over the next few years, British soldiers, with colonial assistance, captured Fort Duquesne, Fort Niagara, Quebec, and Montreal. England now controlled France's American possessions.

The French and Indian War continued in Europe, Africa, and Asia for three more years, until in 1763, the Treaty of Paris was signed, formally ending the war. France had lost all of its colonies in North America to the English. England now owned lands westward to the Mississippi River, except for Florida.

By the end of the war, a large debt had been created. British Parliament decided it should be repaid by raising taxes on the colonies, since after all they were the ones who benefitted from the war. So taxes were imposed on several items, including legal documents and tea. By 1765, protests of the taxes and stamps had begun to mount — an unrest that culminated in the Revolutionary War.

Upchurches in the French and Indian War

During the French and Indian War, colonists were recruited for militias. Colonists were urged, and at times directed, to provide the troops with food, shelter, and aid. An act was passed whereby these supporters could receive payment for actual service and defence and protection of the frontier of this colony. Three Upchurches were listed September 1758, as receiving payment of 5£ each.

Most likely the John Upchurch listed would have been James' son, instead of John, I, who was about 80 years of age, and who died that same year. The information is being given as the Upchurches listed are definitely our relatives and it's interesting to know of their involvement in the French and Indian War.

Dear Phil:

I deeply appreciate your informative letter of last February on the Upchurch family history. You have told me more than I ever thought of knowing and you have prompted my interest in learning still more. Consequently, I have ordered the two books you listed and will do some digging on my own.

You obviously have done a great deal of work constructing the pedigree of the family, but your letter raises more questions in my mind than it answers. One question concerns a John Upchurch who apparently was granted title to some land in Virginia about 1650 for his services in the militia. This suggests that he may have been in the colony several years prior to that date and that Michael U. was not the only--or even the first--Upchurch to emigrate to the New World.

Another question that interests me is, how did it happen that an apparently large family of Negroes carry the Upchurch name? Of course, it was common for exslaves to assume the family name of former masters after emancipation so I wonder who among the Upchurchs were slave owners before the Civil War.

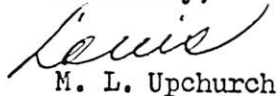

This raises a topic that interests me more than merely who sired whom. How did these ancestors of ours live and work? What prompted them to leave England? To move from Virginia to North Carolina? From N.C. to Arkansas and Texas? I hear that there was a Lanny Upchurch on the staff of Gen. Sam Houston during the Texas war of independence from Mexico (circa 1836). Who was he and where did he come from? △ + △

Perhaps I'll have even more questions after I read the two books I've ordered. Thanks for your letter and let me know how I may help you in the future.

Cordially,

M. L. Upchurch

Incidentally, relevant to your project was an experience I had about twenty years ago. I was in the public library in Alexandria, Virginia browsing while my daughter was doing some home-work when a title caught my eye. As I remember it was "Virginia Land Titles, 1620-1700" or approximately that. Being an ag economist, I scanned the book which reproduced deeds in early colonial times. One showed a grant of land to a Capt. John Upchurch for his services in the colonial militia.-- There's always been John's in the family so I suppose this could have been an ancestor.

→ RPA Update 29 APR 2004 - Details of this note still apply except that I now believe that John U s/o Jubal U, I was born about 1814
 - not 1805. Still a John U cited in 1835 could easily be for a John b 1814. As before B, C, D fit a John U possible s/o Richard U, II which John U would have been born before 1790. Thus here we have the hints of 3 U's named JOHN U - as follows

JOHN U b before 1790 - possible s/o Richard U, II
JOHN U b 1805 (or 1803) s/o ??
 JOHN U b 1814 - s/o Jubal U, I.

○ See 1850 Census Franklin Co, NC. There is a John U age 45 (that born 1805) in Prison.

○ RE JOHN U SENTENCED TO BE HUNG 1849 - RPL
 Notes 29 APR 2004 - There are 3 Upchurches by the

A. John U - born before 1790 - Presumed son of Richard U, II

B John U - born 1805 - s/o ??

C. John U b 1814 s/o Jubal U, I

Recalling days at the old Stop School

Editor's Note—Following is a recollection of the old Stop School, as written by Wayne County resident Oscar Franklin.

If I remember right, my mother told me that she went to a log school house that set out closer to the road than the other two buildings did. Lula Poe also made mention of a log school house.

The last building was built in 1950, and the one before it, I have a picture of a group of students and a teacher dated in 1912. This is the building that my wife Gladys and I went to. I started in 1934 and went until 1936 in the seventh and eighth grades.

I lived down on Otter Creek at that time at the old home place, and as we stepped out of the door we began climbing this hill above us first thing and it was about three blocks long. It was a good two country miles from home to school.

We always looked forward to Christmas time. The teachers would treat us. Stick candy was the main treat in those days and maybe the students would get an orange or a banana. I remember some coming to get the treat who hadn't been there for school most of the year.

The Stop School playground was the favorite gathering place, especially on the weekends. At school, we played that was called "townball." I don't know how they came up with a name like that. When you hit the ball they would get the ball and try to throw it in front of you before you got on base. If they did you were out. They called it "cross out."

There was an old church building set near the road under two large oak trees and between the building and the oak trees is where we

How Stop Got Its Name (12-17-1910)

This was told to us by Lula Upchurch Poe. Her father, John Upchurch, had a General Store and was waiting on some government men to come and name a new Post Office which he was to have.

Uncle John saw the men coming up the road on horses, evidently traveling fast, and ran out the door waving his arms and shouting, "Stop! Stop!"

He was afraid they would pass on down the road. The government men said that is as good a name as any. So that was what the new Stop Post Office was called.

pitched horse shoes.

We had some large stone marbles we played with, one of the oak trees had a hollow root above ground where we put the marbles after we were done playing.

We played basketball also. I remember our basketball was rubber inflated with air and it would bounce higher than a regular basketball. So, when another school came to play us we would use their ball for the first half and ours the last half.

The school house had two rooms with a sliding door between the two rooms. Everette Sloan was my teacher and Eva Ramsey taught the lower grades in 1934 and Bonnie Denney taught the lower grades in

Our desks were double, two students sat together. I had three different buddies while I was there and one of them was a cousin of mine, Woodrow Bell and he chewed tobacco. We sat in the row next to the window so he sat by the window and when he caught the teacher's head turned, he would spit out the window.

One hot summer day after we had eaten lunch, we came in the room and the teacher sat down and propped his feet up on his desk and he went to sleep.

Believe it or not we were all quiet so we wouldn't wake him up. We had our grades five, six, seven, and eight in our room.

Sometimes those who were unruly, they would have them stand on tiptoes facing the blackboard and the teacher would make a small ring on the blackboard with chalk the height their nose came to and they stood tiptoe with their nose in this ring.

They also had the right to whip the children when they did something wrong.

I remember in particular this boy sassed the teacher and the teacher got his pointing stick and whipped him with it and broke it in pieces. And also when a child got a whipping at school, most of them they got another one when they got home.

Stop School Group 1912

We said Bible verses about every morning. This helped us memorize these verses.

Several of the boys were from farm families and they had to help in the crops, so they had to miss school to do this.

We always looked forward to Christmas time. The teachers would treat us. Stick candy was the main treat in those days, and maybe the students would get an orange or a banana. I remember some coming to get the treat who hadn't been there for school most of the year.

The boys about all of them wore overalls and a straw hat, but most of us went barefoot during the summer. I remember my mother telling about living down on Otter Creek and the creek was frozen over and her two brothers, Bob and Silas, were skating on the ice barefoot.

I guess their feet were tough from going barefoot all summer.

One of my buddies I sat with, Junior Guffey, had a pony he rode to school and as we all went down the road going home he would have his pony stand on his two hind feet like the Lone Ranger's horse did.

We always dreaded when they came to give us our shots. Those big old needles hurt and also our arms would swell and get sore.

A cousin of mine, Kathryn Southerland who lived down on Otter Creek below Cabel, told me that she came to the Stop School for four years.

Children from two or three families rode in a covered wagon for about six or seven miles one way each day to school.

I don't know exactly when Stop School started, but we know it was in operation in 1910. I have information to this effect. And then it closed its doors in 1958. Elsie Matthews was the last teacher to teach at Stop.

There were a lot of people who went to school at Stop through the years, many of them I knew when they were grown.

Many of us have fond memories of going to school at Stop.

I am reseaching the (black) Upchurchs of McDonough, Henry County, Georgia. Isaac and Aggy Upchurch, and their three children; Crecy, Perry, and John were listed in the Georgia's 1870 census with a surname of Greer. They lived next door to James and Sarah E. Upchurch. However, in the Georgia 1880 census the entire family was listed with the surname of Upchurch. In addition Aggy worked as a cook for Walter Colquitt Upchurch in the 1880 Georgia census and was counted as a household member. Also Crecy married in 1872 to a Benjamin Wyatt; at that time her maiden name was Upchurch. Therefore the name change took place between 1870 and 1872. Any information concerning this family will be greatly appreciated. Thanks.

CROSSFILE: UFA-VA; QUAKER; BIOFILE SYSTEM

① See Ltr 19 AUG 1984 Roy White, Jr to RPU

"I have found reference to a John U who was accepted into the Quakers in 1758 for Tar River, and then in May 1761 John Upchurch's death was reported at the Rich Square monthly meeting. Which John U do you think this is? Tar River and the general area where the Rich Square monthly meeting occurred are both located just across the state line from Brunswick Co. I could find no records for Tar River, but did locate the minutes for Rich Square - but they contained no reference to an Upchurch."

② RPU Ltr 25 AUG 1984 to Roy White Jr states in part:

"All things considered I tend to believe that the John U accepted by the Quakers in 1758 in the Tar River area, the John U who was reported dead in Rich Square in 1761 and the John U reported in the militia in 1758 were one and the same and in fact also the same as John U I (XFD-150). What do you think?"

[Note: This presumes that XFD-150 did not die in 1758 as shown on my Colonial U chart-RPU]

③ See Ltr 13 SEP 1984 Roy NMN White Jr to RPU.

John U, I (XFD-150) d 1758 was not likely the same as the John U on in 1758 VA militia list as the former had issue baptized abt 1701 hence would have been abt 80 years old in 1758 and hence not a likely candidate for service

John U who became a Quaker and died in 1761 simply can't be the John U who was being proceeded against for a debt in 1765. One of them is probably the same (as the one) who lived in South Hampton Co VA before moving to Brunswick Co, VA - but which one - and who is the other? Is New Kent Co, VA the same as either of them? Note that if New Kent Co John U is the same as the debtor of 1765 he would have been 85-90 years of age.

④ see notes of RPA visit 30 DEC 2001 to the Library at Guilford College, Greensboro, NC. They are a Quaker Institution and are supposed to have good Quaker records. However, I found nothing relevant to the John U who d 1761 (NC)

The Associated Press

DURHAM — Attentive drivers riding along Duke Street on a recent Sunday morning may have noticed pirate ships or a dolphin floating by.

But these seemingly water-bound objects took flight, a few of the many kites that hung high in the sky above Durham County Stadium on this spring morning.

Long considered a pastime for children, flying kites has become a serious sport for adults — and not just in the spring.

Hundreds of kite-flying festivals are held in the United States each year; and hundred of shops nationwide supply the needs of kite fliers or "kilters," many of whom belong to kite-flying associations in metropolitan areas.

There's something about watching a kite climb into the clouds, born on a stiff breeze. It makes some folks feel less earthbound. Showered with sunshine, fresh air filling the lungs, kite flying is a year-round pursuit for Don Dixon, store manager of Kites Unlimited at Northgate Mall in Durham and a member of the Carolina Kite Club.

"Most people think about it come March and April because it's a season change and the weather warms up," he said. "A lot of people think you only fly kites at the beach. That's OK. It's a great way to fly a kite, but you don't have to wait to go the beach ... I don't know how that mentality started."

Novices and experts alike often put on a colorful and spectacular skyward display at Durham County Stadium. On this particular Sunday, a couple flew a multi-colored delta kite of purple, yellow, red, orange and light blue hues.

Jonathan and Heather Hughes took turns guiding their newly purchased aircraft nearly 400 feet high in the sky.

"It's something we can do outside on a nice day," she said. "Today is a beautiful day."

The Hugheses kept their kite airborne for about 90 minutes before calling it quits. They moved around the large parking lot as the kite swayed from left to right.

"It's sort of out of your control," she said. "You have to be relaxed about it."

While Dixon also flies kites winter, summer and fall, he admits he looks forward to the spring months the most.

"If the weather is 72 degrees and the wind is blowing 10 mph, it's better than if it is 40 degrees and the wind is 30 mph," he said.

For the past year, Dixon has traveled out of the stadium in northern Durham along with several employees on Sundays to fly kites and help other kilters when problems arise. Anywhere from six to 40 people show up for the weekly sessions, Dixon said.

"It's not a come-and-watch-me-fly-my-kite kind of thing," said Dixon, who began flying kites as a youngster on an Ohio dairy farm.

"You can do that, but it's more of a come-and-fly-your-own-kite type of thing."

While Dixon spends most of his time around kites, he relishes his time outdoors flying them.

"I find kite-flying relaxing," he said. "There is enough stress in today's world, and kite-flying relieves that. It's fun. It's colorful. You get to show off, and it can be athletic as well."

The lore of the kite began 2,000 years ago in China. One legend suggests that when a Chinese farmer tied a string to his hat to keep it from blowing away in a strong wind, the first kite was born. The earliest written account of kite flying was about 200 B.C., when Chinese General Han Hsin of the Han Dynasty flew a kite over the walls of a city he was attacking to measure how far his army would have to tunnel to reach past the defenses.

Kites have been used to ward off evil, deliver love messages, raise banners, drop propaganda leaflets, catch fish, spy on enemies, send radio signals, forecast the weather, photograph the Earth, tow vehicles, advertise and lift passengers into the sky.

But in the Durham County Stadium parking lot, the kite flyers were more concerned with keeping their kites aloft than with their history.

Dixon helped Reyna Upchurch launch a multicolored pirate ship kite for the first time. Reyna, the wife of John Upchurch, a Kites Unlimited employee, bought the kite in October.

"I saw it at a kite show and had to have it," she said.

She kept the longboat hung from her vaulted ceiling, waiting for the right weather to set it aloft.

The Upchurches enjoy kite flying so much that John's New Year's resolution was to fly a kite. So, on New Year's Eve the two set out to Chicago's Navy Pier and rang in the year 2000 in high-flying fashion.

Dixon has traveled around the nation flying his kites. The Oregon Coast is good place to fly, he said. The southwest deserts and the Midwest states such as Oklahoma offer good flying conditions as well, he added, but the best place he has flown is in North Carolina.

"I really think the North Carolina coast is as good as it gets," he said, citing a survey that labeled it as one of the top 10 spots in the nation for kite flying.

But, he added, just about any park, school playground or church parking lot will do the trick.

GILREATH, WILLIAM

William A. Gilreath was born on February 12, 1829 in North Carolina. At present no information is available on his earlier life. He moved to Fentress County between 1840-50. He was a prominent citizen of the Travisville Community. He ran a grist mill and was a Justice of the Peace in 1891. William also worked for the establishment of Pickett County.

William married Mary Adeline Allen about 1848 as their oldest child Martha is listed as 1 year old in the Fentress County Census Records in 1850. This is the first year William and Mary appear in the Fentress County Census, along with her parents Augusta and Elina Allen, and shows both the Gilreaths and Allens were born in North Carolina and their daughter Martha born in Tennessee. Mary's only known brother was Lafayette Allen, born in NC about 1843 and living in Tennessee in 1850, who was killed at the Dr. Hale place at Wolf River, TN, while on leave from the army during the Civil War.

William was married three times; (1) Mary Allen, (2) Rhoda Moody Crouch, (3) Necie Upchurch. Some sources indicate a marriage to Margaret Beason. But this writer can find no record of such a marriage.

William and Mary Allen were the parents of four children; Martha E., Elvina Alice, Malissa Adeline, and James.

Martha E., born December 1848, married Joe Crouch. They had two children Belle and Mary, both of whom died while young.

Elvina Alice, born 1852, married Sampson Fowler. Their children were; William Lafayette, Martha, John, James and Minna.

Malissa, born December 7, 1855, married John Wesley Crouch (son of George Washington Crouch and Lucinda Jennings). Their children were: Zona, who married Melvin Davidson; Martha, who married John Marion Rains; James Gordon, who married Ellen Storie and Delta Winningham; Dave, who married Eva Baker; William Lee, who married Ollie Storie; Fannie, who married Fred Lesh; Nellie, who married Lewis Craig; Tom, who married Alta Greer; Necie, who married Otto Garrett; and Ruby, who married John Rushing. Melissa died January 4, 1903. Her husband John died September 4, 1935. They are buried in the Davidson Cemetery at Forbus, TN. Their history can be found elsewhere in this book.

James, born 1861, married Corda Beason. Nor further information available at this time.

Mary Allen Gilreath died September 1866 and her funeral was conducted by Rev. A.B. Wright, at the "Head of the Cane".

Rhoda Moody Crouch became William's second wife sometime before 1880. She was the widow of William Crouch and had several children. William and Rhoda's children were; John, Nancy, Ebadell, and Leander.

John, born 1865, married Fetna Davidson and had Charles, Milton, Lee, Frona, Nona, Abbie, and Ben.

Nancy, born 1868, married John Evans.

Ebadell, born 1871, married John Upchurch.

Lee, born 1874, married Dovie Smallwood and had no children.

The 1900 Fentress County Census shows William and his third wife Necie Upchurch married 10 years. Their two children were Luther C. and Vannah E.

Luther, born in August, 1892, married Pearl Chism (daughter of L.B. Chism and Mary Wood). Their children were Willie, Christina and Hazel. Luther was killed in December, 1915.

Vannie, born December, 1894, married Bill Paris.

William died December 16, 1901 and is buried in the Gilreath Cemetery on his old homeplace.

Residents of group home learn skills: cooking, laundry, living

The National Benevolent Association's goal is to enable residents to experience and enjoy community living as productive, contributing citizens.

BY MARGARET GILLERMAN
Of the Post-Dispatch

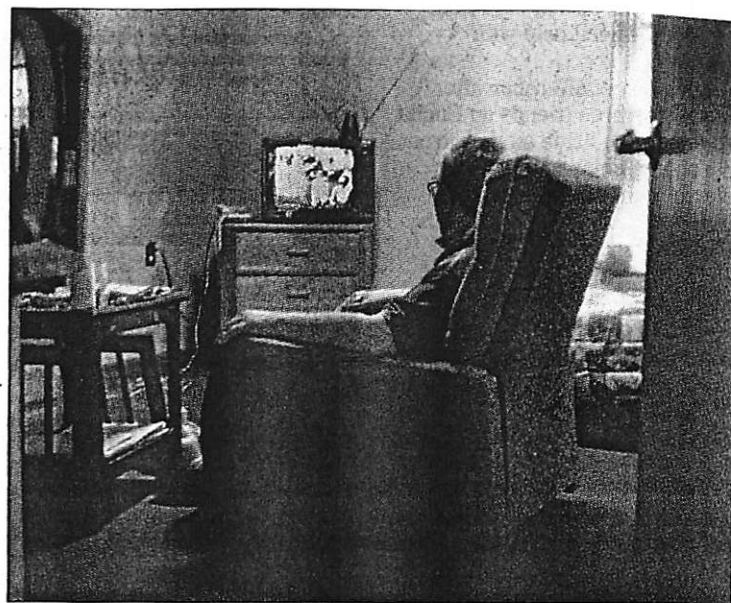

John Upchurch likes his new home on a quiet wooded street in Webster Groves not only for its modern amenities, convenient location and safe neighborhood.

For Upchurch, who is considered developmentally disabled, the mocha-colored wooden house with a front porch offers a life of adult independence.

Upchurch, 37, lives in one of 14 group homes built in the St. Louis and Columbia, Mo., areas in the last 18 months for people with developmental disabilities. The houses were built by National Benevolent Association Gateways/Woodhaven Housing, a private, nonprofit religious organization.

The houses were built in two rounds with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development providing about $2.7 million for construction. The National Benevolent Association staffs and manages the homes. The Association is the social service and health service arm of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

Four of the new residences are in St. Louis County: on Euclid Avenue in Webster Groves, Brenner Avenue in an unincorporated area near Vinita Park and Remley Court and Eastover Avenue, both in the University City area. Two are in St. Louis, on Coleman Street and Garrison Avenue.

Mark Palmer, chief executive officer of NBA Special Care, which oversees Gateways, said the organization served 113 adults with developmental disabilities in the St. Louis area.

In Webster Groves, the municipal government assisted by having a public meeting with neighbors to explain the program. So far, the new residents say they feel very welcome and have made friends with their neighbors.

Vanessa Carbbins, coordinator of Upchurch's home, said group homes sometimes had an unfair reputation. "We want to create a home environment, so this will be a real home," she said. "We want to make it their home."

The new home in Webster Groves offers residents a back yard with trees and songbirds and a spacious kitchen with blue-and-white curtains and country oak furniture.

Carbbins, who has a social-work background, shops for clothing and food for residents, plans their diets and nutrition and oversees all the operation of the home. She plans weekly outings including visits to favorite St. Louis landmarks.

For Upchurch, his new living situation goes a long way toward meeting the National Benevolent Association's goal of enabling residents to experience and enjoy community living as productive, contributing citizens.

Gateways' goals for serving people with disabilities are to build confidence and self-esteem, to show compassion in providing individualized care, to emphasize

National Benevolent Association

The National Benevolent Association, a social and health service branch of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), serves more than 24,000 individuals nationwide through residential facilities and programs such as counseling, foster care and day care. Founded in St. Louis in 1887, it is one of the area's largest nonprofit agencies.

values, to focus on quality and to work in partnership with others.

Upchurch lives with two co-residents who are now his friends: Brian Cook, 22, and David Airtene, 44.

At home, the three men cook breakfast and dinner and pack lunches for work. Every weekday, Upchurch goes to work at a sheltered workshop, where he does assembly work. Airtene works at another workshop, and Cook is attending a program for learning and recreation at a church.

John Upchurch sets the table for dinner at the National Benevolent Association's group home in Webster Groves, where he lives with two other developmentally disabled men. In the background, Flora Benson, a resident teacher at the home, prepares food.

Flora Benson works as a resident teacher at the house.

"The idea is for the residents to be as independent as possible," she said. Benson helps them learn new skills and take care of hygiene. She also assists them when they need help with cooking.

On a recent afternoon after work, the three friends on Euclid Avenue sat outside on their front porch and enjoyed the spring weather and the view of tidy, well-kept homes in their North Webster neighborhood.

The men then gave a tour of their home. Upchurch has an elaborate collection of blues music CDs in his room as well as "Lion King" videos and a poster of Tiger Woods.

Cook's room displays his golf and softball trophies; one of his favorite activities is playing golf with his father. Cook, a gregarious young man, also likes to go fishing. At home, Cook spends time at the computer.

Airtene was resting and watching the nightly news after a day of work. His room features a cozy armchair and desk, where he reads and writes. Airtene likes to take buses to see the city, and one of his favorite places is the University City Loop.

Palmer said that as part of the program, one-third of each resident's income went toward rent and the rest was subsidized by HUD.

Benson, an artist, has designed a colorful chart showing each resident's weekly chores day by day.

"One resident will set and clean the table for dinner, and another will clear the dishes and load the dishwasher, and everyone does laundry," she said. "The idea is to help the residents build skills — a new set of social skills, personal communication skills and household skills. Sometimes they're coming from an environment where they had no responsibilities. Here, they're taught everyone has responsibilities and can take pride in keeping up the house. Here, they get an opportunity to learn."
