Zebulon landmark torn down

By JODI GRABOL
Record Staff Writer

After standing in Zebulon for more than 60 years, the Phil-ett Oil Co. at the intersection of U.S. Business 64 and N.C. 97 was torn down last week.

Before the building was demolished, Avon Privette Jr., whose father, Avon Privette Sr., founded the company in 1926, went and sat in his father's office.

"It was a very, very strange feeling," Privette Jr. said.

The service station's name came about from Privett Sr. (he did not spell his name with an "e" whereas Privette Jr. does) and his partner Kerney Phillips, thus the name Phil-ett.

For people traveling east, the station was a good stopping place for a drink, Privette Jr. said.

Privett Sr. operated the station from 1926-66 before suffering a stroke and being forced to retire.

"He was a real successful businessperson," Privette Jr. said.

The service station was expanded to include a garage and later on a Dodge-Plymouth dealership.

Donald Stallings, 89, worked in the garage for 24 years from 1929-53. He even bought one-half interest in the garage, and in the late 1940s, he purchased one-half interest in the dealership.

In the early 1950s, Sidney Eddins, former town commissioner, was manager of the station and also a partner. Even after Privette Jr. inherited the station, Eddins operated it until his death in 1980.

"It was quite an impressive looking building in its day," Privette Jr. said.

He said he remembers visiting the station when he was a boy and listening to local men talk around the potbellied stove.

"A lot of business went on in that building and not just things about the service station," Privette Jr. said.

Across the street from the station, Privett Sr. had bears and deer that customers would feed, Privette Jr. said.

The service station was closed in 1983 and recently Privette Jr. sold the building and the buyer agreed to tear it down.

One of the reasons for the building's destruction is the improvement of the intersection, and repairs to bring the station up to building-code specifications would have cost too much money, he said. Red Star Oil Co. is planning to build a convenience store and fuel service center at the site, in conjunction with the Department of Transportation's realignment of the intersection.

BOOK: FRANKLIN COUNTY HERITAGE - NORTH CAROLINA
VOLUME 1 2008 ARTICLE 917

917 LITTLE BERRY PHILLIPS, 1838 - 1922

Little Berry or LB Phillip was born 30 April 1838 In Franklin County, NC, to John Francis Phillips, b. 1792, d. 4 Dec 1876, and Elizabeth Upchurch, b. 14 Aug 1821, d. 1870. He was known as a very religious man and was often referred to as "The Squire".

Little Berry Phillips, at 23 years old, enlisted in the Confederate Army on 17 Jun 1861, and served as 2nd Sergeant in the 14th Regiment which later became the 24th, Company K in the Civil War. His brothers, William Kearney Phillips, b. 25 Jan 1831 d. 5 Aug 1914, and Presley Jackson Phillips, b. 17 Aug 1822 d. 2

Little Berry Phillips, born 30 Apr 1838, Franklin County

Jun 1864, joined in Franklin County and were in the 47th Regiment. Presley was killed in the war.

LB married Rosa Anna Caroline Baker 4 Nov 1866, in Franklin County. His home after marriage is still standing on Rogers Road. He lived there with his wife, sister-in-law, Dora Ann Baker, and seven children until abt. 1882 when he moved his family to Raleigh. He had three more children in Raleigh.

After moving to Raleigh and after his wife died, LB often visited his former home in Franklin County for extended periods of time. He loved Franklin County.

His wife, Rosa Anna Caroline Baker, died after childbirth in Raleigh 22 Aug 1889. She and Little Berry are buried at old Raleigh City Cemetery. Little Berry died 9 May 1922 and was buried at 5pm on 10 May while shots saluted this Civil War soldier. LB died of complications from a small cut on his forearm he got

Little Berry Phillips' Gravestone at Raleigh City Cemetery

Phillips Coat Of Arms

from a fall on Capitol Square.

Descendents of Little Berry Phillips are spread nationwide. This is submitted by his great granddaughter, Elizabeth Warner Freeman Gephart, b. 23 Sep 1941, granddaughter of Rosa William Phillips Warner, his daughter b. 7 Nov 1882, d. 13 Feb 1984. I live in Raleigh with children and grandchildren nearby, two additional generations of Little Berry's descendants.

One of Little Berry's sons, Festus Beauregard Phillips, traveled to California and was instrumental in the establishment of the makeup industry in early movie making. His sons followed in his footsteps with Fred B. Phillips creating Dr. Spock's ears in Star Trek movie. LB often visited them in California. There are descendants still living near Los Angeles.

Descendants of Little Berry's brother, Presley Jackson Phillips, currently have annual reunions at the Pilot Firehouse in Franklin County.

 Input from Simon NMN Rogers - some items already covered using a map and notation for Dennis' TSP, BC, NC

When Little Berry Phillips sold his Dennis TSP land about 1914 two tracts went to Simon Rogers, Sr & Bunell Perry.
 These are identified. Two others went to [△]SIMON PEARCE and [△]JOHN FERGOSON. These need to be located. The total was about 400 Acers. Son of Bunell Perry - Kerry Addie Perry was involved - Need to learn more re $2500 loan.

[△]Siddie Baker inherited land from her father Benjamin Baker Siddie entraped [△]Johnson Perry & prevented him from finishing his last year of medical school. Johnson Perry bought the land & his widow estate transferred (sold) it to BROOK BOWN Siddie = 1st cousin of Simon Rogers, Sr

There is an unlocated cem (can find a place on USlands

 Left 5 children.

I mentioned to Simon that Johnson bought the mill now on Perry's land. Simon says he was connected to the [△]MAMADOS.

Under the Bunell Perry tract where Mark got a chimney stone. Bunell got this from his wife who was a Pearce and an only child. Simon bought it from [△]Laurence Perry. The tract went from Bunell Perry to Babe Perry whose wife [△]Molly Arnold sold it to [△]Luther Davis Perry who willed it to his son Laurence Dennis Perry who sold it to Simon.

Phil...

I have not had time to look at the letter but I did go on my FTM data base and looked at the Family Bible page talking about Little Berry's death and it was May 9, 1922 at 1:40pm. He was buried the next day on May 10 at 5pm. I have attached the bible page. Also the gravestone at Raleigh City Cemetery. His son-in-law, my grandfather, was the monument maker, Warner Memorials, so I would think the gravestone info is very correct.

Back then I think letters were written over time. My mom wrote lots of letters and seemed to pick it up every day to add thoughts which made it more than one date. Just thinking....

I'm still researching the other questions.....

Referring to a letter dated 12 APR 1922 written by Fester, a son of Little Berry Phillips - RPA emailed Elyzabeth Warner

"The letter records that they left the old plantation 35 years ago. This would mean they left about 1887 (1922-35=1887)
Correct?"

Phil... Δ → [BETTIE CAROLINE PHILLIPS]

Thinking about number 3. Aunt Carrie who lived to be 106 was interviewed at 100 by the News and Observer and said they moved to Raleigh when she was 6 years old. She was born in 1875. I would determine from that interview....I'll attach article..(sorry it is upside down)..that they moved to Raleigh sometime in 1882. From that I figured that my grandmother, Rosa William Phillips, was born in Raleigh, not Franklin County. She was born Nov. 7th, 1882. Here is that bible page attached also.

I have just realized that I have a discrepancy in Little Berry's birthdate. My data base has April 30, 1922 but the gravestone says April 29, 1922. I can't see right now where I got the 30th. I have to research that!

I can forward you some e-mail info from the California family about the makeup stuff. We worked on that this summer and fall collectively. They had never put together a list of films and TV and who did what. Now we have something.

Later.....

○ On 27 APR 2007 RPH, ~~Elyabeth~~ ^{Freeman} Warner ~~met~~ Simon Rogers & Rosa Mae Baker in the Peace Area of Franklin Co, NC. A map is being created to show place ~~was~~. A key site was the tract now owned by Simon which consists of 250 Acres of the 350 Acre farm owned by LBP which presumably came from his father John Phillips who possibly got the land from his wife inheritance she being Elyabeth Thane U. John & Elyabeth are presumed buried in the cemetery on the property. Their stones are not there but other are. The house, now unoccupied, was presumably built by LBP

○ RPH Notes of Visits 27 & 29 APR & 5 APR 2007 to Franklin Co, NC

○ Notes of RDU call to Simon NMN Roger - 24 MAY 2007 - CONTINUED

William Clethan Bell 1912-1956 was the s/o William S. Bell to 6AD61867

The wife of German Bell (German Bell) was indeed
NANCY PERRY D/O Gustav Perry "Gus" of Davis TSP, Franklin
Co, NC.

Re the house on the tract owned by Little Berry Phillips
Simon thinks this dates from the time of the Revolution and that there are pot holes in the chimney. It is a log house and was renovated in 1882 per an inscribed date. It was most likely built by John Phillips or someone owned the tract before then. Simon thinks it could have been Upchurch land about the time of the Revolution. Little Berry Phillips was born in this house as were all ten of his children.

1890 - CENSUS LOST

1900 } I am unable to find Little Berry Phillips or any of his family
 1910 } on those two census dates in NC.

However, I believe I have found Walter Aderson Phillips (S/o Little Berry Phillips) on the 1900 census of IL and then in 1920 in IA. Little Berry Phillips appears on the 1920 census in the name of his son Festus in CA. See another extract sheet for these records 1900 - on RPU

- EXTRACT OF TWO LETTERS WRITTEN IN THE SPRING OF 1922 BY "FESTUS" [FESTUS BEAUREGARD PHILLIPS] RE THE DEATH OF HIS "PA" [LITTLE BERRY PHILLIPS] see profile of "Festus" for letters

Letter One - Dated 12 APR 1922 Los Angeles, CA - signed Festus - 3 Pages written to Brothers & Sisters

Pa had apparently been visiting Festus in Los Angeles for about three years but not in good health. Walter [Walter Aderson Phillips] [Brother of Festus] was in LA also and took Pa to the train. Festus called wife Nina [Nina Elizabeth Melberson] from work to ask her to take pictures of Pa before he left. Pa apparently went back to Raleigh, NC where his health deteriorated. So Festus was not surprised when Little Webster [Webster Clay Phillips s/o Festus] took the telegram which announced the death of Pa

Festus recalls Pa missed "Mammy" [Rosa Anna Caroline Baker], his wife who died 1889 and also his dear old mother [Elizabeth Thane U]. Also refers to Pa's late Uncle Anton [Alexander Anton Phillips], James [John Henry James Phillips] and the little baby [Lillian Belle Phillips]

Festus reports Pa wrote a 1914 will with James & Festus as Exec.

Festus asks for peace in the family

Letter Two - To "Brother" [Could be Walter or Fletcher Hatley Phillips - RPW Not dated - but after Letter one - 1 Page

Refers to nervous condition of Rosa [Rosa William Phillips] and to his BIL "Bob" [Robert James Warner, Sr].

Requests certain clothes Festus & Pa "used together in our work" as Festus says he would enjoy wearing them

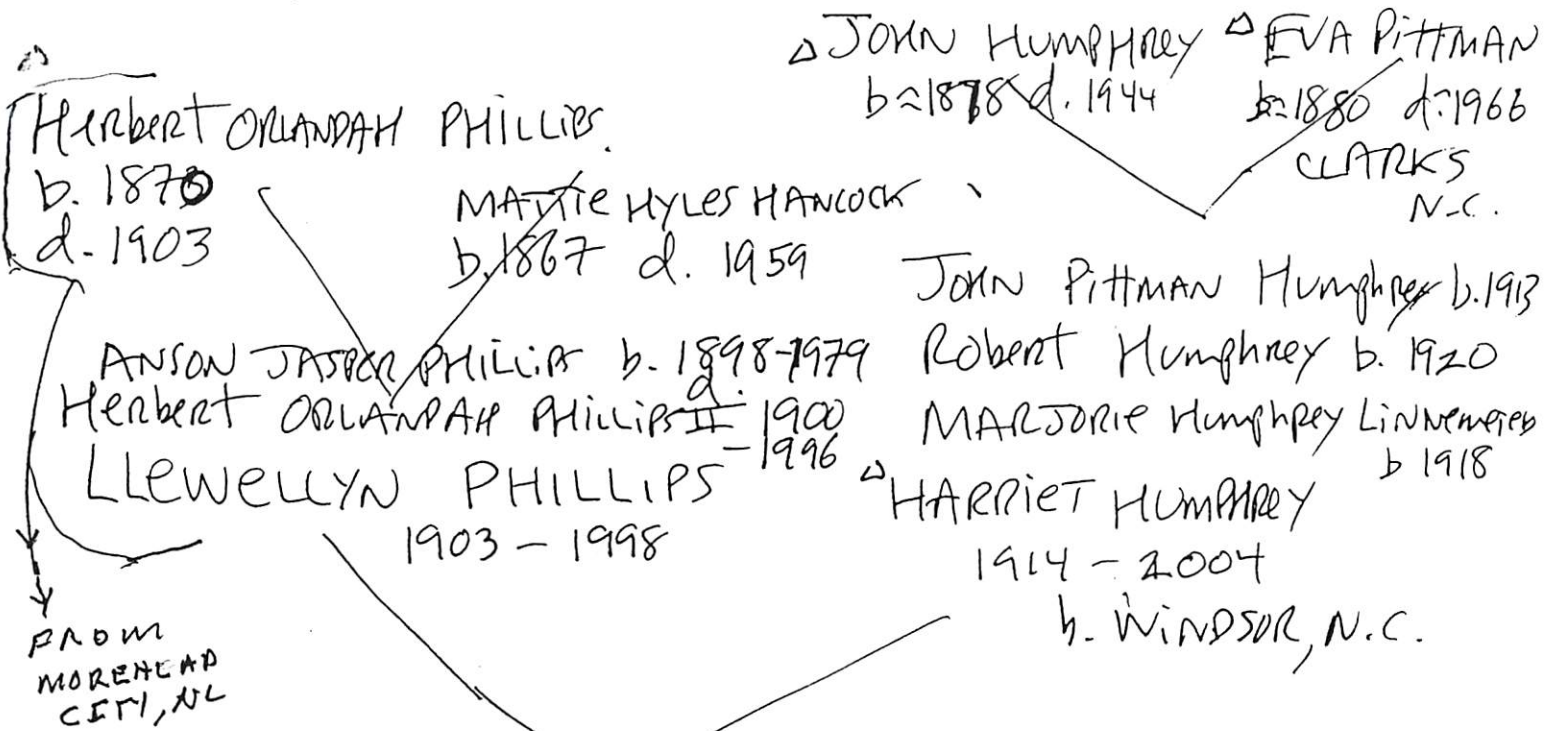

Letter one presents a conflict on death of Pa - see details L. B. Phillips

- 29 NOV 2007 RPW called Simon NNN Rogers. Simon reports that some of the Land Little Berry Phillips owned could have come from his uncles people - his wife: Rosa Anna Caroline Baker

MRS MARALEE PHILLIPS

LODI, CA 95240

Dear Mrs Phillips,

This is in response to your letter of 13 FEB 1983.

I have 41 different Phillips family members in my files but no Mary C. Phillips or Albert S. Phillips. I have 3 individuals named Wesley Upchurch plus perhaps 15 others with a middle name of Wesley Upchurch. The latter are hard to pick out of the files as they are filed by their first names. Wesley is a heavily used first name in certain Upchurch lines.

Although I do not show a Wesley U who marries in 1893 (St Clair Co, MO) Mary C. Phillips, there is one of my Wesley U entries who could be a good candidate. He is Wesley U (XID-1280) b 1844, son of Susan U b 1821, jr of Buckner U b 1797 (NC). Of this Wesley U I know only what is given above. He did have 2 sisters and 4 brothers and I have a little more detail on them. This Wesley U had an Uncle Wesley U (XID-1254) b 17 NOV 1817.

Can you send me any more details about your Wesley U and his descendants? Maybe we can make more progress

Sincerely yours
Phil Upchurch

WAKE COUNTY CIVIL ACTION PAPERS CONCERNING LAND - PART I

Abstracted by Diane L. Richard pg 8

Few early deed records survive for Wake County. When combined with the cessation of land grants from 1763-1778, we find a dearth of early Wake County land records. One interesting set of records that do survive (though not in their entirety) are Civil Action Papers (CAPs) Concerning Land. These are a subset of the CAPs series at the North Carolina State Archives in Raleigh. These are extant court papers where there was an issue concerning land. The originals can be found in C.R.099.325.93 (1773-1793). The surviving paperwork up to the year 1800 will eventually be abstracted and included in Wake Treasures.

You will note that the timing of many of these is in 1778. This would have been the first time that one could file for a land grant in about fifteen years. During those years, many moved to Wake County, made improvements on land, bought and sold land, and yet no land grants were issued. So, as soon as the land grant process was re-instituted by the State of NC, there were a lot of land grant entries made, and this caused a lot of caveats to also be filed.

Phil, Carla and Kim -

I always look forward to hearing from my AF's family ☺

Kim, thank you so much for remembering; that means so much. I can't wait for confirmation of the location of what our branch of the Phillips' family calls the High House. Virginia Dupree Phillips b 10-30-1920, my mother's youngest sibling, grew up there. As did my mother, Meta Pearl Phillips Monteleon b 08-04-1914 (she turns 104, this summer). Recently, Dupree verbally described the close/general area. A few weeks ago my 1st cousin, Emma Sue Richards Edwards, described the location to within about 1/2 acre. From the intersection of Lizard Lick Road and Riley Hill Road, go W to Rocky Branch. At the branch and on the N side of Riley Hill Road, go a few hundred feet?/yards? W. It's there, somewhere, as I understand it. So I went there to take another look. The house was razed not all that many years ago, so I'm still looking for the exact site.

My maternal grandfather, Oliver Newton Phillips, b 1880, was the first Phillips to reside in the house. He gave/sold land immediately? next door to his eldest son, Wesley Floyd Phillips b 04-01-1901. My Uncle Floyd's daughter, Stella Phillips Massey b 1930, recently told me she grew up in the latter house.

Crowder, Wilson marry at Baptist Tabernacle on July 29

Anna Liles Wilson of Wendell and Gary Phillips Crowder of Zebulon were united in marriage July 29 at Baptist Tabernacle Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Steve Holland.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony M. Wilson of Wendell. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. George W. Crowder of Zebulon.

The bride's grandmother is Rachel L. Privette and the bridegroom's grandfather is M.M. "Buck" Phillips.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white taffeta which was heavily beaded with tiny seed pearls, iridescent sequins and dangling crystals. The gown had a natural neckline and long sleeves which ended at the wrist with a point.

The fitted bodice was decorated with a full peplum which extended from the front to a floor-length point in the back. The back of the gown was accented with a deep V-neckline that was trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The train of the gown extended to cathedral length. Beaded hem lace scalloped the edge of the entire gown.

To complete the ensemble, the bride wore a wreath-shaped headpiece accented with teardrop pearls, rhinestones and taffeta flowers. The headpiece had a double pouf illusion which extended to a three-layer illusion, the longest of which was cathedral length. She carried a nosegay of white and pink roses.

The bride was attended by Julie H. Wilson, her sister, as maid of honor, and bridesmaids Mary M. Hutson, Robin Pulley, Kelley Sullivan, Lisa E. Phillips, Wanda Creech and Chrissy Dunlow.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore floor-length gowns of cerise satin faille which featured a halter neckline and peplum waist. A large bow trimmed the back-slit slim skirts.

Other attendants were Justin Privette, cousin of the bride, as ring bearer, and Eliza Stancil, cousin of the bride, as flower girl.

The bridegroom and groomsmen wore full dress black tuxedos with tails and white stud-front pleated shirts with wing collars. The tuxedos were accented with white pique band bow ties and single-breasted pique vests.

The bridegroom chose his father to be his best man. Ushers were Elmo Finch Jr., Mike Phillips, David Hughes, Butch Allen, Bobby Upchurch and Mickey Phillips.

The church was decorated with tree and spiral candelabra featuring tree fern and caladium leaves. The aisle was decorated with burning tapers and lace bows. A double kneeling bench and unity candle was used by the couple during the ceremony.

Wedding music was presented by Kay Nowell as organist and Paul Brown Jr. as vocalist.

Ann P. Fowler directed the wedding and programs were distributed by Bryan Wilson, cousin of the bride. Leigh Ann Wynkoop, cousin

Mrs. Gary Phillips Crowder
Anna Liles Wilson

of the bride, attended the register. The bride is a graduate of Zebulon High School and North Carolina

State University. She is employed at Central Carolina Bank. Her husband is a graduate of Zebulon High School, attended Louisburg College and graduated from Wake Technical Community College. He is employed by Williams, Pearce and Associates RLS.

After a wedding trip to St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands, the couple will make their home in Zebulon.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony, the guests were entertained with a reception at the Rotary-Woman's Club building in Zebulon. Attending the register was Kelli Fowler, cousin of the bridegroom, and greeting guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilson, uncle and aunt of the bride.

The guests were served sliced roast beef and ham on heart-shaped angel biscuits, shrimp mousse with cocktail crackers, stuffed mushrooms and tomatoes, an assortment of fresh vegetables with dip, a variety of fresh fruits and cheeses, and sparkling apple cider.

The all-white wedding cake featured three tiers and four satellite cakes and was decorated with fresh flowers. It was served by Kathy Wilson and Glenda Wynkoop, aunts of the bride, after the couple cut the traditional first slice.

Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Phillips, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom.

Rehearsal dinner

The couple-elect was honored Friday evening, July 28, at an after-rehearsal dinner at the Ramada Inn Crabtree, hosted by the bridegroom-elect's parents.

The head table was decorated with a floral arrangement of pink and white carnations. The round guest tables were decorated with brandy snifters with floating candles on mirrored trays, and scattered fresh flowers.

The buffet-style dinner included London broil, marinated chicken, pasta salad, tossed salad, fresh fruit, green beans almondine, squash casserole, twiced-baked potatoes, dinner rolls, iced tea, strawberry cake and chocolate fudge pie.

The bridegroom-elect chose this time to present his best man and groomsmen with gifts.

Wedding-day brunch

The couple-elect was honored July 29 with a wedding-day brunch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilson. Along with the Wilsons, hosts for the event were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wynkoop and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Wilson, uncles and aunts of the bride.

Upon arrival the bride-elect was presented a pink rosebud and daisy corsage and the bridegroom-elect a rosebud boutonniere.

Approximately 20 guests attended who were served a buffet of cream chicken with pastry puffs, a variety of fresh fruit with chocolate dip, cheeses with crackers, an assortment of muffins with jellies, fruit juice punch and coffee.
