Ernestine Corbett Chamblee called the roll of Wakelon High School class of '52, and 31 classmates answered "present." These 31 classmates, spouses and honored guests met for their 46th year reunion on Sept. 26 with a social hour and dinner at The Meeting Place in Wendell.

The evening began with a social hour and "Taking a Trip Down Memory Lane" — visiting, sharing memories, hearing about children and grandchildren, and visiting the memorabilia table filled with pictures from the '50s, old annuals and other Wakelon High mementos. This table was decorated with an arrangement of Moon Pies and RC Colas. There was also a memorial table with pictures and white roses for each classmate who has passed away. The table arrangements were given by Ned Moss in memory of his wife, Kay Baker Moss.

Ned Moss was master of ceremonies. A program of school and class songs and poems opened the program.

After a dinner (with a touch of '50s music), Tim Tippett, son of Jack and Betty Jean Tippett, played guitar and sang.

Norma Bridgers McGee presented a memorial service in honor of classmates who have passed away. Classmates remembered were Jean Robertson Lambert, Elton Chamblee, Bobby T. McGee, Pattie Pearce Perry, Ronald Fowler, Bobby Murray, Charles Brooks Finch, Shirley Faulkner Wilder and class mascot Johnny Hendricks.

Also remembered with a silent prayer were spouses of classmates who passed away in 1998: Ulysses Johnson, husband of Linda Bridgers Johnson; Kenneth Leggett, husband of Anne Allman Leggett; and Kay Baker Moss, wife of Ned Moss.

Donald and Hilda Fowler treated guests to door prizes, including the table arrangements.

Special guests were teachers Marie Smithwick Parker and her husband, Roy, Melba Strickland Hales, and Ed Ellington and his wife, Dorothy; and mascot Cheryl Gay Lanier and her mother, Hilda Gay. Guests were given corsages and boutonnieres.

Willa Bolton Dean presented each guest with an updated yearbook she created, featuring current pictures of classmates. The yearbook contained a color collage of current pictures, and addresses and telephone numbers of the classmates. Socializing and candid pictures followed "till curfew."

On Sunday morning, several classmates and families attended church and had a buffet lunch afterward at The Meeting Place.

Bunn High class together again after 40 years

The 1955 class of Bunn High gathered June 17 in the cafeteria to celebrate its 40th reunion.

Fifty-seven people attended, including class members, spouses, friends, and teachers Jean Hinnant, Johnny Alford and Betty Sanders Abernathy.

Betty Rose Upchurch Privette, current school secretary and one of the classmates, gave a tour of the school facilities. The tour was especially meaningful, said class members, since the original building has been scheduled for demolition by October. A meal of barbecue and fried chicken was served. Wayne and Dale Gay Perry provided dessert.

Several class members were given T-shirts decorated with the Bunn High bulldog mascot for the following awards: class member who lives closest to the school; class member who traveled the farthest to attend the reunion; class member with the most children; class member with the most grandchildren; and the male and female class member who changed the least. The T-shirts were donated by Phillip and Jeanie Price McClellan.

Donnie Perry read the class prophecy. Rose Winstead Lloyd read the class history. Wayne Perry led a recognition for deceased members — Jimmy Sykes, Langford Baker, Ted Edwards and Harold Mullen. Candles were lit in their memory. Members expressed memorable experience while attending BHS and talked about the last 40 years.

Decorations included posters of superlatives, boys/girls basketball teams, teachers and administrators. Tables were accented with candles and bouquets of magnolias. The focus bouquet was a large basket of red roses, the class flower, with a giant "40" rising above the arrangement. Members listened and danced to '50s music on the jukebox.

The general co-chairmen were Ms. McClellan, Ms. Perry and Willie Brantley Williams; treasurer and location/contact committee: Wayne and Dale Gay Perry; food committee: Gene and Carolyn Baker Mullen, and Billy and Rose Winstead Lloyd; entertainment committee: Donnie and Lynda Perry, and Henry Mullen; decorating committee: the McClellans, and Ronnie and Nancy Tant; invitation/name tag committee: John and Willie Brantley Williams. Thirty-four class members attended from a total graduating class of 54.

I have just returned from a trip to Louisburg to meet internet cousins in person. What fun that was.

On my return, I received information that I had long been seeking. This led to more questions, as always.

My grandmother, Annie Elizabeth Inscoe married George Wester (son of Naz and Matilda) in 1898. She later married my grandfather, Lawrence Perry Baker. I never knew if Annie and Geoge divorced or if he died. This new information states that George died 1898 and is buried at the Wester Family Cemetery, Wester Town, Franklin County, NC. I would like to know the location of this cemetery (so sorry I did not know of it when I was there). Where is Wester Town located? I would also like to know the exact date of his death. How sad that he died within the first year of their marriage.

Also, if at all possible, I would appreciate a photo of George's grave site.

Thank you for any information you may have,

Anne Baker Croom Scholz

NOTES of RPH call 1 NOV 2007 to Rosa Mae Baker 10:00 AM

We had a pleasant 20 minute talk. She was disappointed that I did not come to see her in OCT. I promised to send her a copy of the next U.D. She has glaucoma & will get glasses. Also will have upper teeth removed. Still she sounds strong and has a good memory.

- Her GF Benjamin Baker b 1848 and his FAT Simon Baker b Abt 1826 owned adjoining properties on south side of the Petat-Riley Rd west/north of Horace Baker, Sr Road. - where the Benjamin Baker Cem is located. Simon & his wife are thought to be buried on the property but not at the Benjamin Baker Cem. Simon had Log Cabin & Spring
- Some of Rosa Mae's input has been entered on the sheet regarding the Benjamin Baker Cem.
- MORE input from Rosa Mae.

Historical Society event draws crowd

Sixty members of the Apex Area Historical Society gathered Sunday afternoon for the annual ice cream social and program.

Guest speakers for the event were Misses Betty Hazel and Jesse Baker of High Point, former Apex residents. Many interesting facts were related and numerous old Apex family names were mentioned as the two shared memories of 1907 through 1949.

Many homes in Apex were designed by Mr. Lynn Baker, their father, and built by him and his brothers who were outstanding builders during that period. The last home built by the Bakers is located at South Mason Street. Built for R.W. Stephens Jr., it is now occupied by his son, Tommy, and wife, Pat.

After the program, Society members were brought up to date on the Maynard-Pearson House project on Olive Chapel Road. The first outside clean-up day was held on Saturday with good response and much progress made. The next workday is set for Nov. 4. (For information, contact Noel Weston at 362-1436.)

The next regular meeting of the Society will be Thursday, Nov. 16 at the Apex United Methodist Church fellowship hall at 7 p.m. All interested Apex area residents are invited to attend.

Apex home 84 years

Conversations with our past
A bicentennial series

△ Betty Baker was born in Apex, and still lives in the home her husband Raymond built three years after they were married.

That was 65 years ago - but Betty Baker at 84 is still active and alert and keeps her house in tip-top shape. It is a home that is full of memories for Baker - and well it should be.

In that white frame house on Ellington Street, Baker gave birth to her eight children. And although they have since left home, and her husband passed away several years ago, the home is still very much a family place - indeed, as Mrs. Baker says, "Some of the children come home every Sunday. Sometimes even two or three of them. I'm never lonely."

The big upright piano and the large fireplace in the living room help conjure up images of a large family, going about the business of their daily lives. And, as Baker points out, the home was much more important in the days when she was raising a family.

"I think people enjoyed staying at home more, partly because we didn't really know anything else. The children played a lot in the home," she explained.

Baker's children, and their places of residence are: W. C. Baker, Oxford; Eloise Carr, Moncure; Lucille McKinney, Raleigh; Wade Baker, Apex; Bryant Baker, Tabor City; Mary Edith Keith, Raleigh; Betty Rae Oxidine, Monroe; and Fred Baker, Durham.

"We were always having company for dinner," she added, noting that children always visited with their parents.

"We didn't have babysitters then. But it wasn't much of a problem. The children played and enjoyed themselves and mothers and fathers visited."

Actually, Baker pointed out, her children grew up not much differently than she herself.

Baker attended the public school in Apex, continuing through the seventh grade. She and her brothers and sisters walked to school each day, carrying their lunches, which they would eat gathered around the big stove with friends.

Each student had a day when he or she was responsible for chores at the school - boys would cut wood to keep the fire going; girls would sweep the floor.

Baker said she though received a good education at the two-room school. And she added that the discipline problem that often plagues modern schools was nonexistent then.

"The schools were good, and we had order in the school," she said. "I don't think the teachers had much problem with discipline in those days."

What has happened to cause that change?

"I think parents are more lenient with children, and don't have firm discipline in the home," Baker answered.

Baker said she and her classmates - and she estimates that over 200 students were enrolled in the school while she attended - studied English, math, Latin, spelling, history and geography. She explained that they did not progress to a new class each year, as students do today, but rather progressed to more difficult textbooks.

Baker can still remember several of her teachers - Miss Minnie Franklin, Mr. Howard Champion, Mr. C. B. Brooks and Mr. Burton Howard. She said many of the teachers boarded in the homes of local residents when she was growing up.

What did Baker and her contemporaries do for entertainment? Quilting bees, with dances afterward were infrequent but special occasions for Apex townspeople.

And the church - in Baker's case - the Apex Baptist Church - was an important social as well as religious center. Baker belonged to the "Sunbeam Society" which sponsored Sunday School parties and church programs, as a young woman, and she still attends that same church, even though it has been moved from its original site.

"I've been a member of that church for 72 years," Baker said. "I still go regularly. I love my pastor and the members of my church."

When Baker was a young woman, she was courted as were all her contemporaries at her home, where sweethearts would visit with the family, then mount their horses and ride home. It was in that way that she and her husband courted and married in 1909. Their wedding took place in her family's home with "attendants just like you have now."

What did they do for their honeymoon? "We went to his home (in Holly Springs) and spent the night, and the next day we came back and set up housekeeping. And the next day he went to work. And we worked all our years," Baker answered.

There was lots of work for Raymond Baker, too - for in 1910 a fire swept through Apex destroying the wooden downtown buildings. As a carpenter and brick mason, he and his brother/partner had the chance to construct many of the buildings and homes that still stand on Salem Street.

Baker said progress "began to come to Apex" after the 1910 fire - and it brought with it such innovations as the automobile. The Bakers bought their first car in 1918 - a Ford, complete with curtains that had to be hooked to enclose the cabin.

"The children loved it," Baker smiled. "We'd take those children and wrap them up and go to my father's house (near Fuquay-Varina) 'bout every Sunday."

Driving conditions are much improved since those early days, Baker explained. "Around where my father lived, roads were sandy, and the car would slip around," she said.

"As a matter of fact," she added, "I've seen a lot of improvement in everything."

Baker said she believes Apex has come a long way since she was born 84 years ago. It has grown from a town of 500 people to one of 2500.

"It gives people employment, nice places to live, nice churches and schools," she said. "I always like to see advancement."

That advancement has brought with it problems, Baker noted - problems like leniency in child rearing and increasing crime - but she believes the problems are not as serious as some think.

"There's more crime, but there's a lot more people and we can understand that," she explained. "I think we still have a lot of good people who are interested in the welfare of other people."

Baker is optimistic about the future of Apex. "I think the future is real bright. All the buildings look real pretty, and we feel real proud of them. I'm looking forward to a great improvement in our town."

Baker's confidence in the future of Apex is perhaps understandable. She has invested her life in that of the town; has nursed it back to health after the "great fire", and has seen it on its way to modernity. It is citizens like Baker who have brought the progress she celebrates to the town of Apex.

Zebulon teen, two classmates mourned

By KARIN GARNER
Record Staff Writer

Flowers and mementos adorning lockers bid farewell to three Southern Nash High School students killed last week in a car crash.

The teen-agers — driver Reagan Moss, 17, of Nashville; Mandy Baker, 17, of Zebulon; and Amanda Hamm, 15, of Sharpsburg — died Thursday after Moss' car ran off N.C. 97 and hit a bridge railing. The fatal wreck occurred at the narrow Turkey Creek bridge near Samaria.

Deborah Baker, 15, Mandy Baker's sister, survived the accident. Deborah Baker, who has regained consciousness and is talking, was listed in fair condition Monday at Duke University Medical Center's intensive care unit.

The students were on their way to school when the accident occurred at 7:20 a.m. The fatal wreck shocked students and faculty at the high school.

Nearly a week after the crash, according to Principal Tommy Finch, attendance is low due to the accident. For those coming to school, everything is on "slow motion."

after crash

"We're here, but we're not doing what we're supposed to do," he said. Finch added that many students are gathering in the hallways to console each other and remember their friends. Counselors were brought in last week for teachers and students dealing with grief.

"It's been difficult for students and staff alike," Finch said.

Although the three students were not involved in many high school clubs, according to Finch, they were "ordinary, good folks." All were popular with classmates.

Funerals for Moss and Mandy Baker, who was Moss' girlfriend, were held Saturday. Hamm was buried on Sunday.

The state Highway Patrol has not determined the exact cause of the accident. According to Trooper C.E. Thomas, Moss may have been temporarily blinded by the rising sun. Moss was apparently following the posted speed limit of 55 mph, Thomas added.

In the past, according to residents, there have been several complaints about the bridge being dangerously narrow. Before the accident, construction to widen the bridge was scheduled for next year.

Highway Patrol Sgt. Cornell Taylor said investigators with the Patrol plan to talk with Deborah Baker after her condition improves, to determine the cause.

I Jacob Strickland of Nash Co, NC md(?) UNKNOWN

A. Elisha Strickland b. Abt 1723, p Isle of Wight Co, VA & between 2 MAY 1795 and SEP 1795 (Franklin Co, NC) md (p Edgecombe Co, NC) UNKNOWN

- She predeceased Elisha, p in Franklin Co, NC [He did not marry

1. Jacob (b. abt. 1761 probably in Johnston County, NC, d. bet. 1835 and 1840 probably in Gwinnett or Madison Co. GA) m. Annie Pearce or Peace 3/16/1783 in Franklin Co. NC. Moved to Anson Co. NC then to Madison Co. GA after 1805, and possibly to Gwinnett Co. GA by 1835; no Madison Co. GA 1810 census exists, and tax records except for 1840 do not survive. Lived on Brushy Creek in Madison County, GA.
2. Priscilla (b. abt. 1765 probably in Johnston County, NC, d. between 1801 and 1805), m. Jacob Lewis Seagraves (b. abt. 1762 or 1763, d. June 7, 1835 Clinton Co., Illinois) By 10/21/1800 this family was in Franklin Co. GA; by 1805 Jacob had probably remarried Elizabeth Hanes in GA; by 1810 they were in Rutherford Co. TN; by 1820 they were in Maury Co., TN; by 1829 they were in Clinton Co., Illinois
 From court records filed by her brother-in-law Braswell Strickland in Wake Co. NC we know that she was dead by 1805 and left at least six children.
3. Isaac (b. abt. 1770, d. abt. 1834 probably in Jasper Co. GA*) Moved to Jasper Co. GA by 1812. His land was originally in Washington Co., then Baldwin Co., then Randolph Co., then Jasper Co. GA. His land was sold by his son Kinchen in January, 1835, so he was probably dead by that time. No will or estate have been found at this time. There is a slight chance he may have moved to Upson Co. GA before his death to be with his children who had moved there.
4. Martha Polly (b. 8/19/1771, d. abt. 1846 probably in Franklin Co. NC), m. Braswell Strickland (b. 1/5/1774, d. after 1834 probably in Nash Co. NC)
5. Sarah (b. between 1774 and 1780 probably in Wake or Franklin Co., NC d. bet. 1833 and 1834 probably in Franklin Co. NC) m. John D. Pace (b. bet. 1755 and 1774, d. bet. 1818 and 1826)
6. unknown male Strickland (b. bet. 1774 and 1790 and died bet. 1790 and 1795), probable father of △ Milbry
7. Kinchen (b. abt. 1780/1781, d. bef. 10/8/1863 when his will was probated in Madison Co. GA) Married first Mary (possibly Baker). Married second Sarah H. Branch 3/30/1836 in Madison Co. GA Further research is needed.
8. Charity (cannot find dates) m. James Johnston (cannot find further info on this family) This family was in GA in 1805.
9. Elizabeth (b. unknown, d. bef. 1805) m. Hardy Griffin bef. 2/23/1795 (b. bet. 1770 And 1780, d. aft. 1850) He m. 2nd Divinity Strickland
10. Ruth (b. and death date unknown but probably dead bef. June, 1805) marriage info unknown

RPR NOTE - will assume that Elisha Strickland b. Abt 1723 is the person who was closely associated with the 600⁺ Acre Land Grants about the time of the Revolution in Mann's TWP, Franklin Co, NC - some possibly later became Updowns Land. It appears many of Elisha's 10 children md in Franklin Co, NC & some stayed but most moved South of GA. 2 APR 2008

Dear Mary Edith. ←

I am sending you all that I have and I wish you would find out what you can about the next generations and send it on to me. I am sorry that I don't have more of the dates. I can't remember the grandchildren's names of the second generation.

Had a good time at reunion. We went on to Fuquay and went by to see the Fuquay Spring. They just spent a lot of money restoring it and making a pretty little park.

After that we went by the Horton Farm. Charlie hired a man to put a chain link fence around our old family cemetery and he wanted to see if he had done the work. Naturally, he hadn't. It's hard to get someone to do work now days.

Come and see me sometime.

Love. Pat.

Legal papers answer SOS for plants

By CAROL BLANEY
Staff writer

RALEIGH — Margaret Reid began donning a straw hat, scruffy tennis shoes and slim-legged trousers to rescue plants from the paths of bulldozers 61 years ago.

With the delight of a child, she transplanted trillium and Carolina lilies, hepatica and foam-flowers in her West Raleigh garden, putting together a model of the Triangle's environment in miniature.

"I realized with Cameron Village and shopping centers springing up all over the place, we weren't going to have any woods," she said. That knowledge spurred her to save the plants.

"I said 'Margaret, do it the right way,'" said Reid, 80, a petite woman with a soft cloud of white hair.

Last month, Reid moved to protect the garden by offering a conservation easement on it to the Triangle Land Conservancy, a non-profit preservation group. Future generations will be able to use the plot, now part of the Land Stewardship Award Program, for study and as a reminder of what plants the Piedmont once bore.

The legally binding agreement says future owners of the 2-acre plot surrounding her stately home must preserve its diversity and form, and protect its natural, educational and recreational value.

"That was the most important paper I've ever signed," Reid said. "A hundred years from now, somebody's going to be walking down my trails and enjoying them and studying them and learning from them."

The conservancy will maintain the garden, oversee plant propagation and seed collection, and ration visits, in order to protect the fragile environment Reid so painstakingly built.

In addition, the group is working to raise $100,000 to endow a yearlong internship for a garden manager.

The garden "is a history of the Raleigh area, in a different format from the museums downtown," said Dr. Benson Kirkman, the conservancy's stewardship chairman. The 9-year-old group operates in Wake, Durham, Orange, Chatham, Lee and Johnston counties and has negotiated easements with four other landowners. It also has bought 344 acres outright.

Reid's easement differs from others in that it's urban, Kirkman said, adding that the garden "probably has as great a diversity in a 2-acre plot as is found in a six-county region."

Dr. Benson Kirkman, stewardship chairman for the Triangle Land Conservancy, looks at hearts-a-busting, one of many plants preserved in Margaret Reid's West Raleigh garden

Over the decades, Reid has culled more than 400 species of native plants, in part from the areas that became Cameron Village, Crabtree Valley Mall, South Hills Mall and more housing developments than she cares to spell out.

She remembers fondly the plants that came from each spot and thinks back on Raleigh before decades of building made it sprawl.

"Hillsborough Street was a beautiful street with stately old houses and tall oak trees," she said. From the bell tower "there were fields and woods out to Meredith College."

Reid and her fellow rescue workers, university professors and other friends, also pulled plants from the area that now is Falls Lake. As always, they asked permission before digging.

They'd lug boxes of plants and soil from construction sites, dragging along stumps and stones, for Reid to build what she called "play houses," focal points for the patchwork of her garden.

The mosaic of green leaves, plump red berries, purple monkshood and orange-seeded hearts-a-busting that has grown up is a testimony to her diligence and care.

"You plant your garden and you visualize it," said Reid, who tended the garden on her hands and knees with the help of her husband, Alton, a chemistry professor at N.C. State University. "You plant that picture instead of painting it."

Groups of volunteers and a student intern who likely will work through NCSU and the N.C. Botanical Garden in Chapel Hill will keep her vision up. The workers will limit their use of chemical pesticides and fertilizers, as Reid did.

Green-headed coneflowers add color to the garden

The conservancy, which has the right of first refusal on buying the property, will offer landscaping workshops there, using Reid's design as a model.

"She doesn't like straight lines, because Mother Nature doesn't like straight lines," Kirkman said, pointing out crooked logs, weaving paths and gnarled

Tall tulip poplars, oaks and pines shade the chapellike enclave and shield it from the noise of nearby Dixie Trail. Even in the fall, white asters and green-headed coneflowers splash it with color.

Reid's love of plants bloomed from childhood walks on Moccasin Creek with her parents near their Eastern Wake home. She learned to scout out wild muscadine grapes and blueberries and to love the woods.

She never earned a college degree but picked up a working knowledge of plants by reading voraciously and auditing courses from B.W. Wells, an NCSU botanist.

Reid grew familiar with each plant's habits and learned to recognize seedlings of lady's slippers, one of her favorites, before they were big enough to be noticed by others.

Though Reid used to work daily in her garden, illness temporarily confines her to bed.

But she still oversees the details of weeding and watering, and her reverence for the place lights up her hazel eyes and brings a spark to her slow, rhythmic speech.

"I've always said if I could leave just one little spot on this Earth more beautiful than when I found it," she said, "I would have accomplished something."

Margaret Reid's Graceful Garden is an Ark for N.C. Wildflowers

Editor's note: In August 1992, Margaret B. Reid donated to TLC a conservation easement on her native wildflower garden in Raleigh. The garden contains over 400 species of plants rescued by Mrs. Reid from local sites scheduled for development. Under the terms of this easement, the garden will be used for educational programs concerning native plants and landscaping.

Because the garden is fragile and encircles a private residence, visits to the garden must be scheduled through the TLC office. See the "Calendar of Events" in this issue for activities.

TLC and Mrs. Reid have established an endowment at the Greater Triangle Community Foundation to provide funds to care for the garden. The endowment goal is $100,000, to be raised over the next three years. Of that amount, $14,000 has been pledged or contributed to date.

The following article about the garden was published in The Charlotte Observer June 29, 1992. The photograph accompanied an article about Mrs. Reid's garden published in the January/February 1992 issue of Carolina Gardener.

by Jack Horan

FOR 60 YEARS, Margaret Reid has kept a journal of the growth of Raleigh and Wake County - in her garden.

Her journal records the subdivisions, roads and shopping malls that have turned Raleigh into a fast-growing city of 210,000.

She writes her chapters not with pen and paper but with a palette of wildflowers, plants like yellow lady's slipper, lily-leaved twayblade, and fire pink. Thousands of them. All once grew where subdivisions, roads and malls now stand.

"It's a history of Raleigh, actually," said Reid, 80, amid the trills and squawks of chickadees, thrushes and finches that flit about her Raleigh home.

Since the 1930s, Margaret Reid has gone to countless construction sites, trowel and shovel in hand, and scooped up wildflowers before the bulldozers rolled.

She transplanted them into a "rescue garden" amid towering oaks, poplars and pines on her 2-acre lot in an older residential area. Reid's garden has hundreds of varieties of plants, Piedmont natives that grow from Greensboro to Charlotte to Greenville, S.C.

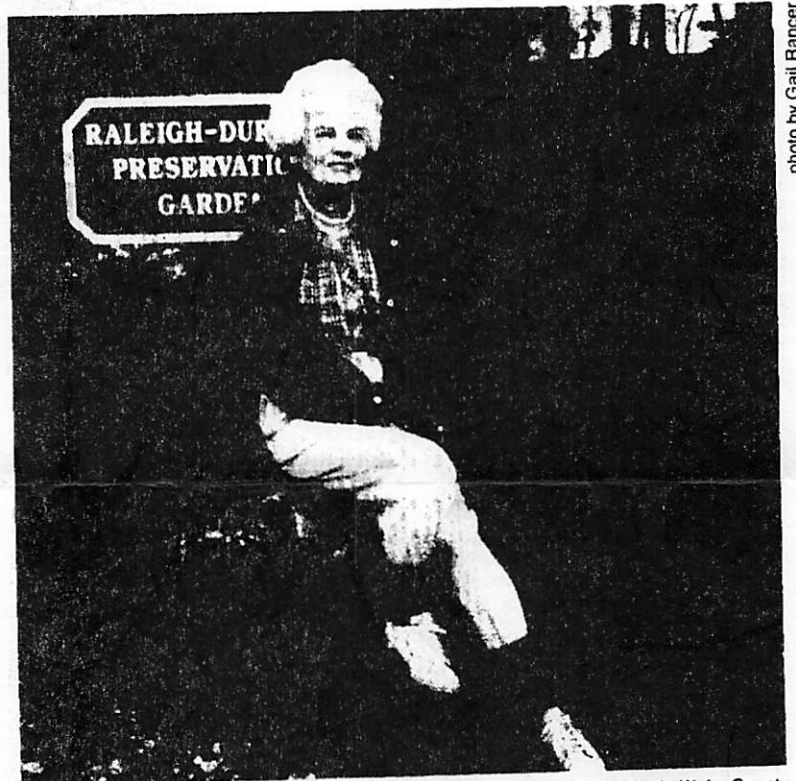

"It's wrong to rob the wild, but it's beautiful to rescue," she said.

The rescue garden has become a mecca for wildflower enthusiasts. The abundance of plants attracts botany and horticulture teachers from nearby N.C. State University. They bring students to study Piedmont flora.

Dr. Benson Kirkman, a friend [and Board Member of TLC], heard about Reid's garden 15 years ago.

"She probably has as many in 2 acres as you're likely to find in 200 acres," Kirkman said.

Kirkman said Reid's garden is more than educational. She has rare species, such as ginseng, that could be used to propagate plants for reintroduction into the wild.

In spring, the garden bursts into a kaleidoscope of yellow, violet, white and red hues. Winding paths pass by hearts a bustin', fly poison (a member of the lily family) and goatsbeard. The

Input to RFD from [△]Simon Rogers by Phone 6 JUN 2007

The following are the best conclusions I could draw from the input but they should be considered tentative due to the usual uncertainty of phone exchanges.

Simon confirms that his mother was nee REBECCA MOORE [[△]MARY REBECCA MOORE] but that she was called "BESSIE". Simon reports that one Bessie [same as MRM?] m'd [△]"Tommy" Vaughan who was killed after they had a child [△]NELLIE DORIS VAUGHAN

W^m Thomas Rogers 1848-1914 (1st Cousin of Simon Rogers b. 1882 m'd 2 BAKER girls. Simon says they were not sisters.

His input for the two - Nellie Baker & Helen Baker

|---------------------|--------------------------|
| △ I. Benjamin Baker | △ I. Henry Baker |
| △ A. Simon Baker | △ A. Harry Baker |
| △ i. HELEN Baker | △ i. Nellie Baker |

However, Simon reports that one of the two girls was born more than 9 months after her "Baker" father had died - she still went by the name of Baker

I made an effort to sort out the several Henry Baker Joneses input I. [△]HENRY BAKER - had 4 sons

- △ A. Joseph Baker
- △ B. Henry Baker
- △ C. Edward Baker "ED"
- △ D. Benjamin Baker.
