Film 'Daddy Hunger' looks at a deep gap in many lives

By Marcus Crowder
BEE STAFF WRITER

The most important parts of our lives can be taken for granted - growing up with a mother and father, for example. Whatever the quality of the relationship, their existence and presence are a given for most of us.

For those without, the absence carries the kind of psychic weight that can be unbearable. It was for Ray Upchurch, a 44-year-old Sacramento-area mortgage broker, until he transformed the uncertainty of not knowing his father into a documentary film.

"Daddy Hunger," the 37-minute film Upchurch has made about the absence of fathers and how it affects the lives of their children, will be screened Wednesday at the Crest Theatre with a reception before and a talk-back discussion afterward.

Upchurch first met his father, a Dartmouth sociology professor, three years ago. The questions about the man who made up one half of his DNA had consumed Upchurch.

"Every day I would think, 'Who is this guy? What does he look like? Why don't I know him?'" Upchurch related.

"I just felt I had to fix this. I didn't want to die not knowing."

Upchurch was experiencing something he had read about in an Essence magazine article about children wanting to know their fathers - what writer Susan Taylor called "daddy hunger."

Upchurch had been told his father taught at the prestigious New England university more than 20 years ago and called him once for a brief conversation. The son then regularly checked the school's faculty database to see if his father was still there. Finally, Upchurch flew to New Hampshire and met the man.

"I walked into his office and said, 'Hey, I'm Ray Upchurch.' He said, 'Welcome' and starts to tell me his story about what happened."

Upchurch made it clear to his father that at that point in his life, he was no longer looking for a father-son relationship. He was looking for what made up a part of his identity.

"You only know half of you. When you don't know (your father) you're in this select group you don't want to be a part of," Upchurch said.

"As soon as I met him, I was better. That hunger was gone."

But what remained for Upchurch was the sense that he was not alone. Especially in the African American community, the number of children being raised without fathers was alarming. As he went out into the African American community and began asking people if they knew their fathers, he found a startling majority who did not.

Upchurch got together with the late videographer John Johnson and began conducting interviews for the film last fall.

After completing principal photography this spring, Johnson was a bystander killed in March during a shooting spree in Elk Grove. Johnson introduced Upchurch to Thomas Drayton, a Fox40 news anchor who served as co-executive producer and director for the film, which Upchurch wrote and financed.

The filmmakers went to Folsom prison and talked with inmates there, as well as interviewing people in Sacramento and in the Bay Area. There also are re-enactments of stories told in the interviews.

"We have a guy in the movie who talks about first meeting his father during a drug deal," Upchurch said.

Upchurch would like to take the movie anywhere he can to help raise awareness and unders problem.

"My mission is simp the hearts of fathers b children and the heart back to their fathers," said.

Proposed City budget cuts revenues, expenses

By MELODIE PHELPS
News Editor

A proposed budget for the City of Monticello, which was presented by council members last week, cuts revenues and expenses by $128,000 for fiscal year 2000-2001.

The budget, which was outlined by council member Milton Roberts during Monday's meeting, includes a decrease in revenues for the city in the next fiscal year. The proposal includes cutting in half the water user fees and regulatory fees (on electric bills) paid by city residents.

To balance out the change in revenues, the new proposal for the fiscal year includes cuts throughout every department of city government. The original budget included five percent cost-of-living increases for all city employees. Many of those have been eliminated in the new proposal.

Raises for all employees in general administration—which includes the mayor, the clerk-treasurer and their assistants—were eliminated in the new proposal.

ceived a five percent cost-of-living raise when the new fiscal year began.

The raise was also dropped from

The city will no longer belong to the Chamber of Commerce, since annual dues are eliminated from the proposed budget. Also gone is the new computer and printer that was budgeted for the dispatch department.

Monticello Police officers did receive the increase, but Monticello Police Chief Ralph Miniard did not, according to the proposal.

In the street department, Supervisor Ray Upchurch was not given the raise. The other employee was given the increase, according to the proposal.

No raise was given to employees in the dispatch department. Dispatchers who work at the 911 center, but who are paid by the county rethe salary of the Monticello Fire Chief. All employees saw additional compensation (which is basically a Christmas bonus) cut in half with the new proposal.

All overtime has also seen cuts in the new proposal. For example, holiday and overtime pay for the police department as reduced by $5,600 for the year. Overtime for dispatching was reduced by $1,125. And overtime for the street department. Please See BUDGET Page 8-A

He had looked at my website & the video & concluded that he might be the John, ID/Build & Sublan because his answers were from MS
- although Ray was born in CA. He spent about 15 minutes on my notebook & I could not confirm his lineage. Will have to check & get back to him. Shady details he provided.

His Father = ROBERT DONALD U b ABOUT 1937 (MS?)
d 2006 age 69 - was ROSECRANS CEM, SAN DIEGO
CO, CA.

His Uncle = EDWARD U - one of 9 siblings

His GF = CARL U. - lived Jacksonville, MS

② 7 JUN 2015 at 6:45 am I sent an email to RMU but got an alert

③ 8 JUN 2015- I called Ray & left a message
He got back to me on his work
phone (He works for U. S. Gov't)

He corrected the email address

- showed he . COX not . FOX. - He now

says his GF not CARL but rather CHARLES
I agreed.

Hi Ray---

After your call on June 5 I have spent considerable time trying to place you and your group of Upchurches into the family tree. By the slimest of margins I have been able to do so. Before sharing the details with you I would like some more confirming information from you to make sure we do not follow a false lead. Some of what you provided was helpful and some will require tweaking to make it fit into the family records.

I was able to find the burial records for your father. The key is you have to enter Fort Rosecrans Cemetery not just Rosecrans as I was doing when we talked.

Would you provide as much of the following as you can:

1. What was maiden name of your mother?
2. Can you give me the names of any of the siblings of your father beyond the name Edward you have already provided?
3. You say your grandfather was named Carl. I do not believe this to be so although that could have been a nickname. Do you know the name of his wife?
4. Are there any other bits of information you can supply.

With your help I am sure we can establish your line. In due course I hope to have more information for you and I hope you will join with us in getting details correct and preserving them for the long term and sharing them. We have some special ways of doing this which I can go into later.

Best~

Phil Upchurch

Hi Ray----

Thanks for the input in your email of the 14th. Since that time I have had to make a trip to North Carolina due to the passing of my 93 year-old brother-in-law. Now I have found time to do more work on your Upchurch heritage and can give you an interim report. I have more to do.

You are of the Moses U./Courtney U. SubClan and of the Moses U. Line in this SubClan. This second Moses was the father of Mark Wesley U whose son William Harrison U.,Sr was the father of your GF Charlie William U. With this information you should be able to return to my website www.upchurchstory.com --password 2013upchurch#--- and there find many passages about your heritage. Note especially the video on your ancestor Moses U. He was brother of my GGGF Nathan U.,I. They and their brother Charles served in the Revolution.

I invite you to visit our other website www.alliedfamilies.com--password 2014allied#. There we are doing family history in a more powerful way and building momentum month by month. I hope you will join with us in this effort. The 2015 membership is only $20. A membership form is attached.

Note that under the banner of Allied Families we have made good progress in enrolling the Moses U. Clan to which you belong. We would welcome your help in moving this enrollment along. We need time/money/advice/expertise/data. All who contribute as much as $50 toward the enrollment of this family will be considered a Cosponsor. We have a cousin in Texas who is transcribing the Biofiles for Moses U and his children to be put online.

I have now spent considerable time updating my Master Outline for the family of your ancestor William Harrison U. Sr. He had at least 21 children by two wives. The second child by his first wife was you ancestor Charlie William U. I show Charlie had a least 7 children. You can let me know if you want some of this detail.

Most of the family of Moses U. stayed in N.C. and I have spent years digging out details. His son Courtney left about 1835 as I recall for Mississippi. We have had a lot of cooperators who have supplied details. There is always more to do.

Can you tell me a little of the story of how your part of the family moved from MS to CA. I have a little CA connection in that I did graduate work at UC-Davis 1950-1953. Also consulted with Shell on Ag detail at Modesto in the 1970's.

You can let me know of any special interests you have in your Upchurch heritage--there is great deal to it.

Best~

Phil Upchurch
