County employees to receive 5% pay raise

By MELODIE PHELPS
News Editor

County employees will receive a five percent pay increase, beginning in July, according to a budget ordinance which was approved during the Thursday, June 15 meeting of Wayne County Fiscal Court.

Magistrates approved the raise by a 3-1 vote with Wade Upchurch, who represents District Four, opposing the measure. Upchurch asked if this five percent increase would include employees who had received raises when the pay scale was adjusted earlier this year.

"If we add five percent to that and equate that out, it could be about a 10 percent raise for some employees," Upchurch stated.

County Judge-Executive Bruce Ramsey noted that the pay scale had been adjusted in January, which was a different fiscal year. The new fiscal year begins July 1. He noted this is a cost-of-living increase for employees.

Magistrates Dwight Dobbs, Ricky Worley, and Jerry Sloan voted in favor of the increase, while Upchurch was opposed.

The second reading of a budget ordinance for fiscal year 2000-2001 was approved during the meeting. The budget includes $2,205,018 in the general fund, $1,130,656 in the road fund, and $1,100,609 in the jail fund.

Bids for services and other items were opened during the meeting Thursday night. Fifteen bids for contracted services, which includes backhoe and dozer work, dump truck service and gravel hauling, were submitted, and all the bids were accepted.

In District Three, Worley submitted 2,750 feet of the Strawberry Road and Log Haven Road for blacktopping. In District Four, Upchurch submitted the Boston Hill Road and three-tenths of a mile of the Virginia Jones Road for blacktopping.

A list of road adoption guidelines, submitted by Upchurch, was not approved during the meeting. Upchurch had suggested at a previous meeting that the county set up some guidelines for accepting roads into the system, and had provided a list to other magistrates.

Upchurch made the motion to accept the proposed guidelines, but the action died for lack of a second.

Fiscal Court members hear budget ordinance

By MELODIE PHELPS
News Editor

Magistrates heard the first reading of a budget ordinance for the 2000-2001 fiscal year, during the regular monthly meeting held Thursday, May 11.

The proposed budget for the year, including all funds, totaled $4,990,238, according to the first reading of the document. The general fund was budgeted at $2,213,831, while the jail fund budget was set at $1,100,609.

The county's road fund was budgeted at $1,130,656, according to the document. The first reading of the ordinance requires no action. It will require a second reading and approval for passage.

Fiscal court members wanted more information before they agreed to lease property to the Hope Center. County Judge-Executive Bruce Ramsey said the county had received a letter from Hope Center officials, inquiring about the possibility of leasing property located on Bypass 90, across from the hospital entrance.

Ramsey said the property would have to be surveyed before any decision was made by the court. He noted that a lease with the hospital seemed to indicate the property was not part of land leased for the medical facility, but asked that County Attorney Vernon Miniard, Jr. check into the lease.

Magistrate Wade Upchurch suggested the court would need to obtain more information about the property, as well as any plans that Hope Center officials might have for the land. Ramsey appointed Upchurch and Magistrate Jerry Sloan to find out more information and report back to the court.

Upchurch introduced the possibility of the county setting up some specific guidelines for road adoption. He said that he had reviewed plans from other counties and had that information available for the other magistrates.

Ramsey suggested the court hold a work session on the subject and that was set for May 16 at 7:30 p.m.

Recognition

Magistrate Wade Upchurch presented Boy Scout Seth Bowman with a special plaque of recognition for his tree planting project at the Sportsman Club. Bowman was recognized at the Fiscal Court meeting on May 11.

Solid Waste Coordinator Andrew Parmley presented a report to the court, noting that 2,010 bags of garbage had been picked up along the state and county right-of-ways during Commonwealth Cleanup Week. He also noted that 2,000 tires had been disposed of during the recent clean-up effort and the county would be reimbursed for those costs.

*Recognized Boy Scout Seth Bowman for his tree-planting efforts at the Sportsman's Club. Bowman was presented a plaque by Magistrate Upchurch.

MHS Hall of Fame inductions made during annual banquet

By MELODIE PHELPS
News Editor

WADE
U =

Former MHS coach and player Wade Upchurch accepts a plaque from hall of Fame Committee member Ralph Miniard.

Basketball fan Montie Upchurch accepted the honor from Hall of Fame Committee member Ralph Miniard.

It was an evening to smile, laugh, cry, hug, and tell stories, as six inductions were made into the Monticello High School Athletic Hall of Fame. The inductions were part of a special Hall of Fame Banquet held Saturday evening in the school's auditorium.

This marked the second year for the Monticello Hall of Fame, and the event has certainly become a popular one at the school. The event was a sell-out, and Hall of Fame Committee members were pleased with banquet.

This year's inductees were introduced during halftime of Friday night's boys basketball game with Pulaski County, then gathered back together Saturday night, along with family and friends, for the formal ceremony.

Among those inducted were former Monticello basketball star and coach Wade Upchurch. Upchurch was a member of the Class of 1969 and led the Trojan team to a state tournament appearance his senior year. He played collegiate basketball at Eastern Kentucky University, and returned to Monticello High School as a coach in 1980.

His mother, Montie Upchurch, who has been attending basketball games for almost five decades, was inducted into the Hall of Fame for her tremendous support of Monticello basketball. Better known as "Granny" to Monticello fans, she has been recognized for the distinction of having four sons coach in the state basketball tournament.

MHS Hall of Fame inductees are selected

By MELODIE PHELPS
News Editor

The six inductees who will enter the Monticello High School Athletic Hall of Fame this year have been selected, committee members announced last week.

They include: Ed Lee Caylor, Duane Dunagan, Shane Blevins, Wade Upchurch, Montie Upchurch, and the girls basketball team of 1974-75. This group will be honored during Alumni Weekend, December 3-4. The inductees will be introduced during halftime of Monticello's basketball game on Friday, December 3.

Former basketball player and coach Wade Upchurch will be inducted into the Hall of Fame this year. Upchurch, who was a member of the Class of 1973, led teams to the state tournament as both a player and a coach. In fact, since 1960, Monticello has won four regional championships, and Upchurch has played or coached in three of the four. Only one person has been a part of more championships in boys basketball at Monticello—the late Coach Joe Harper.

Upchurch played varsity basketball at Monticello for five years and varsity baseball for four years. Upchurch ran track and also played golf at the school. He was Second Team All-State in 1969, the year he helped lead the Trojans to a regional championship and a state tournament appearance. Upchurch was a Kentucky All-Star in 1969. He was All-Region for two seasons and was also an All-District player during his high school career.

Upchurch was part of championship teams in other sports he was involved with at the school. He was a member of the regional championship track team in 1966 and the district baseball championship squad of 1969.

Upchurch played basketball for Eastern Kentucky University. He broke the ECU freshman scoring record with 44 points in one game. He was a member of the 1972 Ohio Valley Championship team and played in the NCAA tournament, losing to Florida State by two points.

He was Honorable Mention All-Conference in 1973 and was a member of the Kentucky College All-Stars in 1973.

Upchurch came back to Monticello as a coach in 1980, succeeding his former coach Joe Harper. He retired following the 1995-96 season.

Another Upchurch will be included in the Hall of Fame this year—Montie Upchurch. She has been a supporter of Monticello basketball for many years and is described as the "ultimate fan."

The mother of four former Monticello Trojan players and the grandmother of four former Monticello Trojan or Lady Trojan players, the 79-year-old is known as Granny to those associated with Monticello basketball.

Montie attended Wayne County and Monticello basketball games to watch her sons play, then went to Eastern Kentucky to watch son Wade Upchurch play collegiate basketball. She is the widow of Roscoe Upchurch and has eight children.

From the 1980-81 season, when her son became the Trojan coach, through the 1995-96 season, Montie attended every Monticello home basketball game except one—when there was a death in the family.

Montie has attended high school games on a regular basis for a period stretching over five decades. As we enter the new century, she is currently attending junior high school games of another grandson.

Montie was recognized by a Lexington television station last spring in regard to having four sons coach in the Kentucky High School State Basketball Tournament.

With the induction of her son Wade into the Monticello Hall of Fame, Montie also has another unique distinction. She has a son in the Hall of Fame at both local high schools. Son Jack, who played and coached at Wayne County, has been inducted in the Cardinal Hall of Fame.

△ 4 Hilliard YATES b 9/24/1826 d 6/3/1884 m Kiddy BATCHELOR b abt 1824 d 1881

NOTE: Proven child of Jesse and Milia Harrison Yates per their estate records at NC Archives in Raleigh, NC. Hilliard's will is recorded in Wake Will Book A page 447. Both buried at the "Old Place" Yates-Lewler cemetery on Old Place road off Green Hope School Road in Wake Co NC. This cemetery is on the former Hilliard Yates farm which is now part of the the USA National Baseball Training Center and adjacent Fred Bond Park softball Center on Green Level Church Road. Hilliard's obituary is listed in the Jul 6, 1884 Biblical Recorder, a copy of which is at the Wake Forest Univ. Library in Winston Salem, NC. The entry reads: YATES, Hilliard mbr. Mt Pisgah, wake. Photos of the homeplace are on file at the NC Archives incorrectly labeled as the Hillman Yates farm. Hilliard and brother Hinton Yates were among the heirs to Bennett Batchelor's estate. Bennett Batchelor was Kiddy Batchelor Yates's and Milly (Molly) Batchelor Yates's father. Their mother was Martha Yates Batchelor. The 'Batchelor Farm was purchased in 1836 from the estate of Westin (Western) B Yates, son of Alsey and Cynthia Boasley Yates. Western B Yates was living in Mecklenburg Co NC at the time of his death.

Listed in the 1850 Wake Co NC census pg 212a in Western Division as Hilliard and Kiddy Yates with son William (3) and daughter Margaret (1) in the home. Margaret is later called 'Patsey A7. Listed in the 1860 Wake Co NC census pg 48a in Southern Division as Hilliard and Kiddy Yates with son William (12), and daughters Martha (11), Milly (9) and Francis (2) in the home. Martha is later called 'Patsey A7. Listed in the 1870 Wake Co NC census pg 448b in White Oak township as Hilliard and Kiddy Yates with daughters Patsey A (21), Milly Yates (18) and Fanny J (12) and nephew Brantley Yates (14) the home. The census doesn't state Brantley is a nephew, but I'm assuming this is the son of Hilliard's brother, Meritt D Yates and wife Louisa Harward (Howard) Yates. Listed in the 1880 Wake Co NC census pg 503c as Hilliard and Kiddy Yates with daughters Patsey A (34) and Milly Yates (30) and nephew Henry Maynard (17) in the home. Henry Maynard was the son of Hilliard Yates' sister Nancy and husband Sidney H Maynard.

Hilliard Served in the Confederacy during the Civil War in Company H, 47th Infantry Regiment NC Enlisted on 11 March 1862 at the age of 38. POW on 02 April 1865 at Sutherland's Station, VA Confined on 07 April 1865 at Hart's Island, NY Harbor. Took Oath of Allegiance on 19 June 1865 at Hart's Island, NY Harbor DISTINGUISHED SERVICE.

Hi Phil,

I am so excited to hear back from you. I will give you what information I know right off the top of my head. If that doesn't lead you anywhere, then I will contact my Aunt, as she has done a little research herself. My great-grandmother's name was Bethel, but I'm assuming that she was only married to an Upchurch and I don't know my great-grandfather's name. I know I can get that and maybe even a generation further back if you need it, from my Aunt. I don't know how many children my great-grandmother Bethel had, but I do know she had a son named Cecil and my grandfather, Casto. My grandfather, Casto Upchurch, married Margaret Harris. They had seven children; Shirley, Carolyn, Louise, Wanda, Charles, Robert (my father), and the baby was Larry, who was hit and killed by a drunk driver when he was 17, I believe. My great-grandma Bethel lived in TN up until the time of her death. We have an Upchurch Cemetery in TN that I've visited. There's been a story passed down from my family that my great-grandma told. She used to babysit for Alvin C. York and his wife, Gracie. He was known to be quite a drinker, she said, and when Gracie's parents found out they didn't want her seeing him and my great-grandmother used to sneak letters to her from him/him to her, not sure. Anyway, they became good friends and she watched their children. I don't know how much truth there is to it-maybe some parts are and some aren't. Still a neat story. :) I had only met my great-grandmother a handful of times and she was very old, at that point. So, I never really got to know her. I have heard she was quite a pistol and somewhat of a tough/mean woman. Ha! I do know my particular clan of Upchurch's are very close to the York clan that's in Jamestown, TN, but I don't know if there's any connection other than just friendship. I hope this can get you started. If it isn't enough information to give you any leads, let me know and I will get in touch with my Aunt and dig back a little further. I can also give you the names of all the spouses, kids, grandkids, etc., if you need anything like that. Thank-you for your time!!

Sincerely,
Marcie

In any case, I hope you and I can work together to improve our documentation for the Lynhurch Family. Do you have any organized information on your part of the family you could send me without too much trouble. I could then use this to update my records and set the stage to send you some organized material. Alternatively, I could send you a list of details I am missing.

I am always pleased to find another potential cooperator and look forward to working with you. In the meantime I will try to locate a copy of the book "KILLINGS".
Thanks for the tip.

Sincerely yours

Mr. and Mrs. Upchurch gave a section of this land for the building of Bethany Baptist Church and the establishment of a church cemetery in the early part of the century. After they inherited the farm, "Snooky" and "Joe," as they are better known, contributed another section of land for the enlargement of both the church and the cemetery and provided water also for the church.

Δ Mrs. Waylon Upchurch was the former Ala O. Cotten of Creedmore. Her mother died at her birth and her Aunt, the well-known Sally Southall Cotton, took her into her home and raised her as a daughter. Mrs. Upchurch came to Bethany as a bride in 1897.

⑧ ITEM(S) IN LETTER 19 DEC 1995 MARGARET BLANCHE BROWN TO RPU [FROM VARIOUS NC NEWSPAPERS] 31 JUL 1891

The case against Allen Upchurch and Blanche Winfree, a young white woman who lives with them, which was removed from before Justice Barbee to Justice Marcom, came up yesterday morning in the court house. They are charged with an attempt to conceal the birth of a child of which Blanche Winfree is the alleged mother. The prosecution was instituted by Beauregard Temple, of St. Matthew's township, a neighbor of Allen Upchurch. After hearing the evidence, the prosecuting attorney withdrew the charge and the case was dismissed.

The connection of this Allen Upchurch to the main Upchurch family is uncertain but likely he is one of the two individuals by that name shown below.

Next we drove to the Bethany Church Area and stopped to inspect property once owned by Waylon U. It is in the SW corner of the intersection but not quite to the crossroad. Jean recalls visiting here in her youth and remembered the graveyard which stood on the south side of the house and that there were graves of several infants. Jean got the occupant of the house to come out for a visit and she showed us the gravestones which are on adjoining property. We read some names on the stones looking over the fence as follows:

WILBERT CARLYLE 8 NOV 1911 - 25 OCT 1914

S/O M/M A. C. BROUGHTON

JOHN LEA WEATHERS 1866 - 1913

TEMPLE A. GRIFFIN 1869 - ?

WIFE OF J. L. WEATHERS

It was out back of the house that the mother* of Jane Rebecca Bell, Jr was murdered. One story is that thieves stole goods and were moving away in a buggy and the female was killed accidentally as an attempt was made to stop the thieves. Another version is that the mother* was killed because of infidelity.

THE SMITHFIELD HERALD

SMITHFIELD, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1922

WHITE WOMAN IS KILLED BY UNCLE

Miss Essie Upchurch, of Eagle Rock, Shot Late Saturday Night.

Miss Essie Upchurch, formerly Mrs. Joris R. Bell, and a daughter of W. A. Upchurch, a well known citizen of the Zebulon section, was shot and instantly killed by her uncle, C. L. Cotton, at the home of her sister three miles from Eagle Rock, about midnight Saturday night. Cotton was released under a bond of $1,000 at the direction of Solicitor Norris yesterday.

Killing of the woman was unintentional. Cotton was aiming at a man whose identity has not been established, who was in company with the dead woman at the time. They had just emerged from a tobacco house on the premises, and when they were accosted by Cotton, the man cursed him and threatened to shoot. Cotton shot first. The woman fell to the ground and the man fled.

Cotton who is a man of 45 and well known in his community, had gone to the house of his niece after supper Saturday night. Members of the family told him that they had suspicious that tobacco was being stolen from the strip-house, and he volunteered to watch the place for possible burglars. Armed with a shotgun he sat down to wait.

Miss Upchurch was seen to leave the dwelling earlier in the evening and go to the strip house. Later she returned to her room, and then went back to the strip house again. Between 11 and 12 o'clock Cotton saw her emerge from the house, accompanied by a man, according to the story he told of the killing to Solicitor Norris yesterday. He called on them to halt.

The man became abusive, cursed Cotton and threatened to shoot him, according to the man who did the shooting. He had a pistol, and was about to open fire when Cotton shot.

The woman dropped, shot through the left breast. She died without uttering a word. The man who was with her at the time ran, entering his automobile which had been left standing two hundred yards away.

Cotton immediately went in search of an officer and gave himself up. W. A. Upchurch, father of the woman who was killed, and brother-in-law to Cotton, signed his bond yesterday afternoon before T. Lloyd Tilley, deputy clerk of the court.

Corsicana Daily Sun, Mon. March 8, 1965

By LEONARD STEWART
Daily Sun Staff

A fresh pot of coffee on smoldering coals and a flat-bottomed aluminum skiff. One man was missing and two others were in Memorial hospital in Corsicana after a boat mishap near Bazette.

It was nearly 5:30 p.m. Sunday about six and a half to seven miles northeast of Kerens on the west side of the swift and treacherous Trinity River, running high from recent rains.

Boat after boat, used to search for the body of W. B. "Butch" Upchurch, 58, had been pulled from the muddy Trinity shallows and the pickups used to bring them to the river were disappearing towards Kerens and the setting sun down a twisting red, sandy road.

"Corsicana Emergency Corps" was the lettering on another aluminum craft, just slightly larger than the skiff that was only feet from the pot of coffee. It was now over 24 hours since Butch Upchurch had disappeared under the Trinity's swift main channel current in water estimated to be anywhere from 25 to 40 or 50 feet deep.

Search efforts begun Saturday had been called off at sunset Saturday evening at the request of the Upchurch family and were resumed Sunday morning.

Boats from as far as Arlington joined in what appeared to be a futile search — that is, a search futile to many on the west bank but apparently not so hopeless to a beautiful Plott hound with the missing man's name and address on a brass tag on its collar.

The dog had lain in the sunshine of midday Sunday, sleeping while boats put in and persons milled about a table piled high with food prepared by family and friends of Upchurch, and coffee and sandwiches brought in by the Corsicana unit of the Salvation Army Saturday.

Two Rescued

It and another hound had gone as far as they could on the west bank Saturday and howled after Upchurch, Ben Hillhouse, 41, of Kerens and Ben's 15-year-old son, John Ed, had fallen from the flat-bottomed skiff now pulled onto the bank near the pot of coffee.

Sam Upchurch, brother of Butch, rescued John Ed after about five hours in a river-surrounded tree approximately 50 yards upstream from where Butch was last seen late Saturday afternoon.

SEARCHERS' VIEW OF BANK—This photo was taken as the Ellis county emergency corps boat put in Sunday to the west bank of the Trinity at the scene of the apparent drowning which occurred Saturday morning. The boat was a large one supplied by Taylor of Texas, Waxahachie, and besides Leonard Stewart, Daily Sun reporter and photographer, contained Wayne McCollum, sheriff of Ellis county; Tommy Sutherland, Waxahachie, driving the boat, and Clyde Roark, Waxahachie, both of the Ellis county emergency corps. (Daily Sun Photo)

Sam related it this way: The trio had gone out in the boat to set out trot lines for morning fishing Saturday. They were motoring along when they saw a squirrel in the numerous trees along this stretch of the Trinity.

The engine was stopped so they could watch the squirrel. The swift current swung the boat about and into a row of thin trees, Sam Upchurch said. The three occupants fell into the chilly water.

Hillhouse helped his son into a tree — a spot marked Sunday morning by the boy's coat still framed in the limbs. Upchurch held to limbs for a long time. He was wearing wading boots and a heavy coat and apparently could not pull himself up into the limbs.

Can't Hold On

He held on for as long as he could, Sam continued. He finally told the boy he was going to have to let go, he was so weak. The boy recalls seeing him come up once as the swift current swept him downstream.

The boy last saw Butch's coat come to the surface, apparently still on Butch, but the man's head did not surface. That was the last seen of him and that was just before, or during dusk, Saturday.

Hillhouse managed to get a hold on a log and was almost to the west bank when he was heard by Jerry Shelton and another man unknown to Sam Upchurch. The two pulled the unconscious Hillhouse from the water.

Sam met them coming up the road about half a mile from where Hillhouse was pulled to safety. He had an outboard motor in his car and his boat was already moored at the bank for afternoon fishing. He is on vacation. Sam rushed down to the river.

He heard someone "holler" and thought it was his brother Butch. He put in with his own outboard. He made one try to get to the approximate area where the weak cry came from and could not get through thick brush.

Then Boy Saved

"I went on up the river and came down the channel," Sam recalls. He first saw a coat in the tree, then the boy who was so weak he was no longer crying out, according to Sam.

Funeral services will be held at Bazette at 4 p.m. today for drowning victim W. B. "Butch" Upchurch, 54, whose body was recovered two days ago in Trinity River near the spot where he drowned almost a month ago — Feb. 13. Two Kerens residents, Ben Hillhouse and his son, John Ed, 15, managed to swim to safety after their boat capsized.

Note Of Thanks

We express our deepest gratitude and abiding appreciation to all those persons and groups who aided in the search for the body of our beloved W. B. "Butch" Upchurch. The Corps of Engineers, The Corsicana Rescue Unit, the Waco Coast Guard Unit, and other units from Waxahachie, Canton, Arlington and the Naval Helicopters, as well as countless friends were especially helpful. The concern, food and other courtesies of friends and neighbors assisted us in facing the ordeal. God comforted us through you.

The Upchurch Family.

Emergency corps from Corsicana, Waxahachie, Athens, and later in the day, Sunday, rescue crew from Arlington, searched the channel and the shallows vainly for Butch. Grappling hooks were used and the Arlington group had two skin divers who decided not to make an effort because of the swift cold currents, very muddy water, and treacherously thick brush and underbrush in this section of the river.

Also helping were three game wardens—G. E. Schuh, Mexia; B. E. Bergstrom, Fairfield; and Nick Gerganess; Deputies Harold Pitts and C. W. Blackmon from the Corsicana Sheriff's department; Corsicana Police Chief Bill Onstott; Vernon Crook, Highway Patrolman, and other officers.

Marshall Weems, chief of the Corsicana Emergency Corps, said that the search would be continued by at least two game wardens who are, according to Weems, suppose to patrol the river in the vicinity of the apparent drowning until Upchurch's body is found.

Upchurch's family consists of his wife; a daughter, Dorothy Valentine, Mexia; four sisters, Mrs. Tom Tramel, Kerens, Mrs. G. C. Watt, Bazette, Mrs. Fred Tramel, Corsicana, Mrs. M. B. Howell, Waco, three brothers, Tommy and R. J. of Kerens, and Sam, of Stanton; two grandchildren, and other relatives.

Helicopters Help

Also helping in the search was the sheriff of Ellis County, Wayne McCollum; and Navy helicopters.

The pot of coffee left near the bank Sunday evening, and more small than large boats, including the apparent death craft, and the Corsicana Emergency Corps' boat symbolized two feelings held by numerous persons on the bank throughout the day Sunday.

One, the desperate hope that Butch Upchurch might be found, and, that the coffee would be of comfort to anyone still looking for him. The family had asked the emergency corpsmen to call off the search again at dusk Sunday. The corpsmen, all volunteers, have regular jobs to return to Monday.

The second feeling was that the small boats were vastly inadequate for this sort of search work.

A pathetic final note to the day's brave but unsuccessful efforts was the pulling away by a wrecker of the CEC's 1949 rescue truck, which threw a rod on the way to the scene.

John Hillhouse stated Sunday at Memorial Hospital where he and his father were brought in a Paschal ambulance that the trio were in a motorboat and as they pulled the craft into the swift running water in the slough, the boat turned sideways, filled with water, and sank, throwing them into the icy floodwaters.

John and his father reached safety in a tree and the father admonished his son to get higher in the tree and stay there as he sought to make his way to the shore and safety.

Mrs. Hillhouse, wife of Ben and mother of John, said her husband then slipped into the icy stream and fought his way toward the bank and safety, but became so cold before reaching the bank that he grabbed a tree where he lapsed into unconsciousness.

The father was found about 4 p.m. but could not tell his rescuers where his son was located.

Planned Stew

Mrs. Hillhouse said her husband, Upchurch and other friends had planned a squirrel stew in the Bazette area on Saturday night and had a trot-line in the slough that they were running for fish. In the meantime, the river had risen. She said her son rode his motorscooter to Bazette after school Friday afternoon to join his father.

Corsicana police department, and Emergency Corps from Corsicana, Athens, Waxahachie, Ennis and Kaufman, and scores and scores of others joined in the hunt for the missing man all night Saturday and Sunday.

A McCammon ambulance answered the call Saturday afternoon but did not bring either of the Hillhouses to the hospital.

Many friends and acquaintances of the Hillhouse family called at the hospital room Sunday afternoon as the news of the tragedy spread.

The crest of the Trinity river flood is scheduled to be reached at Trinidad, Monday, several miles downstream from the scene of the capsizing of the boat, and some officials have expressed the fear that unless Upchurch's body is lodged in some drift or against a tree it may be found some distance downstream after the floodwaters subside.

Deputy Pitts reported Monday afternoon that the river is dropping, so much so that boats cannot be put in where they were launched Sunday. "It's too muddy," he explained.

Pitts and Sheriff Rufus Pevehouse were in the vicinity of the accident Monday morning. Deputy C. W. Blackmon remained there into the afternoon.

A large boat from Palestine was among those being used in the search, Pitts said. This craft was launched near the highway bridge on Highway 31 at Trinidad which is approximately 25 winding miles downstream from where the accident occurred Saturday morning, according to the estimate of one observer.

LONG VIGIL—Lynn Allen Warren, aged 7, of Kerens, is shown with back to camera while waiting for some word about Butch Upchurch who disappeared Saturday in the floodwaters of the Trinity. The side of the death boat is visible to the right of boat facing bank. Upchurch's dog is shown in foreground. Tommy Upchurch, Kerens, Route 1, brother, and Sam Upchurch, Stanton, brother, in dark clothes and sitting are shown. (Daily Sun Photo)

- ② See Obituary of David Thomas U who died 26 AUG 2006 in Goldsboro, NC. He was survived by his son Jeremy U who lived with his wife WENDY - - in Four Oaks, NC. David Thomas U is shown as having "a granddaughter SARA and a grandson CHASE JOHNSON"
[NOTE: Presumably the female is nee SARA U but this is not certain as the male seems to have the last name JOHNSON. Possibly "WENDY" had been married before she met Jeremy U to a Mr JOHNSON]

① on 13 AUG 1984 Mrs Ruth Isakoff reported to RPH that a Wendy U had appeared the previous SAT night at 7:00 PM on Ed McMahon's Star Search (Channel 11) and that she would appear again on 18 AUG 84. Wendy U is from NC

② 18 AUG 84

RPH watched the Star Search Program. No Upchurch was identified but there was a singing group from Raleigh, NC identified as SIDEWINDER and it was led by an attractive young female - possibly Wendy U.
